Editor's note- On July 23, 2007, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2007, ch. 596.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment, in the first sentence, inserted "other" and "and is capable of receiving voted paper ballots"; deleted the former last two sentences, which read: "The Secretary of State shall approve a ballot bag to be used as provided in this section by December 31, 2007. Any changes to the ballot bag by the Secretary of State after December 31, 2007, shall be approved by the Legislature"; and made a minor stylistic change.

§ 23-15-5. Elections Support Fund created; use of funds; deposit of portion of monies into State General Fund.

(1) There is created in the State Treasury a special fund to be known as the Elections Support Fund. Monies derived from annual report fees imposed upon limited liability companies under Section 79-29-1203 shall be deposited into the Elections Support Fund. Unexpended amounts remaining in the fund at the end of the fiscal year shall not lapse into the State General Fund, and any interest earned or investment earnings on amounts in the fund shall be disbursed as provided in subsection (2) of this section. The expenditure of monies in the fund shall be under the direction of the Secretary of State as provided by subsection (2) of this section, and such funds shall be paid by the State Treasurer upon warrants issued by the Department of Finance and Administration.

(2)(a) Monies in the fund shall be used as follows:

(i) Fifty percent (50%) of the monies in the special fund shall be distributed annually to the counties, upon appropriation of the Legislature, based on the proportion that the population of a county bears to the total population in all counties of the state population according to the most recent information from the United States Census Bureau, and held in a separate fund solely for the purpose of acquiring, upgrading, maintaining or repairing voting equipment, systems and supplies, hiring temporary technical support, conducting elections using such voting equipment or systems, employing such personnel to conduct an election, and training election officials; and

(ii) The remaining fifty percent (50%) of the monies in the special fund shall be deposited in the State General Fund.

(b) The Secretary of State shall create standard training guidelines to assist counties in training election officials with the funds authorized under subsection (2)(a)(ii) of this section. Any criteria established by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section shall be used in addition to any other training or coursework prescribed by the Secretary of State to train circuit clerks, poll managers and any other election officials participating in county elections.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no monies from the Elections Support Fund shall be used by the Secretary of State or any person associated with the Office of the Secretary of State to provide or otherwise support expert testimony in any manner for any hearing, trial or election contest.

Joint Legislative Committee Note- Section 2 of Chapter 441, Laws of 2017, effective from and after July 1, 2017 (approved April 18, 2017), amended this section. Section 5 of Chapter 7, Laws of 2017, First Extraordinary Session, effective from and after passage (approved June 23, 2017), also amended this section. As set out above, this section reflects the language of Section 5 of Chapter 7, Laws of 2017, First Extraordinary Session, which contains language that specifically provides that it supersedes § 23-15-5 as amended by Chapter 441, Laws of 2017.

Editor's note- Laws of 2016, ch. 459, § 1, codified as § 27-104-201, provides:

"SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the 'Mississippi Budget Transparency and Simplification Act of 2016.' "

Amendments- The 2016 amendment added (3) and (4).

The first 2017 amendment (ch. 441), effective July 1, 2017, in (2)(a), inserted "and held in a separate fund solely" and "employing such personnel to conduct an election" in (i), and substituted "purpose of upgrading, maintaining or equipping" for "purpose of maintaining, upgrading or equipping" and added "and acquiring, upgrading or maintaining any other election-related site or system or providing technical training to election officials" in (ii).

The second 2017 amendment (ch. 7, 1st Ex Sess), effective June 23, 2017, in (2)(a), inserted "upon appropriation of the Legislature" in (i), and rewrote (ii), which read: "The remaining fifty percent (50%) of the monies in the special fund shall be allocated annually to the Secretary of State and expended for the purpose of maintaining, upgrading or equipping the Statewide Elections Management System"; and rewrote (3), which read: "From and after July 1, 2016, the expenses of this agency shall be defrayed by appropriation from the State General Fund and all user charges and fees authorized under this section shall be deposited into the State General Fund as authorized by law."

Cross references- Prohibition against one state agency charging another state agency fees, etc., for services or resources received, see § 27-104-203.

Defrayal of expenses of certain state agencies by appropriation of Legislature from General Fund, see § 27-104-205.

(1) The Secretary of State shall negotiate a Memorandum of Understanding which shall be entered into by the Mississippi Department of Public Safety and the registrar of each county for the purpose of providing a Mississippi Voter Identification Card. The card shall be valid for the purpose of voter identification purposes under Section 23-15-563 and available only to registered voters of this state. No fee shall be charged or collected for the application for or issuance of a Mississippi Voter Identification Card. Any costs associated with the application for or issuance of a Mississippi Voter Identification Card shall be made payable from the state's General Fund.

(2) The registrar of each county shall provide a location in the registrar's office at which he or she shall accept applications for Mississippi Voter Identification Cards in accordance with the Mississippi Constitution; however, in counties having two (2) judicial districts the registrar shall provide a location in the registrar's office in each judicial district at which he or she shall accept applications for Mississippi Voter Identification Cards in accordance with the Mississippi Constitution.

(3) No person shall be eligible for a Mississippi Voter Identification Card if the person has a valid unexpired Mississippi driver's license or an identification card issued under Section 45-35-1 et seq.

(4)(a) The Mississippi Voter Identification Card shall be captioned "MISSISSIPPI VOTER IDENTIFICATION CARD" and shall contain a prominent statement that under Mississippi law it is valid only as identification for voting purposes. The identification card shall include the following information regarding the applicant:

- (i) Full legal name;
- (ii) Legal residence address;
- (iii) Mailing address, if different; and
- (iv) Voting information.

(b) The Mississippi Voter Identification Card shall also contain the date the voter identification card was issued, the county in which the voter is registered and such other information as required by the Secretary of State.

(5) The application shall be signed and sworn to by the applicant and any falsification or fraud in the making of the application shall constitute false swearing under Section 97-7-35.

(6) The registrar shall require presentation and verification of any of the following information during the application process before issuance of a Mississippi Voter Identification Card:

- (a) A photo identity document; or
- (b) Documentation showing the person's date and place of birth; or

It shall be the duty of a person who moves his or her residence outside this state or who ceases to be qualified to vote to surrender his or her card to the registrar who issued it.

Editor's note- The effective date of the bill that amended this section, Chapter 526, Laws of 2012 (House Bill No. 921), is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bill was submitted to the United States Attorney General under Section 5, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. Chapter 526 was submitted to the United States Attorney General before the Shelby County decision was rendered. In a letter dated August 5, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 526 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 526, so Chapter 526 became effective on the date of the response letter from the United States Attorney General, August 5, 2013.

Laws of 2017, ch. 441, § 205 provides:

"SECTION 205. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July 1, 2017, except for Sections 3, 9, 13, 14, 15, 18, 19, 21, 24, 31, 70, 108, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 184 and 188, which shall take effect and be in force from and after passage [approved April 18, 2017]."

Amendments- The 2017 amendment, effective April 18, 2017, deleted "resides at the same address and" following "as long as the cardholder" in (7); and made minor stylistic changes.

Joint Legislative Committee Note- Pursuant to Section 1-1-109, the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation corrected a typographical error in the second sentence. The words "not less then thirty (30)" were changed to "not less than thirty (30)". The Joint Committee ratified the correction at its April, 28, 1999 meeting.

This section was amended by Section 1 of Chapter 517, Laws of 2012, approved May 2, 2012, and effective from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended (November 26, 2012). The section was also amended by Section 4 of Chapter 526, Laws of 2012, approved May 17, 2012, and effective from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended (August 5, 2013). Section 1-1-109 gives the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation authority to integrate amendments so that all versions of the same code section enacted within the same legislative session may become effective. The Joint Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation ratified the integration of these amendments, contingent upon preclearance, as consistent with the legislative intent at the August 16, 2012, meeting of the Committee.

Editor's note- The United States Attorney General, by letter dated June 11, 1997, interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1997, ch. 315, § 1.

On August 11, 2000, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2000, ch. 430.

The effective date of the bill that amended this section, Chapter 526, Laws of 2012 (House Bill No. 921), is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bill was submitted to the United States Attorney General under Section 5, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. Chapter 526 was submitted to the United States Attorney General before the Shelby County decision was rendered. In a letter dated August 5, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 526 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 526, so Chapter 526 became effective on the date of the response letter from the United States Attorney General, August 5, 2013.

By letter dated November 26, 2012, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2012, ch. 517.

Amendments- The 2000 amendment deleted "in the supervisor's district or" following the third occurrence of "(30) days" and substituted "pursuant to Section 23-15-33" for "by an officer of this state under the laws thereof."

The 2008 amendment, in the first sentence, substituted "except persons adjudicated to be non compos mentis" for "except idiots and insane persons" and "incorporated municipality" for "incorporated city or town"; in the last sentence, substituted "those specified in this section" for "those above included"; substituted "seeks to vote" for "offers to vote" throughout; and made minor stylistic changes.

The first 2012 amendment (ch. 517), inserted "of vote fraud or" following "never been convicted" near the end of the first sentence.

The second 2012 amendment (ch. 526), added "upon compliance with Section 23-15-563" at the end of the first sentence.

The 2017 amendment added the second sentence; and made gender neutral changes.

8. Under former Section 23-5-85.

1. IN GENERAL.

Absentee ballot could not be counted in a primary election because the voter failed to register more than 30 days prior to the election. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

Provisions in Mississippi Election Code pertaining to registration of voters do not violate § 2 of the Voting Rights Act (42 USCS § 1973(a)) simply because there might be better registration procedures which could be enacted into law. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 717 F. Supp. 1189 (N.D. Miss. 1989), aff'd, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Mississippi's voter registration laws are clearly a voting qualification or prerequisites to voting, under language of § 2, as amended, 42 USCS § 1973(a), because no voter is qualified as elector until he is first registered. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Whereas instances of racially polarized voting are pertinent in challenges to electoral processes, voting behavior or practices are not germane to challenged voter registration procedures or to determination of discriminatory impact of registration practices. Racial appeals in campaigns for elections bear little relevance to state's registration procedures. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 21-11-1.

A Negro citizen originally denied the right to register because of discrimination, subsequently registered pursuant to a federal court order, who would be denied the right to vote in municipal elections for failure to pay poll taxes as required by law and because her registration took place after the legal deadline, has standing to bring a class action on behalf of all the Negro voters similarly situated to enjoin the election, and where the Federal District Court refused to grant the injunction the cause was remanded with directions to set aside the election which was held, to devise a plan for a new election, set a new cut-off date for registration, and to provide that persons otherwise entitled to vote should not be denied that right for failure to pay poll taxes if required taxes were tendered to tax collector within 45 days prior to election. Hamer v. Campbell, 358 F.2d 215 (5th Cir. 1966), cert. denied, 385 U.S. 851, 87 S. Ct. 76, 17 L. Ed. 2d 79 (1966).

Town marshal held properly removed from office as result of quo warranto proceedings, where he failed to show residence in town as required by §§ 241, 250 of Constitution, and this section. Jones v. State ex rel. McFarland, 207 Miss. 208, 42 So. 2d 123 (1949).

Where taxpayer delivered check to tax collector on January 31, 1934, with request to hold check until March and check was not presented for payment until May 7, 1934, but tax receipt issued April 30, 1934, was dated February 1, 1934, taxpayer held not qualified elector and hence not eligible for election to office of alderman in December, 1934. Wylie v. Cade, 174 Miss. 426, 164 So. 579 (1935).

Where taxpayer's check is unconditionally delivered on or before February 1 to tax collector who accepts check which in due course is deposited with reasonable promptness and paid by drawee bank on its first presentation, payment will relate back to date of delivery of check to tax collector so as to qualify taxpayer as elector. Wylie v. Cade, 174 Miss. 426, 164 So. 579 (1935).

Illegal voting at any municipal election is an indictable offense. Sample v. Town of Verona, 94 Miss. 264, 48 So. 2 (1909).

The word "elector" is synonymous with voter. Greene v. Village of Rienzi, 87 Miss. 463, 40 So. 17, 112 Am. St. R. 449 (1906).

The corresponding section of the Code 1892, in so far as it requires voters at municipal elections to vote in the wards of their residence, is constitutional and warranted by § 245 of the Constitution, empowering the legislature to impose qualifications additional to those provided by §§ 241, 242 of the Constitution. State v. Kelly, 81 Miss. 1, 32 So. 909 (1902).

The mistaken belief that one has in due time paid "all taxes legally required of him," however honestly obtained, will not relieve a delinquent of the effect of his failure to secure the privilege of an elector by complying with the requirements of § 241 of the Constitution; Nor will the subsequent payment of the same relieve him of the delinquency. Roane v. Matthews, 75 Miss. 94, 21 So. 665 (1897).

7. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-3-11.

For purposes of § 4(a) of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USCS § 1973b(a) [now 52 USCS § 10303]), pertaining to reinstatement of state voting registration tests, the fact that a county has administered voting registration laws in a fair and impartial manner and has recently made significant strides toward equalizing and integrating its school system will not warrant reinstatement of the literacy test for the county's voters, where (1) the county throughout the years, systematically deprived its black citizens of the educational opportunities that it granted its white citizens, and (2) impartial administration of the literacy test would serve only to perpetuate these inequities in a different form. Gaston County v. United States, 395 U.S. 285, 89 S. Ct. 1720, 23 L. Ed. 2d 309 (1969).

On direct appeal to the United States Supreme Court from a decision of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, in an action by a county seeking reinstatement of a literacy test for voters, the District Court's finding that the county has not met its burden of proving, as required by § 4(a) of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USCS § 1973b(a) [now 52 USCS § 10303]), that the use of the literacy test did not discriminatorily deprive Negroes of the right to vote, will not be held clearly erroneous where (1) evidence was presented that the county's segregated Negro schools and their teachers were inferior and that Negro citizens of the county had completed far less schooling than whites, and (2) it could be inferred that among Negro children compelled to endure a segregated and inferior education, fewer would achieve any given degree of literacy than would be so with their better educated white contemporaries, and that the county's inferior Negro schools provided many of its Negro residents with an inferior education and gave many others no incentive to enter or remain in school. Gaston County v. United States, 395 U.S. 285, 89 S. Ct. 1720, 23 L. Ed. 2d 309 (1969).

A Negro citizen, originally denied the right to register because of discrimination, subsequently registered pursuant to a federal court order, who would be denied the right to vote in municipal elections for failure to pay poll taxes as required by law and because her registration took place after the legal deadline, has standing to bring a class action on behalf of all the Negro voters similarly situated to enjoin the election, and where the Federal District Court refused to grant the injunction the cause was remanded with directions to set aside the election which was held, to devise a plan for a new election, set a new cut-off date for registration, and to provide that persons otherwise entitled to vote should not be denied that right for failure to pay poll taxes if required taxes were tendered to tax collector within 45 days prior to election. Hamer v. Campbell, 358 F.2d 215 (5th Cir. 1966), cert. denied, 385 U.S. 851, 87 S. Ct. 76, 17 L. Ed. 2d 79 (1966).

All provisions of Mississippi law which condition the right to vote on the ability to read and write, or contain a "test or device" as defined in Section 4(c) of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 [52 USCS § 10303, formerly codified as 42 USCS § 1973b(c)] have no force or effect during the period of suspension prescribed in said Act. United States v. State, 256 F. Supp. 344 (S.D. Miss. 1966).

The county registrar of Panola County was enjoined from using any of the conditions of this section [Code 1942, § 3235] as a prerequisite to registration other than those that had theretofore been used with respect to the registration of white applicants. United States v. Duke, 332 F.2d 759 (5th Cir. 1964).

Mandamus will not be to compel an election commission to place on the ballot the name of a person whom it has determined not to be qualified as a candidate. Powe v. Forrest County Election Comm'n, 249 Miss. 757, 163 So. 2d 656 (1964).

To require Negroes desiring to pay poll taxes qualifying them to vote to produce verification of the correctness of their voting precincts, not required of other taxpayers, and to see the sheriff personally when others were not required to do so, constitutes a violation of the Federal Civil Rights Act. United States v. Dogan, 314 F.2d 767 (5th Cir. 1963).

Person, residing in Louisiana when he purchased land in this state, with intention of building his home thereon, more than two years before general election at which his vote was protested, but actual removal to this state was less than two years before such election, was not a qualified elector. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

That is properly the domicile of a person where he has his true, fixed, permanent home and principal establishment, and to which whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

A domicile continues until another is acquired; before a domicile can be considered lost or changed, a new domicile must be acquired by removal to a new locality with intent to remain there, and the old domicile must be abandoned without intent to return thereto. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

An exemptionist over 60 years of age who did not pay his poll tax was disqualified to vote in a primary election. Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

Registration for the election district in which one offers to vote is necessary to entitle him to vote. Perkins v. Carraway, 59 Miss. 222 (1881).

8. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-5-85.

Although Mississippi Code § 21-1-45 contains no dispositive definition for the term "qualified electors," it would be inappropriate to adopt the definition of that term found in Mississippi Code § 23-5-85 [Repealed], and to employ the entire panoply of rules applicable to public elections to a proceeding to obtain annexation of unincorporated area by an adjacent existing municipality. Schmidt v. City of Jackson, 494 So. 2d 348 (Miss. 1986).

The provisions of Article 12 § 251 of the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 and Code 1942, § 3235 that prescribe a period of 4-months registration for qualified electors before voting in elections are held unconstitutional, void and of no effect, as contrary to the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, and the enforcement hereafter of such provisions is enjoined. Ferguson v. Williams, 343 F. Supp. 654 (N.D. Miss. 1972).

Those residence requirements for a qualified elector which requires a residence of one year in the state, one year in the county, and 6 months in the precinct, or municipality, clearly violate the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and those requirements as contained in § 241 of the Mississippi Constitution and Code 1942, § 3235 are clearly not necessary to further a compelling state interest are violative of the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and are null and void. Graham v. Waller, 343 F. Supp. 1 (S.D. Miss. 1972).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Under general registration statute, Miss. Code Section 23-15-11, newly annexed county electors must reside in municipality for thirty days to be eligible to vote in municipal elections. Hewes, Mar. 5, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0969.

A seventeen-year-old who will be eighteen years of age on or before the date of the special election may register to vote thirty days or more prior to a special election. Wilson, Nov. 14, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0725.

A computerized voter list that does not have the electors' signatures on it is considered exempt for purposes of the Mississippi Public Records Act of 1983 if the information on the list was obtained from exempted records. Evans, Dec. 5, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0760.

A person may not qualify as an elector in two adjoining counties by claiming to simultaneously reside in both such counties; absent a conclusive indicator of residency, such as filing for homestead exemption, the question of qualifying as an elector should be determined, based on the facts and circumstances of each case, by reference to other relevant factors including the intent to remain, indefinitely, in a county where an actual residence has been established. Hewes, April 3, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0098.

Even in a citywide election, an individual may only cast a ballot in the voting precinct or ward in which he or she is registered to vote. Hafter, Dec. 22, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0697.

A registered voter may not cast a lawful ballot in a voting precinct other than the precinct where he or she resides. Shepard, July 14, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0345.

If a candidate establishes his residence within the corporate limits of a municipality at least 30 days prior to the election and registers to vote and meets all other qualifications to be mayor, he could qualify to run for that office. Turnage, Aug. 23, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0400.

A candidate could establish his residence within the corporate limits 30 days before the election and then file his qualifying papers at least 20 days prior to the municipal special election and be eligible to have his name placed on the ballot. Turnage, Aug. 23, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0400.

§ 23-15-13. Change of residency to new ward or voting precinct within same municipality.

(1) An elector who moves from one (1) ward or voting precinct to another ward within the same municipality or voting precinct within the same county shall not be disqualified to vote, but he or she shall be entitled to have his or her registration transferred to his or her new ward or voting precinct upon making written request therefor at any time up to thirty (30) days before the election at which he or she offers to vote, and if the removal occurs within thirty (30) days of such election he or she shall be entitled to vote in his or her new ward or voting precinct by affidavit ballot as provided in Section 23-15-573. If the thirtieth day to transfer the elector's registration before an election falls on a Sunday or legal holiday, the transfer of the elector's registration submitted on the business day immediately following the Sunday or legal holiday shall be accepted and entered into the Statewide Elections Management System for the purpose of enabling voters to vote in the next election.

(2) If an elector requests a change in his or her address under Section 23-15-49 and the address is located in a precinct in the county or municipality that differs from the precinct as reflected in the then current registration records, the request shall be treated in the same manner as a written request to transfer the elector's registration under subsection (1) of this section.

"SECTION 205. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July 1, 2017, except for Sections 3, 9, 13, 14, 15, 18, 19, 21, 24, 31, 70, 108, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 184 and 188, which shall take effect and be in force from and after passage [approved April 18, 2017]."

Amendments- The 2000 amendment substituted "county" for "supervisor's district" and made gender neutralization changes.

The 2016 amendment added (2).

The 2017 amendment, effective April 18, 2017, in (1), inserted "(1)" near the beginning, and added the last sentence; and made a minor stylistic change.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

It is duty and responsibility of registrar, upon request of individual voter, to make necessary changes on all appropriate registration records and enter appropriate data into computer to reflect any change in voter's precinct necessitated by change in that voter's residence; however, task of making changes on pollbooks and registration books is ministerial task that should be performed by election commission in their purging activities if registrar fails to act. Horton, March 21, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0201.

If a qualified elector of a county moves within the county less than 30 days before an election, pursuant to this section he is not disqualified and would be entitled to vote in the precinct of his residence by affidavit ballot if his name does not appear on the poll book of his precinct. Assuming such affidavit is properly executed and all required information is given in the affidavit and the prescribed forms, the ballot would be a lawful one and would be counted. Sautermeister, Sept. 26, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0497.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

Evidence showing that a person whose name, birth date, and place of birth matched those of a voter, had voted in another state three weeks before the voter cast her vote in a primary election showed that the voter violated Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-17(1); thus, the voter's absentee ballot was not counted in the primary election. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

§ 23-15-19. Persons convicted of certain crimes not to be registered.

Any person who has been convicted of vote fraud or any crime listed in Section 241, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, such crimes defined as "disenfranchising," shall not be registered, or if registered the name of the person shall be removed from the Statewide Elections Management System by the registrar or the election commissioners of the county of his or her residence. Whenever any person shall be convicted in the circuit court of his or her county of a disenfranchising crime, the county registrar shall thereupon remove his or her name from the Statewide Elections Management System; and whenever any person shall be convicted of a disenfranchising crime in any other court of any county, the presiding judge of the court shall, on demand, certify the fact in writing to the registrar of the county in which the voter resides, who shall thereupon remove the name of the person from the Statewide Elections Management System and retain the certificate as a record of his or her office.

Amendments- The 2012 amendment inserted "vote fraud or of" in the first sentence and made minor stylistic changes throughout.

The 2017 amendment rewrote the section, which read: "Any person who has been convicted of vote fraud or of any crime listed in Section 241, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, shall not be registered, or if registered the name of the person shall be erased from the registration book on which it may be found by the registrar or by the election commissioners. Whenever any person shall be convicted in the circuit court of his county of any of those crimes, the registrar shall thereupon erase his name from the registration book; and whenever any person shall be convicted of any of those crimes in any other court of any county, the presiding judge of the court shall, on demand, certify the fact in writing to the registrar, who shall thereupon erase the name of the person from the registration book and file the certificate as a record of his office."

Analysis

1. Generally.
- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-5-35.

1. GENERALLY.

Ballot of a convicted felon was properly invalidated because the candidate who sought to have the vote counted did not prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the voter was eligible to vote. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

2.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-5-35.

A felon's due process claim to a pre-disenfranchisement hearing was without merit as a matter of law and summary judgment was properly granted on such issue, where to mandate a hearing as a prerequisite to any action by the election board would cost the state substantial time and money, and it would not guarantee, any more than the current mechanism, that only felons within § 23-5-35 are disenfranchised. Williams v. Taylor, 677 F.2d 510 (5th Cir. 1982).

A new trial would be required on a felon's claim that the election board's disenfranchisement of him pursuant to §§ 23-5-35, 23-5-37 [Repealed.] was unconstitutionally selective, where the board had not acted according to the requisite procedure established in § 23-5-37 [Repealed.], and its noncompliance with this procedure may have created a pattern of selective enforcement. Williams v. Taylor, 677 F.2d 510 (5th Cir. 1982).

Allegations that because of the interrelationship between the racial restrictions of the Mississippi voter qualification laws and requirements with respect to the selection of grand and petit jurors a defendant would be denied his equal civil rights to trial by a jury free from exclusion were insufficient to justify the removal to the federal courts of the trial of a Negro charged with the crime of rape. Bass v.

State election commissioners have power, authority, and responsibility to help administer voter registration laws by formulating rules for the various tests applied to applicants for registration, and for the reason that these rules and tests are vitally important elements of Mississippi laws challenged in an action brought by the United States to end discrimination in voter registration, the commissioners should not have been stricken as parties defendants to the action on the ground that they lacked sufficient interest in administering or enforcing the challenged laws. United States v. Mississippi, 380 U.S. 128, 85 S. Ct. 808, 13 L. Ed. 2d 717 (1965), on remand, 256 F. Supp. 344 (1966).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

If precinct is split by supervisor district lines it would also be registrar's duty to make determination, upon registration, of proper supervisor district for each individual residing in precinct; duly appointed deputy registrar may, of course, perform these tasks for registrar. § 23-15-35. Clerk of municipality to be registrar; registration books; form of application for registration; registration of county electors by clerk.

(1) The clerk of the municipality shall be the registrar of voters of the municipality, and shall take the oath of office prescribed by Section 268 of the Constitution. The municipal registration shall conform to the county registration which shall be a part of the official record of registered voters as contained in the Statewide Elections Management System. The municipal clerk shall comply with all the provisions of law regarding the registration of voters, including the use of the voter registration applications used by county registrars and prescribed by the Secretary of State under Sections 23-15-39 and 23-15-47.

(2) The municipal clerk shall be authorized to register applicants as county electors. The municipal clerk shall forward notice of registration, a copy of the application for registration, and any changes to the registration when they occur, either by certified mail to the county registrar or by personal delivery to the county registrar provided that a numbered receipt is signed by the county registrar in return for the described documents. Upon receipt of the copy of the application for registration or changes to the registration, and if a review of the application indicates that the applicant meets all the criteria necessary to qualify as a county elector, then the county registrar shall make a determination of the county voting precinct in which the person making the application shall be required to vote. The county registrar shall send this county voting precinct information by United States first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the person at the address provided on the application. Any mailing costs incurred by the municipal clerk or the county registrar in effectuating this subsection (2) shall be paid by the county board of supervisors. If a review of the copy of the application for registration or changes to the registration indicates that the applicant is not qualified to vote in the county, the county registrar shall challenge the application. The county election commissioners shall review any challenge or disqualification, after having notified the applicant by certified mail of the challenge or disqualification.

(3) The municipal clerk shall issue to the person making the application a copy of the application and the county registrar shall process the application in accordance with the law regarding the handling of voter registration applications.

(4) The receipt of a copy of the application for registration sent pursuant to Section 23-15-39(3) shall be sufficient to allow the applicant to be registered as an elector in the municipality, provided that such application is not challenged as provided for therein.

(5) The municipal clerk of each municipality shall provide the county registrar in which the municipality is located the information necessary to conform the municipal registration to the county registration which shall be a part of the official record of registered voters as contained in the Statewide Elections Management System. If any changes to the information occur as a result of redistricting, annexation or other reason, it shall be the responsibility of the municipal clerk to timely provide the changes to the county registrar.

2. Under former Section 23-5-29.

1. IN GENERAL.

Plaintiffs who showed that challenged statutes either impinged upon their protected rights to register to vote or burdened organizational efforts to assist prospective voters in registering had standing to sue to challenge Mississippi's dual registration requirement and prohibition on satellite registration as violative of their rights and all persons similarly situated. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Based on totality of circumstances, proof showed by preponderance of evidence that Mississippi's dual registration requirement and statutory prohibition on removing voter registration books from circuit clerk's office resulted in denial or abridgement of right of black citizens in Mississippi to vote and participate in electoral process. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

No legitimate or compelling state interest is served by failure of state to mandate uniform, state-wide method of satellite registration; all circuit clerks should make arrangements to conduct satellite registration at no less than three voting precincts in each of five supervisory districts within their respective counties for at least one full day within 12 months of each election of state wide officials. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Whereas instances of racially polarized voting are pertinent in challenges to electoral processes, voting behavior or practices are not germane to challenged voter registration procedures or to determination of discriminatory impact of registration practices. Racial appeals in campaigns for elections bear little relevance to state's registration procedures. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

2. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-5-29.

Provisions in Mississippi Election Code pertaining to registration of voters do not violate § 2 of the Voting Rights Act (42 USCS § 1973(a)) simply because there might be better registration procedures which could be enacted into law. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 717 F. Supp. 1189 (N.D. Miss. 1989), aff'd, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Section 251 of the constitution of 1890 and this section have reference to elections contemplated by the constitution and not to local option elections held under § 1610 of the Code of 1892 (Code 1906, § 1777), and the fact that such an election has been ordered does not interfere with the registration of voters. Bew v. State, 71 Miss. 1, 13 So. 868 (1893).

§ 23-15-39. Form of application for registration; allowances for office supplies; determination on application; notice to applicant; assistance to applicant; voter registration number; fees and costs; forwarding of application.

(1) Applications for registration as electors of this state, which are sworn to and subscribed before the registrar or deputy registrar authorized by law and which are not made by mail, shall be made upon a form established by rule duly adopted by the Secretary of State.

(2) The boards of supervisors shall make proper allowances for office supplies reasonably necessitated by the registration of county electors.

(3) If the applicant indicates on the application that he or she resides within the city limits of a city or town in the county of registration, the county registrar shall process the application for registration or changes to the registration as provided by law.

(4) If the applicant indicates on the application that he or she has previously registered to vote in another county of this state or another state, notice to the voter's previous county of registration in this state shall be provided by the Statewide Elections Management System. If the voter's previous place of registration was in another state, notice shall be provided to the voter's previous state of residence if the Statewide Elections Management System has that capability.

(5) The county registrar shall provide to the person making the application a copy of the application upon which has been written the county voting precinct and municipal voting precinct, if any, in which the person shall vote. Upon entry of the voter registration information into the Statewide Elections Management System, the system shall assign a voter registration number to the person, and the county registrar shall mail the applicant a voter registration card to the mailing address provided on the application.

(6) Any person desiring an application for registration may secure an application from the registrar of the county of which he or she is a resident and may take the application with him or her and secure assistance in completing the application from any person of the applicant's choice. It shall be the duty of all registrars to furnish applications for registration to all persons requesting them, and it shall likewise be the registrar's duty to furnish aid and assistance in the completing of the application when requested by an applicant. The application for registration shall be sworn to and subscribed before the registrar or deputy registrar at the municipal clerk's office, the county registrar's office or any other location where the applicant is allowed to register to vote. The registrar shall not charge a fee or cost to the applicant for accepting the application or administering the oath or for any other duty imposed by law regarding the registration of electors.

(7) If the person making the application is unable to read or write, for reason of disability or otherwise, he or she shall not be required to personally complete the application in writing and execute the oath. In such cases, the registrar or deputy registrar shall read the application and oath to the person and the person's answers thereto shall be recorded by the registrar or the registrar's deputy. The person shall be registered as an elector if he or she otherwise meets the requirements to be registered as an elector. The registrar shall record the responses of the person and the recorded responses shall be retained permanently by the registrar. The county registrar shall enter the voter registration information into the Statewide Elections Management System and designate the entry as an assisted filing.

(8) The receipt of a copy of the application for registration sent pursuant to Section 23-15-35(2) shall be sufficient to allow the applicant to be registered as an elector of this state, if the application is not challenged.

(9) In any case in which the corporate boundaries of a municipality change, whether by annexation or redistricting, the municipal clerk shall, within ten (10) days after approval of the change in corporate boundaries, provide to the county registrar conforming geographic data that is compatible with the Statewide Elections Management System. The data shall be developed by the municipality's use of a standardized format specified by the Statewide Elections Management System. The county registrar, county election commissioner or other county official, who has completed an annual training seminar sponsored by the Secretary of State pertaining to the implementation of new boundary lines in the Statewide Elections Management System and received certification for that training, shall update the municipal boundary information into the Statewide Elections Management System. The Statewide Elections Management System updates the municipal voter registration records and assigns electors to their municipal voting precincts. The county registrar shall forward to the municipal clerk written notification of the additions and changes, and the municipal clerk shall forward to the affected municipal electors written notification of the additions and changes.

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-5-17.

State election commissioners have power, authority, and responsibility to help administer voter registration laws by formulating rules for the various tests applied to applicants for registration, and for the reason that these rules and tests are vitally important elements of Mississippi laws challenged in an action brought by the United States to end discrimination in voter registration, the commissioners should not have been stricken as parties defendants to the action on the ground that they lacked sufficient interest in administering or enforcing the challenged laws. United States v. Mississippi, 380 U.S. 128, 85 S. Ct. 808, 13 L. Ed. 2d 717 (1965), on remand, 256 F. Supp. 344 (1966).

Where the court found that substantially all of the eligible white voters in Walthall County had been registered without being required to submit to any of the onerous tests or requirements imposed by the state statute, the county registrar, in registering Negro applicants, was enjoined not to use as a prerequisite to registration any requirements for qualification which had not theretofore been used with respect to the registration of white applicants. United States v. State, 339 F.2d 679 (5th Cir. 1964).

The county registrar of Panola County was required, in conducting proceedings for the registration of voters, not to use as a prerequisite to registration any requirements for qualification which had not theretofore been used with respect to the registration of white applicants. United States v. Duke, 332 F.2d 759 (5th Cir. 1964).

All provisions of Mississippi law which condition the right to vote on the ability to read and write, or contain a "test or device" as defined in Section 4(c) of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 [52 USCS § 10303, formerly codified as 42 USCS § 1973b(c)] have no force or effect during the period of suspension prescribed in said Act. United States v. State, 256 F. Supp. 344 (S.D. Miss. 1966).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Failure of applicant to give his social security number does not disqualify him to register but requires registrar to assign voter registration number to individual and that number must appear on application. Dean, March 28, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0222.

Under Miss. Code Section 23-15-39(8), all newly annexed county electors who have resided in annexed area for at least thirty days from effective date of annexation are automatically added to municipal registration books as registered voters of municipality. Hewes, Mar. 5, 1993, A.G. Op. #92-0969.

Allegations that because of the interrelationship between the racial restrictions of the Mississippi

§ 23-15-43. Automatic review where person is not approved for registration.

In the event an applicant is not registered, there shall be an automatic review by the county election commissioners under the procedures provided in Sections 23-15-61 through 23-15-79. In addition to the meetings of the election commissioners provided in those sections, the commissioners are required to hold such additional meetings to determine all pending cases of registration on review before the election at which the applicant desires to vote.

It is not the purpose of this section to indicate the decision that should be reached by the election commissioners in certain cases but to define which applicants should receive further examination by providing for an automatic review.

Where evidence established that voter registrar summarily disapproved applications of anyone claiming to reside on the campus of Rust College or Mississippi Industrial College, thereby forcing them to prosecute an appeal to the board of election commissioners, while failing to refer to the board the applications of non-students in accordance with this section, the registrar and his employees were enjoined under 42 USCS § 1971(a)(2)(A) from failing to apply uniform standards to all applicants for registration, including black students attending institutions of higher learning in Marshal County, Mississippi, and from failing to register every student applicant who was denied registration because of the application of a stricter or more stringent standard than that applied to other applicants. *Frazier v. § 23-15-47. Registering to vote by mail-in application.

(1) Any person who is qualified to register to vote in the State of Mississippi may register to vote by mail-in application in the manner prescribed in this section.

(2) The following procedure shall be used in the registration of electors by mail:

(a) Any qualified elector may register to vote by mailing or delivering a completed mail-in application to his or her county registrar at least thirty (30) days before any election; however, if the thirtieth day to register before an election falls on a Sunday or legal holiday, the registration applications submitted on the business day immediately following the Sunday or legal holiday shall be accepted and entered into the Statewide Elections Management System for the purpose of enabling voters to vote in the next election. The postmark date of a mailed application shall be the applicant's date of registration.

(b) Upon receipt of a mail-in application, the county registrar shall stamp the application with the date of receipt, and shall verify the application either by matching the applicant's Mississippi driver's license number through the Mississippi Department of Public Safety or by matching the applicant's social security number through the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators. Within fourteen (14) days of receipt of a mail-in registration application, the county registrar shall complete action on the application, including any attempts to notify the applicant of the status of his or her application.

(c) If the county registrar determines that the applicant is qualified and his or her application is legible and complete, the county registrar shall mail the applicant written notification that the application has been approved, specifying the county voting precinct, municipal voting precinct, if any, polling place and supervisor district in which the person shall vote. This written notification of approval containing the specified information shall be the voter's registration card. The registration card shall be provided by the county registrar to the applicant in accordance with Section 23-15-39. Upon entry of the voter registration information into the Statewide Elections Management System, the system shall assign a voter registration number to the applicant. The assigned voter registration number shall be clearly shown on the written notification of approval. In mailing the written notification, the county registrar shall note the following on the envelope: "DO NOT FORWARD". If any registration notification form is returned as undeliverable, the voter's registration shall be void.

(d) A mail-in application shall be rejected for any of the following reasons:

(i) An incomplete portion of the application makes it impossible for the registrar to determine the eligibility of the applicant to register;

(ii) A portion of the application is illegible in the opinion of the county registrar and makes it impossible to determine the eligibility of the applicant to register;

(iii) The county registrar is unable to determine, from the address and information stated on the application, the precinct in which the voter should be assigned or the supervisor district in which he or she is entitled to vote;

(iv) The applicant is not qualified to register to vote pursuant to Section 23-15-11;

(v) The county registrar determines that the applicant is already registered as a qualified elector of the county;

(vi) The county registrar is unable to verify the application pursuant to subsection (2)(b) of this section.

(e) If the mail-in application of a person is subject to rejection for any of the reasons set forth in paragraph (d)(i) through (iii) of this subsection, and it appears to the county registrar that the defect or omission is of such a minor nature and that any necessary additional information may be supplied by the applicant over the telephone or by further correspondence, the county registrar may write or call the applicant at the telephone number or address, or both, provided on the application. If the county registrar is able to contact the applicant by mail or telephone, the county registrar shall attempt to ascertain the necessary information, and if this information is sufficient for the registrar to complete the application, the applicant shall be registered. If the necessary information cannot be obtained by mail or telephone, or is not sufficient to complete the application within fourteen (14) days of receipt, the county registrar shall give the applicant written notice of the rejection and provide the reason for the rejection. The county registrar shall further inform the applicant that he or she has a right to attempt to register by appearing in person or by filing another mail-in application.

(f) If a mail-in application is subject to rejection for the reason stated in paragraph (d) (v) of this subsection and the "present home address" portion of the application is different from the residence address for the applicant found in the Statewide Elections Management System, the mail-in application shall be deemed a written request to update the voter's registration pursuant to Section 23-15-13. The county registrar or the election commissioners shall update the voter's residence address in the Statewide Elections Management System and, if necessary, advise the voter of a change in the location of his or her county or municipal polling place by mailing the voter a new voter registration card.

(3) The instructions and the application form for voter registration by mail shall be in a form established by rule duly adopted by the Secretary of State.

(4)(a) The Secretary of State shall prepare and furnish without charge the necessary forms for application for voter registration by mail to each county registrar, municipal clerk, all public schools, each private school that requests such applications, and all public libraries.

(b) The Secretary of State shall distribute without charge sufficient forms for application for voter registration by mail to the Commissioner of Public Safety, who shall distribute the forms to each driver's license examining and renewal station in the state, and shall ensure that the forms are regularly available to the public at such stations.

(c) Bulk quantities of forms for application for voter registration by mail shall be furnished by the Secretary of State to any person or organization. The Secretary of State shall charge a person or organization the actual cost he or she incurs in providing bulk quantities of forms for application for voter registration to such person or organization.

(5) The originals of completed mail-in applications shall remain on file in the office of the county registrar with copies retained in the Statewide Elections Management System.

(6) If the applicant indicates on the application that he or she resides within the city limits of a city or town in the county of registration, the county registrar shall enter the information into the Statewide Elections Management System.

Editor's note- Former § 23-15-133 provided the procedure for forming subprecincts and making subprecinct pollbooks.

§ 23-15-135. Registrar to keep master voter roll and pollbooks and provide location for accepting applications for Mississippi Voter Identification Cards.

(1) The master voter roll as electronically maintained by the Statewide Elections Management System of the several voting precincts of each county and the pollbooks heretofore in use shall be delivered to the registrar of the county, and they, together with the master voter roll and pollbooks hereafter made, shall be records of his or her office, and he or she shall carefully preserve the same as such; and after each election the pollbooks shall be speedily returned to the office of the registrar.

(2) The registrar of each county shall provide a location in the registrar's office at which he or she shall accept applications for Mississippi Voter Identification Cards in accordance with the Mississippi Constitution.

(3) The registrar of each county shall enter into a Memorandum of Understanding, which is negotiated by the Secretary of State, with the Mississippi Department of Public Safety for the purpose of providing a Mississippi Voter Identification Card.

Editor's note- The effective date of the bill that amended this section, Chapter 526, Laws of 2012 (House Bill No. 921), is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bill was submitted to the United States Attorney General under Section 5, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. Chapter 526 was submitted to the United States Attorney General before the Shelby County decision was rendered. In a letter dated August 5, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 526 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 526, so Chapter 526 became effective on the date of the response letter from the United States Attorney General, August 5, 2013.

Amendments- The 2012 amendment added (2) and (3).

The 2017 amendment, in (1), substituted "master voter roll" for "registration books" both times it appears, inserted "as electronically maintained by the Statewide Elections Management System," and made gender neutral changes.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The Registrar would be the appropriate official to transfer the names of registered voters to a newly established automated voter registration system. Griffin, Feb. 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0957.

There is no apparent legal authority that would allow registration books and pollbooks to be kept and maintained in place other than office of circuit clerk/registrar except when pollbooks are being used in conduct of election. Pryor, Dec. 23, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0931.

County registrar is "certifying official" for purpose of certifying number of signatures of qualified electors on petitions calling for election pursuant to particular statute as well as on nominating petitions for candidates for public offices. Doggett Sept. 8, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0644.

Any and all requests for access to or copies of county voter registration records must be made to the county registrar, and it is the duty and responsibility of the county registrar to insure that voters' social security numbers, telephone numbers, and dates of birth and age information are excluded prior to granting access or providing copies of such records. Johnson, March 10, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0112.

The practice of boards of supervisors to seek certification from their respective county circuit clerks as to the number of signatures of qualified electors appearing on such petitions prior to the adjudication of the sufficiency of those petitions is, in most if not all cases, necessary to protect the integrity of the process, since circuit clerks are the custodians of the registration records. Benvenuti, March 17, 2000, A.G. Op. #99-0216.

Each circuit clerk is responsible for making available public records of his office when properly requested. Information such as social security numbers, telephone numbers, dates of birth and age information must be erased or removed from such records before they are made available to the public. There is no specific statutory direction on the manner in which such information is to be removed. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

Each county registrar must use sound discretion in determining whether the chairman of the election commission should be the only one other than the registrar to have a key to the room where voter registration records are stored. Reasonable hours of access to the room would be established by the circuit clerk, in his or her discretion. Griffith, Aug. 8, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0378.

§ 23-15-137. Repealed.

Repealed by Laws of 2017, ch. 441, § 189, effective July 1, 2017.

Editor's note- Former § 23-15-137 authorized municipalities to contract with county election commissioners to revise registration books and pollbooks.

This section was amended by Section 12 of Chapter 574, Laws of 2006, and Section 1 of Chapter 585, Laws of 2006. Both chapters required submission to the United States Attorney General for preclearance under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965. Chapter 574 received preclearance on June 5, 2006. There are no records indicating that Chapter 585 was submitted to or precleared by the U.S. Attorney General, so Chapter 585 was never given effect. The version of the section that appeared in the Code, and that was repealed by Section 189 of Chapter 441, Laws of 2017, reflected the language of Section 12 of Chapter 574, Laws of 2006, effective June 5, 2006.

§§ 23-15-139 and 23-15-140. Repealed.

Repealed by Laws, 2002, ch 588, § 4, eff from and after July 29, 2002 (the date the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the repeal of this section).

SUBARTICLE F. PURGING

§ 23-15-151. List of persons convicted of certain crimes to be kept by circuit clerk and entered into Statewide Elections Management System; removal of disenfranchised voters from system.

The circuit clerk of each county is authorized and directed to prepare and keep in his or her office a full and complete list, in alphabetical order, of persons convicted of voter fraud or of any crime listed in Section 241, Mississippi Constitution of 1890. A certified copy of any enrollment by one clerk to another will be sufficient authority for the enrollment of the name, or names, in another county. A list of persons convicted of voter fraud, any crime listed in Section 241, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, or any crime interpreted as disenfranchising in later Attorney General opinions, shall also be entered into the Statewide Elections Management System on a quarterly basis. Voters who have been convicted in a Mississippi state court of any disenfranchising crime are not qualified electors as defined by Section 23-15-11 and shall be purged or otherwise removed by the county registrar or county election commissioners from the Statewide Elections Management System.

Editor's note- Laws of 1987, ch. 499, § 20, provides as follows:

"SECTION 20. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is declared to be unconstitutional or void, or for any reason is declared to be invalid or of no effect, the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases shall be in no manner affected thereby but shall remain in full force and effect."

By letter dated November 26, 2012, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2012, ch. 517.

Amendments- The 2012 amendment inserted "vote fraud or of" following "convicted" in the first and second sentences and made minor stylistic changes throughout.

The 2017 amendment, in the first sentence, substituted "voter fraud" for "vote fraud"; deleted the former second through fourth sentences, which read: "The clerk shall enter the names of all persons who have been or shall be hereafter convicted of vote fraud or of any crime listed in Section 241, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, in a book prepared and kept for that purpose. The board of supervisors of each county shall, as early as practicable, furnish the circuit clerk of their county with a suitable book for the enrollment of those names showing the name, date of birth, address, court, crime and date of conviction. The roll, when so prepared, shall be compared with the registration book before each election commissioner of the county"; added the last two sentences; and made a gender neutral change.

1.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

A new trial would be required on a felon's claim that the election board's disenfranchisement of him pursuant to §§ 23-5-35, 23-5-37 [Repealed.] was unconstitutionally selective, where the board had not acted according to the requisite procedure established in § 23-5-37 [Repealed.], and its noncompliance with this procedure may have created a pattern of selective enforcement. *Williams v. ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The compilation required by this section should include the names of persons who have been convicted of any of the crimes identified as disqualifying by the courts or by official opinions of the Attorney General. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

Where no roll of persons convicted of crimes was maintained by previous clerks, a newly appointed clerk should make reasonable attempts to list persons known to have previous convictions. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

This section requires the circuit clerk of each county to prepare and maintain a list of all persons who have been convicted of disqualifying crimes in their respective counties. However, any documentation received from a circuit clerk of another county, the State of Mississippi or any other source showing that a resident of a particular county has a disqualifying conviction should be recorded in such compilation or preserved in some other manner in order to insure that the name of the person convicted does not appear on the registration records. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

§ 23-15-153. Revision of county voter roll by election commissioners; removal of voters from roll; amount and limitations of per diem payments to election commissioners; distribution of master voter roll to municipal registrars; certification of hours worked; number of days in calendar year for which election commissioners entitled to receive compensation.

(1) At least during the following times, the election commissioners shall meet at the office of the registrar or the office of the election commissioners to carefully revise the county voter roll as electronically maintained by the Statewide Elections Management System and remove from the roll the names of all voters who have requested to be purged from the voter roll, died, received an adjudication of non compos mentis, been convicted of a disenfranchising crime, or otherwise become disqualified as electors for any cause, and shall register the names of all persons who have duly applied to be registered but have been illegally denied registration:

(10) Every election commissioner shall sign personally a certification setting forth the number of hours actually worked in the performance of the commissioner's official duties and for which the commissioner seeks compensation. When properly completed and signed, the certification must be filed with the clerk of the county board of supervisors before any payment may be made. The certification will be a public record available for inspection and reproduction immediately upon the oral or written request of any person.

Any person may contest the accuracy of the certification in any respect by notifying the chair of the commission, any member of the board of supervisors or the clerk of the board of supervisors of the contest at any time before or after payment is made. If the contest is made before payment is made, no payment shall be made as to the contested certificate until the contest is finally disposed of. The commissioner against whom the contest is decided shall be liable for the payment of the expenses and attorney's fees, and the county shall be jointly and severally liable for same.

(11) Any election commissioner who has not received a certificate issued by the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 23-15-211 indicating that the election commissioner has received the required elections seminar instruction and that the election commissioner has received the required elections seminar instruction and that the election commissioner is fully qualified to conduct an election, shall not receive any compensation authorized by this section or Section 23-15-239.

Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2004, ch. 305, § 12.

On June 29, 2006, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2006, ch. 592, § 2.

On June 15, 2007, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2007, ch. 434.

Section 23-15-491 (Laws, 2006, ch. 592, § 1, eff June 29, 2006 (the date the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the addition of the section.)), referred to in this section, authorized commissioners of election to sponsor and conduct training sessions to educate qualified electors regarding the operation of electronic voting systems, and was repealed by its own terms, effective July 1, 2009.

By letter dated June 21, 2010, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2010, ch. 377, § 1.

This section was amended by two bills in 2013. The effective date of each of the two bills that amended this section, Chapter 413, Laws of 2013 (Senate Bill No. 2238) and Chapter 456, Laws of 2013 (Senate Bill No. 2311), is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bills were approved, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. Chapter 413 was submitted to the United States Attorney General before the Shelby County decision was rendered. In a letter dated July 9, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 413 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 413, so Chapter 413 became effective on the date of the response letter from the United States Attorney General, July 9, 2013.

Chapter 456 was not submitted before the Shelby County decision, but the Mississippi Attorney General's Office submitted Chapter 456 to the United States Attorney General in order to technically meet the requirements of Section 5 and fulfill the condition in the effective date of the bill, which will allow the bill to take effect.

By letter dated July 18, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 456 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 456, so Chapter 456 became effective from and after July 18, 2013, the date of the United States Attorney General's response letter. The Joint Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation, in its meeting on August 1, 2013, voted to integrate the amendments to this section by Chapter 413 and Chapter 456.

Amendments- The 2000 amendment inserted the proviso in the last paragraph of (1).

The 2001 amendment rewrote the section.

The 2002 amendment rewrote (6); and substituted "June 20, 2001" for "the effective date of this act" in (7).

The 2004 amendment provided for versions of the section effective through January 1, 2006, and effective from and after January 1, 2006; in the version effective through January 1, 2006, substituted "registrar shall" for "commissioners of election may" in (5); and in the version effective from and after January 1, 2006, rewrote (5).

The 2006 amendment substituted "84.00" for "70.00" following "PER DIEM RATE PER DAY EARNED"; and added (7).

The 2007 amendment added (4) and redesignated former (4) through (7) as present (5) through (8); and substituted "county registrar" for "country registrar" in the next-to-last sentence of (6).

The 2010 amendment deleted "subsection (3) of" following "Except as provided in" in (2); added (3); and redesignated the remaining subsections accordingly.

The first 2013 amendment (ch. 413), inserted the subdivision (a) designator in (4) and added (4)(b); and inserted "EXCLUDING ELECTION DAYS," "TOTAL NUMBER PER DIEM DAYS EARNED FOR ELECTION DAYS _____ PER DIEM RATE PER DAY EARNED x 150.00" in "Per Diem Claim Form" in (9).

The second 2013 amendment (ch. 456), added (8) and redesignated former (8) and (9) as (9) and (10).

The 2016 amendment added (9) and redesignated former (9) and (10) as (10) and (11).

The 2017 amendment inserted "election" preceding "commissioners" throughout; rewrote the introductory paragraph of (1), which read: "At the following times, the commissioners of election shall meet at the office of the registrar and carefully revise the registration books and the pollbooks of the several voting precincts, and shall erase from those books the names of all persons erroneously on the books, or who have died, removed or become disqualified as electors from any cause; and shall register the names of all persons who have duly applied to be registered and have been illegally denied registration"; substituted "members of Congress" for congressmen" twice in (1)(b); rewrote the last paragraph of (1), which read: "Except for the names of those persons who are duly qualified to vote in the election, no name shall be permitted to remain on the registration books and pollbooks; however, no name shall be erased from the registration books or pollbooks based on a change in the residence of an elector except in accordance with procedures provided for by the National Voter Registration Act of 1993 that are in effect at the time of such erasure. Except as otherwise provided by Section 23-15-573, no person shall vote at any election whose name is not on the pollbook"; substituted "county voter roll as electronically maintained by the Statewide Elections Management System" for "registration books and pollbooks" in the introductory paragraph of (2); substituted "county voter roll as electronically maintained by the Statewide Elections Management System" for "registration books and pollbooks" or "registration books, pollbooks" in (3), (4)(a) and (5); in (7), rewrote the first sentence, which read: "The county registrar shall prepare the pollbooks and the county commissioners of election shall prepare the registration books of each municipality located within the county pursuant to an agreement between the county and each municipality in the county," inserted "the actual cost of" and "municipal master voter roll" in the second sentence, and rewrote the last sentence, which read: "A municipality may secure 'read only' access to the Statewide Centralized Voter System and print its own pollbooks using this information; however, county commissioners of election shall remain responsible for preparing registration books for municipalities and shall be paid for this duty in accordance with this subsection"; deleted "Section 23-15-491" following "by this section" in (11); and made gender neutral and minor stylistic changes.

Cross references- Provision that, with respect to the determination of appeals from allowance or refusal of applications for registration, the dates provided in § 23-15-153, and former §§ 23-15-155 and 23-15-157 are supplemental to that set forth in § 23-15-65, see § 23-15-67.

Provision that, at the meetings provided for in this section the county election commissioners shall hear and determine any pending, perfected appeals from decisions of the registrar allowing or refusing applications for registration, see § 23-15-67.

Application of per diem amounts specified in this section to per diem for election commissioners attending elections training seminars, see § 23-15-211.

Provision that registrars shall receive the same per diem as is provided for board of election commissioners in this section and § 23-15-227, as compensation for assisting the county election commissioners in performance of their duties, see § 23-15-225.

Federal Aspects- National Voter Registration Act of 1993, see 52 U.S.C.S. § 20501 et seq.

1.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-5-79.

The commissioners of election of each county have the duty under this section [Code 1942, § 3239] to erase the names of all persons erroneously registered. United States v. Ramsey, 331 F.2d 824 (5th Cir. 1964).

This section [Code 1942, § 3239] is directory and not mandatory and in the absence of prejudice or fraud, a meeting three days before a bond issue election will be sufficiently effective. Tedder v. Board of Supvrs., 214 Miss. 717, 59 So. 2d 329 (1952).

Where the election commissioners certified to the Board of Supervisors the essential matters necessary for the issuance of bonds of a school district, and had determined all the jurisdictional facts essential to the validity of the election, and the Board of Supervisors had found all the jurisdictional facts essential to the issuance of the bonds and had directed their issuance and validation, dependency of the mandamus suit in circuit court based on the claim that the election commissioners had unlawfully changed the registration books after they had met and revised the election rolls, was no bar to a validation proceeding in chancery court, where no appeal was taken from the order of the Board of Supervisors to the circuit court, a mandamus suit being no substitute for the appeal provided by law. In re Bonds of McNeill Special Consol. Sch. Dist., 185 Miss. 864, 188 So. 318 (1939).

Where election commissioners met for purpose of revising registration and poll books, notation "transferred to [another election district]" made on poll book opposite names of voters held ineffective as an adjudication that they were disqualified as electors. Carver v. State ex rel. Ruhr, 177 Miss. 54, 170 So. 643 (1936). But see Wade v. Williams, 517 So. 2d 573 (Miss. 1987).

Mandamus did not lie to require county election commissioners to restore name erased from registration books on ground petitioner had become disqualified as elector. Calvert v. Crosby, 163 Miss. 177, 139 So. 608 (1932).

Remedy of elector whose name is erased from registration books is to apply for reregistration and, on denial thereof, appeal to board of election commissioners, and, if necessary, to circuit court. Calvert v. Crosby, 163 Miss. 177, 139 So. 608 (1932).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Individual commissioners may perform preliminary work of identifying those individuals who have died, moved away or otherwise have become disqualified as voters without quorum of commissioners present; however, official act of removing names of those individuals who have, as matter of fact, become disqualified, must be taken by commission as whole or quorum thereof. Mitchell, Feb. 13, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0089.

Statute which provides per diem for commissioners contemplates that commission as whole be in session; however, if commission determines that in order to fulfill its' statutory responsibilities it is necessary for individual commissioners to work when quorum is not present and county board of supervisors authorizes compensation for such work, individual commissioners would be entitled to compensation for such work. Mitchell, Feb. 13, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0089.

Municipal election commissioners are required to meet on schedule set forth in statute as there are no specific statutory provisions setting forth dates that municipal election commissioners must meet. Mercer, July 17, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0572.

Commissioners are to be paid per diem for any day in which they are engaged in statutory duties (revising registration books and pollbooks or conducting election), regardless of amount of time they actually work. Richardson, February 1, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0048.

Once county election commission has made factual determination that voter has "removed" himself from his county of registration, commission has statutory duty and obligation to remove that voter's name from registration books and pollbooks, regardless of whether voter has signed cancellation form or registered in another county or state. Hutto, July 10, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0455.

There is no apparent authority for county board of supervisors to compensate individual members of party executive committee for the work they perform for their party, including holding primary elections in place of county election commissioners. Yoste, July 22, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0549.

Miss. Code Section 23-15-153 provides for meeting of commissioners, revision of registration rolls and books, and compensation of commissioners at per diem allowance. Edens, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0263.

Commissioner who works five or more hours in one day is paid $70.00 for that day with no carry over of any hours worked in excess of five hours, but commissioner may carry over hours if he works less than five hours on any particular day so that hours carried over would be added to hours of less than five worked on other days until a total of five hours is accumulated. Watts, July 14, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0496.

There is no requirement that election commission or executive committees actually be in session and present with Registrar in order for Registrar to perform ministerial tasks and be entitled to appropriate compensation. Dixon, August 16, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0575.

Section 23-15-153 applies to Municipal Voting Rolls in that same procedures may be employed to purge Municipal Voting Rolls. Zebert Sept. 15, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0593.

There is no United States Department of Justice requirement that must be made regarding purging of municipal voter rolls; proper guidelines to follow are found in Section 23-15-153. Zebert Sept. 15, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0593.

Municipalities can purge the voter rolls based on returned mass mailings unless federal election law applies. Exum-Petty, March 20, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0149.

Any and all requests for access to or copies of county voter registration records must be made to the county registrar, and it is the duty and responsibility of the county registrar to insure that voters' social security numbers, telephone numbers, and dates of birth and age information are excluded prior to granting access or providing copies of such records. Johnson, March 10, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0112.

The purging duties of county election commissioners are subject to an annual limitation regardless of the number of regularly scheduled primary or general elections; they would be entitled to additional days for purging only for special elections except those conducted on the regular special election day in November; therefore, for purposes of compensation of county election commissioners for their purging duties, primary and general elections are not separate events in the sense that would entitle commissioners to compensation in excess of the stated annual limitation on days. McLeod, Oct. 13, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0594.

Subsection (4) does not encompass primary elections because county election commissioners have no duties in the conduct of primaries. McLeod, Oct. 13, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0594.

The revision of the poll books for a primary election would entitle a county election commissioner to be compensated pursuant to subsection (2) subject to the annual limitation specified therein. McLeod, Oct. 13, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0594.

A per diem may be earned in one of two ways: first, a period of not less than five hours during a particular day would entitle a commissioner to a per diem; second, a period of less than five hours worked during a particular day may be carried forward and added to other periods of less than five hours. Once a total of five hours is accumulated over a period of two or more days, the commissioner would also be entitled to a per diem. McLeod, Oct. 13, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0594.

Any per diem earned for work in connection with revising primary election poll books will count against the annual limitation set forth in subsection (2); and, no per diem pursuant to subsection (4) can be earned with regard to a primary election because county election commissioners have no duties in the conduct of primaries. McLeod, Oct. 13, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0594.

A registrar must be actually employed in assisting election commissioners or party executive committees, either personally or through a deputy, for a minimum of five hours during a day or for a minimum of five hours accumulated over two or more days in order to claim a per diem; if a registrar, either personally or through a deputy, is actually employed in assisting both the democratic and republican executive committees for the requisite period during the same day, he or she would be entitled to claim two per diems. Butler, Nov. 3, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0667.

The number of per diem days county election commissioners may lawfully claim is that prescribed by House Bill 685 based on the population figures of the 2000 federal decennial census, provided that all hours worked are actually required, performed, and documented as required by law; there is no requirement to pro-rate the number of days for calendar year 2001 between the "old law" and the "new law." Scott, Sept. 21, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0598.

The statute as it read on April 17, 2001 controlled as to the number of per diem days county election commissioners could lawfully claim, and House Bill 685 did not grant any additional days for the April 17 flag referendum or any other election conducted prior to June 13, 2001. Scott, Sept. 21, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0598.

County election commissioners were entitled to claim per diem days for revising the registration books and pollbooks during calendar year 2001 up to the maximum number authorized by House Bill 685 even though the new law only became effective on June 13, 2001, provided that such purging was necessary and the work was performed and documented as required by law. Scott, Sept. 21, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0598.

Performing one or more of various duties, such as training poll workers, appointing poll workers, distributing ballot boxes, having ballots printed, distributing ballots, and/or receiving and canvassing election returns, in connection with primary elections does not constitute performing official duties of a county election commission for which per diem is authorized pursuant to the statute. Robertson, Oct. 12, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0638.

The Election Commissioners Association of Mississippi can lawfully sponsor one or more training events for its members, and election commissioners attending a training event sponsored by the association are entitled to receive a per diem provided a training certificate from the association is received and provided the six day limit is not exceeded. Phillips, Feb. 1, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0026.

Individual election commissioners may be employed on a part-time basis by the board of supervisors to perform redistricting tasks provided the board determines, consistent with the facts that (1) the work involved is not required to be performed by the registrar or deputy registrar; and (2) the work is over and above the regular statutory duties of the election commissioners. Martin, Jr., May 31, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0326.

There is no authority for a county board of supervisors to election commission members for redistricting work over and above their regular "purging" duties. Young, Mar. 7, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0096.

Even in the absence of a book listing persons who have been convicted of disqualifying crimes, the election commission is still responsible under subsection (1) of this section for removing disenfranchised felons from the voter rolls from other sources, such as the docket book in the Attorney General's office. Also, under 23-15-19, the circuit clerk as county registrar is required to erase from the registration records the name of any person convicted of any disenfranchising crime. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

With the exception of removing names of persons convicted of disqualifying crimes from the registration records by the circuit clerk, the election commission has sole authority for maintaining and purging the voter roll. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

There is nothing that allows a county board of supervisors to authorize per diem for election commissioners for days in excess of that provided for by this section. The mandate of the court for a hand recount of ballots must be met even if it means working beyond normal hours each of the remaining days. Porter, Dec. 10, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0594.

Failure of a municipal election commission to properly purge registration books and poll books in accordance with Section 23-15-153 could result in the fraudulent use of the names of deceased voters or voters who have been otherwise disqualified to cast illegal votes which could affect the validity of the election. Noel, Apr. 5, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0129.

Each county registrar must use sound discretion in determining whether the chairman of the election commission should be the only one other than the registrar to have a key to the room where voter registration records are stored. Reasonable hours of access to the room would be established by the circuit clerk, in his or her discretion. Griffith, Aug. 8, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0378.

The work necessitated by municipal redistricting is not a part of the regular duties of municipal election commissioners. Therefore, the municipal governing authorities may employ and compensate individual county election commissioners or they may employ and compensate individual municipal election commissioners to perform such work. Jones, Aug. 19, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0414.

Individual county election commissioners are entitled to per diem compensation pursuant to Section 23-15-153 for conducting demonstrations of Diebold voting machines. Robinson, Feb. 24, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0065.

There is no statutory mandate as to where the election commission must meet to conduct other than official business; however, notice of any meeting that is not at a place and time specified by statute to conduct official business or discuss matters that may lead to the formulation of public policy must be given and the meeting must be held in accordance with the State Open Meetings law. Wileman, May 26, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0196.

Governing authorities may lawfully set the compensation of municipal election commissioners at the same rate and within the guidelines established by Section 23-15-153 for county election commissioners. Turnage, Sept. 15, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0455.

A county election commission may continue to purge names from the registration books and poll books within 90 days of a regularly scheduled primary or general election with the exception that any program the purpose of which is to systematically remove the names of ineligible voters based on residency must be completed prior to 90 days prior to a regularly scheduled primary or general election. Jones, Dec. 8, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0620.

The minutes of a county election commission should be available as a public record in the office of the circuit clerk. Jones, Dec. 8, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0620.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Phrase "all needed assistance of which he is capable" is intended to encourage cooperation between registrar and election commissioners to insure that registration books and pollbooks contain only names of those individuals who meet statutory requirements of qualified elector. SUBARTICLE G.

STATEWIDE CENTRALIZED VOTER SYSTEM

§ 23-15-163. Purpose of subarticle.

The purposes of this subarticle are:

(a) To establish a centralized statewide qualified voter file that consists of all qualified electors who are registered to vote;

(b) To enhance the uniformity of the administration of elections by creating and maintaining a centralized statewide file of qualified voters;

(c) To increase the efficiency and decrease the cost of maintaining voter registration records and implementing the National Voter Registration Act of 1993;

(d) To increase the integrity of the voting process by compiling a single centralized qualified voter file from county voter roll data that will permit the name of each citizen of this state to appear only once;

(e) To apply technology and information gathered by principal executive departments of state government, state agencies and local voter registrars in a manner that ensures that accurate and current records of qualified voters are maintained and to secure cooperation among all state and county entities to develop systems and processes that are interfaced with the Statewide Elections Management System; and

(e) Provide security and protection of all information in the system and monitor the system to ensure that unauthorized access is not allowed;

(f) Provide a procedure that will allow the registrar, or his or her designee or other appropriate official, as the law may require, to identify the precinct to which a voter should be assigned; and

(g) Provide a procedure for phasing in or converting existing manual and computerized voter registration systems in counties to the Statewide Elections Management System.

(5) The Secretary of State established an advisory committee to assist in developing system specifications, procurement, implementation and maintenance of the Statewide Elections Management System. The committee included two (2) representatives from the Circuit Clerks Association, appointed by the association; two (2) representatives from the Election Commissioners Association of Mississippi, appointed by the association; one (1) member of the Mississippi Association of Supervisors, or its staff, appointed by the association; the Director of the Stennis Institute of Government at Mississippi State University, or his or her designee; the Executive Director of the Department of Information Technology Services, or his or her designee; two (2) persons knowledgeable about elections and information technology appointed by the Secretary of State; and the Secretary of State, who shall serve as the chair of the advisory committee.

ARTICLE 5.
TIMES OF PRIMARY AND GENERAL ELECTIONS

SUBARTICLE A. MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

§ 23-15-171. Primary elections.

(1) Municipal primary elections shall be held on the first Tuesday in April preceding the general municipal election and, in the event a second primary shall be necessary, such second primary shall be held on the fourth Tuesday in April preceding such general municipal election. The candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast in the election shall be the party nominee. If no candidate shall receive a majority vote at the election, the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall have their names placed on the ballot for the second primary election. The candidate receiving the most votes cast in the second primary election shall be the party nominee. However, if no candidate shall receive a majority vote at the first primary, and there is a tie in the election of those receiving the next highest vote, those candidates receiving the next highest vote and the candidate receiving the highest vote shall have their names placed on the ballot for the second primary election, and whoever receives the most votes cast in the second primary election shall be the party nominee. At the primary election the municipal executive committee shall perform the same duties as are specified by law and performed by members of the county executive committee with regard to state and county primary elections. Each municipal executive committee shall have as many members as there are elective officers of the municipality, and the members of the municipal executive committee of each political party shall be elected in the primary elections held for the nomination of candidates for municipal offices. The provisions of this section shall govern all municipal primary elections as far as applicable, but the officers to prepare the ballots and the poll managers and other officials of the primary election shall be appointed by the municipal executive committee of the party holding the primary, and the returns of such election shall be made to such municipal executive committee. Vacancies in the executive committee shall be filled by it.

(2) Provided, however, that in municipalities operating under a special or private charter which fixes a time for holding elections, other than the time fixed by Chapter 491, Laws of 1950, the first primary election shall be held on the first Tuesday, two (2) months before the time for holding the general election, as fixed by the charter, and the second primary election, where necessary, shall be held three (3) weeks after the first primary election, unless the charter of any such municipality provides otherwise, in which event the provisions of the special or private charter shall prevail as to the time of holding such primary elections.

(3) All primary elections in municipalities shall be held and conducted in the same manner as is provided by law for state and county primary elections.

1.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

A candidate for municipal office, who withdrew from the party nomination after a second primary resulted in a tie between him and another and a third primary was called in violation of law, and who thereafter presented a petition signed by eighty-eight qualified electors of the town to have his name printed on the official ballot, was entitled to have his name printed on the official ballot as a candidate for the office in the general election, his participation in the first and second primaries being no bar to that course. Omar v. West, 186 Miss. 136, 188 So. 917 (1939).

Where the result of a second primary called by a political party ended in a tie for two candidates for a municipal office the election of one of such candidates after nomination by a third primary was void. Omar v. West, 186 Miss. 136, 188 So. 917 (1939).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Election of individuals to Democratic Municipal Executive Committee in 1986 was not matter of general knowledge among citizenry of Yazoo City, and temporary committee was established; individuals duly elected in 1986 to serve as municipal democratic executive committee had legal authority and responsibility to conduct 1990 municipal democratic primary election. Granberry, Jan. 30, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0100.

Miss. Code Section 23-15-171 which requires that members of municipal party executive committees be elected implies that anyone who wishes to be member of executive committee must declare candidacy for membership; therefore, one who wishes to be candidate for membership on municipal party executive committee must express intention by filing with municipal clerk written statement of intent just as candidates for regular municipal offices are required to do by Miss. Code Section 23-15-309. Jackson, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0292.

The standard for the payment of rent for the use of a polling place is reasonableness, and municipal governing authorities may consider any factors deemed appropriate in arriving at an amount they deem to be reasonable. Brown, Sept. 26, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0513.

Where only one person was elected to serve on a municipal party executive committee, it is suggested that the one duly elected member appoint another individual and that they together appoint an additional member and continue in that manner until a full complement of members comprise the committee. Magee, Dec. 1, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0587.

No authority can be found in state law for a municipal party executive committee to remove one of its members on its own motion. Martin, Aug. 5, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0409.

§ 23-15-191. Primary elections.

The first primary shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of August preceding any regular or general election; and the second primary shall be held three (3) weeks thereafter. When there is a tie in the first primary of those receiving next highest vote, these two (2) and the one (1) receiving the highest vote, none having received a majority, shall go into the second primary, and whoever leads in such second primary shall be entitled to the nomination."

Failure to conform to statutory requirements in the appointment of election commissioners merely makes them de facto officers whose acts do not invalidate an election. Barnes v. Ladner, 241 Miss. 606, 131 So. 2d 458 (1961).

State election commissioners have power, authority, and responsibility to help administer voter registration laws by formulating rules for the various tests applied to applicants for registration, and for the reason that these rules and tests are vitally important elements of Mississippi laws challenged in an action brought by the United States to end discrimination in voter registration, the commissioners should not have been stricken as parties defendants to the action on the ground that they lacked sufficient interest in administering or enforcing the challenged laws. Barnes v. McLeod, 165 Miss. 437, 140 So. 740 (1932).

Suit to enjoin county election commissioners from placing Democratic nominee for county office on official ballots for general election because of fraud in primary election held not within jurisdiction of chancery court. Barnes v. McLeod, 165 Miss. 437, 140 So. 740 (1932).

All candidates shall declare in writing their party affiliation, if any, to the board of supervisors, and such party affiliation shall be shown on the official ballot.

(4) The petition shall have attached thereto a certificate of the county registrar showing the number of qualified electors on each petition, which shall be furnished by the registrar on request. The board shall determine the sufficiency of the petition, and if the petition contains the required number of signatures and is filed within the time required, the president of the board shall verify that the candidate is a resident of the supervisors district in which he or she seeks election and that the candidate is otherwise qualified as provided by law, and shall certify that the candidate is qualified to the chair or secretary of the county election commission and the names of the candidates shall be placed upon the ballot for the ensuing election. No county election commissioner shall serve or be considered as elected until he or she has received a majority of the votes cast for the position or post for which he or she is a candidate. If a majority vote is not received in the first election, then the two (2) candidates receiving the most votes for each position or post shall be placed upon the ballot for a second election to be held three (3) weeks later in accordance with appropriate procedures followed in other elections involving runoff candidates.

(5) Upon taking office, the county election commissioners shall organize by electing a chair and a secretary.

(6) It shall be the duty of the chair to have the official ballot printed and distributed at each general or special election.

[From and after January 1, 2032, this section shall read as follows:]

(1) There shall be elected five (5) election commissioners for each county whose terms of office shall commence on the first Monday of January following their election and who shall serve for a term of four (4) years. Each of the commissioners shall be required to attend a training seminar provided by the Secretary of State and satisfactorily complete a skills assessment, and before acting, shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution. The oath shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the chancery court. Upon filing the oath of office, the election commissioner may be provided access to the Statewide Elections Management System for the purpose of performing his or her duties. While engaged in their duties, the commissioners shall be conservators of the peace in the county, with all the duties and powers of such.

(2)(a) At the general election in 2032 and every four (4) years thereafter, the qualified electors of the board of supervisors' Districts One, Three and Five shall elect in their district one (1) election commissioner.

(b) At the general election in 2034 and every four (4) years thereafter, the qualified electors of the board of supervisors' Districts Two and Four shall elect in their district one (1) election commissioner.

(c) No more than one (1) commissioner shall be a resident of and reside in each supervisors district of the county; it being the purpose of this section that the county board of election commissioners shall consist of one (1) person from each supervisors district of the county and that each commissioner be elected from the supervisors district in which he or she resides.

(3) Candidates for county election commissioner shall qualify by filing with the clerk of the board of supervisors of their respective counties a petition personally signed by not less than fifty (50) qualified electors of the supervisors district in which they reside, requesting that they be a candidate, by 5:00 p.m. not later than the first Monday in June of the year in which the election occurs and unless the petition is filed within the required time, their names shall not be placed upon the ballot. All candidates shall declare in writing their party affiliation, if any, to the board of supervisors, and such party affiliation shall be shown on the official ballot.

(4) The petition shall have attached thereto a certificate of the county registrar showing the number of qualified electors on each petition, which shall be furnished by the registrar on request. The board shall determine the sufficiency of the petition, and if the petition contains the required number of signatures and is filed within the time required, the president of the board shall verify that the candidate is a resident of the supervisors district in which he or she seeks election and that the candidate is otherwise qualified as provided by law, and shall certify that the candidate is qualified to the chair or secretary of the county election commission and the names of the candidates shall be placed upon the ballot for the ensuing election. No county election commissioner shall serve or be considered as elected until he or she has received a majority of the votes cast for the position or post for which he or she is a candidate. If a majority vote is not received in the first election, then the two (2) candidates receiving the most votes for each position or post shall be placed upon the ballot for a second election to be held three (3) weeks later in accordance with appropriate procedures followed in other elections involving runoff candidates.

(5) In the first meeting in January of each year, the county election commissioners shall organize by electing a chair and a secretary, who shall serve a one (1) year term. The county election commissioners shall provide the names of the chair and secretary to the Secretary of State and provide notice of any change in officers which may occur during the year.

(6) It shall be the duty of the chair to have the official ballot printed and distributed at each general or special election.

By letter dated August 4, 2009, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws, 2009, ch. 437, § 1.

There is an error in this section as it was amended by § 38 of Chapter 441. The act set the section out in two tiers, one effective until January 1, 2028, and the other effective from and after January 1, 2032, leaving a gap between January 1, 2028, and January 1, 2032. This is an error that will be corrected by the Legislature in a future session.

Amendments- The 2000 amendment inserted "by 5:00 p.m." in the third paragraph.

The 2009 amendment rewrote the third and fourth paragraphs.

The 2017 amendment provided for two versions of this section; in the version effective until January 1, 2028, designated the formerly undesignated paragraphs (1) through (6), in (1), substituted "election in 2020" for "election in 1984," and "election commissioners" for "commissioners of election," divided the former second sentence into the present second and third sentences, in the second sentence, inserted "shall be required to...complete a skills assessment and," in the third sentence, inserted "shall be filed" and deleted "there to remain" from the end, and added the fourth sentence, in (2), rewrote the first sentence, which read: "The qualified electors of each supervisors district shall elect, at the general election in 1984 and every four (4) years thereafter, in their district one (1) commissioner of election" and added the second and third sentences, inserted "county" near the beginning of (4), substituted "election commissioners" for "commissioners of election" in (5), and made gender neutral and minor stylistic changes throughout; and added the version of the section effective from and after January 1, 2032.

Failure to conform to statutory requirements in the appointment of election commissioners merely makes them de facto officers whose acts do not invalidate an election. Barnes v. Ladner, 241 Miss. 606, 131 So. 2d 458 (1961).

Each of the three commissioners is under duty to report and present to the commissioners as a body all petitions which have been duly presented to him. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

Power to determine whose name is entitled to appear upon the ballot is vested not in the ballot commissioner alone but in the commissioners as a body. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Where Court ruled that county-wide elections for post of Election Commissioners for Simpson County were enjoined, appropriate officials must proceed to fill vacancy on Simpson County Election Commission due to death of previous Election Commissioner, provided that this would be acceptable to U.S. District Court for Southern District of Mississippi which retains jurisdiction over issue of how elections for election commissioners shall be conducted. § 23-15-215. Performance by board of supervisors of election commissioners' duties.

If there shall not be election commissioners in any county, or if they fail to act, the duties prescribed for them shall be performed by the board of supervisors. In such case, the president of the board is charged with the duty of having the official ballot printed and distributed; and the poll managers shall make returns to the board, which shall canvass the returns, give certificates of election, and make report to the Secretary of State, in like manner as the election commissioners are required to do.

§ 23-15-217. County election commissioner authorized to be candidate for other office; resignation from office; duties and powers of board of supervisors where election of county election commissioner is contested.

(1) An election commissioner of any county may be a candidate for any other office at any election held or to be held during the four-year term for which he or she has been elected to the office of election commissioner; provided that he or she has resigned from the office of election commissioner before he or she files to qualify for the office that he or she desires to seek. The clerk for the board of supervisors must have actually received the resignation for it to be deemed submitted.

(2) In any case involving the election of a county election commissioner wherein there is a contest of any nature, including, but not limited to, the right of any person to vote or the counting of any challenge ballot, all the duties and powers of the commission in connection with the contest shall be performed by the board of supervisors, as is contemplated by Section 23-15-215 in cases where there are no election commissioners in the county.

Editor's note- The United States Attorney General interposed no objection to the amendment by Laws of 1989, ch. 483, § 1.

The United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1991, ch. 613, § 1, on August 14, 1991.

The United States Attorney General, by letter dated June 9, 2003, interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2003, ch. 447, § 1.

The effective date of Chapter 474, Laws of 2013, which amended this section, is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bill was approved, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. For that reason, the Mississippi Attorney General's Office submitted Chapter 474, Laws of 2013, to the United States Attorney General, in order to technically meet the requirements of Section 5 and fulfill the condition in the effective date of the bill, which will allow the bill to take effect.

By letter dated July 18, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 474 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 474, so Chapter 474 became effective from and after July 18, 2013, the date of the United States Attorney General's response letter.

Amendments- The 2003 amendment added the last sentence in (1).

The 2013 amendment in (1), substituted "he or she" for "he" three times and substituted "he or she qualifies for the office which he or she desires to seek" for "January 1 of the year in which he desires to seek the office. However, a commissioner of election of any county may be a candidate in a special election to fill a vacancy in any other office, provided he resigns as election commissioner within ten (10) days after the issuance of the notice of a special election by the appropriate authorities."

The 2017 amendment, in (1), in the first sentence, substituted "election commissioners" for "commissioners of election" twice, deleted "or with reference to which he or she has acted as such" preceding "provided that he or she," and substituted "files to qualify" for "qualifies," and added the last sentence; substituted "election commissioners" for "commissioners of election" in (2); and made minor stylistic changes.

Analysis

1. In general.
- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former § 23-5-95.

1. IN GENERAL.

A county election commissioner was disqualified to run for the municipal office of mayor pursuant to § 23-15-217 because of her membership on the election commission. Stringer v. Lucas, 608 So. 2d 1351 (Miss. 1992).

Where a candidate for mayor was disqualified under § 23-15-217, a special election was warranted where over 40 percent of the votes cast were illegal and enough illegal votes were cast to change the ultimate results of the election. Stringer v. Lucas, 608 So. 2d 1351 (Miss. 1992).

Board of Supervisors' involvement in the redistricting process of a county was permissible where the Board of Supervisors assisted the election commissioners with information in order to comply with a federal court redistricting order in time to hold primaries, the evidence demonstrated that it was the Election Commission which made the decisions as to the redistricting pursuant to the statutory requirements of § 23-15-127, and the Board of Supervisors' participation was limited to supplying information. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

Section 23-15-263, which provides in part that "the county executive committee at primary elections shall discharge the functions imposed on the county election commissioners . . . and shall be subject to all the penalties to which all county election commissioners are subject," incorporates the prohibitions of § 23-15-217, which provides in part that "a commissioner of election of any county shall not be a candidate for any office at any election for which he may have been elected or with reference with which he as acted as such," and both sections were enacted to maintain and preserve the integrity of elections and ballot boxes. Thus, a county executive committee member was prohibited from being a candidate in an election which was conducted while he was a member. Breland v. Mallett, 527 So. 2d 629 (Miss. 1988).

Access to candidacy is not fundamental right and § 23-15-217 places no special burdens on minority parties or independent candidates; state has legitimate interest in preventing election commissioner from seeking another office while he has control of electors that shall vote for all candidates, where there would be potential for mischief were elections commissioner allowed effective control over registration and poll books, for 2 years, for example, then allowed to resign and seek another elective office. Meeks v. Tallahatchie County, 513 So. 2d 563 (Miss. 1987).

Section 23-15-217 is not unconstitutionally void for vagueness because ordinary person of common intelligence upon reading it could understand what was allowed and what was not; statute provides two disqualifications upon county election commissioner offering himself as candidate for office: the first, no person holding office of elections commissioner may be candidate for election to any other office at any election held or to be held during 4 year term for which that person has been elected to serve as elections commissioner; second, commissioner may not be candidate for any other office in any election with respect to which he has taken any action in his official capacity; exception to both disqualifications is that incumbent election commissioner may be candidate for re-election. Meeks v. Tallahatchie County, 513 So. 2d 563 (Miss. 1987).

Election commissioner was disqualified by statute as candidate for Justice Court Judge in 1987 election, or for any other office, except election commissioner, in any other election to be held during 4 year term which began January, 1985, notwithstanding that as election commissioner he may have in fact done nothing toward preparation for and conduct of 1987 elections; previous opinions of Attorney General to effect that elections commissioner could be candidate for other offices during term for which he was either appointed or elected, so long as he resigned as elections commissioner prior to taking any action with reference to election in which he sought to be candidate, was erroneous; however, construction of statute prohibiting such action would have no effect upon any election held prior to January 1, 1988, with exception of candidate in instant case. Meeks v. Tallahatchie County, 513 So. 2d 563 (Miss. 1987).

2.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER § 23-5-95.

Under statute prohibiting commissioner of election from becoming candidate for office, election of member of board of commissioners of levee district held not invalid because member had previously been appointed election commissioner where he took no oath of office or active part in proceeding of election commission and resigned as election commissioner on being informed that petition for his candidacy could not be allowed while he remained member of election commission, and where there was no other candidate whose rights might have been affected by member's action. State ex rel. Dist. Att'y v. Jones, 177 Miss. 598, 171 So. 678 (1937).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A municipal election commissioner may seek an elective municipal office provided he resigns as commissioner before January 1 of the year he desires to seek said elective office. Keyes, Dec. 13, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0907.

Municipal election commissioner may seek elective municipal office, provided he resigns as commissioner before January 1 of the year he desires to seek said office. Barnett, Feb. 19, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0074.

Election commissioner is not prohibited from performing his or her statutory duties when commissioner's spouse is candidate, and election commissioner whose spouse is candidate would not be prevented from participating with other commissioners in carrying out commission's statutory responsibilities in connection with elections. Kilpatrick, Oct. 30, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0853.

Election commissioner must recuse him- or herself from participation in any such decisions that must be made with respect to the election of a commissioner in commissioner's supervisor district when he or she is candidate for re-election; if remaining commissioners are evenly divided on whether or not particular affidavit ballot should be counted, board of supervisors would have to make ruling. Evans, Nov. 25, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0899.

The resignation of an election commissioner must be given to the board of supervisors prior to January 1, 1999, in order for the commissioner to be eligible to seek an elected office other than election commissioner during 1999. Smart, December 18, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0750.

The failure of a person appointed to the position of municipal election commissioner to take the oath of office results in the failure of that person to become fully qualified to assume the position, thus creating a vacancy; there was no need for the person to submit a letter of resignation. Minor, Mar. 18, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0126.

§ 23-15-219. Employment by board of election commissioners of investigators, legal counsel and others.

(1) The board of election commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered to employ and set or determine the duties of and determine the compensation of such investigators, legal counsel, secretaries, technical advisors and any other employees or persons who or which the board or a majority thereof may deem necessary to enable them to discharge the duties and obligations presently or hereafter vested in them. However, before employing such persons or setting or determining the compensation, the election commissioners must first have the approval of the board of supervisors of the county.

(2) The board of supervisors of the county is authorized and empowered to pay out of the general fund of the county the salaries and necessary traveling and subsistence expenses of the employees of the board of election commissioners in such amounts as may be mutually agreed upon by the board of supervisors and board of election commissioners, but which shall be computed on the same basis allowed to state employees when traveling on state business. All expense accounts of the employees of the board of election commissioners shall be approved by the board of election commissioners and the board of supervisors or, in the discretion of each of the boards, by one (1) of the members of each of the boards duly authorized by the respective boards to approve or disapprove the subsistence, traveling and mileage expense accounts.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a person who holds the office of election commissioner from being employed and receiving compensation pursuant to this section. Any compensation which such a person may receive from his or her employment pursuant to this section shall be in addition to any compensation that person may receive in performing his or her duties as an election commissioner.

The statute specifically authorizes the election commission, with the approval of the board of supervisors, to employ and compensate its members to perform work that enables the commission to carry out its own duties. Wright-Hart, September 11, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0548.

Because the employment of a hearing officer by the county election commission to preside over an election contest convened under § 23-15-963 (1) did not have the statutorily required approval of the County Board of Supervisors, no compensation would be authorized. § 23-15-221. Appointment and duties of municipal election commissioners; election by municipality to abolish municipal election commissioners in the municipality's county; municipal election commissioners' duties assumed by county election commissioners.

(1) The governing authorities of municipalities having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000) inhabitants according to the last federal decennial census shall appoint three (3) election commissioners; the governing authorities of municipalities having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) inhabitants or more and less than one hundred thousand (100,000) inhabitants according to the last federal decennial census shall appoint five (5) election commissioners; and the governing authorities of municipalities having a population of one hundred thousand (100,000) or more according to the last federal decennial census shall appoint seven (7) election commissioners. The municipal election commissioners, in conjunction with the municipal clerk, shall perform all the duties in respect to the municipal election prescribed by law to be performed by the county election commissioners where not otherwise provided. The election commissioners shall, in case there be but one (1) election precinct in the municipality, act as poll managers themselves.

(2) The city council or board of aldermen or other governing authority of any municipality desiring to avail itself of the provisions of the Mississippi Election Code regarding the duties of municipal election commissioners shall adopt an ordinance declaring its intention to enter into an agreement with the municipality's county to have the county election commissioners conduct municipal elections and other functions that are performed by municipal election commissioners for the benefit of the efficiency and conformity of elections, to be effective on and after a date fixed in the ordinance which must be at least thirty (30) days after the ordinance is adopted and on the first day of a month. If the municipality is located in more than one (1) county, the municipality shall choose which county it wants to conduct its elections and other duties of its municipal election commissioners and enter into an agreement with that county to have that county's election commissioners conduct the municipal elections and other functions that are performed by municipal election commissioners for the benefit of the efficiency and conformity of elections, to be effective on and after a date fixed in the ordinance which must be at least thirty (30) days after the ordinance is adopted and on the first day of a month. A certified copy of this ordinance shall be immediately forwarded to the Chair of the State Board of Election Commissioners. The municipal authorities shall have a copy of the ordinance published once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks in at least one (1) newspaper published in the municipality and having a general circulation therein. The first publication shall be not less than twenty-eight

(28) days before the effective date fixed in the ordinance, and the last publication shall be made not less than seven (7) days before such date. The publication of the ordinance may be made as provided in Section 21-17-19. Proof of publication must also be furnished to the Chair of the State Board of Election Commissioners.

(3) If a city council or board of aldermen or other governing authority of any municipality adopts an ordinance to abolish municipal election commissioners in the municipality's county and authorize county election commissioners to conduct the municipal election commissioners' duties, the county election commissioners shall conduct all of the duties of the municipal election commissioners including, but not limited to:

(a) Canvass the results of bond elections in a municipality;

(b) Canvass the returns of special and general elections for mayor and councilmen and within five (5) days after any special or general election, deliver to each person receiving the highest number of votes a certificate of election;

(c) Certify to the Secretary of State the name or names of the person or persons elected at special and general elections within ten (10) days after any special or general election;

(d) Revise the primary pollbooks for municipalities at the time and in the manner and in accordance with the laws now fixed and in force for revising pollbooks, except they shall not remove from the pollbook any person who is qualified to participate in primary elections;

(e) Print the pollbooks that are to be used in municipal elections;

(f) Print and distribute the "official ballots";

(g) Perform the duties of poll managers in the event there is only one (1) election precinct in the municipality;

(h) Perform any of the duties required of the municipal executive committee pursuant to Section 23-15-239 if the municipal executive committee has entered into a written agreement with the municipal clerk or the municipal or county election commission that gives such authorization;

(i) Determine whether each party candidate in the municipal general election is a qualified elector of the municipality, and of the ward if the office sought is a ward office, whether each candidate either meets all other qualifications to hold the office he or she is seeking or presents absolute proof that he or she will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he or she could be elected to office, and whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992;

(j) Declare each candidate elected without opposition, if the candidate meets all the qualifications to hold the office as determined pursuant to a review by the commission in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (i) of this subsection (3);

(k) Canvass the returns for municipal elections received from all voting precincts and within ten (10) days after the election, deliver to each person receiving the highest number of votes a certificate of election. If it shall appear that any two (2) or more of the candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall have received an equal number of votes, the election shall be decided by the toss of a coin or by lot, fairly and publicly drawn by the election commissioners;

(l) Transmit the statement provided in Section 23-15-611 to the Secretary of State certifying the name or names of the person or persons elected at municipal elections, and such person or persons shall be issued commissions by the Governor;

(m) Receiving the filed document by any person desiring to contest the qualifications of another person who has qualified pursuant to the provisions of Section 23-15-361 as a candidate for municipal office elected on the date designated by law for regular municipal elections that specifically sets forth the grounds of the challenge no later than thirty-one (31) days after the date of the first primary election set forth in Section 23-15-309; and

(n) Perform all other duties with respect to the municipal election prescribed by law.

(4) If the city council or board of aldermen or other governing authority of any municipality does not desire to avail itself of the provisions of the Mississippi Election Code regarding the duties of municipal election commissioners, then nothing in this section shall be construed in any way to affect, alter or modify the existence of those municipal election commissioners now operating under the laws relating to municipal election commissioners provided in the Mississippi Code of 1972. Those municipalities shall continue to enjoy the form of election commissions and the conduct of the respective elections that are now enjoyed by them, and each shall possess all rights, powers, privileges and immunities granted and conferred under the laws relating to municipal election commissioners provided in the Mississippi Code of 1972.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment, in (1), divided the former first sentence into the present first and second sentences by deleting "one (1) of whom, in each municipality, shall be designated to have printed and distributed the 'official ballots,' and all of whom" from the end of the first sentence and adding "The municipal election commissioners, in conjunction with the municipal clerk" to the beginning of the second sentence, substituted "poll managers" for "election managers" in the last sentence, and made minor stylistic changes; and added (2) through (4).

Marking of ballots by writing in name of ineligible candidate held not "distinguishing mark" which avoided entire ballot, where voters made honest effort to vote for such candidate, and not to indicate who voted ballots; hence ballots were improperly rejected as to candidates properly on ballots. *Wylie v. Municipal election contests are governed by statute relating to election of county officers. Hutson v. Miller, 148 Miss. 783, 114 So. 820 (1927).

The election commissioners appointed by the mayor and board of aldermen, where it does not appear that the municipality contained more than one election precinct, are presumed to be managers of the election. State ex rel. Att'y Gen. v. Ratliff, 108 Miss. 242, 66 So. 538 (1914).

Election contest for office of mayor of city operating under Code chapter was properly brought under this section. Shines v. Hamilton, 87 Miss. 384, 39 So. 1008 (1906).

Where a charter of a municipality provides that the mayor and aldermen shall appoint election commissioners to perform all the duties in respect to municipal elections prescribed by law, to be performed by the county election commissioners where applicable, and after the close of the polls to ascertain the results in the presence of the mayor and at least one alderman who with the commissioners shall certify the returns, the duty of the mayor to certify the returns is ministerial and he may be compelled to do so by mandamus. Bourgeois v. Fairchild, 81 Miss. 708, 33 So. 495 (1903).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

There is no specific prohibition against a county executive committee member from serving as a municipal election commissioner, but it would give the appearance of impropriety for a municipal election commissioner to be identified with a particular group of nominees. Pechloff, January 9, 1998, A.G. Op. #97-0803.

The statute contains no provision expressly stating that it is applicable to special or private charter municipalities and, therefore, a city charter provision specifying the number of election commissioners controlled over the statute. Artman, Jr., Mar. 30, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0177.

A county or municipal election commission may enter a written agreement with a county or municipal party executive committee to perform various duties in connection with a primary election such as training poll workers, appointing poll workers, distributing ballot boxes, having ballots printed, distributing ballots, and receiving and canvassing election returns; however, there is no authority that would allow a county election commission to conduct a municipal election. Cochran, Aug. 13, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0535.

If the increased revenue in a school district's budget was derived solely from the expansion of its ad valorem tax base, there was no violation of subsection (1) of this section; however, an amount is referenced in the ad valorem tax request worksheet as a "new program" was not derived solely from the expansion of the district's ad valorem tax base and, therefore, this increase in dollars must be advertised and the failure to do so requires exclusion of this amount when setting the millage rate to fund the school board's budget. Perkins, Sept. 11, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0536.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

Based on totality of circumstances, proof showed by preponderance of evidence that Mississippi's dual registration requirement and statutory prohibition on removing voter registration books from circuit clerk's office resulted in denial or abridgement of right of black citizens in Mississippi to vote and participate in electoral process. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Circuit clerks are qualified to and capable of determining, where necessity dictates and persons present themselves for deputization, which volunteers should be deputized. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Deputizing all municipal clerks would significantly increase available registration sites to those individuals living in small municipalities which are often distant from most populous areas of county, and there is no legitimate or compelling state interest served by failure to deputize all municipal clerks as deputy registrars. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

Plaintiffs who showed that challenged statutes either impinged upon their protected rights to register to vote or burdened organizational efforts to assist prospective voters in registering had standing to sue to challenge Mississippi's dual registration requirement and prohibition on satellite registration as violative of their rights and all persons similarly situated. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Allain, 674 F. Supp. 1245 (N.D. Miss. 1987), aff'd sub nom. Mississippi State Chapter, Operation Push v. Mabus, 932 F.2d 400 (5th Cir. 1991).

1. CIRCUIT CLERK AS REGISTRAR.

Since circuit clerks in Mississippi served as county registrars and Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-225 provided that for their service as county registrar they were to receive an annual salary and a meeting day per diem, both of which were to be paid for the county general fund, the vital role that clerks played in county governance weighed in favor of finding them to be county agents for purposes of 18 U.S.C.S. § 666(d)(1). United States v. Harris, - F. Supp. 2d - (S.D. Miss. July 11, 2007), affirmed by 296 Fed. Appx. 402, 2008 U.S. App. LEXIS 22020 (5th Cir. Miss. Oct. 21, 2008).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Even though county registrars are not entitled to compensation over and above what has been set by their respective boards of supervisors for maintaining extended office hours for registration and absentee balloting purposes, the compensation of a regular county employee who is also a deputy registrar and who is given the additional responsibility of registering voters during extended hours can be increased at the discretion of the board of supervisors. Griffin, Feb. 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0957.

County registrars may lawfully receive more than one per diem for the same day for their assistance of certain entities in election activities, provided that the registrar, either personally or through a deputy, actually performs required and necessary duties in assisting each entity. Griffin, Feb. 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0957.

Time and work required to transfer the names of registered voters to a newly established automated voter registration system is a single, unique occurrence, and county boards of supervisors are authorized to approve a one time additional payment for the Registrar or some qualified individual designated by the Registrar for performing this task. Griffin, Feb. 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #91-0957.

There is no requirement that election commission or executive committees actually be in session and present with registrar in order for registrar to perform ministerial tasks and be entitled to appropriate compensation. Ruffin, Dec. 23, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0932.

Miss. Code Section 23-15-225 provides that city clerk of every municipality shall be appointed as deputy registrar. Edens, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0263.

In setting election clerk's compensation, governing authorities should take into consideration fact that clerk is required by statute to perform various duties relating to municipal registrar; Miss. Code Section 23-15-225 (6) specifically provides for additional compensation for performance of duties relating to mail-in voter registration. Edens, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0263.

It is implicit in this section that circuit clerks may, upon request from the executive committee of the party, assist the executive committee with its duties in the conduct of the election (circuit clerk may receive compensation for services in assisting the election commissioners, executive committees or boards of supervisors in connection with any election); thus, although the circuit clerk may assist the executive committee in the conduct of an election, the duty and responsibility of the election remains with the executive committee and is nondelegable. White, July 30, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0323.

Individual election commissioners may be employed on a part-time basis by the board of supervisors to perform redistricting tasks provided the board determines, consistent with the facts that (1) the work involved is not required to be performed by the registrar or deputy registrar; and (2) the work is over and above the regular statutory duties of the election commissioners. Martin, Jr., May 31, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0326.

Circuit clerks may claim the same number of statutory days for assisting county executive committees as they claim for assisting county election commissions. Mitchell, May 12, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0191.

§ 23-15-227. Compensation of poll managers.

(1) The poll managers shall be each entitled to Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00) for each election; however, the board of supervisors may, in its discretion, pay the poll managers an additional amount not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per election.

(2) The poll manager who shall carry to the place of voting, away from the courthouse, the official ballots, ballot boxes, pollbooks and other necessities, shall be allowed Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each voting precinct for so doing. The poll manager who acts as returning officer shall be allowed Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each voting precinct for that service. If a person who performs the duties described in this subsection uses a privately owned motor vehicle to perform them, he or she shall receive for each mile actually and necessarily traveled in excess of ten (10) miles, the mileage reimbursement rate allowable to federal employees for the use of a privately owned vehicle while on official travel.

(3) The compensation authorized in this section shall be allowed by the board of supervisors, and shall be payable out of the county treasury.

(4) The compensation provided in this section shall constitute payment in full for the services rendered by the persons named for any election, whether there be one (1) election or issue voted upon, or more than one (1) election or issue voted upon at the same time.

Editor's note- The United States Attorney General, by letter dated August 4, 1995, interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment to this section by Laws of 1995, ch. 446, § 1.

On June 15, 2007, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment to this section by Laws of 2007, ch. 434.

The effective date of Chapter 366, Laws of 2013, which amended this section, is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bill was approved, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. For that reason, the Mississippi Attorney General's Office submitted Chapter 366, Laws of 2013, to the United States Attorney General, in order to technically meet the requirements of Section 5 and fulfill the condition in the effective date of the bill, which will allow the bill to take effect.

By letter dated July 17, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 366 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 366, so Chapter 366 became effective from and after July 17, 2013, the date of the United States Attorney General's response letter.

Amendments- The 2007 amendment substituted "Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00)" for "Fifty Dollars ($50.00)" and "Fifty Dollars ($50.00)" for "Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00)" in the first sentence of the first paragraph; and made minor stylistic changes.

The 2013 amendment inserted subsection designators and added the last sentence of (2).

The 2016 amendment brought the section forward without change.

The 2017 amendment substituted "poll managers" for "managers and clerks" twice in (1); and in (2), substituted "poll manager" for "manager or other person" twice and substituted "uses a privately owned" for "utilizes a privately owned."

Cross references- Provision that registrars shall receive the same per diem as is provided for board of election commissioners in this section and § 23-15-153, as compensation for assisting the county election commissioners in performance of their duties, see § 23-15-225.

Provision that officers of primary elections shall ordinarily receive only such compensation as is authorized by this section to be paid for similar services of managers, clerks, and returning officer, see § 23-15-301.

Provision that election commissioners shall be compensated for services rendered with respect to contests of primary elections in the manner provided for in this section, see § 23-15-939.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

There is no statutory prohibition against individual being independently appointed to serve as pollworker in two different primary elections being conducted simultaneously, although pollworkers are not entitled to additional compensation for working in more than one election on same day. Mosley, July 2, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0465.

In regard to poll workers, Miss. Code Section 23-15-231 provides for appointment of "election managers" by Election Commission; such managers are entitled, under Miss. Code Section 23-15-227, to $50 for each election; such election managers, or poll workers, are therefore employees for purposes of Workers' Compensation coverage. Trapp, Mar. 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0133.

Miss. Code Section 23-15-227 provides for $50 per election as compensation of election commissioners, managers, clerks and other persons. Edens, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0263.

§ 23-15-229. Compensation of municipal poll managers and other workers.

The compensation for poll managers and other workers in the polling places of a municipality shall be the same as the compensation paid by the county for those services; provided, however, that the governing authorities of a municipality shall not be required to pay any additional compensation authorized by the board of supervisors. The governing authorities of a municipality may, in their discretion, pay clerks and poll managers in the polling places of the municipality an additional amount of compensation not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per election.

Amendments- The 2016 amendment substituted "Fifty Dollars ($50.00)" for "Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00)."

The 2017 amendment substituted "poll managers and" for "clerks, managers and" in the first sentence; inserted "poll" in the second sentence; and made a minor stylistic change.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Miss. Code Section 23-15-229 provides for compensation of municipal clerks, managers and other workers, and states that compensation for clerks, managers and other workers in polling place shall be same as compensation paid by county for such services. Edens, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0263.

Even though heading or title of Miss. Code Section 23-15-229 uses terms "municipal clerks, managers and other workers", compensation provided for this statutory section is for "clerks, managers and other workers in the polling places"; this section is clearly referring to poll workers who have historically been designated election clerks and managers, and would not be applicable to municipal clerk. Before every election, the election commissioners shall appoint three (3) persons for each voting precinct to be poll managers, one (1) of whom shall be designated by the election commissioners as election bailiff. For general and special elections, the poll managers shall not all be of the same political party if suitable persons of different political parties can be found in the district. This section [Code 1942, § 3243] as applied to selection of managers of election from different political parties has no application to an election for the issuance of school bonds. Tedder v. Board of Supvrs., 214 Miss. 717, 59 So. 2d 329 (1952).

Fact that, pursuant to custom because of size of election district, two sets of election managers conducted the election at the voting place, did not render the votes cast thereat invalid, where one set of managers sat at one end of a table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with the letters "A" through "L", and the other set of managers sat at the other end of the table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with "M" through "Z," each set of managers using a separate ballot box and being assisted by separate clerks, and the ballots were counted and certified to by the respective managers who received them. Simmons v. Crisler, 197 Miss. 547, 20 So. 2d 85 (1944).

Irregularity in appointment of election commissioners and invalidity of so-called official ballots does not affect validity of the election. Shines v. Hamilton, 87 Miss. 384, 39 So. 1008 (1906).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

As the only statutory qualification to serve as a pollworker is that one be a qualified elector of the county in which the polling place is located, if an individual is independently appointed to act as a pollworker in more than one primary election being conducted in the same polling place, there is no statutory prohibition against an individual serving in such dual capacity. Martin, May 29, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0353.

Miss. Code Section 23-15-231 provides for appointment of "election managers" by Election Commission; such managers are entitled, under Miss. Code Section 23-15-227, to $50 for each election; election managers are therefore employees for purposes of Workers' Compensation coverage. Trapp, Mar. 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0133.

There is no prohibition against a county election commission appointing members of political party executive committees to serve as poll workers in a special or general election. Shepard, Oct. 8, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0492.

Sections 23-15-231 and 23-15-235 do not provide authority for the board of supervisors to pay pollworkers to be placed at closed voting precincts in order to direct voters to a different voting location. However, Section 19-3-40 gives the board of supervisors the authority to hire an individual to be at a closed polling place and give directions. Yancey, June 2, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0229.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

Election commission does not have the authority to open ballots certified by election managers as rejected or challenged, and commission cannot override or review decision of election manager who marked ballot as rejected or challenged; duty of commission is merely to canvass sealed ballots to determine if requirements have been met. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

Only power conferred, and only duty required of election commission, in relation to the canvass of votes, should be to count the votes, based upon returns as made by election managers, and to give certificates to those receiving majority of the votes; election commission should not go beyond or behind the returns, and reject votes, or accept votes previously rejected, or otherwise inquire into validity of conduct of election; election commission has no judicial discretion as to validity of rejected or contested votes. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

No poll manager shall serve in any election unless he or she has received these instructions once during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date upon which the election is held; however, nothing in this section shall prevent the appointment of an alternate poll manager to fill a vacancy in case of an emergency. The county executive committee or the election commissioners, as appropriate, shall train a sufficient number of alternates to serve in the event a poll manager is unable to serve for any reason.

(2)(a) If it is eligible under Section 23-15-266, the county executive committee may enter into a written agreement with the circuit clerk or the county election commission authorizing the circuit clerk or the county election commission to perform any of the duties required of the county executive committee pursuant to this section. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. RELATION TO OTHER LAWS.

Black chairman of a county political party executive committee was guilty of racial discrimination under § 2 of the Voting Rights Act because, inter alia, he prevented poll watchers from challenging the sufficiency of black voters' absentee voter applications and ballots, in derogation of their duties under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-239, and for the purpose of diluting the white vote. United States v. Brown, 494 F. Supp. 2d 440 (S.D. Miss. June 29, 2007), affirmed by 561 F.3d 420, 2009 U.S. App. LEXIS 4030 (5th Cir. Miss. 2009).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

County boards of supervisors have the discretionary authority to compensate qualified electors of the county who are duly appointed to serve as pollworkers in a primary election and attend one or more training sessions conducted by a county party executive committee. Scott, Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0067.

A county election commission may choose to appoint qualified previously trained individuals who have served in a primary to also serve in the following general election; however, if individuals who were paid for attending one or more training sessions conducted by a party executive committee are appointed by a commission, they would not be eligible for any further compensation for attending another training session. Scott, Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0067.

Because the terms "poll worker" and "manager" are interchangeable as used in the election statute, therefore, a county board of supervisors has the discretionary authority to compensate poll workers for attending certification classes pursuant to Section 23-15-239 (3). Meadows, Jan. 31, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0033.

- (iii) The operation and maintenance of any voting equipment;
- (iv) Any duties normally assigned to a bailiff; or

(b) Student interns shall at all times be under the supervision of the poll managers of the election while performing their duties at precincts.

(3) Before performing any duties, student interns shall attend all required training for poll managers of the county or municipality and any additional training considered necessary by the officials in charge of the election in the county or municipality.

(4) As used in this section "officials in charge of the election" means the county or municipal executive committee, as appropriate, in primary elections and the county or municipal election commission, as appropriate, in all other elections.

That the ballot boxes provided were not "secured by good and substantial locks" is a mere irregularity not invalidating an election. Barnes v. Ladner, 241 Miss. 606, 131 So. 2d 458 (1961).

The power of the circuit court to issue a writ of mandamus to the circuit clerk to permit inspection of the ballot boxes is necessary, supplemental to and in support of the statutory right of candidate to contest a general or special election. *Lopez v. § 23-15-259. Authority of boards of supervisors to allow compensation of officers rendering services in registration and elections and reasonable sum to supply voting compartments, tables and shelves.

The boards of supervisors of the several counties are authorized to allow compensation of the officers rendering services in matters of registration and elections, to provide ballot boxes, voter rolls as electronically maintained by the Statewide Elections Management System, and all other things required by law in registration and elections. The boards are also authorized, by order spread upon the minutes of the board setting forth the cost and source of funds therefor, to allow such reasonable sum as may be expended in supplying voting compartments, tables or shelves for use at elections.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment in the first paragraph, substituted "voter rolls as electronically maintained by the Statewide Elections Management System" for "registration and pollbooks" and rewrote the last sentence, which read: "Said boards are also authorized, by order spread upon the minutes of the board setting forth the cost and source of funds therefor, to purchase improved or unimproved property and to construct, reconstruct, repair, renovate and maintain polling places or to pay to private property owners reasonable rental fees when the property is used as a polling place for a period not to exceed the day immediately preceding the election, the day of the election, and the day immediately following the election and to allow such reasonable sum as may be expended in supplying voting compartments, tables or shelves for use at elections"; and deleted the last paragraph, which read: "All facilities owned or leased by the state, county, municipality or school district may be made available at no cost to the board of supervisors for use as polling places to such extent as may be agreed to by the authority having control or custody of such facilities."

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Purging of voter rolls of names of persons who have not voted in state, county, or federal election in last four (4) years is not applicable to municipal election commissions; municipal election commissions are required to keep and use suspended or "inactive" list compiled and provided by county election commission in order to remove or restore suspended voters. Sautermeister, March 15, 1990, A.G. Op. #90-0183.

A board of supervisors does not have the authority to pay rental fees for the use of privately owned facilities designated as county polling places for a political party to conduct a caucus. Welch, May 7, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0169.

A board of supervisors does not have the responsibility to provide or make available the various county polling places within the county precincts for use by a political party for a caucus. However, in the event the board makes space available in public facilities to other organizations, it can make space available on the same basis for conducting caucuses. Welch, May 7, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0169.

A county board of supervisors may authorize improvements to property to be used as voting precincts owned privately or by a fire protection district provided the board determines that such improvements are necessary and that the value of such improvements does not exceed a reasonable rental amount as predetermined by the board. § 23-15-263. Duties of county executive committees at primary elections.

(1) Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, the county executive committee at primary elections shall perform all duties that relate to the qualification of candidates for primary elections, print ballots for primary elections, appoint the primary election officers, resolve contests in regard to primary elections, and perform all other duties required by law to be performed by the county executive committee; however, each house of the Legislature shall rule on the qualifications of the membership of its respective body in contests involving the qualifications of such members. The executive committee shall be subject to all the penalties to which county election commissioners are subject, except that Section 23-15-217 shall not apply to members of the county executive committee who seek elective office.

(2) A member of a county executive committee shall be automatically disqualified to serve on the county executive committee, and shall be considered to have resigned therefrom, upon his qualification as a candidate for any elective office. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to a member of a county executive committee who qualifies as a candidate for a municipal elective office.

(3) The primary election officers appointed by the executive committee of the party shall have the powers and perform the duties, where not otherwise provided, required of such officers in a general election, and any and every act or omission which by law is an offense when committed in or about or in respect to such general elections, shall be an offense if committed in or about or in respect to a primary election; and the same shall be indictable and punishable in the same way as if the election was a general election for the election of state and county officers, except as specially modified or otherwise provided in this chapter.

Analysis

1. In general.
2. Remedies.
3. Illustrative cases.

1. IN GENERAL.

Section 23-15-263, which provides in part that "the county executive committee at primary elections shall discharge the functions imposed on the county election commissioners ... and shall be subject to all the penalties to which all county election commissioners are subject," incorporates the prohibitions of § 23-15-217, which provides in part that "a commissioner of election of any county shall not be a candidate for any office at any election for which he may have been elected or with reference with which he as acted as such," and both sections were enacted to maintain and preserve the integrity of elections and ballot boxes. Thus, a county executive committee member was prohibited from being a candidate in an election which was conducted while he was a member. Breland v. Mallett, 527 So. 2d 629 (Miss. 1988).

2. REMEDIES.

Remedial order was proper because it was tailored to specific conduct of a county political party executive committee and its chairman that violated § 2 of the Voting Rights Act, 42 U.S.C.S. § 1973 (reclassified as 52 USCS § 10301), it was not so broad as to deprive the committee and its chairman of their First Amendment rights, and did not prevent the committee from performing its electoral duties under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-263(1). United States v. Brown, 561 F.3d 420 (5th Cir. 2009).

3. ILLUSTRATIVE CASES.

Government properly established, for purposes of Fed. R. Civ. P. 52, that a political party executive committee and its chairman violated § 2 of the Voting Rights Act, 42 U.S.C.S. § 1973 (reclassified as 52 USCS § 10301), by intentionally diluting the voting power of white members of the party by obtaining large numbers of defective absentee ballots from black voters, facilitating improper counting of absentee ballots, and permitting improper assistance of black voters, contrary to the requirements of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-263, 23-15-715, and 23-15-549. United States v. Brown, 561 F.3d 420 (5th Cir. 2009).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A member of a municipal party executive committee may be a candidate for county or state office and remain on said municipal committee without violation of statute. Denny, May 12, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0369.

There is no apparent authority for county board of supervisors to compensate individual members of party executive committee for the work they perform for their party, including holding primary elections in place of county election commissioners. Yoste, July 22, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0549.

It is the duty of the executive committee of the political party to determine whether an individual is in fact qualified for the office sought and whether the individual should be placed on the ballot for the party primary. Evans, July 9, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0346.

A court-ordered election is not a "special election" for purposes of determining which election officials are responsible for its operation, thus, the responsibility for managing and operating the election lies with the party executive committees, and not the municipal election commission. Truly, Aug. 30, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0509.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Agreements between an election commission and a party executive committee as authorized by the statute for the performance of one or more of various duties, such as training poll workers, appointing poll workers, distributing ballot boxes, having ballots printed, distributing ballots, and/or receiving and canvassing election returns, in connection with primary elections may contain provisions whereby the executive committee agrees to compensate commissioners. § 23-15-267. Primary election ballot boxes; penalty for failure to deliver ballot boxes.

(1) The ballot boxes provided by the election commissioners in each county shall be used in primary elections, and the county executive committees shall distribute them to the voting precincts of the county before the time for opening the polls, in the same manner, as near as may be, as that provided for in general elections.

(2) The boxes shall be securely sealed and locked beginning at the start of voting on election day until the end of voting on election day; and the box shall be kept by one (1) of the poll managers, and the poll manager having the box shall carefully keep it, and neither open it himself or herself nor permit it to be done, nor permit any person to have any access to it throughout voting during election day. ARTICLE 9. SUPERVISOR'S DISTRICTS AND VOTING PRECINCTS

§ 23-15-281. Fixing supervisors districts, voting precincts and voting places; purchase of property and construction, repair, renovation, maintenance, etc. of polling places; availability of facilities for use as polling place.

(1) Each county shall be divided into supervisors districts, which shall be the same as those for the election of members of the board of supervisors, and may be subdivided thereafter into voting precincts; and there shall be only one (1) voting place in each voting precinct. Provided, however, that such boundaries, if altered, shall conform to visible natural or artificial boundaries such as streets, highways, railroads, rivers, lakes, bayous or other obvious lines of demarcation except county lines and municipal corporate limits. The board of supervisors shall notify the Office of the Secretary of State of the boundary of each supervisors district and voting precinct as then fixed and shall provide the office a legal description and a map of each supervisors district and voting precinct and shall indicate the voting place in each such district. The board of supervisors shall also ensure the legal description and map of each supervisors district is available in the circuit clerk's office for public inspection.

(2) The board of supervisors is authorized, by order spread upon the minutes of the board setting forth the cost and source of funds therefor, to purchase improved or unimproved property and to construct, reconstruct, repair, renovate and maintain polling places, or to pay to private property owners reasonable rental fees when the property is used as a polling place for a period not to exceed the day immediately preceding the election, the day of the election, and the day immediately following the election. On or before May 1, 2019, the county board of supervisors shall ensure each polling place is accessible to all voters, structurally sound, capable of providing air conditioning and heating and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

(3) All facilities owned or leased by the state, county, municipality, or school district may be made available at no cost to the board of supervisors for use as polling places to such extent as may be agreed to by the authority having control or custody of these facilities.

Pressing shop located across street and about 100 feet from a store designated by the county board of supervisors as the voting place in the district, was the proper voting place and the votes cast thereat were valid, where the owner and operator of the store informed one of the election commissioners a day or two before the election that the store could not be used as a voting place, whereupon, it being too late for a special meeting of the board for designating another voting place, the commissioner directed the election managers to hold the election at the pressing shop. *Simmons v. Fact that pursuant to custom because of size of election district two sets of election managers conducted the election at the voting place instead of one set, did not render the votes cast thereat invalid, where one set of managers sat at one end of a table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with the letters "A" through "L," and the other set of managers sat at the other end of the table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with "M" through "Z," each set of managers using a separate ballot box and being assisted by separate clerks, and the ballots were counted and certified to by the respective managers who received them. *Simmons v. § 23-15-283. Alteration of boundaries.

(1) The board of supervisors shall have power to alter the boundaries of the supervisors districts, voting precincts and the voting place therein. If the board of supervisors orders a change in the boundaries, they shall notify the election commissioners, who shall at once cause the voter rolls as electronically maintained by the Statewide Elections Management System of voting precincts affected by the order to be changed to conform to the change so as to contain only the names of the qualified electors in the voting precincts as made by the change of boundaries. Upon the order of change in the boundaries of any voting precinct or the voting place therein, the board of supervisors shall notify the Office of the Secretary of State and provide the Office of the Secretary of State a legal description and a map of any boundary change. No change shall be implemented or enforced until the requirements of this section have been met.

(2) Only officials certified by the Secretary of State shall be authorized to implement boundary line changes in the Statewide Elections Management System. The training and certification required under this subsection (2) shall be available to the circuit clerk, county election commissioners or any other individual designated by the board of supervisors to be responsible for implementing boundary line changes into the Statewide Elections Management System.

(3) Any governmental entity authorized to adopt, amend or change boundary lines shall immediately forward all changed boundary lines to the appropriate circuit clerk, who shall, if authorized under subsection (2), implement the boundary line changes in the Statewide Elections Management System. If the circuit clerk is not the appropriate person to implement the boundary line changes, the clerk shall immediately forward a copy of all materials to the appropriate person. Copies of any boundary line changes within the county shall be maintained in the office of the circuit clerk and made available for public inspection. No change shall be implemented or enforced until the requirements of this section have been met.

Amendments- The 2008 amendment rewrote the section to remove the requirement that altered boundaries conform to visible natural or artificial boundaries, such as streets, etc.

The 2017 amendment, in the second sentence of (1), substituted "election commissioners" for "commissioners of election" and "voter rolls as electronically maintained by the Statewide Elections Management System" for "registration books"; and added (2) and (3).

1.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-5-11.

Changes by the City of Canton, Mississippi in the locations of polling places and in the municipal boundaries through annexations of adjacent areas were within the requirement of § 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USC § 1973c [now 52 USCS § 10304]) that states or political subdivisions covered by the Act must obtain approval of voting procedures different from those in effect on November 1, 1964, by obtaining a declaratory judgment as to the nondiscriminatory purpose and effect of the changes from the Federal District Court for the District of Columbia, or by submitting the proposed changes to the United States Attorney General. Perkins v. Matthews, 400 U.S. 379, 91 S. Ct. 431, 27 L. Ed. 2d 476 (1971), on remand, 336 F. Supp. 6 (S.D. Miss. 1971).

Pressing shop located across street and about 100 feet from a store designated by the county board of supervisors as the voting place in the district, was the proper voting place and the votes cast thereat were valid, where the owner and operator of the store informed one of the election commissioners a day or two before the election that the store could not be used as a voting place, whereupon, it being too late for a special meeting of the board for designating another voting place, the commissioner directed the election managers to hold the election at the pressing shop. Simmons v. Crisler, 197 Miss. 547, 20 So. 2d 85 (1944).

Fact that pursuant to custom because of size of election district two sets of election managers conducted the election at the voting place instead of one set, did not render the votes cast thereat invalid, where one set of managers sat at one end of a table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with the letters "A" through "L," and the other set of managers sat at the other end of the table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with "M" through "Z," each set of managers using a separate ballot box and being assisted by separate clerks, and the ballots were counted and certified to by the respective managers who received them. Simmons v. Crisler, 197 Miss. 547, 20 So. 2d 85 (1944).

The commissioners of election, under previous statutes, alone had power to change the election districts, and the change of the boundaries of the supervisor's district did not alter the election district. Perkins v. Carraway, 59 Miss. 222 (1881).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Individual election commissioners may be employed on a part-time basis by the board of supervisors to perform redistricting tasks provided the board determines, consistent with the facts that (1) the work involved is not required to be performed by the registrar or deputy registrar; and (2) the work is over and above the regular statutory duties of the election commissioners. Martin, Jr., May 31, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0326.

Failure to file a map or description of the new districts for a county with the Secretary of State's office does not prohibit the circuit clerk and/or the election commission from implementing the new supervisor, school board, and justice court election district. Dillon, Aug. 1, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0387.

§ 23-15-285. Entry of boundaries and alterations thereto on minutes of board of supervisors; limit on number of voters within each precinct or ballot box.

The board of supervisors shall cause an entry to be made on the minutes of the board at some meeting, as early as convenient, defining the boundaries of the several supervisors districts and voting precincts in the county, and designating the voting place in each voting precinct; and as soon as practicable after any change is made in any supervisors district, voting precinct or any voting place, the board of supervisors shall cause the change to be entered on the minutes of the board in such manner as to be easily understood. The changed boundaries shall conform to visible natural or artificial boundaries such as streets, highways, railroads, rivers, lakes, bayous or other obvious lines of demarcation, with the exception of county lines and municipal corporate limits.

No voting precinct shall have more than five hundred (500) qualified electors residing in its boundaries. Subject to the provisions of this section, each board of supervisors of the various counties of this state shall as soon as practical after January 1, 1987, alter or change the boundaries of the various voting precincts to comply herewith and shall from time to time make such changes in the boundaries of voting precincts so that there shall never be more than five hundred (500) qualified electors within the boundaries of the various voting precincts of this state; provided further, this limitation shall not apply to voting precincts that are so divided, alphabetically or otherwise, so as to have less than five hundred (500) qualified electors in any one (1) box within a voting precinct. However, the limitation of five hundred (500) qualified electors to the voting precinct shall not apply to voting precincts in which voting machines are used at all elections held in that voting precinct. No change in any supervisors district or voting precinct shall take effect less than thirty (30) days before the qualifying deadline for the office of county supervisor. Any change in any boundary of a supervisors district or voting precinct that is approved under the Voting Rights Act of 1965 less than thirty (30) days before such qualifying deadline shall be effective only for an election for county supervisor held in a year following the year in which such change is approved under the Voting Rights Act of 1965. Provided, however, that, with the exception of county lines and municipal corporate limits, such altered boundaries shall conform to visible natural or artificial boundaries such as streets, highways, railroads, rivers, lakes, bayous or other obvious lines of demarcation.

Editor's note- By letter dated October 5, 2012, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Chapter 353, Laws of 2012.

Amendments- The 2012 amendment rewrote the section, which read: "The board of supervisors shall cause an entry to be made on the minutes of the board at some meeting, as early as convenient, defining the boundaries of the several supervisors districts and voting precincts in the county, and designating the voting place in each voting precinct; and as soon as practicable after any alteration shall have been made in any supervisors district or voting precinct, or any voting place changed, shall cause such alteration or change to be entered on the minutes of the board in such manner as to be easily understood; provided, however, that no voting precinct shall have more than five hundred (500) qualified electors residing in its boundaries and the board of supervisors of the various counties of this state shall as soon as practical after the effective date of this section, alter or change the boundaries of the various voting precincts to comply herewith and shall from time to time make such alterations or changes in the boundaries of voting precincts so that there shall never be more than five hundred (500) qualified electors within the boundaries of the various voting precincts of this state; provided further, this limitation shall not apply wherein voting precincts are so divided, alphabetically or otherwise, so as to have less than five hundred (500) qualified electors in any one (1) box within a voting precinct; provided, however, that the limitation of five hundred (500) qualified electors to the voting precinct shall not apply wherein voting machines are used at all elections held in any voting precinct; but no alteration of any supervisor's district or voting precinct shall take effect within two (2) months before an election to be held in the district or voting precinct. Provided, however, that, with the exception of county lines and municipal corporate limits, such altered boundaries shall conform to visible natural or artificial boundaries such as streets, highways, railroads, rivers, lakes, bayous or other obvious lines of demarcation."

The 2017 amendment made a minor stylistic change in the first paragraph.

§ 23-15-291. Nomination for state, district, county and county district office to be by primary election.

All nominations for state, district, county and county district officers made by the different parties of this state shall be made by primary elections. All primary elections shall be governed and regulated by the election laws of the state in force at the time the primary election is held.

1. AUTHORITY OF A POLITICAL PARTY.

Mississippi law regarding the power to change election procedures supported the position of plaintiffs, the Mississippi Democratic Party and its Executive Committee, that regardless of what actions a political party's executive committee had taken, they could only act when expressly authorized by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-291, and the Executive Committee did not have the authority to implement a closed primary with mandatory party registration; thus, although the Executive Committee had not voted to change their qualifications to include membership cards and had not voted to change the primary system to fully closed, the argument by defendants, the Mississippi Governor, Secretary of State, and Attorney General, that the Executive Committee's failure to pass such measures or obtain preclearance from the Department of Justice pursuant to 42 U.S.C.S. § 1973b(b) [now 52 USCS § 10303], was rejected because the Executive Committee did in fact vote to approve the lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of Mississippi's primary system. Miss. State Democratic Party v. Barbour, 491 F. Supp. 2d 641 (N.D. Miss. 2007), reversed by, vacated by 529 F.3d 538, 2008 U.S. App. LEXIS 11395 (5th Cir. Miss. 2008).

Candidates for state, state district and legislative offices shall be voted for and nominated by all the counties or parts of counties within their respective districts, and all the district nominations shall be under the supervision and control of the state executive committee of the respective political parties, which committees shall discharge in respect to such state district nominations all the powers and duties imposed upon them in connection with nominations of candidates for other state officers.

§ 23-15-295. Withdrawal of candidate.

When any person has qualified in the manner provided by law as a candidate for party nomination in any primary election, such person shall have the right to withdraw his or her name as a candidate by giving notice of his or her withdrawal in writing to the secretary of the proper executive committee at any time before the printing of the official ballots, and in the event of such withdrawal the name of the candidate shall not be printed on the ballot. When a candidate for party nomination for a state or district office who has qualified with the state executive committee withdraws as a candidate as is herein set forth after the sample of the official ballot has been approved and certified by the state executive committee the secretary or chair of the State Executive Committee shall forthwith notify the county executive committee of each county affected or involved of the fact of the withdrawal and such notification shall authorize the county executive committees to omit the name of the withdrawn candidate from the ballot if such notification is received before the printing of the ballot. In the case of the withdrawal of any candidate, the fee paid by the candidate shall be retained by the state or county executive committee, as the case may be.

1. DUE PROCESS.

Political party violated a candidate's due process because, by not timely telling the candidate the party found the candidate's petition to be put on a primary ballot insufficient or timely answering the candidate's request to reconsider, the party gave the candidate no meaningful chance to be heard when the deprivation could be prevented, as the deadline for overseas and military ballots had passed. Wilson v. Hosemann, 185 So.3d 370 (Miss. 2016).

§ 23-15-297. Fee required to be paid upon entering race for party nomination.

(b) Candidates for Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor of Public Accounts, Commissioner of Insurance, Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce, State Highway Commissioner and State Public Service Commissioner, Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

(b) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (d) and (e) of Section 23-15-297 shall be paid by each independent candidate or special election candidate to the circuit clerk of that candidate's county of residence by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held or on the date of the qualifying deadline provided by statute for the office, whichever is earlier; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held. If March 1 or the date of the qualifying deadline provided by statute for the office occurs on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, then the assessments required to be paid by this paragraph (2) (b) shall be paid by 5:00 p.m. on the business day immediately following the Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday. The circuit clerk shall forward the fee and all necessary information to the secretary of the proper county election commission within two (2) business days.

(3)(a) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 23-15-297 must be paid by each candidate who seeks a nomination in the political party election to the secretary of the state executive committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. sixty (60) days before the presidential preference primary in years in which a presidential preference primary is held; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held. Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 23-15-297, in years when a presidential preference primary is not being held, shall be paid by each candidate who seeks a nomination in the political party election to the secretary of the state executive committee with which the candidate is affiliated by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held. If sixty (60) days before the presidential preference primary in years in which a presidential preference primary is held, March 1, or the date of the qualifying deadline provided by statute for the office occurs on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, then the assessments required to be paid by this paragraph (3)(a) shall be paid by 5:00 p.m. on the business day immediately following the Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

(b) Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 23-15-297 must be paid by each independent candidate or special election candidate to the Secretary of State by 5:00 p.m. sixty (60) days before the presidential preference primary in years in which a presidential preference primary is held; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held. Assessments made pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of Section 23-15-297, in years when a presidential preference primary is not being held, shall be paid by each independent candidate or special election candidate to the Secretary of State by 5:00 p.m. on March 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held; however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held. If sixty (60) days before the presidential preference primary in years in which a presidential preference primary is held, March 1, or the date of the qualifying deadline provided by statute for the office occurs on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, then the assessments required to be paid by this paragraph (3)(b) shall be paid by 5:00 p.m. on the business day immediately following the Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday.

(4)(a) The fees paid pursuant to subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section shall be accompanied by a written statement containing the name and address of the candidate, the party with which he or she is affiliated, if applicable, the email address of the candidate, if any, and the office for which he or she is a candidate.

(b) The state executive committee shall transmit to the Secretary of State a copy of the written statements accompanying the fees paid pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section. All copies must be received by the Office of the Secretary of State by not later than 6:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline; provided, however, the failure of the Office of the Secretary of State to receive such copies by 6:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline shall not affect the qualification of a person who pays the required fee and files the required statement by 5:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline. The name of any person who pays the required fee and files the required statement after 5:00 p.m. on the date of the qualifying deadline shall not be placed on the primary election ballot or the general election ballot.

(5) The Secretary of State or the secretary or circuit clerk to whom such payments are made shall promptly receipt for same stating the office for which the candidate making payment is running and the political party with which he or she is affiliated, if applicable, and he or she shall keep an itemized account in detail showing the exact time and date of the receipt of each payment received by him or her and, where applicable, the date of the postmark on the envelope containing the fee and from whom, and for what office the party paying same is a candidate.

(6) The secretaries of the proper executive committee shall hold the funds to be finally disposed of by order of their respective executive committees. The funds may be used or disbursed by the executive committee receiving same to pay all necessary traveling or other necessary expenses of the members of the executive committee incurred in discharging their duties as committee members, and of their secretary and may pay the secretary such salary as may be reasonable. The Secretary of State shall deposit any qualifying fees received from candidates into the Elections Support Fund established in Section 23-15-5.

(7) Upon receipt of the proper fee and all necessary information, the proper executive committee or the Secretary of State, whichever is applicable, shall then determine at the time of the qualifying deadline, unless otherwise provided by law, whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the state, state district, county or county district which they seek to serve, and whether each candidate meets all other qualifications to hold the office he or she is seeking or presents absolute proof that he or she will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he or she could be elected to office. The proper executive committee or the Secretary of State, whichever is applicable, shall determine whether the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election. The committee or the Secretary of State, whichever is applicable, shall also determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state unless the offense also involved misuse or abuse of his or her office or money coming into his or her hands by virtue of the office. If the proper executive committee or the Secretary of State, whichever is applicable, finds that a candidate either (a) is not a qualified elector, (b) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he or she seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he or she will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he or she could be elected, or (c) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection, and not pardoned, then the executive committee shall notify the candidate and give the candidate an opportunity to be heard. The executive committee shall mail notice to the candidate at least three (3) business days before the hearing to the address provided by the candidate on the qualifying forms, and the committee shall attempt to contact the candidate by telephone, email and facsimile if the candidate provided this information on the forms. If the candidate fails to appear at the hearing or to prove that he or she meets all qualifications to hold the office subject to no contingencies, then the name of that candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot. If the proper executive committee or the Secretary of State, whichever is applicable, determines that the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election, the action required by Section 23-15-905, shall be taken.

Where there is but one (1) candidate for each office contested at the primary election, the proper executive committee or the Secretary of State, whichever is applicable, when the time has expired within which the names of candidates shall be furnished shall declare such candidates the nominees.

(8) No candidate may qualify by filing the information required by this section by using the Internet.

On September 10, 2007, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2007, ch. 604.

Amendments- The 2000 amendment inserted the proviso in (2); in (3), deleted "on Friday, January 26, 1996, for the presidential preference primary in 1996 and must be paid" following the first instance of "5:00 p.m.," and substituted "in years in which a presidential preference primary is held " for "the year after 1996"; added (4)(b); rewrote (7); and added (8).

The 2003 amendment added (1)(b), and redesignated former (1) as present (1)(a).

The 2006 amendment added "however, no such assessments may be paid before January 1 of the year in which the primary election for the office is held" to the end of (1)(a), (1)(b), and at the end of the first and last sentences in (3); and made a minor stylistic change.

The 2007 amendment provides for three versions of the section, in the second version, which, from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, will be effective until July 1, 2008, substituted "2010 census redistricting information that is provided to the state in accordance with federal Public Law 94-171" for "2010 federal decennial census"; and in the third version, which, from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, will be effective from and after July 1, 2008, substituted "2010 census redistricting information that is provided to the state in accordance with Public Law 94-171" for "2010 federal decennial census", and added the second and last sentences in the first paragraph of (7).

Analysis

1. Residency not established.
2. Illustrative cases.

1. RESIDENCY NOT ESTABLISHED.

Candidate and his wife claimed that they were residents of the judicial district for which the candidate sought office, however the candidate and his wife owned two homes and the record revealed that the candidate and his wife spent five days a week at their second home, which was located outside of the judicial district; the candidate was therefore unqualified to run for office in the judicial district. Garner v. State Democratic Exec. Comm., 956 So. 2d 906 (Miss. 2007).

Candidate was not qualified to run for the House of Representatives under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-299(7) because he had not lived in the district for two years prior to the elections as required by Miss. Const. art. 4, § 41; the candidate worked outside of the district, and until his separation the candidate lived in a marital house that was outside of the district and for which he tried to claim a homestead exemption. Edwards v. Stevens, 963 So. 2d 1108 (Miss. 2007).

Because a candidate for the Mississippi Senate was unable to establish "without contingencies" and with "absolute proof" that residency in a certain district would have been established by the time of an election, a political party and its executive committee properly declined to place the candidate's name on the ballot; evidence of a purchase contract for a home in the district was insufficient because the sale could have fallen through. Cameron v. Miss. Republican Party, 890 So. 2d 836 (Miss. 2004).

2. ILLUSTRATIVE CASES.

Circuit court did not commit manifest error in determining that a state senate candidate changed his domicile from Benton County to Marshall County. The candidate had provided absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he would meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he could be elected. Hale v. State Democratic Exec. Comm., 168 So.3d 946 (Miss. 2015).

Where a former chancellor had been subject to discipline in the last year of his term, and five years later ran as a candidate for district attorney, the procedure for determining electoral candidates' qualifications under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-299(7) was controlling, and the former chancellor was disqualified as a candidate, because the evidence showed the chancellor was not a "practicing attorney," on or before the date of the general election as required by Miss. Code Ann. § 25-31-1. Grist v. Farese, 860 So. 2d 1182 (Miss. 2003).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

In order to qualify for a multi-district legislative office, candidates must qualify with the secretary of the state executive committee of their chosen party by 5:00 p.m. on March 1, and, if candidates intend to run in a single county legislative district, they must qualify with the circuit clerk of their home county by 5:00 p.m. on March 1; there are no statutory provisions that allow any exceptions or extensions to these deadlines. Scott, March 26, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0161.

It is the duty of the executive committee of the political party to determine whether an individual is in fact qualified for the office sought and whether the individual should be placed on the ballot for the party primary. Evans, July 9, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0346.

When March 1, falls on a Saturday, rather than designating a date other than that required by the statute, all those officials authorized to accept candidate qualification papers must open their offices and be available for that purpose on that date until 5:00 p.m., regardless of whether that office is normally open on that day of the week. Scott, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0012.

Once it is determined by the proper executive committee, that a particular candidate meets the eligibility requirements of the above quoted statute, his or her name must be placed on the primary ballot; any finding by said committee that a candidate is not loyal to the political party conducting the primary would not authorize the committee to refuse to place that candidate's name on the primary ballot. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

If a party executive committee refuses to place a candidate's name on the primary ballot, the candidate may file a complaint in circuit court asking that the committee be enjoined to place his or her name on the ballot; the time frame for obtaining such an injunction would be prior to the printing of the official ballots. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

If a party executive committee makes the factual determination that a particular candidate is disloyal to the party and refuses to place said candidate's name on the ballot, a circuit judge when properly presented with the issue may rule on the legality of basing the decision to disqualify the candidate on the ground of party loyalty. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

If the local party refuses to qualify a candidate, the challenge would be heard by the circuit court of the county wherein the executive committee sits. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

A firefighter, or any other employee, who works a shift of twenty-four consecutive hours, exhausts three days of paid leave for each absence resulting from military service described in Miss. Code Ann. § 33-1-21, and is therefore entitled to be paid for up to five twenty-four hour shifts as the equivalent of the fifteen days paid leave authorized in the statute. Odom, March 23, 2007, A.G. Op. #07-00147, 2007 Miss. AG LEXIS 63.

An expenditure of funds received from candidate qualifications could lawfully be made for the purchase of a laptop computer if a party executive committee as a whole determines, consistent with the facts, that the purchase constitutes an expense incurred in the discharge of the duties of members of the executive committee or their secretaries. Walsh, March 16, 2007, A.G. Op. #07-000143, 2007 Miss. AG LEXIS 114.

All the expenses of printing the tickets or primary election ballots, for necessary stationery, and for paying the managers, clerks and returning officer of every primary election authorized by this chapter held in any county shall be paid by the board of supervisors of such county out of the general funds of the county, but such officers of primary elections shall receive only such compensation as is authorized by Section 23-15-227 to be paid managers, clerks and returning officer for like services in holding elections thereunder. However, this section shall not apply to the expenses of a primary election held by any political party which at either of the last two (2) preceding general elections for the office of Governor or either of the last two (2) preceding national elections for President of the United States did not vote as many as twenty percent (20%) of the total vote cast in the entire state.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

This statute does not authorize any payment to a political party or its executive committee other than those listed, i.e., the expenses of printing tickets or ballots, necessary stationery, and of paying the managers, clerks and returning officer. Harper, Dec. 18, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0926.

There is no apparent authority for county board of supervisors to compensate individual members of party executive committee for the work they perform for their party, including holding primary elections in place of county election commissioners. Yoste, July 22, 1992, A.G. Op. #92-0549.

Since programming DRE units is the equivalent of printing ballots and is an expense to be borne by the county under Section 23-15-301, a circuit clerk or election commissioner who enters an agreement to perform that task with an executive committee would be entitled to compensation in an amount agreed upon by the two parties and approved by the county board of supervisors. § 23-15-309. Nomination for elective municipal office to be made at primary election; fee requirements; determination of candidate's qualifications.

(1) Nominations for all municipal officers which are elective shall be made at a primary election, or elections, to be held in the manner prescribed by law. All persons desiring to be candidates for the nomination in the primary elections shall first pay Ten Dollars ($10.00) to the clerk of the municipality, at least sixty (60) days before the first primary election, no later than 5:00 p.m. on such deadline day. If the sixtieth day to file the fee and written statement before an election falls on a Sunday or legal holiday, the fees and written statements submitted on the business day immediately following the Sunday or legal holiday shall be accepted.

(2) The fee paid pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be accompanied by a written statement containing the name and address of the candidate, the party with which he or she is affiliated, the email address of the candidate, if any, and the office for which he or she is a candidate.

(3) The clerk shall promptly receipt the payment, stating the office for which the person making the payment is running and the political party with which such person is affiliated. The clerk shall keep an itemized account in detail showing the time and date of the receipt of such payment received by him or her, from whom such payment was received, the party with which such person is affiliated and for what office the person paying the fee is a candidate. No candidate may attempt to qualify with any political party that does not have a duly organized municipal executive committee, and the municipal clerk shall not accept any assessments made pursuant to subsection (1) if the municipal clerk does not have contact information for the secretary of the municipal executive committee for that political party. The clerk shall promptly supply all necessary information and pay over all fees so received to the secretary of the proper municipal executive committee. The funds may be used and disbursed in the same manner as is allowed in Section 23-15-299 in regard to other executive committees.

(4) Upon receipt of the above information, the proper municipal executive committee shall then determine, at the time of the qualifying deadline, whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the municipality, and of the ward if the office sought is a ward office, shall determine whether each candidate either meets all other qualifications to hold the office he or she is seeking or presents absolute proof that he or she will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he or she could be elected to office. The executive committee shall determine whether the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election. The committee also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state unless such offense also involved misuse or abuse of his or her office or money coming into his or her hands by virtue of the office. If the proper municipal executive committee finds that a candidate either (a) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he or she seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he or she will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he or she could be elected, or (b) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection and not pardoned, then the executive committee shall notify the candidate and give the candidate an opportunity to be heard. The executive committee shall mail notice to the candidate at least three (3) business days before the hearing to the address provided by the candidate on the qualifying forms, and the committee shall attempt to contact the candidate by telephone, email and facsimile if the candidate provided this information on the forms. If the candidate fails to appear at the hearing or to prove he or she meets all qualifications to hold the office subject to no contingencies, then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot. If the executive committee determines that the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election, the action required by Section 23-15-905, shall be taken.

(5) Where there is but one (1) candidate, the proper municipal executive committee when the time has expired within which the names of candidates shall be furnished shall declare such candidate the nominee.

Joint Legislative Committee Note- Section 1 of ch. 549, Laws of 2000, effective from and after the date said ch. 549 is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, amended this section. Section 4 of ch. 592, Laws of 2000, effective from and after the date said ch. 592 is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, also amended this section. As set out above, this section reflects the language of both amendments pursuant to Section 1-1-109, which gives the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision, and Publication authority to integrate amendments so that all versions of the same code section enacted within the same legislative session may become effective. The Joint Committee on Compilation, Revision, and Publication ratified the integration of these amendments as consistent with the legislative intent at the June 29, 2000 meeting of the Committee.

Pursuant to Section 1-1-109, the Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation corrected an error in (4) by adding "then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot" at the end of the next-to-last sentence. The Joint Committee ratified the correction at the August 15, 2017, meeting of the Committee.

Editor's note- Laws of 1987, ch. 499, § 20, provides as follows:

"SECTION 20. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is declared to be unconstitutional or void, or for any reason is declared to be invalid or of no effect, the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases shall be in no manner affected thereby but shall remain in full force and effect."

On July 28, 2000, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2000, chs. 549 and 592.

On September 10, 2007, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2007, ch. 604.

Amendments- The first 2000 amendment (ch. 549) substituted "sixty (60) days" for "thirty (30) days" in (1).

The second 2000 amendment (ch. 592) rewrote (4).

The 2007 amendment added the second and last sentences of (4) in the third version, which, from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, will be effective from and after July 1, 2008.

The 2016 amendment brought the section forward without change.

The 2017 amendment added the last sentence of (1); inserted "the email address of the candidate, if any" in (2); added the third sentence of (3); in (4), inserted "at the time of the qualifying deadline" in the first sentence, substituted "the executive committee shall notify the candidate and give the candidate an opportunity to be heard" for "the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot" at the end of the fifth sentence, and added the sixth and seventh sentences; and made gender neutral and minor stylistic changes.

Cross references- Provision that a municipal general election ballot shall contain the names of persons who have been requested to be candidates by petition filed no later than the date on which candidates for nomination in the municipal primary elections are required to pay the fee provided for in this section, see § 23-15-361.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

There is no specific prohibition against a county executive committee member from serving as a municipal election commissioner, but it would give the appearance of impropriety for a municipal election commissioner to be identified with a particular group of nominees. Pechloff, January 9, 1998, A.G. Op. #97-0803.

A party executive committee must be in place on the qualifying deadline so that the municipal clerk can "promptly" turn the fees and statements of intent over to said committee. Howell, Feb. 28, 2001, A.G. Op. #2001-0123.

The statute clearly contemplates that a municipal party executive committee be in place at the time a potential candidate files his statement of intent and pays the filing fee; however, if a clerk has accepted one or more potential candidate's statement of intent and filing fee at a time when no committee is in place and a legitimate temporary committee is subsequently formed prior to the qualifying deadline, such temporary committee could proceed to review the potential candidates' qualifications and conduct a party primary and/or certify unopposed candidates as the party's nominees. Bowman, Mar. 16, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0155.

Since municipal party executive committees are statutorily charged with the responsibility of conducting municipal primaries in accordance with state law, membership on said committees constitutes serving in a position of public trust. James, Oct. 18, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0597.

Potential candidates for membership on a municipal party executive committee are subject to the provisions of Section 44 of the Constitution and this section as they pertain to criminal convictions. James, Oct. 18, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0597.

If a municipal party executive committee finds that a potential candidate for membership on said committee who has filed his or her statement of intent has been convicted of any felony covered by Section 44 of the Constitution and this section, said committee could not lawfully qualify that individual as a candidate. James, Oct. 18, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0597.

A party executive committee has no authority to disqualify or refuse to certify a candidate upon its finding that the candidate misused or abused his office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office unless there is a felony conviction relating to such alleged misconduct. Mullins, Apr. 8, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0176.

§ 23-15-313. Selection of temporary executive committee in municipality not having party executive committee; notice to public; county executive committee to serve as municipal executive committee under certain circumstances; person convicted of felony barred from serving as member of municipal executive committee.

(1) If there be any political party, or parties, in any municipality which shall not have a party executive committee for such municipality, such political party, or parties, shall within thirty (30) days of the date for which a candidate for a municipal office is required to qualify in that municipality select qualified electors of that municipality and of that party's political faith to serve on a temporary municipal executive committee until members of a municipal executive committee are elected at the next regular election for executive committees. The temporary municipal executive committee shall be selected in the following manner: The chairman of the county executive committee of the party desiring to select a temporary municipal executive committee shall call, upon petition of five (5) or more members of that political faith, a mass meeting of the qualified electors of their political faith who reside in such municipality to meet at some convenient place within such municipality, at a time to be designated in the call, and at such mass convention the members of that political faith shall select a temporary municipal executive committee which shall serve until members of a municipal executive committee are elected at the next regular election for executive committees. The public shall be given notice of such mass meeting as provided in Section 23-15-315. The chairman of the county executive committee shall authorize the call within five (5) calendar days of receipt of the petition. If the chairman of the county executive committee is either incapacitated, unavailable or nonresponsive and does not authorize the mass call within five (5) calendar days of receipt of the petition, any elected officer of the county executive committee may authorize the call within five (5) calendar days. If no elected officer of the county executive committee acts to approve such petition after an additional five (5) calendar days from the date, the chair of the county executive committee not taking action as provided by this section, the petitioners shall be authorized to produce the call themselves.

(2) If no municipal executive committee is selected or otherwise formed before an election, the county executive committee may serve as the temporary municipal executive committee and exercise all of the duties of the municipal executive committee for the municipal election. After a county executive committee has fulfilled its duties as the temporary municipal executive committee, as soon as practicable thereafter, the county executive committee shall select a municipal executive committee no later than before the next municipal election.

(3) A person who has been convicted of a felony in a court of this state or any other state or a court of the United States, shall be barred from serving as a member of a municipal executive committee.

Amendments- The 2010 amendment rewrote the section, revising how citizens of a municipality are chosen to serve on a temporary municipal executive committee and barring persons who have been convicted of a felony from serving on a municipal executive committee.

under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965.)

Editor's note- The effective date of Chapter 391, Laws of 2013, which amended this section, is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bill was approved, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. For that reason, the Mississippi Attorney General's Office submitted Chapter 391, Laws of 2013, to the United States Attorney General, in order to technically meet the requirements of Section 5 and fulfill the condition in the effective date of the bill, which will allow the bill to take effect.

By letter dated August 1, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 391 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 391, so Chapter 391 became effective from and after August 1, 2013, the date of the United States Attorney General's response letter.

By letter dated July 22, 2010, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2010, ch. 428, § 2.

Amendments- The 2010 amendment deleted "chairman of the" preceding "county executive committee"; inserted "then in some newspaper having general circulation in the municipality and," and "one (1) of which shall be city hall or be the regular location where the municipal governing authority meets to conduct business"; and made minor stylistic changes.

The 2013 amendment inserted "chairman" following "county executive committee," "at least once per week" and "continuously" following "municipality and by posting notices."

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

§ 23-15-317. Nomination of nominee when vacancy in nomination occurs between primary election and general election; procedure for withdrawal based upon legitimate nonpolitical reason.

If any person nominated for office in a primary election shall die, be removed after his or her nomination or withdraw or resign from his or her candidacy for a legitimate nonpolitical reason as defined in this section, and the vacancy in nomination shall occur between the primary election and the ensuing general election, then the municipal, county or state executive committee with which the original nominee qualified as a candidate in the primary election shall nominate a nominee for such office. Where such a party nominee is unopposed each political party registered with the State Board of Election Commissioners shall have the privilege of nominating a candidate for the office involved. Such nominee shall be duly certified by the respective executive committee chair. Within two (2) days after such nomination is made by the appropriate executive committee, such committee shall formally notify the Secretary of State of the name of the nominee. The Secretary of State shall thereupon officially notify the appropriate officials charged with conducting the election for the office wherein the vacancy occurred of the name of the nominee. All nominations made pursuant to the provisions of this section shall have the same force and effect and shall entitle the nominees to all rights and privileges that would accrue to them as if they had been nominated in the regular primary election.

"Legitimate nonpolitical reason" as used in this section shall be limited to the following:

(a) Reasons of health, which shall include any health condition which, in the written opinion of a medical doctor, would be harmful to the health of the candidate if he or she continued.

(b) Family crises, which shall include circumstances which would substantially alter the duties and responsibilities of the candidate to the family or to a family business.

(c) Substantial business conflict, which shall include the policy of an employer prohibiting employees being candidates for public offices and an employment change which would result in the ineligibility of the candidate or which would impair his or her capability to properly carry out the functions of the office being sought.

Any candidate who withdraws based upon a "legitimate nonpolitical reason" which is not covered by the above definition shall have the strict burden of proof for his or her reason.

A candidate who wishes to withdraw for a legitimate nonpolitical reason shall submit his or her reason by sworn affidavit. Such affidavit shall be filed with the state party chair of the nominee's party and the State Board of Election Commissioners. No substitution of candidates shall be authorized, except for death or disqualification, unless the State Board of Election Commissioners approves the affidavit as constituting a "legitimate nonpolitical reason" for the candidate's resignation within five (5) days of the date the affidavit is submitted to the board.

Immediately upon approval or disapproval of such affidavit, the State Board of Election Commissioners shall notify the respective executive committee of same.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

The statute applies only where a candidate dies after the primary but prior to the general election. Upton v. McKenzie, 761 So. 2d 167 (Miss. 2000).

State political party acted in good faith in nominating candidate for state House of Representatives prior to primary election when one candidate died and the other withdrew for legitimate reason; statute permitting political party to fill vacancy in nomination technically applied only to candidates who withdraw after primary, but there was no provision that gave direction to party on how to proceed under facts presented, and there was no fact or circumstance in case that indicated any wrongful or fraudulent purpose in conduct of election. Cummings v. Benderman, 681 So. 2d 97 (Miss. 1996).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The Democratic party was entitled to nominate a candidate in a deceased candidate's place, even though the candidate's death occurred prior to the primary election and not between the primary and general elections as stated in this section, where the deceased candidate was unopposed for the Democratic nomination which necessarily meant that there would be no Democratic primary election conducted for the office in question and, therefore, the deceased candidate was the Democratic nominee. Clark, March 11, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0132.

Where a candidate was killed after he had qualified and after the time for qualifying had ended, and was the sole qualifying candidate for office, and had been certified by the county Democratic executive committee, the county Democratic executive committee, and only the county Democratic executive committee, was empowered to nominate a nominee for the office. Long, July 16, 1999, A.G. Op.

If a nominee withdraws for a legitimate nonpolitical reason as defined in Section 23-15-317 and his sworn affidavit is approved by the State Board of Election Commissioners, the municipal party executive committee would then be required to name a substitute nominee. If a nominee withdraws and no affidavit is submitted and approved, said executive committee would have no authority to name a substitute nominee. In either case, the nominee has the right to withdraw his candidacy pursuant to Section 23-15-363. Baum, May 20, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0237.

In the absence of any charge of fraud, irregularity of any kind, and in the absence of any proof that the purity and integrity of the party primary election was violated, the fact that the ballots at one precinct were delivered to a party who was the wife and sister-in-law of those who were designated to be receiving managers but could not be located at the time of delivery, did not warrant or require the voiding of the election at that precinct. Galmore v. Washington, 254 So. 2d 885 (Miss. 1971).

Where there is a total departure from the mandatory provisions of the statute and it is not possible to ascertain the will of the electors because a substantial portion of the votes were void, a new election should be ordered for the purpose of ascertaining the voter's choice. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

§ 23-15-359. Names of candidates to be printed on ballot; filing of petition for office; inapplicability of section to municipal elections; special elections; determination of candidate's qualifications; declaration of nominee in single candidate race.

(1) Except as provided in this section, the ballot shall contain the names of all party nominees certified by the appropriate executive committee, and independent and special election candidates who have timely filed petitions containing the required signatures and assessments that must be paid pursuant to Section 23-15-297, if the candidates and nominees meet all of the qualifications to hold the office sought. A petition requesting that an independent or special election candidate's name be placed on the ballot for any office shall be filed as provided for in subsection (3) or (4) of this section, as appropriate, and shall be signed by not less than the following number of qualified electors:

(a) For an office elected by the state at large, not less than one thousand (1,000) qualified electors.

(b) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a Supreme Court district, not less than three hundred (300) qualified electors.

(c) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a congressional district, not less than two hundred (200) qualified electors.

(d) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a circuit or chancery court district, not less than one hundred (100) qualified electors.

(e) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a senatorial or representative district, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(f) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a county, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(g) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a supervisors district or justice court district, not less than fifteen (15) qualified electors.

(h) For the Office of President of the United States, a party nominee or independent candidate shall pay an assessment in the amount of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00).

(2)(a) Unless the petition or fee, whichever is applicable, required above shall be filed as provided for in subsection (3), (4) or (5) of this section, as appropriate, the name of the person requested to be a candidate, unless nominated by a political party, shall not be placed upon the ballot. The ballot shall contain the names of each candidate for each office, and the names shall be listed under the name of the political party that candidate represents as provided by law and as certified to the circuit clerk by the state executive committee of the political party. In the event the candidate qualifies as an independent as provided in this section, he or she shall be listed on the ballot as an independent candidate.

(b) The name of an independent or special election candidate who dies before the printing of the ballots, shall not be placed on the ballots.

(3) Petitions for offices described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) of subsection (1) of this section shall be filed with the Secretary of State by no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date or business day, as applicable, by which candidates are required to pay the fee provided for in Section 23-15-297; however, no petition may be filed before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held.

(4) Petitions for offices described in paragraphs (f) and (g) of subsection (1) of this section shall be filed with the proper circuit clerk by no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date by which candidates are required to pay the fee provided for in Section 23-15-297; however, no petition may be filed before January 1 of the year in which the election for the office is held. The circuit clerk shall notify the county election commissioners of all persons who have filed petitions with the clerk. The notification shall occur within two (2) business days and shall contain all necessary information.

(5) The assessment for the office described in paragraph (h) of subsection (1) of this section shall be paid to the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall deposit any qualifying fees received from candidates into the Elections Support Fund established in Section 23-15-5.

(6) The election commissioners may also have printed upon the ballot any local issue election matter that is authorized to be held on the same date as the regular or general election pursuant to Section 23-15-375; however, the ballot form of the local issue must be filed with the election commissioners by the appropriate governing authority not less than sixty (60) days before the date of the election.

(7) The provisions of this section shall not apply to municipal elections or to the election of the offices of justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, circuit judge, chancellor, county court judge and family court judge.

(8) Nothing in this section shall prohibit special elections to fill vacancies in either house of the Legislature from being held as provided in Section 23-15-851. In all elections conducted under the provisions of Section 23-15-851, there shall be printed on the ballot the name of any candidate who, not having been nominated by a political party, shall have been requested to be a candidate for any office by a petition filed with the Secretary of State and signed by not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(9) The appropriate election commission shall determine whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the state, state district, county or county district they seek to serve, and whether each candidate meets all other qualifications to hold the office he or she is seeking or presents absolute proof that he or she will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he or she could be elected to office. The election commission shall determine whether the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election. The election commission also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state, unless the offense also involved misuse or abuse of his or her office or money coming into his or her hands by virtue of the office. If the appropriate election commission finds that a candidate either (a) is not a qualified elector, (b) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he or she seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he or she will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he or she could be elected, or (c) has been convicted of a felony as described in this subsection, and not pardoned, then the election commission shall notify the candidate and give the candidate an opportunity to be heard. The election commission shall mail notice to the candidate at least three (3) business days before the hearing to the address provided by the candidate on the qualifying forms, and the committee shall attempt to contact the candidate by telephone, email and facsimile if the candidate provided this information on the forms. If the candidate fails to appear at the hearing or to prove that he or she meets all qualifications to hold the office subject to no contingencies, then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot. If the appropriate election commission determines that the candidate has taken the steps necessary to qualify for more than one (1) office at the election, the action required by Section 23-15-905, shall be taken.

(10) If after the deadline to qualify as a candidate for an office or after the time for holding any party primary for an office, only one (1) person has duly qualified to be a candidate for the office in the general election, the name of that person shall be placed on the ballot; provided, however, that if not more than one (1) person duly qualified to be a candidate for each office on the general election ballot, the election for all offices on the ballot shall be dispensed with and the appropriate election commission shall declare each candidate elected without opposition if the candidate meets all the qualifications to hold the office as determined pursuant to a review by the election commission in accordance with the provisions of subsection (9) of this section and if the candidate has filed all required campaign finance disclosure reports as required by Section 23-15-807.

(11) The petition required by this section may not be filed by using the Internet.

6. Under former Section 23-5-133.

1. WHERE CANDIDATE RESIDES.

Candidate was not eligible to run for the office of county superintendent of education because he was a resident of a separate school district; the candidate did not present any evidence that he was a qualified elector of the county school district, the county superintendent of education served as the director of all schools within the county school district, which were outside the separate school district where the candidate resided. Basil v. Browning, 175 So.3d 1289 (Miss. 2015).

Candidate was a qualified candidate for the position of justice court judge, even though the candidate did not live within the election subdistrict where the candidate wished to run for office. Montgomery v. Lowndes County Democratic Exec. Comm., 969 So. 2d 1 (Miss. 2007).

2.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-5-133.

A candidate who ran in the first primary but withdrew from the second, run-off primary was not entitled to have his name placed upon the general election ballot, by petition, as an independent. Mississippi State Bd. of Election Comm'rs v. Meredith, 301 So. 2d 571 (Miss. 1974).

Section 5 of the Federal Voting Rights Act of 1965 [52 USCS § 10304] which prevents the enforcement of "any voting qualification or prerequisite to voting, or standard, practice or procedure with respect to voting" different from that in force and effect Nov. 1, 1964, unless the state or political subdivision complies with one of the section's approval procedures, applied to the 1966 amendment to this section [Code 1942, § 3260], which (1) established a new rule that no person who had voted in a primary election might thereafter be placed on the ballot as an independent candidate in the general election; (2) changed the time for filing a petition as an independent candidate from 40 to 60 days before the general election; (3) increased the number of signatures of qualified electors needed for the independent qualifying petition; and (4) added a new provision that each qualifying elector who signed the independent qualifying petition had to personally sign the petition and include his polling precinct and county. Allen v. State Bd. of Elections, 393 U.S. 544, 89 S. Ct. 817, 22 L. Ed. 2d 1 (1969).

Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 [52 USCS § 10304] is applicable to the 1966 Amendment of this section [Code 1942, § 3260], and approval of that Amendment cannot be implemented until the approval of the Attorney General of the United States has been obtained. Allen v. State Bd. of Elections, 393 U.S. 544, 89 S. Ct. 817, 22 L. Ed. 2d 1 (1969).

This section [Code 1942, § 3260], directed solely to the qualifications of candidates, is not governed by the Federal Voting Rights Act of 1965. Whitley v. Johnson, 296 F. Supp. 754 (S.D. Miss. 1967).

Code 1942, § 3107 which provides a method whereby the state political party conventions may select two slates of presidential electors, one slate pledged to support the nominee of the national political party, and one slate unpledged offends no provision of the United States Constitution, for it expressly provides that nothing therein shall prohibit a slate of electors pledged to support the national party candidate from running on the same general election ballot, and this section [Code 1942, § 3260] enables such a slate to get on the ballot upon the petition of 1,000 voters. Gray v. State of Mississippi, 233 F. Supp. 139 (N.D. Miss. 1964).

Failure to place upon the ballot the name of one duly nominated by petition renders the election void. Bowen v. Williams, 238 Miss. 57, 117 So. 2d 710 (1960).

Participating in a primary election does not preclude one from becoming an independent candidate upon the petition of other participants. Bowen v. Williams, 238 Miss. 57, 117 So. 2d 710 (1960).

Power to determine whose name is entitled to appear upon the ballot is vested not in the ballot commissioner alone but in the commissioners as a body. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

Omission of one of two candidates from ballot on special election for district supervisor, although he was entitled to have his name appear thereon by virtue of having substantially complied with this section [Code 1942, § 3260], invalidated the election. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

Although this section [Code 1942, § 3260] contemplates that the petition shall be presented to the ballot commissioner, this is merely directory and not mandatory. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

Each of the three commissioners is under duty to report and present to the commissioners as a body all petitions which have been duly presented to him. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

Prospective candidate for district supervisor substantially complied with requirements of this section [Code 1942, § 3260] so as to be entitled to have his name appear upon the ballot for special election to be held on January 25, where he presented his petition containing the names of more than 15 qualified electors of the district to one of the three county election commissioners at the latter's home shortly before sundown on January 10. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

As long as the election date agreed upon by the city and the board of supervisors is not the date of the general election, then the sixty day notice requirement of the statute does not apply to the election authorized pursuant to House Bill 1868 in connection with a county-wide referendum on the additional assessment of sales tax on food and beverages. Entekin, May 15, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0271.

In an election for school board members in two different districts, if one district has only one qualified candidate and the other has two or more qualified candidates, if one office is unopposed but there is opposition in the other office, an election must be held for both offices and the election for the unopposed office may not be dispensed with in accordance with Section 23-15-359 (9). Sanford, July 15, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0315.

A political candidate's nickname should not be used on ballots unless the officials in charge of the election determine, consistent with the facts, that the nickname is necessary to identify the candidate to the voters. Coleman, March 23, 2007, A.G. Op. #07-00153, 2007 Miss. AG LEXIS 117.

§ 23-15-361. Names of municipal office candidates to be printed on ballot; filing of petition for municipal office; determination of candidate's qualifications; declaration of nominee in single candidate race.

(1) The municipal general election ballot shall contain the names of all candidates who have been put in nomination by the municipal primary election of any political party. There shall be printed on the ballots the names of all persons so nominated, whether the nomination be otherwise known or not, upon the written request of one or more of the candidates so nominated, or of any qualified elector who will make oath that he or she was a participant in the primary election, and that the person whose name is presented by him or her was nominated by such primary election. The municipal election commissioners who are required to have the ballots printed, shall also have printed on the ballot in any municipal general election the name of any candidate who, not having been nominated by a political party, shall have been requested to be a candidate for any office by a petition filed with the clerk of the municipality no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date by which candidates for nomination in the municipal primary elections are required to pay the fee provided for in Section 23-15-309, and signed by not less than the following number of qualified electors:

(a) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a municipality or a municipal district having a population of one thousand (1,000) or more, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(b) For an office elected by the qualified electors of a municipality or a municipal district having a population of less than one thousand (1,000), not less than fifteen (15) qualified electors.

(2) Unless the petition required above shall be filed no later than 5:00 p.m. on the same date by which candidates for nomination in the municipal primary election are required to pay the fee provided for in Section 23-15-309, the name of the person requested to be a candidate, unless nominated by a political party, shall not be placed upon the ballot. The ballot shall contain the names of each candidate for each municipal office, and the names shall be listed under the name of the political party the candidate represents as provided by law and as certified to the municipal clerk by the municipal executive committee of such political party. In the event such candidate qualifies as an independent as herein provided, he or she shall be listed on the ballot as an independent candidate.

(3) The clerk of the municipality shall notify the municipal election commissioners of all persons who have filed petitions pursuant to subsection (1) of this section within two (2) business days of the date of filing.

(4) The ballot in elections to fill vacancies in municipal elective office shall contain the names of all persons who have qualified as required by Section 23-15-857.

(5) The municipal election commission shall determine whether each party candidate in the municipal general election is a qualified elector of the municipality, and of the ward if the office sought is a ward office and shall determine whether each candidate either meets all other qualifications to hold the office he or she is seeking or presents absolute proof that he or she will, subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he or she could be elected to office. The municipal election commission also shall determine whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this state unless such offense also involved misuse or abuse of his or her office or money coming into his or her hands by virtue of the office. If the municipal election commission finds that a candidate either (a) is not a qualified elector, (b) does not meet all qualifications to hold the office he or she seeks and fails to provide absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he or she will meet the qualifications on or before the date of the general or special election at which he or she could be elected, or (c) has been convicted of a felony as described above and not pardoned, then the election commission shall notify the candidate and give the candidate an opportunity to be heard. The election commission shall mail notice to the candidate at least three (3) business days before the hearing to the address provided by the candidate on the qualifying forms, and the committee shall attempt to contact the candidate by telephone, email and facsimile if the candidate provided this information on the forms. If the candidate fails to appear at the hearing or to prove he or she meets all qualifications to hold the office subject to no contingencies, then the name of the candidate shall not be placed upon the ballot.

(6) If after the deadline to qualify as a candidate for an office or after the time for holding any party primary election for an office, only one (1) person has duly qualified to be a candidate for the office in the general election the name of that person shall be placed on the ballot; provided, however, that if not more than one (1) person has duly qualified to be a candidate for each office on the general election ballot, the election for all offices on the ballot shall be dispensed with and the municipal election commission shall declare each candidate elected without opposition if the candidate meets all the qualifications to hold the office as determined pursuant to a review by the election commission in accordance with the provisions of subsection (5) of this section and if the candidate has filed all required campaign finance disclosure reports as required by Section 23-15-807.

The United States Attorney General, by letter dated June 27, 2002, interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2002, ch. 336.

Laws of 2002, ch. 336, §§ 3, 4, provide as follows:

"SECTION 3. The Attorney General of the State of Mississippi shall submit this act, immediately upon approval by the Governor, or upon approval by the Legislature subsequent to a veto, to the Attorney General of the United States or to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in accordance with the provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended.

"SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended."

Amendments- The 2000 amendment added (5) and (6).

The 2002 amendment added the language following "placed on the ballot," in (6).

The 2016 amendment brought the section forward without change.

The 2017 amendment, in (1), substituted "commissioners who are required to have" for "commissioner designated to have" in the last sentence of the introductory paragraph, and inserted "or a municipal district" in (a) and (b); deleted the third sentence of (2), which read: "Provided further, however, that nothing in this section shall prohibit a person from qualifying as a nominee of a political party, or from requesting to be a candidate for the office by filing a petition, in the event of the death of a candidate for the office which makes it impossible to have an election contest"; substituted "election commissioners" for "commissioners of election" in (3); in (5), inserted election in the first sentence, and substituted "or (c) has been convicted of a felony as described above and not pardoned, then the election commission shall notify the candidate and give the candidate an opportunity to be heard. The election commission shall mail notice to the candidate at least three (3) business days before the hearing to the address provided by the candidate on the qualifying forms, and the committee shall attempt to contact the candidate by telephone, email and facsimile if the candidate provided this information on the forms. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. VALIDITY OF PETITIONS.

Circuit court did not err in ordering a candidate's name be placed on a ballot because a statutory "petition filed by qualified electors" was wholly separate and distinct from the statutory requirements where the candidate was merely seeking to have his name printed on the mayoral ballot and where there was no contradictory evidence presented to contest the elector affidavits before the election commission. Election Comm'n v. Wallace, 143 So.3d 557 (2014).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Petitions filed by candidates containing only a legally sufficient number of signatures of qualified electors to qualify under proposed (not currently effective) ward lines were not valid at the time they were submitted, and could not be supplemented by additional signatures so that they would contain a legally sufficient number of signatures of qualified electors from the old, and currently still effective, ward lines. Wiggins, May 6, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0216.

Section 23-15-361 requires that signatures on municipal ward candidate petitions, to be valid, must be those of qualified electors of the ward for the office sought. Wiggins, May 6, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0216.

If a nominee meets all the qualifications to hold the office for which he was certified as a candidate and for which he was subsequently nominated, a municipal election commission may not lawfully refuse to place his name on a general or special election ballot based on an irregularity in the process of qualifying as a candidate in a party primary. White, Nov. 22, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0599.

A political candidate's nickname should not be used on ballots unless the officials in charge of the election determine, consistent with the facts, that the nickname is necessary to identify the candidate to the voters. Coleman, March 23, 2007, A.G. Op. #07-00153, 2007 Miss. AG LEXIS 117.

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-5-135.

An election commission's determination whether a person is qualified as a candidate is one of fact, and therefore final. Powe v. Forrest County Election Comm'n, 249 Miss. 757, 163 So. 2d 656 (1964).

Mandamus will not lie to compel an election commission to place on the ballot the name of a person whom it has determined not to be qualified as a candidate. Powe v. Forrest County Election Comm'n, 249 Miss. 757, 163 So. 2d 656 (1964).

A county election commission has jurisdiction to determine the qualification as a candidate of persons certified to it as nominees of a political party. Powe v. Forrest County Election Comm'n, 249 Miss. 757, 163 So. 2d 656 (1964).

Omission of one of two candidates from ballot on special election for district supervisor, although he was entitled to have his name appear thereon by virtue of having substantially complied with Code 1942, § 3260, invalidated the election. State ex rel. Rice v. Dillon, 197 Miss. 504, 19 So. 2d 918 (1944).

Supreme Court judicially knows that general election at which Congressmen are to be elected will be held Tuesday, November 8, 1932, and that prior to antecedent 15 days it cannot be legally known by Secretary of State as to names to be printed on ballots. Wood v. State, 169 Miss. 790, 142 So. 747 (1932).

Person seeking nomination as political party's candidate at primary and defeated cannot have mandamus to get name placed on ticket. Election commissioners may be compelled to assemble and consider petition to put person's name on ticket, but their action cannot be controlled by mandamus. On adverse decision by election commissioners, petitioners to have name put on ticket should take bill of exceptions and appeal to circuit court. Ruhr v. Cowan, 146 Miss. 870, 112 So. 386 (1927).

Candidate for board of supervisors procuring name on ballot, on petition of insufficient number of electors, held not material irregularity. Hunt v. Mann, 136 Miss. 590, 101 So. 369 (1924).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A write-in candidate is appropriate only when one has qualified as a candidate for a particular office and subsequently dies, resigns, withdraws, or is removed as a candidate. Hatcher, Mar. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0163.

If a nominee withdraws for a legitimate nonpolitical reason as defined in Section 23-15-317 and his sworn affidavit is approved by the State Board of Election Commissioners, the municipal party executive committee would then be required to name a substitute nominee. If a nominee withdraws and no affidavit is submitted and approved, said executive committee would have no authority to name a substitute nominee. In either case, the nominee has the right to withdraw his candidacy pursuant to Section 23-15-363. Baum, May 20, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0237.

Analysis

1. In general.
- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-5-137.

1. IN GENERAL.

When, under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-365, due to the death of the only candidate who had qualified before the qualifying deadline had passed, no name will be printed on the ballot, and the election will be only by write-in, the election will proceed in the same manner as if no one had qualified to run as a candidate before the qualifying deadline; the Legislature has provided for a write-in election to occur in the event of the death of "any candidate" who has qualified, and although the Legislature has imposed unique qualifications upon judicial candidates, it did not exclude judicial candidates from its provision for a write-in election in the event of a qualified candidate's death. Rayner v. Barbour, 47 So.3d 128 (Miss. 2010).

Write-in election for a circuit court judge was proper under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-365 because the circuit judge passed away after qualifying for the November 2, 2010 election, and Miss. Code Ann. § 9-1-103 permitted the appointee judge to serve for the unexpired term with no requirement of a special election since the circuit judge died fewer than nine months before the expiration of his term; the use of the word "or" in Miss. Code Ann. § 9-1-103 means that an election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-849(1) need not occur if there is so little time in the unexpired term that the appointee may legally serve for the unexpired term. Rayner v. Barbour, 47 So.3d 128 (Miss. 2010).

The statute does not allow for a write-in candidate only where there is one person qualified for a particular office and that one qualified person dies, resigns, withdraws or removes his or her name after the printing of the primary ballot; write-in candidates are also allowed if the death of a candidate occurs prior to the printing of the ballot. Upton v. McKenzie, 761 So. 2d 167 (Miss. 2000).

2.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-5-137.

Votes cast at general election, by writing name on blank space, for one who was candidate at primary election but who was not nominated held illegal. May v. Young, 164 Miss. 35, 143 So. 703 (1932), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

That contestant's name was fraudulently kept off ballots did not authorize voters to write his name thereon. May v. Young, 164 Miss. 35, 143 So. 703 (1932), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

Voters may write name of candidate not nominated on the official ballot only in case of the death of a candidate. McKenzie v. Boykin, 111 Miss. 256, 71 So. 382 (1916).

This section [Code 1942, § 3262] is constitutional. McKenzie v. Boykin, 111 Miss. 256, 71 So. 382 (1916).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Where ballots were not printed for a primary election, this section was not invoked and there was no provision for the casting of write-in votes; therefore, any write-in votes cast in the primary election would not be valid. Shepard, June 4, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0263.

Amendments- The 2000 amendment rewrote the section.

The 2017 amendment deleted "the arrangement of the names of the candidates, and the order in which the titles of the various offices shall be printed and" following "subsection (2) of this section" in (1); in (2), rewrote (a), which read: "Candidates for national office," and added (i) and (ii), rewrote (b) through (d), which read: "(b) Candidates for statewide office; (c) Candidates for state district office; (d) Candidates for legislative office," and rewrote the last paragraph, which read: "The order in which the titles for the various offices are listed within each of the categories listed in this subsection is left to the discretion of the officer charged with printing the official ballot"; inserted "election" preceding "commissioner" and substituted "before the election" for "prior to the election" in (3).

Editor's note- Former § 23-15-531.7 required public exhibition and demonstration of the use of the DRE units.

§ 23-15-511. Form of ballots; posting of sample ballots; ballot security envelopes.

The ballots shall, as far as practicable, be in the same order of arrangement as provided for paper ballots that are to be counted manually, except that the information may be printed in vertical or horizontal rows. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting the information being presented to the voters from being printed on both sides of a single ballot. In those years when a special election shall occur on the same day as the general election, the names of candidates in any special election and the general election shall be placed on the same ballot by the election commissioners or officials in charge of the election, but the general election candidates shall be clearly distinguished from the special election candidates. At any time a special election is held on the same day as a party primary election, the names of the candidates in the special election may be placed on the same ballot by the officials in charge of the election, but shall be clearly distinguished as special election candidates or primary election candidates.

Ballots shall be printed in plain clear type in black ink and upon clear white materials of such size and arrangement as to be compatible with the OMR equipment. Absentee ballots shall be prepared and printed in the same form and shall be on the same size and texture as the regular official ballots, except that they shall be printed on tinted paper; or the ink used to print the ballots shall be of a color different from that of the ink used to print the regular official ballots. Arrows may be printed on the ballot to indicate the place to mark the ballot, which may be to the right or left of the names of candidates and propositions. The titles of offices may be arranged in vertical columns on the ballot and shall be printed above or at the side of the names of candidates so as to indicate clearly the candidates for each office and the number to be elected. In case there are more candidates for an office than can be printed in one (1) column, the ballot shall be clearly marked that the list of candidates is continued on the following column. The names of candidates for each office shall be printed in vertical columns, grouped by the offices that they seek. In partisan elections, the party designation of each candidate, which may be abbreviated, shall be printed following his or her name.

One (1) sample ballot, which shall be a facsimile of the official ballot and instructions to the voters, shall be provided for each precinct and shall be posted in each polling place on election day.

A separate ballot security envelope or suitable equivalent in which the voter can place his or her ballot after voting, shall be provided to conceal the choices the voter has made. Absentee voters will receive a similar ballot security envelope provided by the county in which the absentee voter will insert their voted ballot, which then can be inserted into a return envelope to be mailed back to the election official. Absentee ballots will not be required to be folded when a ballot security envelope is provided.

(2) For each primary election, the number of official ballots that shall be printed by each executive committee shall be not less than one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the highest number of votes cast in a comparable primary election conducted by the same political party in the preceding ten (10) years.

At least one (1) hour before the opening of the polls, the officials in charge of the election shall arrive at the polling place and set up the voting booths so that they will be in clear view of the poll managers; the poll managers shall examine the ballots to verify that they have the correct ballots for their precinct and check the supplies, records and forms, and post the sample ballots and instructions to the voters. They shall also inspect the ballot boxes to ensure they contain only voted absentee ballots in their envelopes with the required applications, and then seal the box for voting.

Each voter shall receive written and/or verbal instructions by the poll managers instructing the voter how to properly vote the paper ballot before the voter enters the voting booth. If any voter needs additional instructions after entering the voting booth, two (2) poll managers may, if necessary, enter the booth and give him or her such additional instructions. If any voter spoils a ballot the voter may obtain others, one (1) at a time, not exceeding three (3) in all, upon returning each spoiled ballot. The word "SPOILED" shall be written across the face of the ballot and it shall be deposited into the sealed ballot box. When the polls close once the last ballot has been cast or at 7:00 p.m., whichever is later, the poll managers shall break the seal on the ballot box to process the absentee ballots. Ballots marked as spoiled shall be bundled together and placed in an envelope designated for spoiled ballots. Once the polls have officially closed, the envelope that contains the spoiled ballots and the unused ballots shall be placed in the ballot box or other container provided for that purpose which shall be sealed and returned to the officials in charge of the election.

§ 23-15-519. Ballot accounting report; tamper-evident seals for ballot boxes; seal log; delivery of ballot box; return of records and supplies.

The poll managers shall prepare a ballot accounting report that documents the number of voters who have voted, as indicated by the receipt book and the number of ballots used in the election. The poll managers shall place the report in the ballot box, with the seal logs, receipt books, absentee ballots, affidavit ballots, challenged ballots, curbside ballots, emergency ballots, spoiled ballots and unused ballots, which thereupon shall be sealed with a tamper-evident seal, which is a seal that has been designed in such a way to allow someone to easily detect any tampering, so that no additional ballots may be deposited or removed from the ballot box. The poll managers, while they have possession of the election materials, and the officials in charge of the election, once the poll managers have delivered the ballot box to the counting center or other designated place, shall be required to keep a seal log to document each time a tamper-evident seal for a ballot box is opened or changed. The seal log shall require the name of the person who opened the seal, the old seal number, the new seal number, the date the seal was opened and the purpose for opening the seal. The receiving and returning poll manager shall deliver the ballot box to the counting center or other designated place and receive a signed, numbered receipt therefor. The poll books and other records and supplies shall be returned as directed by the officials in charge of the election. Failure to strictly comply with the provisions of this section shall not result in a presumption of fraud.

Sources: Derived from 1972 Code § 23-7-519 [Laws, 1984, ch. 509, § 10; repealed by Laws, 1986, ch. 495, § 340]; en, Laws, 1986, ch. 495, § 166; Laws, 2017, ch. 441, § 94, eff from and after July 1, 2017.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment rewrote the first sentence, which read: "The managers shall prepare a report in duplicate of the number of voters who have voted, as indicated by the poll list, and shall place this report in the ballot box, which thereupon shall be sealed with a paper seal signed by the managers so that no additional ballots may be deposited or removed from the ballot box," and divided it into the present first and second sentences; added the third and fourth sentences; rewrote the fifth and sixth sentences, which read: "The manager or other person who acts as returning officer shall forthwith deliver the ballot box to the counting center or other designated place and receive a signed, numbered receipt therefor. The poll list, register of voters, unused ballots, spoiled ballots, and other records and supplies, shall be returned as directed by the officials in charge of the election" and added the last sentence.

§ 23-15-521. Testing of OMR equipment.

Before counting the ballots, the election commissioners, or their designees, shall have the OMR equipment tested to ascertain that it will accurately count the votes cast for all offices and on all measures. Representatives of the political parties, candidates, the press and the general public may witness the test conducted on the OMR equipment. The test shall be conducted by processing a preaudited group of ballots so marked as to record a predetermined number of valid votes for each candidate and on each measure, and shall include for each office one or more ballots that have votes in excess of the number allowed by law in order to test the ability of the OMR equipment to reject such votes. If any error is detected, the cause of the error shall be ascertained and corrected and an errorless count shall be made and certified to by the officials in charge before the count is started. On completion of the count, the programs, test materials and ballots shall be sealed and retained as provided for paper ballots.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment substituted "OMR equipment" for "OMR tabulating equipment" in the first, second and third sentences; substituted "Before counting the ballots, the election commissioners, or their designees" for "Prior to the start of the count of the ballots, the commissioners of elections or officials in charge of the election" in the first sentence; substituted "the cause of the error" for "the cause therefor" in the next-to-last sentence; and made a minor stylistic change.

§ 23-15-523. Counting vote.

(1) All proceedings at the counting center shall be under the direction of the election commissioners or officials in charge of the election, and shall be conducted under the observations of the public, but no persons except those authorized for the purpose shall touch any ballot. All persons who are engaged in processing and counting of the ballots shall take the oath provided in Section 268, Mississippi Constitution of 1890.

(2) The election commissioners or the officials in charge of the election shall appoint qualified electors who have received the training required by subsection (11) of this section to serve as members of the "resolution board." An odd number of not less than three (3) members shall be appointed to the resolution board. The members of the board shall take the oath provided in Section 268, Mississippi Constitution of 1890. All ballots that have been rejected by the OMR equipment and that are damaged or defective, blank or overvoted will be reviewed by the board. Election commissioners, candidates who are on the ballot and the spouse, parents, siblings or children of such a candidate shall not be appointed to the resolution board. In general and special elections, members of the party executive committees shall not be appointed to the resolution board unless members of all of the party executive committees who have a candidate on the ballot are appointed to the resolution board.

(3)(a) If any ballot is damaged or defective so that it cannot be properly counted by the OMR equipment, the ballot will be deposited in an envelope provided for that purpose marked "RESOLUTION BOARD." All such ballots shall be carefully handled so as to avoid altering, removing or adding any mark on the ballot.

(b) The election commissioners or the officials in charge of the election shall have the members of the resolution board ascertain the intent of the voter, if possible, and, if so, manually count any damaged or defective ballots.

(c) The resolution board shall prepare a duplicate to the damaged or defective ballot in the following manner:

(i) The resolution board shall prepare a duplicate to the original damaged or defective ballot marked identically to the original.

(ii) The resolution board shall mark the first original they examine as "Original #1" and the duplicate of this original as "Duplicate #1." Later originals and duplicates shall be likewise marked and numbered consecutively so the duplicate of each original can be identified. Duplicate ballots shall be stamped in a different manner from the original ballots so that they may be easily distinguished from the originals.

(iii) The duplicate ballots prepared pursuant to this paragraph shall be counted by the OMR equipment.

(4) The resolution board shall examine ballots that have been rejected by the OMR equipment for appearing to be "blank" to verify if they are blank or were marked with a "nondetectable" marking device. If it is determined that the ballot was marked with a nondetectable device, the resolution board shall prepare a duplicate to the original blank ballot in the same manner and in accordance with the same process provided in subsection (3)(c).

(5) All ballots that are rejected by the OMR equipment and that contain overvotes shall be inspected by the resolution board. Regarding those rejected ballots upon which an overvote appears, if the voter intent cannot be determined by the resolution board, the officials in charge of the election may use the OMR equipment in determining the vote in the races that are unaffected by the overvote. All other ballots that are overvoted shall be counted manually following the provisions of this section at the direction of the officials in charge of the election. The return printed by the OMR equipment to which have been added the manually tallied ballots, which shall be duly certified by the officials in charge of the election, shall constitute the official return of each voting precinct. Unofficial and incomplete returns may be released during the count. Upon the completion of the counting, the official returns shall be open to the public.

(6) When the resolution board reviews any OMR ballot in which the voter has failed to fill in the arrow, oval, circle or square for a candidate or a ballot measure, the resolution board shall, if the intent of the voter can be ascertained, count the vote if:

(a) The voter marks the ballot with a "cross" (X) or "checkmark" (✓) and the lines that form the mark intersect within or on the line of the arrow, oval, circle or square by the ballot measure or the name of the candidate.

(b) The voter blackens the arrow, oval, circle or square adjacent to the ballot measure or the name of the candidate in pencil or ink and the blackened portion extends beyond the boundaries of the arrow, oval, circle or square.

(c) The voter marks the ballot with a "cross" (X) or "checkmark" (✓) and the lines that form the mark intersect adjacent to the ballot measure or the name of the candidate.

(d) The voter underlines the ballot measure or the name of a candidate.

(e) The voter draws a line from the arrow, oval, circle or square to a ballot measure or the name of a candidate.

(f) The voter draws a circle or oval around the ballot measure or the name of the candidate.

(g) The voter draws a circle or oval around the arrow, oval, circle or square adjacent to the ballot measure or the name of the candidate.

(7) The resolution board, when inspecting an OMR ballot that contains or appears to contain one or more overvotes, appears to be damaged or defective, or is rejected by the OMR equipment for any reason or cannot be counted by the OMR equipment, shall make its determination in accordance with the following:

(a) When an elector casts more votes for any office or measure than he or she is entitled to cast at an election, all the elector's votes for that office or measure are invalid and the elector is deemed to have voted for none of them. If an elector casts less votes for any office or measure than he or she is entitled to cast at an election, all votes cast by the elector shall be counted but no vote shall be counted more than once.

(b) If an elector casts more than one (1) vote for the same candidate for the same office, the first vote is valid and the remaining votes for that candidate are invalid.

(c) No write-in vote for a candidate whose name is printed on the ballot shall be regarded as invalid due to misspelling a candidate's name, or by abbreviation, addition or omission or use of a wrong initial in the name, as long as the intent of the voter can be ascertained.

(d) In any case where a voter writes in the name of a candidate for President of the United States whose name is printed on the general election ballot, the failure by the voter to write in the name of a candidate for the Office of Vice President of the United States on the general election ballot does not invalidate the elector's vote for the slate of electors for any candidate whose name is written in for the Office of President of the United States.

(e) For any ballot measure in which the words "for" or "against" are printed on a ballot, if the voter shall write the word "for" or the word "against" instead of or in addition to marking the ballot in accordance with the ballot instruction in the space adjacent to the preprinted words "for" or "against," the resolution board shall, in reviewing such ballot, count the vote in accordance with the voter's handwritten preference, unless the voter marks the ballot in the space adjacent to the preprinted words "for" or "against" contrary to the handwritten preference, in which case no vote shall be recorded for such ballot in regard to the ballot measure.

(f) For any ballot measure in which the words "yes" or "no" are printed on a ballot, if the voter shall write the word "yes" or the word "no" instead of or in addition to marking the ballot in accordance with the ballot instructions in the space adjacent to the preprinted words "yes" or "no," the resolution board shall, in reviewing such ballot, count the vote in accordance with the voter's handwritten preference, unless the voter marks the ballot in the space adjacent to the preprinted words "yes" or "no" contrary to the handwritten preference, in which case no vote shall be recorded for such ballot in regard to the ballot measure.

(8) OMR equipment shall be programmed, calibrated, adjusted and set up to reject ballots that appear to be damaged or defective. Any switch, lever or feature on OMR equipment that enables or permits the OMR equipment to override the rejection of damaged or defective ballots so that such ballots will not be reviewed by the resolution board, shall not be used.

(9) Ballots shall be manually counted by the resolution board only when the ballots are:

(a) Properly before the resolution board due to being rejected by the OMR equipment because the ballots appear to be damaged or defective or are rejected by the OMR equipment for any other reason; or

(b) Properly before the resolution board due to a malfunction in the OMR equipment.

(10) The resolution board shall make and keep a record regarding the handling and counting of all ballots inspected under this section.

(11) The executive committee of each county or municipality, in the case of a primary election, or the election commissioners of each county or municipality, in the case of all other elections, in conjunction with the circuit or municipal clerk respectively, shall sponsor and conduct, a training session for up to two (2) hours, not less than five (5) days before each election, to instruct those qualified electors who are appointed to serve as members of the resolution board as to their specific duties in the election. No member appointed to serve on the resolution board shall serve in any election unless he or she has received such instruction once during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the date upon which the election is held. Online training courses developed by the Secretary of State, though not sponsored or conducted by the executive committee or the election commissioners, may be used to meet the requirements of this subsection (11).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

Determination of intent of voters of certain contested ballots is by its very nature fact inquiry to be made by Special Tribunal and Supreme Court's duty is to respect Special Tribunal's findings where it was not manifestly wrong. Wade v. Williams, 517 So. 2d 573 (Miss. 1987).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Since ballots will be counted in presence of officials of both parties and general public, there is no apparent prohibition against representative of one party using key to particular voting machine to initiate counting process which would include counting of ballots for another party. CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS

SUBARTICLE A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 23-15-541. Hours polls to be open; designation and duties of initialing poll manager and alternate initialing poll manager; curbside voting authorized for certain individuals; procedure.

(1) At all elections, the polls shall be opened promptly at 7:00 a.m. and be kept open until the last qualified voter, who was standing in line at the polling place at 7:00 p.m., has cast his or her ballot, or 7:00 p.m., whichever is later. One (1) hour before opening the polls, and not before, the poll managers shall designate two (2) of their number, other than the poll manager who was designated as the receiving and returning poll manager, who shall be known respectively as the initialing poll manager and the alternate initialing poll manager. The alternate initialing poll manager, in the absence of the initialing poll manager, shall perform all of the duties and undertake all of the responsibilities of the initialing poll manager. When any person entitled to vote shall appear to vote, the poll managers shall locate the name of the voter in the pollbook, identify the voter by requiring the voter to submit acceptable photo identification as required by Section 23-15-563, and then allow the voter to sign his or her name in a receipt book or booklet provided for that purpose and to be used at that election only. After the voter has signed the receipt book or booklet, the initialing poll manager or, in his or her absence, the alternate initialing poll manager shall endorse his or her initials on the back of an official blank ballot, prepared in accordance with law, and at such place on the back of the ballot that the initials may be seen after the ballot has been marked and folded, and when so endorsed he or she shall deliver it to the voter, which ballot the voter shall mark in the manner provided by law, which when done the voter shall deliver the ballot to the initialing poll manager or, in his or her absence, to the alternate initialing poll manager, in the presence of the others, and the poll manager shall see that the ballot so delivered bears on the back thereof the genuine initials of the initialing poll manager, or alternate initialing poll manager, and if so, but not otherwise, the ballot shall be put into the ballot box; and when so done one (1) of the poll managers shall mark the pollbook "VOTED" across from the name of the voter and in the appropriate column. If the voter is unable to write his or her name on the receipt book, a poll manager shall note on the back of the ballot that it was receipted for by the poll manager's assistance.

(2) A poll manager shall be authorized to allow a physically disabled person to vote curbside during the hours in which the polls are open as described in this section.

(a) Where the poll managers of an election, exercising their sound discretion, determine that a physically disabled person has arrived at the polls in a motor vehicle to vote, two (2) poll managers shall carry the pollbook, the receipt book, and a ballot or voting device to the motor vehicle. After determining the disabled person is a qualified elector as provided by law by locating the disabled elector's name in the pollbook, the poll managers shall identify the disabled elector by requiring the elector to submit acceptable photo identification as required by Section 23-15-563 and then allow the elector to sign his or her name in the receipt book and cast his or her ballot in secret. To ensure the secrecy of the vote of the disabled elector, other passengers in the motor vehicle, except the disabled elector and any other disabled persons in the motor vehicle, shall exit the motor vehicle until the disabled elector has completed the casting of his or her ballot. After the disabled elector casts his or her ballot, the poll managers shall mark "VOTED" by the elector's name and in the appropriate column in the pollbook.

(b) If the ballot that is provided to the disabled elector is a paper ballot, the initialing poll manager shall initial the ballot as provided by law, and the disabled elector, after marking his or her ballot shall fold the ballot or place it in the ballot sleeve. The initialing poll manager or alternate initialing poll manager shall determine whether the initials on the ballot are genuine, and upon a determination that the initials are genuine, mark "VOTED" by the elector's name and in the appropriate column in the pollbook. The initialing poll manager or alternate initialing poll manager shall without delay place the ballot in the ballot box.

(c) If, while a voter is voting by curbside, there are less than three (3) poll managers immediately present within the polling place conducting an election, all voting at the polls shall stop until the poll managers conducting the curbside voting return to the polls so that there are at least three (3) poll managers immediately present within the polling place to conduct the election, and until a minimum of three (3) poll managers are present, the remaining poll manager or poll managers shall ensure the security of the ballot box, the voting devices, and any ballots and election materials.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prevent a voter from requesting voter assistance as provided in Section 23-15-549.

Editor's note- The United States Attorney General, by letter dated August 16, 1993, interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to certain changes occasioned by Laws, 1993, ch. 528. However, with respect to a requirement for verification of a voter's identity at the polling place as a prerequisite to voting, the Attorney General concluded that the information submitted was insufficient to support a determination that the proposed change did not have the purpose and would not have the effect of denying or abridging the right to vote on account of race or color, as required by Section 5, and requested additional information.

Section 23-15-541 was amended by Laws of 1993, ch. 528, but that law has not been effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 as of September 1, 2004. Consequently, the version of Section 23-15-541 contained in Laws, 1993, ch. 528, is being omitted from the Code at the direction of Co-Counsel of The Joint Legislative Committee on Compilation, Revision and Publication of Legislation.

On August 7, 2008, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2008, ch. 528.

The effective date of the bill that amended this section, Chapter 526, Laws of 2012 (House Bill No. 921), is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bill was submitted to the United States Attorney General under Section 5, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. Chapter 526 was submitted to the United States Attorney General before the Shelby County decision was rendered. In a letter dated August 5, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 526 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 526, so Chapter 526 became effective on the date of the response letter from the United States Attorney General, August 5, 2013.

Laws of 2017, ch. 441, § 205 provides:

"SECTION 205. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July 1, 2017, except for Sections 3, 9, 13, 14, 15, 18, 19, 21, 24, 31, 70, 108, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 184 and 188, which shall take effect and be in force from and after passage [approved April 18, 2017]."

Amendments- The 2008 amendment added (2).

The 2012 amendment rewrote the third sentence of (1).

The 2017 amendment, effective April 18, 2017, inserted "poll" preceding "manager" or "managers" throughout; in (1), rewrote the first two sentences, which read: "At all elections, the polls shall be opened at seven o'clock in the morning and be kept open until seven o'clock in the evening and no longer. Upon the opening of the polls, and not before, the managers of the election shall designate two (2) of their number, other than the manager theretofore designated to receive the blank ballots, who shall thereupon be known respectively as the initialing manager and the alternate initialing manager," rewrote the fourth sentence, which read: "When any person entitled to vote shall appear to vote, the managers shall identify the voter by requiring the voter to submit identification as required by Section 23-15-563, and then the voter shall sign his name in a receipt book or booklet provided for that purpose and to be used at that election only and said receipt book or booklet shall be used in lieu of the list of voters who have voted formerly made by the managers or clerks; whereupon and not before, the initialing manager or, in his absence, the alternate initialing manager shall endorse his initials on the back of an official blank ballot, prepared in accordance with law, and at such place on the back of the ballot that the initials may be seen after the ballot has been marked and folded, and when so endorsed he shall deliver it to the voter, which ballot the voter shall mark in the manner provided by law, which when done the voter shall deliver the ballot to the initialing manager or, in his absence, to the alternate initialing manager, in the presence of the others, and the manager shall see that the ballot so delivered bears on the back thereof the genuine initials of the initialing manager, or alternate initialing manager, and if so, but not otherwise, the ballot shall be put into the ballot box; and when so done one (1) of the managers or a duly appointed clerk shall make the proper entry on the pollbook" and divided it into the present fourth and fifth sentences, and rewrote the last sentence, which read: "If the voter is unable to write his name on the receipt book, a manager or clerk shall note on the back of the ballot that it was receipted for by his assistance"; in (2), deleted the (a) designation from the first paragraph, rewrote the second paragraph, which read: "Where the managers of an election, exercising their sound discretion, determine that a physically disabled person has arrived at the polls in a motor vehicle to vote, two (2) or more managers shall carry the pollbook, the receipt book, and a ballot or voting device to the motor vehicle, and after determining whether the disabled person is a qualified elector as provided by law, shall allow the disabled elector to cast his or her ballot in secret. After the disabled elector casts his or her ballot, the managers shall mark the pollbook 'voted' by the elector's name in the pollbook," and designated it (a), in (b), added "and in the appropriate column in the pollbook" at the end of the next-to-last sentence, and in (c), deleted "or a political party primary" following "conducting and election," substituted "voting return to the polls so that" for "voting procedure return so that," and deleted "or party primary at all times" preceding "and until a minimum"; added (3); and made gender neutral and minor stylistic changes.

Cross references- Provision that the receipt booklet shall not be taken out of the polling place at any time until finally inclosed in the ballot box, see § 23-15-543.

1. IN GENERAL.

The initialing requirement found in § 23-15-541 does not apply to affidavit ballots. Wilbourn v. Hobson, 608 So. 2d 1187 (Miss. 1992).

2.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-3-13.

Where both the proponent and contestant of a primary election stipulated that three ballot boxes be disqualified, on the basis that the receiving manager and initialing manager of the ballots were one and the same person in violation of § 23-3-13, a fourth ballot box was properly discarded on the same basis, under both statutory and decisional law; however, in the absence of any allegations of fraud, under § 23-3-13, the disqualifications did not require a special election, where the disqualified votes amounted to 10.04 percent of all votes cast in the race, where, with or without the illegal votes, the same candidate was the winner, and where the parties had stipulated that the first three boxes would be "thrown out". Noxubee County Democratic Executive Comm. v. Russell, 443 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1983).

Ballots in boxes where the same person was the initialing manager and the receiving manager at the polling place are invalid. Prescott v. Ellis, 269 So. 2d 635 (Miss. 1971).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Assuming that voters who cast uninitialed paper ballots were entitled to vote in the election and did, in fact, follow the law in casting those ballots and but for a failure on the part of the poll workers the legality of those ballots would not be in question, the ballots must be counted. Rhodes, Nov. 10, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0626.

A ballot not provided in accordance with law shall not be deposited or counted."

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

If a voter voted in one or more of the Monroe County Democratic Primary elections but did not vote in the Monroe Justice Court Judge District 3 County Primary Election, then their ballot should not be counted for purposes of determining the total number of qualified electors who voted in the Monroe Justice Court Judge District 3 County Primary Election. Likewise, if a voter's ballot is not counted for the office of Monroe Justice Court Judge District 3 in the County Primary Election because it violates this section, then that ballot shall not be counted for purposes of determining the total number of qualified electors who voted in the Monroe Justice Court Judge District 3 County Primary Election. II. Under Former Law.

I. UNDER CURRENT LAW.

4. IMPROPER ASSISTANCE AND VOTER DILUTION.

Government properly established, for purposes of Fed. R. Civ. P. 52, that a political party executive committee and its chairman violated § 2 of the Voting Rights Act, 42 U.S.C.S. § 1973 [now 52 USCS § 10301], by intentionally diluting the voting power of white members of the party by obtaining large numbers of defective absentee ballots from black voters, facilitating improper counting of absentee ballots, and permitting improper assistance of black voters, contrary to the requirements of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-263, 23-15-715, and 23-15-549. United States v. Brown, 561 F.3d 420 (5th Cir. 2009).

5. RELATION TO OTHER LAWS.

Black chairman of a county political party executive committee was guilty of racial discrimination under § 2 of the Voting Rights Act because, inter alia, he instructed black poll workers and other unidentified black individuals to render unsolicited and otherwise improper "assistance" to black voters at a number of polling places in violation of Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-549 for the purpose of diluting the white vote. United States v. Brown, 494 F. Supp. 2d 440 (S.D. Miss. June 29, 2007), affirmed by 561 F.3d 420, 2009 U.S. App. LEXIS 4030 (5th Cir. Miss. 2009).

Votes cast by voters who were permitted by election managers to request assistance from poll watchers were improper where all persons who desired assistance in voting were permitted to have assistance without declaring that they were blind, physically disabled, or unable to read; the attempted repeal of Code 1942 § 3273, governing aid to illiterate voters, was ineffective where the proposed repeal was neither approved by the Attorney General of the United States nor approved in a declaratory judgment suit as otherwise required by the Voting Rights Act, 42 USCS § 1973c [now 52 USCS § 10304]; Code 1942 § 3273, allowing illiterates to have the assistance only of election managers in marking their ballots and requiring that the ballots be noted "marked with assistance", violates the equal protection clause of the U S Const. Fourteenth Amendment, since such provisions do not apply to blind and disabled voters under code 1972 § 23-5-157; under Code 1942 § 3273 and Code 1972 § 23-5-157, any voter who requests assistance in marking his ballot must first request assistance from the managers of the election who in turn must be satisfied that the voter is either blind, physically disabled, or illiterate, and no other persons may receive assistance in marking their ballots; Code 1942 § 3273 and the Voting Rights Act, 42 USCS § 1973l(c)(1) [now 52 USCS § 10310], are in harmony and exhibit a common purpose of providing assistance to illiterates in marking their ballots. O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977), cert. denied, 435 U.S. 934, 98 S. Ct. 1510, 55 L. Ed. 2d 532 (1978).

It is the duty and responsibility of the precinct officials at each election to provide to each illiterate voter who may request it such reasonable assistance as may be necessary to permit such voter to cast his ballot in accordance with the voter's own decision. United States v. State, 256 F. Supp. 344 (S.D. Miss. 1966).

§ 23-15-551. Marking and casting ballot; who may be present in polling room.

On receiving his or her ballot, the voter shall go without undue delay into one (1) of the voting compartments and shall there prepare his or her ballot by marking with ink or indelible pencil on the appropriate margin or place a cross (X) opposite the name of the candidate of his or her choice for each office or by writing in the name of a candidate in the blank space provided, and marking a cross (X) opposite thereto, and likewise a cross (X) opposite the answer he or she desires to give in case of an election on a constitutional amendment, local option election, referenda or any other question or matter. As an alternative method, a voter may, at his or her option, prepare a ballot by marking with ink or indelible pencil in the appropriate margin or place a check, in the form of and similar to a "V", opposite the name of the candidate of his or her choice for each office or by writing in the name of a candidate in the blank space provided and marking a check in the form of and similar to a "V", opposite thereto, and likewise a check, in the form of and similar to a "V", opposite the answer he or she desires to give in case of an election on a constitutional amendment, local option election, referenda or other question or matter, either of which methods of marking, whether by a cross (X) or by a check in the form of and similar to a "V", is authorized. Before leaving the voting compartment, the voter shall fold his or her ballot without displaying its markings, but so that the words "OFFICIAL BALLOT," followed by the designation of the voting precinct and the date of the election, shall be visible to the poll managers, then deposit his or her ballot directly into the ballot box. This shall be done without undue delay, and as soon as the voter has voted he or she shall promptly exit the polling place. A voter shall not be allowed to occupy a voting compartment already occupied by another voter, nor any compartment longer than ten (10) minutes, if other voters are not waiting, nor longer than five (5) minutes if other voters are waiting. A person shall not be allowed in the room in which the ballot boxes, compartments, tables and shelves are, except the officers of the election, and those appointed by them to assist therein, and those authorized by Section 23-15-577.

He shall then cast his ballot by handing the same to one (1) of the managers of the election for deposit in the ballot box; this he shall do without undue delay, and as soon as he has voted he shall quit the inclosed place at once" and divided them into the present third through fifth sentences; and made gender neutral and minor stylistic changes throughout.

If governing authorities make determination that ward is of such size and population that more than one precinct is required, then they may divide ward into two or more precincts; governing authorities may but are not required to establish polling place in each precinct but there must be same number of polling places as precincts, and governing authorities may locate polling places without regard to precinct lines. Granberry, Jan. 20, 1994, A.G. Op. #93-0870.

There must be the same number of polling places as precincts, although the governing authorities may locate polling places without regard to precinct lines; any changes to precincts, whether adding to the number or moving any precincts, must be submitted to the United States Department of Justice for approval pursuant to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965. Fortier, July 30, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0431.

(a) A current and valid Mississippi driver's license;

(b) A current and valid identification card issued by a branch, department, agency or entity of the State of Mississippi;

(c) A current and valid United States passport;

(d) A current and valid employee identification card containing a photograph of the elector and issued by any branch, department, agency or entity of the United States government, the State of Mississippi, or any county, municipality, board, authority or other entity of this state;

(b) An elector who has a religious objection to being photographed may vote by affidavit ballot, and the elector, within five (5) days after the election, shall execute an affidavit in the registrar's office affirming that the exemption applies.

(4) The intentional failure of an election official to require a voter to present identification as required by this section shall be considered corrupt conduct under Section 97-13-19 and shall be reported to the Secretary of State and the Attorney General.

Editor's note- The effective date of the bill that amended this section, Chapter 526, Laws of 2012 (House Bill No. 921), is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bill was submitted to the United States Attorney General under Section 5, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. Chapter 526 was submitted to the United States Attorney General before the Shelby County decision was rendered. In a letter dated August 5, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 526 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 526, so Chapter 526 became effective on the date of the response letter from the United States Attorney General, August 5, 2013.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment, in (1), substituted "who appears" for "who shall appear" and "a poll manager" for "an election manager"; deleted (4), which read: "Any person who utilizes the provisions of this section to intimidate a voter, or to prevent from voting a person who is otherwise qualified to vote shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or by imprisonment for not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years, or both"; and redesignated former (5) as (4).

SUBARTICLE B.
AFFIDAVIT BALLOTS AND CHALLENGED BALLOTS

§ 23-15-571. Challenge to voter qualifications.

(1) The following persons shall be designated as authorized challengers and shall be allowed to challenge the qualifications of any person offering to vote:

(a) Any candidate whose name is on the ballot in the precinct in which the challenge is made;

(b) Any official poll watcher of a candidate whose name is on the ballot in the precinct in which the challenge is made;

(c) Any official poll watcher of a political party for the precinct in which the challenge is made;

(d) Any qualified elector from the precinct in which the challenge is made; or

(e) Any poll manager or poll worker in the polling place where the person whose qualifications are challenged is offering to vote.

(2) The challenge of any authorized challenger shall be considered and acted upon by the poll managers of the election.

(3) A person offering to vote may be challenged upon the following grounds:

(a) That the voter is not a registered voter in the precinct;

(b) That the voter is not the registered voter under whose name the voter has applied to vote;

(c) That the voter has already voted in the election;

(d) That the voter is not a resident in the precinct where the voter is registered;

(e) That the voter has illegally registered to vote;

(f) That the voter has removed his or her ballot from the polling place; or

(g) That the voter is otherwise disqualified by law.

Sources: Laws, 1986, ch. 495, § 181; Laws, 2017, ch. 441, § 114, eff from and after July 1, 2017.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment, substituted "poll manager or poll worker" for "manager, clerk or poll worker" in (1)(e); inserted "poll" in (2); and in (3), substituted "the voter" for "he" throughout, and inserted "or her" in (f).

1. ENFORCEMENT.

On a challenge against defendants, the Mississippi Governor, Secretary of State, and Attorney General, while Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-575 provided for closed primary elections, there was no party registration and Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-571's challenge procedure afforded no practical protection; it unconstitutionally infringed on plaintiff Mississippi Democratic Party's First Amendment disassociation right and the Mississippi Legislature had to pass a new primary system by April 1, 2008. Miss. State Democratic Party v. Barbour, 491 F. Supp. 2d 641 (N.D. Miss. 2007), reversed by, vacated by 529 F.3d 538, 2008 U.S. App. LEXIS 11395 (5th Cir. Miss. 2008).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Regarding the question whether it is legal for a vote cast in the Democratic primary to be challenged simply because the poll worker or someone from the local Democratic Party alleges that the voter is really a Republican or Republican supporter, the stated intent of the voter would be controlling. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

The vote of a person who is forced to cast a "challenged" or "rejected" ballot pursuant to Section 23-15-579 will not be counted in determining the initial outcome of the election; however, in an election contest the circuit court may order that such be counted if it determines that the challenges had no basis in fact or in law. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

A registered voter may not cast a lawful ballot in a voting precinct other than the precinct where he or she resides. Shepard, July 14, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0345.

(1) If any person declares that he or she is a registered voter in the jurisdiction in which he or she offers to vote and that he or she is eligible to vote in the election, but his or her name does not appear upon the pollbooks, or that he or she is not able to cast a regular election day ballot under a provision of state or federal law but is otherwise qualified to vote, or that he or she has been illegally denied registration, or that he or she is unable to present an acceptable form of photo identification:

(a) A poll manager shall notify the person that he or she may cast an affidavit ballot at the election.

(b) The person shall be permitted to cast an affidavit ballot at the polling place upon execution of a written affidavit before one (1) of the poll managers stating that the individual:

(i) Believes he or she is a registered voter in the jurisdiction in which he or she desires to vote and is eligible to vote in the election; or

(ii) Is not able to cast a regular election day ballot under a provision of state or federal law but is otherwise qualified to vote; or

(iii) Believes that he or she has been illegally denied registration; or

(iv) Is unable to present an acceptable form of photo identification.

(c) The poll manager shall allow the individual to mark a paper ballot properly endorsed by the initialing poll manager or alternate initialing poll manager in accordance with Section 23-15-541, which shall be delivered by him or her to the proper election official who shall enclose it in an affidavit ballot envelope, with the written and signed affidavit of the voter affixed to the envelope, seal the envelope and mark plainly upon it the name of the person offering to vote.

(2) The affidavit ballot envelope shall include:

- (a) The complete name of the voter;
 - (b) A present and previous physical and mailing address of the voter;
 - (c) Telephone numbers where the voter may be contacted;
 - (d) A statement that the affiant believes he or she is registered to vote in the jurisdiction in which he or she offers to vote;
 - (e) The signature of the affiant; and
 - (f) The signature of the poll manager at the polling place at which the affiant offers to vote.
- (3)(a) A separate receipt book shall be maintained for affidavit voters and the affidavit voters shall sign the receipt book upon completing the affidavit ballot.
- (b) If the affidavit voter is casting an affidavit ballot because the voter is unable to present an acceptable form of photo identification and the voter's name appears in the pollbook, then the poll manager shall write "NO ID" across from the voter's name and in the appropriate column in the pollbook.
 - (c) In canvassing the returns of the election, the executive committee in primary elections, or the election commissioners in other elections, shall examine the records and allow the ballot to be counted, or not counted as it appears legal.
 - (d) An affidavit ballot of a voter who was unable to present an acceptable form of photo identification shall not be rejected for this reason if the voter does either of the following:
 - (i) Returns to the circuit clerk's office within five (5) business days after the date of the election and presents an acceptable form of photo identification;
 - (ii) Returns to the circuit clerk's office within five (5) business days after the date of the election to obtain the Mississippi Voter Identification Card; or
 - (iii) Returns to the circuit clerk's office within five (5) business days after the date of the election to execute a separate Affidavit of Religious Objection.
- (4) When a person is offered the opportunity to vote by affidavit ballot, he or she shall be provided with written information that informs the person how to ascertain whether his or her affidavit ballot was counted and, if the vote was not counted, the reasons the vote was not counted.
- (5) The officials in charge of the election shall process all affidavit ballots by using the Statewide Elections Management System. The officials in charge of the election shall account for all affidavit ballots cast in each election, categorizing the affidavit ballots cast by reason and recording the total number of affidavit ballots counted and not counted in each such category in the Statewide Elections Management System.

(6) The Secretary of State shall, by rule duly adopted, establish a uniform affidavit ballot envelope that shall be used in all elections in this state. The Secretary of State shall print and distribute a sufficient number of affidavit ballot envelopes to the registrar of each county for use in elections. The registrar shall distribute the affidavit ballot envelopes to municipal and county executive committees for use in primary elections and to municipal and county election commissioners for use in all other elections.

(7) County registrars and municipal registrars shall maintain a secure free access system that complies with the Help America Vote Act of 2002, by which persons who vote by affidavit ballot may determine if their ballots were counted, and if not, the reasons the ballot was not counted.

(8) Any person who votes in any election as a result of a federal or state court order or other order extending the time established by law for closing the polls on an election day, may only vote by affidavit ballot. Any affidavit ballot cast under this subsection shall be separated and kept apart from other affidavit ballots cast by voters not affected by the order.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

Election commission does not have the authority to open ballots certified by election managers as rejected or challenged, and commission cannot override or review decision of election manager who marked ballot as rejected or challenged; duty of commission is merely to canvass sealed ballots to determine if requirements have been met. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

Only power conferred, and only duty required of election commission, in relation to the canvass of votes, should be to count the votes, based upon returns as made by election managers, and to give certificates to those receiving majority of the votes; election commission should not go beyond or behind the returns, and reject votes, or accept votes previously rejected, or otherwise inquire into validity of conduct of election; election commission has no judicial discretion as to validity of rejected or contested votes. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

Where a person's name fails to appear upon the pollbooks, the affidavit required by § 23-15-573 is a condition precedent to permission to vote; the making of the proper affidavit in writing before an election manager is mandatory, not directory. Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

The paper ballots cast by two voters were illegal and void where the voters' names had been removed from the pollbooks and the ballots did not contain written affidavits attesting to the voters' entitlement to vote. Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

A special election was not warranted after the disqualification of 2 ballots by a special judge in an election contest hearing, even though the disqualification changed the result of the election, the election contest hearing was not held in the county where the dispute originated, the election commissioners were not issued subpoenas, and the originally successful candidate claimed he was not given reasonable notice of the hearing, where the 2 disqualified "affidavit" ballots were not in compliance with § 23-15-573 and were therefore illegal. Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

The initialing requirement found in § 23-15-541 does not apply to affidavit ballots. Wilbourn v. Hobson, 608 So. 2d 1187 (Miss. 1992).

Six affidavit ballots which were opened by poll workers at one precinct were not void where there was no evidence of fraud or intentional wrongdoing; while § 23-15-573 indicates that ballots shall be counted by the election commissioners in a general election, the statute is silent as to when, where and by whom the ballots may or shall be opened. Wilbourn v. Hobson, 608 So. 2d 1187 (Miss. 1992).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Ballots cast by individuals not appearing on the pollbooks that did not contain accompanying affidavits as required by the statute were improperly cast and should not be counted. Hafters, Dec. 22, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0697.

This section and the prescribed form make it mandatory that the affidavit contain the name of the voter, the physical addresses (former and present if they have moved within the county) of the voter, telephone numbers (if the voter has such numbers), the signature of the voter and the signature of one of the election managers. Additionally, the voter must check the appropriate box on the form indicating the reason he or she is entitled to vote. Sautermeister, Sept. 26, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0497.

Analysis

1. Constitutionality.
2. Relation to other laws.

1. CONSTITUTIONALITY.

Although plaintiff political party unquestionably pleaded a constitutional injury by alleging that Mississippi's semi-closed primary statute required it to associate with members of the other party during its candidate-selection process, it took no internal steps to limit participation in its primaries to party members and thus could not claim that Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-575 actually had an unconstitutional effect; this lack of "actual controversy" made the case too remote and abstract an inquiry for the proper exercise of the judicial function under U.S. Const. Art. III. Miss. State Democratic Party v. Barbour, 529 F.3d 538 (5th Cir. 2008).

Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-575's primary system unconstitutionally infringed on Mississippi political parties' First Amendment right to disassociate non-members from their nomination process. Miss. State Democratic Party v. Barbour, 491 F. Supp. 2d 641 (N.D. Miss. 2007), reversed by, vacated by 529 F.3d 538, 2008 U.S. App. LEXIS 11395 (5th Cir. Miss. 2008).

On a challenge against defendants, the Mississippi Governor, Secretary of State, and Attorney General, while Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-575 provides for closed primary elections, there was no party registration and Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-571's challenge procedure afforded no practical protection; it unconstitutionally infringed on plaintiff Mississippi Democratic Party's First Amendment disassociation right and the Mississippi Legislature had to pass a new primary system by April 1, 2008. Miss. State Democratic Party v. Barbour, 491 F. Supp. 2d 641 (N.D. Miss. 2007), reversed by, vacated by 529 F.3d 538, 2008 U.S. App. LEXIS 11395 (5th Cir. Miss. 2008).

2. RELATION TO OTHER LAWS.

Black chairman of a county political party executive committee was guilty of racial discrimination under § 2 of the Voting Rights Act because, inter alia, he enforced the party loyalty requirements set forth in Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-575 in contravention of the state attorney general's express recommendation. United States v. Brown, 494 F. Supp. 2d 440 (S.D. Miss. June 29, 2007), affirmed by 561 F.3d 420, 2009 U.S. App. LEXIS 4030 (5th Cir. Miss. 2009).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Regarding the question whether it is legal for a vote cast in the Democratic primary to be challenged simply because the poll worker or someone from the local Democratic Party alleges that the voter is really a Republican or Republican supporter, the stated intent of the voter would be controlling. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

The vote of a person who is forced to cast a "challenged" or "rejected" ballot pursuant to Section 23-15-579 will not be counted in determining the initial outcome of the election; however, in an election contest the circuit court may order that such be counted if it determines that the challenges had no basis in fact or in law. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

A poll worker, poll watcher or another voter is not allowed to ask a voter if he or she intends to support the nominees of the party once the voter presents himself or herself to vote. Challenges may be made pursuant to Section 23-15-579 only for the reasons listed in Section 23-15-571, and for the reason that the voter does not intend to support the nominees of the party per this section. Cole, July 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0316.

If a challenge of a voter is properly initiated in strict accordance with Section 23-15-579 and the voter then openly declares that he or she does not intend to support the nominees of the party, the poll workers could find the challenge to be well taken and mark the ballot "challenged" or "rejected" consistent with the provisions of said statute; on the other hand, if the voter openly declares his or her intent to support the nominees, then a challenge is not proper under this section. Cole, July 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0316.

Absent an obvious factual situation such as an independent candidate attempting to vote in a party's primary, the stated intent of the voter is controlling. Cole, July 21, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0316.

§ 23-15-577. Presence of credentialed poll watchers and candidates at polling place; presentation of written authorization of candidate or political party by credentialed poll watcher to poll manager; inspection and challenge of qualifications of voter by candidate or credentialed poll watcher; interference in election process by candidates and credentialed poll watchers prohibited.

(1) Each candidate on the ballot shall have the right, either in person or by a credentialed poll watcher, to be present at the polling place. In general and special elections, each political party that has a candidate on the ballot shall have the right to be represented at the polling place by two (2) credentialed poll watchers.

(2) A credentialed poll watcher means a poll watcher of good conduct and behavior, authorized in writing to act as the representative of a candidate on the ballot or political party that has a candidate on the ballot. The written authorization of the candidate or political party must be presented to a poll manager by the certified poll watcher upon arrival at the polling place.

(3) Poll managers shall provide candidates and credentialed poll watchers with a suitable position from which they may be able to clearly see and hear the manner in which the election is held. Candidates and credentialed poll watchers shall be authorized to bring their own pollbooks, whether in a print or electronic form, to the polling place during each general and special election.

(4) Candidates and credentialed poll watchers shall be allowed to challenge the qualifications of any person offering to vote, and their challenge shall be considered and acted upon by the poll managers. However, candidates and credentialed poll watchers shall not be allowed to interfere in the election process, which shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (a) Communicating with any voter;
- (b) Physically touching or handling any ballot, absentee ballot envelope, absentee ballot application or affidavit ballot envelope;
- (c) Viewing or photographing the pollbooks while at the polling place; or
- (d) Photographing the receipt books while at the polling place.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment, effective April 18, 2017, rewrote the section, which read: "Each candidate shall have the right, either in person or by a representative to be named by him, to be present at the polling place, and the managers shall provide him or his representative with a suitable position from which he or his representative may be able to carefully inspect the manner in which the election is held. § 23-15-579. Procedure when vote challenged.

(1) All votes, which shall be challenged at the polls, whether the question be raised by a poll manager or another authorized challenger, shall be considered by the poll managers at that time.

(2) When it so clearly appears in the unanimous opinion of the poll managers, either by the admissions or statements of the person challenged or from documentary or oral evidence then presented to the poll managers, that the challenge is well taken, the vote shall be rejected entirely and shall not be counted. In such case, the challenged voter shall mark his or her choices and cast his or her vote by paper ballot. After the ballot has been marked by the challenged voter, it shall be marked by the poll manager on the back "REJECTED" and the name of the voter and the reason the ballot of the challenged voter was rejected shall also be written on the back of the ballot. All rejected ballots shall be placed in the ballot box until the close of the polls at which time, upon the opening of the ballot box, all rejected ballots shall be placed in a separate strong envelope and returned to the box.

(3) When it so clearly appears in the unanimous opinion of the poll managers, either by the admissions or statements of the person challenged or from documentary or oral evidence then presented to the poll managers, that the challenge is frivolous and not made in good faith, the poll managers shall disregard the challenge and the voter shall cast his or her vote as other voters in the polling place as though not challenged.

(4) When it does not so clearly appear whether the challenge is well taken or frivolous and no unanimous decision can be made by the poll managers, the challenged voter shall mark his or her choices and cast his or her vote by paper ballot. After the ballot has been marked by the challenged voter, it shall be marked by the poll managers on the back "CHALLENGED," and the name of the voter and the reason the challenge of the voter was made shall also be written on the back of the ballot. All challenged ballots shall be placed in the ballot box until the close of the polls at which time, upon the opening of the ballot box, all challenged ballots shall be removed therefrom and separately counted, tallied and totaled with a separate return made of the challenged votes. Challenged ballots shall be placed in a separate strong envelope, and returned to the ballot box.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment, effective April 18, 2017, rewrote the section, which read: "All votes which shall be challenged at the polls, whether the question be raised by a manager or by another authorized challenger, shall be received when voted, but each of such challenged votes shall, by one (1) of the managers or clerks, be marked on the back 'CHALLENGED' and all such challenged votes shall be placed in one or more strong envelopes; and when all the unchallenged votes have been counted, tallied and totaled the challenged votes shall then be counted, tallied and totaled and a separate return shall be made of the unchallenged votes and of those that are challenged. The envelope or envelopes containing the challenged votes, when counted and tallied, shall be securely sealed with all said challenged votes inclosed therein and placed in the box with the unchallenged votes. Provided, that when a vote is challenged at the polls it shall so clearly appear in the unanimous opinion of the managers, either by the admissions or statements of the person challenged or from official documentary evidence, or indubitable oral evidence then presented to the managers, that the challenge is well taken, the vote shall be rejected entirely and shall not be counted; but in such case the rejected ballot, after it has been marked by the challenged voter, shall be marked on the back 'REJECTED' and the name of the voter shall also be written on the back, and said vote and all other rejected votes shall be placed in a separate strong envelope and sealed and returned in the box as in the case of challenged votes. The failure of a candidate to challenge a vote or votes at a box shall not preclude him from later showing, in the manner provided by law, that one or more votes have been improperly received or counted or returned as regards said box. If the managers of an election believe a challenge of a voter is frivolous or not made in good faith they may disregard such challenge and accept the offered vote as though not challenged."

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

On a challenge against defendants, the Mississippi Governor, Secretary of State, and Attorney General, while Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-575 provides for closed primary elections, there was no party registration and the challenge procedure in Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-571 and Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-579 afforded no practical protection; it unconstitutionally infringed on plaintiff Mississippi Democratic Party's First Amendment disassociation right and the Mississippi Legislature had to pass a new primary system by April 1, 2008. Miss. State Democratic Party v. Barbour, 491 F. Supp. 2d 641 (N.D. Miss. 2007), reversed by, vacated by 529 F.3d 538, 2008 U.S. App. LEXIS 11395 (5th Cir. Miss. 2008).

Election commission does not have the authority to open ballots certified by election managers as rejected or challenged, and commission cannot override or review decision of election manager who marked ballot as rejected or challenged; duty of commission is merely to canvass sealed ballots to determine if requirements have been met. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

Only power conferred, and only duty required of election commission, in relation to the canvass of votes, should be to count the votes, based upon returns as made by election managers, and to give certificates to those receiving majority of the votes; election commission should not go beyond or behind the returns, and reject votes, or accept votes previously rejected, or otherwise inquire into validity of conduct of election; election commission has no judicial discretion as to validity of rejected or contested votes. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The vote of a person who is forced to cast a "challenged" or "rejected" ballot pursuant to Section 23-15-579 will not be counted in determining the initial outcome of the election; however, in an election contest the circuit court may order that such be counted if it determines that the challenges had no basis in fact or in law. Hemphill, Jan. 16, 2003, A.G. Op. #03-0015.

Statutory requirements applicable to the acquisition of computer equipment and services are also applicable to the acquisition of computer equipment and services necessary to implement a computerized statewide voter registration system under the Help America Vote Act (HAVA). However, acquisitions of computer equipment and services approved by ITS in order to implement a computerized voter registration system under HAVA will also have to be approved by the Secretary of State. Bearman, July 27, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0340.

Challenged ballots should be counted, tallied and totaled and a separate return made at the courthouse or other central location after all unchallenged ballots have been counted, tallied and totaled. Payne, July 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0348.

The separate envelope containing the rejected ballots and the separate envelope containing the challenged ballots must be sealed and returned in the appropriate ballot box to be preserved in the registrar's office. Should an election contest be filed, the court before whom the contest is heard will decide what impact, if any, such ballots had on the election and will rule accordingly. Payne, July 30, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0348.

When the last qualified voter, who was standing in line at the polling place at 7:00 p.m., has cast his or her ballot, or 7:00 p.m., whichever is later, the poll managers shall proclaim that the polls are closed and publicly break the seal and open the ballot box to immediately proceed to count the ballots, at the same time reading aloud the names of the persons voted for, which shall be taken down. During the holding of the election and the counting of the ballots, the whole proceedings shall be in fair and full view of the voting public, candidates or their duly authorized representatives and other authorized poll watchers, without unnecessary interference, delay or encroachment upon the good order of the duties and proceedings of the poll managers and other officers of the election. There shall be no unnecessary delay and no adjournment except as provided by law.

6. Under Section 23-3-13, generally.

1.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER SECTION 23-3-13, GENERALLY.

Opening the ballot box and removing the ballots or a part of them to a separate room for the purpose of counting while the election was still in progress was such a radical departure from the terms of this section and from the fundamental principles of the Corrupt Practices Law as to render the election void as to the precincts involved. Clark v. Rankin County Democratic Executive Comm., 322 So. 2d 753 (Miss. 1975).

The requirements of this section [Code 1942, § 3164] are mandatory. Hathorn v. State, 147 So. 2d 286 (Miss. 1962).

Where there were only eighty illegal votes in a total vote of 1229, the illegal votes being only 6.5 per cent of the total votes cast, there was no such substantial failure to comply in material particulars with the statutes so as to invalidate the election. Walker v. Smith, 213 Miss. 255, 57 So. 2d 166 (1952).

Where there is a total departure from the mandatory provisions of the statute and it is not possible to ascertain the will of the electors because a substantial portion of the votes were void, a new election should be ordered for the purpose of ascertaining the voter's choice. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

Where the special tribunal held that votes of more than one-third of the voters in primary election for office of supervisor, were held void for failure to comply with mandatory provisions of the statute, it was impossible for one to reasonably say that result arrived at by the special tribunal represented the will of the voters. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

This provision of the statute was enacted for the purpose of precluding any possibility of any qualified electors being counted as having voted who were not present at the voting precinct on election day, and not to prevent qualified electors from being deprived of the right to vote. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

The Corrupt Practices Act was designed to prevent election frauds and to prevent the election managers and others from "stuffing the ballot box". Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

7. - RECEIPTS.

The fact that contestant received majority of votes in precinct did not preclude him from urging illegality of election at such precinct. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

Failure of election officers to require voters to sign their names in the receipt book or other record kept for the purpose before receiving a ballot to cast in the election renders the election void, since such requirement is mandatory. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

The provision as to having the voter sign a receipt for his ballot is a prerequisite to his right to have a ballot and consequently to vote it, and in this respect the statute is mandatory. Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

The total departure from the provisions of this Act, by the election officers in making a list of the voters and without requiring a single voter to receipt for his ballot, was such a departure as rendered a municipal primary election void. Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

8. - RIGHT TO VIEW COUNTING AND CALLING OF BALLOTS.

Counting and calling of the ballots for a voting precinct by two of the managers and their assistants in one room of courthouse while the remaining ballots were being counted and called by the other manager and his assistants in another room was a violation of this section [Code 1942, § 3164]. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

The voting public at a particular precinct is entitled to have a fair and full view of the counting and calling of the ballots as well as the holding of the election, which would be impossible if the ballots are divided for counting and some of them are being counted and called aloud at one place by one of the managers while the others are being counted and called aloud elsewhere by the other two managers. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

Under this section [Code 1942, § 3164] all the managers, and not just one manager, are required to count the ballots, and whatever is done by the clerks is to be done in the presence of the managers and not in the presence of only one manager. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

The right of the candidate to view and inspect the ballots as they are counted is denied if the managers are permitted to divide the ballots and count them at different places at one and the same time, unless the candidate is expected to anticipate such procedure and have a sufficient number of authorized representatives present. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

Allegations and proof by a contestant on a petition for judicial review of a primary election that a number of illegal votes were cast and counted to change the result of the election was sufficient, and he was not required to prove that enough of the illegal votes were actually cast for the contestee to give him the apparent, although not real, majority. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

9. - EVIDENCE.

The rule that a contestant has the burden of proving the existence of illegal votes and that there were enough of such illegal votes cast for the contestee as to change the result of the election, applies as well to a party primary election for a nomination. Walker v. Smith, 213 Miss. 255, 57 So. 2d 166 (1952).

Contestant is not bound to allege and prove as a condition precedent to a successful challenge of any particular ballot box that a decision in his favor as to that box alone would change the result of the election complained of, but he may show that the result of the election would be changed by having his challenge sustained. Briggs v. Gautier, 195 Miss. 472, 15 So. 2d 209 (1943).

10. - INITIALING BALLOT.

The provisions of this section [Code 1942, § 3164] with respect to the initialing of ballots applies only to a primary election and does not require ballots in a general or special election to be initialed. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

A new election should be offered either in the entire district or in the precincts involved, where a third of the ballots cast were invalidated by the failure of the installing manager to initial them. Wallace v. Leggett, 248 Miss. 121, 158 So. 2d 746 (1963).

Where primary election ballots were initialed on the back and the initials were those of the receiving manager and not of the initialing manager, the ballots should not be counted. Starnes v. Middleton, 226 Miss. 81, 83 So. 2d 752 (1955).

The special tribunal committed no error in refusing to count ballots which were not initialed by the initialing manager of the election and which were improperly identified. Starnes v. Middleton, 226 Miss. 81, 83 So. 2d 752 (1955).

Failure of the initialing manager to initial a ballot renders such ballot illegal. Chinn v. Cousins, 201 Miss. 1, 27 So. 2d 882 (1946).

A special election with new managers, to be called by the governor pursuant to section 3187, Code 1942, was ordered in a precinct where none of the ballots cast were initialed by the initialing manager, the number of ballots there counted exceeding the difference in the vote counted for the two nominees, and the results in other precincts were allowed to stand after deduction of the few uninitialed ballots cast in those precincts. Chinn v. Cousins, 201 Miss. 1, 27 So. 2d 882 (1946).

11. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-5-147.

The provisions of Code 1942, § 3164 requiring the initialing of ballots by the initialing manager applies only to primary elections and has no application to general or special elections conducted under this section [Code 1942, § 3267]. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

In a school district bond election contest, where there were marks on both places on ballot but it was manifest that the voter intended to strike out his original vote against the bonds, and by his clear mark to vote for the bonds, the ballot should have been counted. Tedder v. Board of Supvrs., 214 Miss. 717, 59 So. 2d 329 (1952).

Fact that, pursuant to custom because of size of election district, two sets of election managers conducted the election at the voting place, did not render the votes cast thereat invalid, where one set of managers sat at one end of a table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with the letters "A" through "L," and the other set of managers sat at the other end of the table and received the ballots of persons whose names began with "M" through "Z," each set of managers using a separate ballot box and being assisted by separate clerks, and the ballots were counted and certified to by the respective managers who received them. Simmons v. Crisler, 197 Miss. 547, 20 So. 2d 85 (1944).

Absentee ballots, larger in size than home ballots, and containing name of candidate who had not qualified, substantially complies with ballot requirements, in view of objects to be accomplished by and circumstances surrounding special statute permitting soldiers to vote by absentee ballots. Gregory v. Sanders, 195 Miss. 508, 15 So. 2d 432 (1943).

Where voters had written in name of nominee for office and placed crosses opposite such name, ballots should be counted. Failure of commissioners to print nominee's name on ballot did not deprive voter of right to vote. State ex rel. Att'y Gen. v. Ratliff, 108 Miss. 242, 66 So. 538 (1914).

SUBARTICLE C. DETERMINING THE RESULTS OF ELECTIONS

§ 23-15-591. Proclamation of results; sealing of ballot box.

When the votes have been completely and correctly counted and tallied by the poll managers they shall publicly proclaim the result of the election at their box and shall certify in duplicate a statement of the result, the certificate to be signed by the poll managers, one (1) of the certificates to be enclosed in the ballot box, and the other to be delivered to and to be kept by one (1) of the poll managers and to be inspected at any time by any voter who so requests. When the count of the votes and the tally of the votes have been completed, the poll managers shall lock and seal the ballot box, having first placed therein all ballots voted, all spoiled ballots and all unused ballots. There shall also be enclosed one (1) of the duplicate receipts given by the poll manager who received the blank ballots received for that box; and the total ballots voted, and the spoiled ballots, and the unused ballots must correspond in total with the duplicate receipt or else the failure thereof must be perfectly accounted for by a written statement, under oath of the poll managers, which statement must be enclosed in the ballot box. There shall also be enclosed in the box the tally list, the receipt book containing the signed names of the voters who voted; and the number of ballots voted must correspond with the number of names signed in the receipt book.

1. CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER SECTIONS.

Trial court was correct in overruling the decision of the Jefferson Davis County Democratic Executive Committee, to conduct a new election for the Democratic nominee for Jefferson Davis County Chancery Clerk. The requirements to hold a new election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 were not met, as § 23-15-593 authorized new elections for individual precincts if the requirements were met, not a new election county or district wide. To have held a new election county wide, the Committee would had to have determined that all precincts failed in material particulars to comply with the requirements of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 to such an extent that it was impossible to arrive at the will of the voters; there was no evidence that there were violations of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 and the committee exceeded its authority under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 in ordering a new election. Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

2. SPECIAL ELECTION WARRANTED.

Failure to secure ballot boxes under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911 and the lack of the control over the boxes were substantial irregularities that warranted a special election because they were radical departures from Mississippi election law. Waters v. Gnemi, 907 So. 2d 307 (Miss. 2005).

3.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-3-19.

What constitutes a substantial failure to comply in material particulars with the requirements of the statutes as to primary elections, so as to require the throwing out of a box or calling a new election, depends upon the facts and circumstances in each particular case including the nature of the procedural requirements violated, the scope of the violations, and the ratio of legal votes to the total votes cast. Walker v. Smith, 213 Miss. 255, 57 So. 2d 166 (1952).

Where there is a total departure from the mandatory provisions of the statute and it is not possible to ascertain the will of the electors because a substantial portion of the votes were void, a new election should be ordered for the purpose of ascertaining the voter's choice. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

Where the special tribunal held that votes of more than one-third of the voters in primary election for office of supervisor, were held void for failure to comply with mandatory provisions of the statute, it was impossible for one to reasonably say that result arrived at by the special tribunal represented the will of the voters. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

Allegations and proof by a contestant on a petition for judicial review of a primary election that a number of illegal votes were cast and counted to change the result of the election was sufficient, and he was not required to prove that enough of the illegal votes were actually cast for the contestee to give him the apparent, although not real, majority. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

§ 23-15-593. Irregularities in ballot box.

When the ballot box is opened and examined by the county executive committee in the case of a primary election, or county election commissioners in the case of other elections, and it is found that there have been failures in material particulars to comply with the requirements of Section 23-15-591 and Section 23-15-895 to such an extent that it is impossible to arrive at the will of the voters at such precinct, the entire box may be thrown out unless it be made to appear with reasonable certainty that the irregularities were not deliberately permitted or engaged in by the poll managers at that box, or by one (1) of them responsible for the wrong or wrongs, for the purpose of electing or defeating a certain candidate or candidates by manipulating the election or the returns thereof at that box in such manner as to have it thrown out; in which latter case the county executive committee, or the county election commission, as appropriate, shall conduct such hearing and make such determination in respect to the box as may appear lawfully just, subject to a judicial review of the matter as elsewhere provided by this chapter. Or the executive committee, or the election commission, or the court upon review, may order another election to be held at that box appointing new poll managers to hold the same.

"SECTION 20. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is declared to be unconstitutional or void, or for any reason is declared to be invalid or of no effect, the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases shall be in no manner affected thereby but shall remain in full force and effect."

Amendments- The 2017 amendment inserted "poll" preceding "managers" twice; and made minor stylistic changes.

1. REVOTE.

In a contested election for state representative, the trial court improperly issued a writ of mandamus requiring the election commission to certify the results and issued a writ of prohibition cancelling a re-vote as the commission's decision to schedule a re-vote based on voting irregularities was discretionary and not a ministerial act; and scheduling a re-vote was within its authority under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 where voters were not allowed to vote because they were given the wrong ballots and incorrect poll books were used, thereby precluding an interpretation of the will of the voters. In re Election for House of Representatives Dist. 71, 987 So. 2d 917 (Miss. 2008).

Trial court was correct in overruling the decision of the Jefferson Davis County Democratic Executive Committee, to conduct a new election for the Democratic nominee for Jefferson Davis County Chancery Clerk. The requirements to hold a new election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 were not met, as § 23-15-593 authorized new elections for individual precincts if the requirements were met, not a new election county or district wide. To have held a new election county wide, the Committee would had to have determined that all precincts failed in material particulars to comply with the requirements of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 to such an extent that it was impossible to arrive at the will of the voters; there was no evidence that there were violations of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 and the committee exceeded its authority under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 in ordering a new election. Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

Problems in the state party primary election for a state house seat were not "technical" because an entire sub-precinct was not allowed to vote; thus, the trial court appropriately ordered a revote in the excluded areas in complete accordance with procedures mandated by the Legislature in Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593. Barbour v. Gunn, 890 So. 2d 843 (Miss. 2004).

§ 23-15-595. Procedure for sealing of ballot box; reopening and resealing.

The box containing the ballots and other records required by this chapter shall, immediately after the ballots have been counted, be delivered by one (1) of the poll managers to the clerk of the circuit court of the county and the clerk shall, in the presence of the poll manager making delivery of the box, place upon the lock of such box a tamper-evident seal. The seals shall be numbered consecutively to the number of ballot boxes used in the election in the county, and the clerk shall keep in a place separate from such boxes a record of the number of the seal of each separate box in the county. The board of supervisors of the county shall pay the cost of providing the seals. Upon demand of the chair of the county executive committee in the case of primary elections, or the county election commissioner in the case of other elections, the boxes and their contents shall be delivered to the county executive committee, or the county election commission, as appropriate, and after such committee or commission, as appropriate, has finished the work of tabulating returns and counting ballots as required by law, the committee or commission, as appropriate, shall return all papers and ballots to the box of the precinct where the election was held, and it shall make redelivery of the boxes and their contents to the circuit clerk who shall reseal the boxes. Upon every occasion the boxes shall be reopened and each resealing shall be done as provided in this chapter.

Analysis

1. In general.
- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-5-169.

1. IN GENERAL.

In a contested election for state representative, the trial court improperly issued a writ of mandamus requiring the election commission to certify the results and issued a writ of prohibition cancelling a re-vote as the commission's decision to schedule a re-vote based on voting irregularities was discretionary and not a ministerial act; and scheduling a re-vote was within its authority under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 where voters were not allowed to vote because they were given the wrong ballots and incorrect poll books were used, thereby precluding an interpretation of the will of the voters. In re Election for House of Representatives Dist. 71, 987 So. 2d 917 (Miss. 2008).

Evidence supported determination of county democratic executive committee and election commission that voter's signature on absentee ballot did not match signature on ballot envelope, and therefore, court's order to committee to reconvene, open, and count such absentee ballot constituted reversible error; several persons involved in vote counting process determined that signatures did not match, voter's testimony was unclear, and members of committee testified that candidate stated that voter's daughter, rather than voter, signed ballot and envelope. Pegram v. Bailey, 694 So. 2d 664 (Miss. 1997).

Election commission does not have the authority to open ballots certified by election managers as rejected or challenged, and commission cannot override or review decision of election manager who marked ballot as rejected or challenged; duty of commission is merely to canvass sealed ballots to determine if requirements have been met. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

Only power conferred, and only duty required of election commission, in relation to the canvass of votes, should be to count the votes, based upon returns as made by election managers, and to give certificates to those receiving majority of the votes; election commission should not go beyond or behind the returns, and reject votes, or accept votes previously rejected, or otherwise inquire into validity of conduct of election; election commission has no judicial discretion as to validity of rejected or contested votes. Misso v. Oliver, 666 So. 2d 1366 (Miss. 1996).

Although a court could, if necessary, compel by mandamus an election commission to perform its statutory duty upon its failure to do so, or prohibit it by way of injunction or writ of prohibition from exceeding its statutory authority in some respect, use of an extraordinary writ cannot be extended to actually telling an election commission what action to take. It is the duty under Code 1942, § 3279 of the county election commissioners to canvass the returns of the statements of the election managers as to the whole number of votes and to ascertain the results of the election. Thornton v. Wayne County Election Comm'n, 272 So. 2d 298 (Miss. 1973).

Where the result of a second primary called by a political party ended in a tie for two candidates for a municipal office the election of one of such candidates after nomination by a third primary was void. Omar v. West, 186 Miss. 136, 188 So. 917 (1939).

A candidate for municipal office, who withdrew from the party nomination after a second primary resulted in a tie between him and another and a third primary was called in violation of law, and who thereafter presented a petition signed by eighty-eight qualified electors of the town to have his name printed on the official ballot, was entitled to have his name printed on the official ballot as a candidate for the office in the general election, his participation in the first and second primaries being no bar to that course. Omar v. West, 186 Miss. 136, 188 So. 917 (1939).

Supreme Court on appeal from judgment improperly refusing mandamus to compel commissioners to reassemble and canvass and return the ballots will not remand the case but will enter judgment requiring them to do so. State ex rel. Hudson v. Pigott, 97 Miss. 599, 54 So. 257, Am. Ann. Cas. 1912C,1254 (1911).

The commissioners of election may exclude from their count all illegal ballots which were counted by the managers. Oglesby v. Sigman, 58 Miss. 502 (1880).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

So long as members of a county election commission had no knowledge of or were not a participant in any illegal or criminal activities associated with a general election, they will not be liable civilly or criminally for proceeding with their duty to complete the canvass and to certify the election result in accordance with Section 23-15-601 and transmitting the result to the secretary of state in accordance with Section 23-15-603. Bankhead, Nov. 22, 2006, A.G. 1. IN GENERAL.

In a contested election for state representative, the trial court improperly issued a writ of mandamus requiring the election commission to certify the results and issued a writ of prohibition cancelling a re-vote as the commission's decision to schedule a re-vote based on voting irregularities was discretionary and not a ministerial act; and scheduling a re-vote was within its authority under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 where voters were not allowed to vote because they were given the wrong ballots and incorrect poll books were used, thereby precluding an interpretation of the will of the voters. In re Election for House of Representatives Dist. 71, 987 So. 2d 917 (Miss. 2008).

Although a court could, if necessary, compel by mandamus an election commission to perform its statutory duty upon its failure to do so, or prohibit it by way of injunction or writ of prohibition from exceeding its statutory authority in some respect, use of an extraordinary writ cannot be extended to actually telling an election commission what action to take. A court is without power to issue a writ of prohibition to restrain the Secretary of State, on the ground that a constitutional amendment has not been validly adopted, from performing the duties prescribed by this section [Code 1942, § 3280]. Barnes v. Ladner, 241 Miss. 606, 131 So. 2d 458 (1961).

When the commissioners have complied with this law they cannot be compelled by mandamus to recanvass the return. Oglesby v. Sigman, 58 Miss. 502 (1880).

§ 23-15-625. Duties of registrar relating to the provision and disbursement of absentee voting applications; request for application by person other than elector seeking to vote by absentee ballot; solicitation of absentee ballot applications for persons staying in skilled nursing facility prohibited; exceptions; maintenance of list of absentee voters; public access to list; placement of absentee ballots in ballot boxes; authority to mail applications to qualified electors; use of Statewide Election Management System.

(1) The registrar shall be responsible for providing applications for absentee voting as provided in this section. At least sixty (60) days prior to any election in which absentee voting is provided for by law, the registrar shall provide a sufficient number of applications. In the event a special election is called and set at a date which makes it impractical or impossible to prepare applications for absent elector's ballot sixty (60) days prior to the election, the registrar shall provide applications as soon as practicable after the election is called. The registrar shall fill in the date of the particular election on the application for which the application will be used.

(2) The registrar shall be authorized to disburse applications for absentee ballots to any qualified elector within the county where he serves. Any person who presents to the registrar an oral or written request for an absentee ballot application for a voter entitled to vote absentee by mail, other than the elector who seeks to vote by absentee ballot, shall, in the presence of the registrar, sign the application and print on the application his or her name and address and the name of the elector for whom the application is being requested in the place provided for on the application for that purpose. However, if for any reason such person is unable to write the information required, then the registrar shall write the information on a printed form which has been prescribed by the Secretary of State. The form shall provide a place for such person to place his mark after the form has been filled out by the registrar.

(3) It shall be unlawful for any person to solicit absentee ballot applications or absentee ballots for persons staying in any skilled nursing facility as defined in Section 41-7-173. This prohibition shall not apply to:

(a) A family member of the person staying in the skilled nursing facility; or

(b) A person designated by the person for whom the absentee ballot application or absentee ballot is sought, the registrar or the deputy registrar.

As used in this subsection, "family member" means a spouse, parent, grandparent, sibling, adult child, grandchild or legal guardian.

(4) The registrar in the county wherein a voter is qualified to vote upon receiving the envelope containing the absentee ballots shall keep an accurate list of all persons preparing such ballots, which list shall be kept in a conspicuous place accessible to the public near the entrance to his office. The registrar shall also furnish to each precinct manager a list of the names of all persons in each respective precinct voting absentee ballots to be posted in a conspicuous place at the polling place for public notice. The application on file with the registrar and the envelopes containing the ballots shall be kept by the registrar and deposited in the proper precinct ballot boxes before such boxes are delivered to the election commissioners or managers. At the time such boxes are delivered to the election commissioners or managers, the registrar shall also turn over a list of all such persons who have voted and whose ballots are in the box.

(5) The registrar shall also be authorized to mail one (1) application to any qualified elector of the county for use in a particular election.

(6) The registrar shall process all applications for absentee ballots by using the Statewide Election Management System. The registrar shall account for all absentee ballots delivered to and received from qualified voters by processing such ballots using the Statewide Election Management System.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

An inadvertent omission of names from the list of absentee voters would not cause a vote to be invalid; however, the application form must still be valid for the vote to be counted. Hafter, Dec. 22, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0697.

The provisions of the statute that refer to the sequential numbering of absentee ballots and the filing of the affidavit by the clerk upon receipt of same have not obtained the required preclearance from the United States Attorney General pursuant to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, and therefore, have not taken effect. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

In a case challenging an order by a circuit court that a special election had to be held for sheriff because there were irregularities with the absentee ballots in the primary election, 103 ballots violated Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-627 because the blanks where the signatures of the official authorized to administer oaths for absentee balloting were, in fact, blank. The absence of those signatures made those 103 votes illegal, and the incumbent had obtained a majority by only 11 votes, which included the absentee ballots. Thompson v. Jones, 17 So.3d 524 (Miss. 2008).

Where a voter's name was on an absentee ballot application, the application was initialed, and the circuit clerk seal was affixed to the application, the ballot was counted in a primary election. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

In performing statutory duties with respect to absentee ballots, the county registrar must perform in strict compliance with the statutes. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

A town clerk's actions were not in compliance with the statutes governing absentee ballots where she hand-delivered 3 absentee ballots to her able-bodied relatives after normal business hours, and the ballots were executed outside the town hall. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

Sections 23-15-627, 23-15-635, 23-15-715, 23-15-717, and 23-15-719, which designate the procedures for application and completion of absentee ballots, are mandatory rather than directory in nature. Rogers v. Holder, 636 So. 2d 645 (Miss. 1994).

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

While law provided that disabled registered voter could vote by absentee ballot, no similar provision existed for registration of disabled prospective voter; upon proper certification of deputy registrar, notary public, or other designated official, such person might call upon prospective voter and perfect registration in manner similar to voting procedure applicable to disabled and infirmed. ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A voter who is blind or is unable to read the ballot or mark the ballot and possesses the mental capacity to express his will as to how he wishes to vote and is qualified to vote by absentee ballot, is not disenfranchised but to entitled to receive the needed assistance that is statutorily provided for persons who vote at the polls. § 23-15-631. Instructions to absent electors; instructions as constituting substantive law.

(1) The registrar shall enclose with each ballot provided to an absent elector separate printed instructions furnished by the registrar containing the following:

(a) All absentee voters, excepting those with temporary or permanent physical disabilities or those who are sixty-five (65) years of age or older, who mark their ballots in the county of the residence shall use the registrar of that county as the witness. The absentee voter shall come to the office of the registrar and neither the registrar nor his or her deputy shall be required to go out of the registrar's office to serve as an attesting witness.

(b) Upon receipt of the enclosed ballot, you will not mark the ballot except in view or sight of the attesting witness. In the sight or view of the attesting witness, mark the ballot according to instructions.

(c) After marking the ballot, fill out and sign the "ELECTOR'S CERTIFICATE" on the back of the envelope so that the signature is across the flap of the envelope to ensure the integrity of the ballot. All absent electors shall have the attesting witness sign the "ATTESTING WITNESS CERTIFICATE" across the flap on the back of the envelope. Place the necessary postage on the envelope and deposit it in the post office or some government receptacle provided for deposit of mail so that the absent elector's ballot, excepting presidential absentee ballots, will reach the registrar in which your precinct is located not later than 5:00 p.m. on the day preceding the date of the election.

Any notary public, United States postmaster, assistant United States postmaster, United States postal supervisor, clerk in charge of a contract postal station, or other officer having authority to administer an oath or take an acknowledgment may be an attesting witness; provided, however, that in the case of an absent elector who is temporarily or permanently physically disabled, the attesting witness may be any person eighteen (18) years of age or older and such person is not required to have the authority to administer an oath. If a postmaster, assistant postmaster, postal supervisor, or clerk in charge of a contract postal station acts as an attesting witness, his or her signature on the elector's certificate must be authenticated by the cancellation stamp of their respective post offices. If an officer having authority to administer an oath or take an acknowledgement acts as attesting witness, his or her signature on the elector's certificate, together with his or her title and address, but no seal, shall be required. Any affidavits made by an absent elector who is in the Armed Forces may be executed before a commissioned officer, warrant officer, or noncommissioned officer not lower in grade than sergeant rating or any person authorized to administer oaths.

(d) When the application accompanies the ballot it shall not be returned in the same envelope as the ballot but shall be returned in a separate preaddressed envelope provided by the registrar.

(e) A candidate for public office, or the spouse, parent or child of a candidate for public office, may not be an attesting witness for any absentee ballot upon which the candidate's name appears, unless the voter is related within the first degree to the candidate or the spouse, parent or child of the candidate.

(f) Any voter casting an absentee ballot who declares that he or she requires assistance to vote by reason of blindness, temporary or permanent physical disability or inability to read or write, shall be entitled to receive assistance in the marking of his or her absentee ballot and in completing the affidavit on the absentee ballot envelope. The voter may be given assistance by anyone of the voter's choice other than a candidate whose name appears on the absentee ballot being marked, the spouse, parent or child of a candidate whose name appears on the absentee ballot being marked or the voter's employer, an agent of that employer or a union representative; however, a candidate whose name is on the ballot or the spouse, parent or child of such candidate may provide assistance upon request to any voter who is related within the first degree. In order to ensure the integrity of the ballot, any person who provides assistance to an absentee voter shall be required to sign and complete the "Certificate of Person Providing Voter Assistance" on the absentee ballot envelope.

(2) The foregoing instructions required to be provided by the registrar to the elector shall also constitute the substantive law pertaining to the handling of absentee ballots by the elector and registrar.

(3) The Secretary of State shall prepare instructions on how absent voters may comply with the identification requirements of Section 23-15-563.

Editor's note- Laws of 1987, ch. 499, §§ 20, 21 and 22, provide as follows:

"SECTION 20. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is declared to be unconstitutional or void, or for any reason is declared to be invalid or of no effect, the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases shall be in no manner affected thereby but shall remain in full force and effect.

"SECTION 21. The Attorney General of the State of Mississippi is hereby directed to submit this act immediately upon its approval by the Legislature to the Attorney General of the United States or the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in accordance with the provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended.

"SECTION 22. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date it is effectuated under the provisions of Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended."

Laws of 1987, ch. 499, § 12, proposed to amend Section 23-15-631 by deleting the phrase "or those who are sixty-five (65) years of age or older" from (1)(a), and by deleting a paragraph in (1)(c) which stated "Persons having temporary or permanent physical disabilities shall not be required to have the certificate of attesting witness signed."

On July 24, 1987, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection to the deletion of the paragraph in (1)(c), but did, however, reserve opinion about the deletion of the phrase concerning persons over sixty-five years of age, and requested additional information from the Mississippi Attorney General's Office about such deletion.

As set out above, the provisions of Section 23-15-631 appear as printed in Laws of 1987, ch. 499, § 12, with the EXCEPTION of the phrase concerning persons over sixty-five years of age in (1)(a) which has been retained from Laws of 1986, ch. 495, § 203, by direction of the Attorney General of the State of Mississippi.

On June 21, 1999, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1999, ch. 420, § 3.

On July 28, 2000, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws, 2000, ch. 592.

On June 5, 2006, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws, 2006, ch. 574, § 18.

The effective date of the bill that amended this section, Chapter 526, Laws of 2012 (House Bill No. 921), is 'from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended.' However, after the bill was submitted to the United States Attorney General under Section 5, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. Chapter 526 was submitted to the United States Attorney General before the Shelby County decision was rendered. In a letter dated August 5, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 526 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 526, so Chapter 526 became effective on the date of the response letter from the United States Attorney General, August 5, 2013.

Amendments- The 1999 amendment substituted "provided" for "sent" in the opening paragraph of (1); and added (1)(e) and (f).

The 2000 amendment inserted "across the flap" in the second sentence of (1)(c).

The 2006 amendment substituted "the ballot" for "same" preceding "except in view" in (1)(b); deleted "or by personally delivering such ballot to the registrar's office not later than 12:00 noon on the Saturday immediately preceding elections held on Tuesday the Thursday immediately preceding elections held on Saturday and the second day immediately preceding elections held on other days" from the end of the first paragraph of (1)(c); and made minor stylistic changes.

The 2012 amendment added (3).

The 2017 amendment substituted "furnished by the registrar" for "furnished by him" in the introductory paragraph of (1); in (1)(c), substituted "ensure the integrity" for "insure the integrity" in the first paragraph, and in the second paragraph, substituted "other officer" for "any officer" in the first sentence, and "If an officer having authority to administer an oath or take an acknowledgement acts" for "If one or the other officers herein named acts" in the third sentence; rewrote (1)(e), which read: "A person who is a candidate for public office may not be an attesting witness for any absentee ballot upon which the person's name appears"; rewrote the second sentence of (1)(f), which read: "The voter may be given assistance by anyone of the voter's choice other than a candidate whose name appears on the absentee ballot being marked, or the voter's employer, or agent of that employer"; and made gender neutral and minor stylistic changes.

1. ATTESTING WITNESS.

Although a disabled person's signature on an absentee ballot envelope was not required to be sworn, the ballot could not be counted because no person had signed the ballot envelope as an attesting witness as required by Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-631(1)(c) and 23-15-635. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

2.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

With regard to the name on the flap of an absentee ballot, even with the absence of the appearance of fraud, example (a) was unacceptable because there were no signature lines across the flap, no portion of the actual signature was written across the flap, and there was no attesting witness signature line or signature across the flap; further, example (b) was also unacceptable because there were no signature lines across the flap and there was no signature of an attesting witness. 1. In general.
2. Mistake.
- 3.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-9-19.
7. Under former Section 23-9-413.

1. IN GENERAL.

Circuit court properly found that mail-in absentee ballots that did not comply with Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-635(1) were illegal since strict compliance was necessary; however, once it found that a losing candidate received the greatest number of legal votes, it was error to order a special election instead of utilizing Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-951. Ruhl v. Walton, 955 So. 2d 279 (Miss. 2007).

Although a disabled person's signature on an absentee ballot envelope was not required to be sworn, the ballot could not be counted because no person had signed the ballot envelope as an attesting witness as required by Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-631(1)(c) and 23-15-635. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

Trial court erred in granting a candidate for county supervisor a directed verdict in election contest case, as the completion of as many as 30 absentee ballots by the candidate's supporter on behalf of illiterate and/or disabled voters called into question the integrity of these ballots. Straughter v. Collins, 819 So. 2d 1244 (Miss. 2002).

A voter may not authorize another person to sign the voter's name to the affidavit, even where the voter is unable to sign due to some disability. Campbell v. Whittington, 733 So. 2d 820 (Miss. 1999).

Under Mississippi's election statutes, absentee ballots may be executed in one of 2 ways - by appearing in person before the county registrar and executing an application and ballot, or by requesting a ballot by mail and mailing it back. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

Sections 23-15-627, 23-15-635, 23-15-715, 23-15-717, and 23-15-719, which designate the procedures for application and completion of absentee ballots, are mandatory rather than directory in nature. Rogers v. Holder, 636 So. 2d 645 (Miss. 1994).

2. MISTAKE.

Where a woman completed both the certificate of the attesting witness and the certificate of person providing voter assistance on the back of absentee ballot envelopes of 14 physically disabled voters, the mistake was of a technical nature and did not require that the votes be invalidated. Boyd v. Tishomingo County Democratic Exec. Comm. & Members, 912 So. 2d 124 (Miss. 2005).

3.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-9-19.

Where on an absentee ballot of a member of armed forces the certifying officer signed his name in the blank space of the certificate but did not sign at the end of the certificate but put only his official title, this was sufficient compliance with the requirement of this section as amended in 1954. Anders v. Longmire, 226 Miss. 215, 83 So. 2d 828 (1955).

7. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-9-413.

The absence of an attesting witness' signature on an absentee ballot envelope is a departure from a fundamental provision in the election code and, therefore, the absentee ballot should not be counted.

Shannon v. Henson, 499 So. 2d 758 (Miss. 1986).

Absentee ballots received by mail, except presidential ballots as provided for in Sections 23-15-731 and 23-15-733 and except as otherwise provided by Section 23-15-699, must be received by the registrar by 5:00 p.m. on the date preceding the election; any received after such time shall be handled as provided in Section 23-15-647 and shall not be counted. All ballots cast by the absent elector appearing in person in the office of the registrar shall be cast not later than 12:00 noon on the Saturday immediately preceding elections held on Tuesday, the Thursday immediately preceding elections held on Saturday, or the second day immediately preceding the date of elections held on other days. The registrar shall deposit all absentee ballots which have been timely cast in the ballot boxes upon receipt.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

No authority can be found that would allow a county registrar to open the ballot box and retrieve an absentee ballot cast in one party primary election and then allow the voter to cast another ballot in another party primary. Dill, July 29, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0363.

The failure to strictly comply with statutory provisions regarding the examination and counting of absentee ballots by poll workers should not serve to invalidate lawfully cast ballots and to disenfranchise the voters, and absentee ballots in question should be counted. § 23-15-639. Examination of absentee ballots at close of polls; counting of ballots.

(1) In elections in which direct recording electronic voting systems are not utilized, the examination and counting of absentee ballots shall be conducted as follows:

(a) At the close of the regular balloting and at the close of the polls, the election managers of each voting precinct shall first take the envelopes containing the absentee ballots of such electors from the box, and the name, address and precinct inscribed on each envelope shall be announced by the election managers.

(b) The signature on the application shall then be compared with the signature on the back of the envelope. If it corresponds and the affidavit, if one is required, is sufficient and the election managers find that the applicant is a registered and qualified voter or otherwise qualified to vote, and that he has not appeared in person and voted at the election, the envelope shall then be opened and the ballot removed from the envelope, without its being unfolded, or permitted to be unfolded or examined.

(c) Having observed and found the ballot to be regular as far as can be observed from its official endorsement, the election managers shall deposit it in the ballot box with the other ballots before counting any ballots and enter the voter's name in the receipt book provided for that purpose and mark "VOTED" in the pollbook or poll list as if he had been present and voted in person. If voting machines are used, all absentee ballots shall be placed in the ballot box before any ballots are counted, and the election managers in each precinct shall immediately count such absentee ballots and add them to the votes cast in the voting machine or device.

(2) In elections in which direct recording electronic voting systems are utilized, the examination and counting of absentee ballots shall be conducted as follows:

(a) At the close of the regular balloting and at the close of the polls, the election managers of each voting precinct shall first take the envelopes containing the absentee ballots of such electors from the box, and the name, address and precinct inscribed on each envelope shall be announced by the election managers.

(b) The signature on the application shall then be compared with the signature on the back of the envelope. If it corresponds and the affidavit, if one is required, is sufficient and the election managers find that the applicant is a registered and qualified voter or otherwise qualified to vote, and that he has not appeared in person and voted at the election, the unopened envelope shall be marked "ACCEPTED" and the election managers shall enter the voter's name in the receipt book provided for that purpose and mark "VOTED" in the pollbook or poll list as if he had been present and voted in person.

(c) All absentee ballot envelopes shall then be placed in the secure ballot transfer case and delivered to the officials in charge of conducting the election at the central tabulation point of the county. The official in charge of the election shall open the envelopes marked "ACCEPTED" and remove the ballot from the envelope.

(d) Having observed the ballot to be regular as far as can be observed from its official endorsement, the absentee ballot shall be processed through the central optical scanner. The scanned totals shall then be combined with the direct recording electronic voting system totals for the unofficial vote count.

When there is a conflict between an electronic voting system and a paper record, then there is a rebuttable presumption that the paper record is correct.

(3) The election managers shall also take such action as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State to ensure compliance with the identification requirements of Section 23-15-563.

Editor's note- The United States Attorney General, by letter August 16, 1993, interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1993, ch. 528, § 9.

On June 5, 2006, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2006, ch. 574, § 19.

The effective date of the bill that amended this section, Chapter 526, Laws of 2012 (House Bill No. 921), is 'from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended.' However, after the bill was submitted to the United States Attorney General under Section 5, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. Chapter 526 was submitted to the United States Attorney General before the Shelby County decision was rendered. In a letter dated August 5, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 526 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 526, so Chapter 526 became effective on the date of the response letter from the United States Attorney General, August 5, 2013.

Amendments- The 2006 amendment rewrote the section.

The 2012 amendment added (3).

1. IN GENERAL.

Evidence supported determination of county democratic executive committee and election commission that voter's signature on absentee ballot did not match signature on ballot envelope, and therefore, court's order to committee to reconvene, open, and count such absentee ballot constituted reversible error; several persons involved in vote counting process determined that signatures did not match, voter's testimony was unclear, and members of committee testified that candidate stated that voter's daughter, rather than voter, signed ballot and envelope. Pegram v. Bailey, 694 So. 2d 664 (Miss. 1997).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Without opening the voter's envelope the commissioners of election, designated executive committee members or election managers, as appropriate, shall mark across its face "REJECTED", with the reason therefor.

(2) If the ballot envelope contains more than one (1) ballot of any kind, the ballot shall not be counted but shall be marked "REJECTED", with the reason therefor. The voter's envelopes and affidavits, and the voter's envelope with its contents unopened, when such vote is rejected, shall be retained and preserved in the same manner as other ballots at the election. Such votes may be challenged in the same manner and for the same reasons that any other vote cast in such election may be challenged.

(3) If an affidavit is required and the officials find that the affidavit is insufficient, or if the officials find that the absentee voter is otherwise disqualified to vote, the envelope shall not be opened and a commissioner or executive committee member shall write across the face of the envelope "REJECTED" giving the reason therefor, and the registrar shall promptly notify the voter of such rejection.

Analysis

1. In general.
2. Relation to other laws.

1. IN GENERAL.

The statute does not state reasons that are acceptable for signatures to not correspond; instead, it only states that a ground for rejecting an absentee ballot is that the signatures did not correspond. Pegram v. Bailey, 708 So. 2d 1307 (Miss. 1997).

Evidence supported determination of county democratic executive committee and election commission that voter's signature on absentee ballot did not match signature on ballot envelope, and therefore, court's order to committee to reconvene, open, and count such absentee ballot constituted reversible error; several persons involved in vote counting process determined that signatures did not match, voter's testimony was unclear, and members of committee testified that candidate stated that voter's daughter, rather than voter, signed ballot and envelope. Pegram v. Bailey, 694 So. 2d 664 (Miss. 1997).

Rejection of absentee ballot by election commissioners for "signature differences" between ballot and envelope was permissible under statute allowing rejection of absentee ballot for failure of signature on ballot and envelope to "correspond"; true intent of legislature was to disallow any ballot where signatures were different. Pegram v. Bailey, 694 So. 2d 664 (Miss. 1997).

2. RELATION TO OTHER LAWS.

Black chairman of a county political party executive committee was guilty of racial discrimination under § 2 of the Voting Rights Act because, inter alia, he directed poll workers to count absentee votes from black voters who were not eligible to vote absentee or had already voted at the polls instead of rejecting their absentee ballots as required by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-641. United States v. Brown, 494 F. Supp. 2d 440 (S.D. Miss. June 29, 2007), affirmed by 561 F.3d 420, 2009 U.S. App. LEXIS 4030 (5th Cir. Miss. 2009).

1.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER LAW.

Requirement in this section (Laws 1942, ch. 202) as to the form of the ballot is directory and not mandatory, and a substantial compliance therewith, exercised in good faith under the existing circumstances of each case, where no wrong or injustice results, meets the requirements thereof. Gregory v. Sanders, 195 Miss. 508, 15 So. 2d 432 (1943).

Absentee ballots, although larger in size than home ballots and containing name of candidate who had not qualified, was a sufficient compliance with requirement that an absentee ballot be a regular ballot containing the names of persons to be voted for or against in primary elections, taking into consideration purpose of statute to permit soldiers to express their right of suffrage, and fact that such soldiers are in distant lands, making it necessary that ballots be sent to them early, although changes in ballots may be necessary because of death, disability or withdrawal of candidates in the interim before election. Gregory v. Sanders, 195 Miss. 508, 15 So. 2d 432 (1943).

In view of fact that crediting contestant with votes cast for candidate on absentee ballot, who did not qualify as a candidate, would not change result of election, contestant suffered no injury and had no right to complain. Gregory v. Sanders, 195 Miss. 508, 15 So. 2d 432 (1943).

6. Under former Section 23-9-605.

1. IN GENERAL.

Government properly established, for purposes of Fed. R. Civ. P. 52, that a political party executive committee and its chairman violated § 2 of the Voting Rights Act, 42 U.S.C.S. § 1973 [now 52 USCS § 10301], by intentionally diluting the voting power of white members of the party by obtaining large numbers of defective absentee ballots from black voters, facilitating improper counting of absentee ballots, and permitting improper assistance of black voters, contrary to the requirements of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-263, 23-15-715, and 23-15-549. United States v. Brown, 561 F.3d 420 (5th Cir. 2009).

Under Mississippi's election statutes, absentee ballots may be executed in one of 2 ways-by appearing in person before the county registrar and executing an application and ballot, or by requesting a ballot by mail and mailing it back. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

The language in § 23-15-17 which sets forth the manner for applying for and executing absentee ballots is mandatory. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

The statutes requiring a voter to request an absentee ballot, actually vote his or her own ballot, and place and seal the ballot in the provided envelope are intended to ensure the integrity of absentee ballots. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

In performing statutory duties with respect to absentee ballots, the county registrar must perform in strict compliance with the statutes. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

A town clerk's actions were not in compliance with the statutes governing absentee ballots where she hand-delivered 3 absentee ballots to her able-bodied relatives after normal business hours, and the ballots were executed outside the town hall. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

Sections 23-15-627, 23-15-635, 23-15-715, 23-15-717, and 23-15-719, which designate the procedures for application and completion of absentee ballots, are mandatory rather than directory in nature. Rogers v. Holder, 636 So. 2d 645 (Miss. 1994).

2.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-9-605.

Where a defendant was indicted as a vote fraud principal for aiding, abetting or assisting or causing a named voter to violate the provisions of § 23-9-605(2) [Repealed.], it was not necessary for the state to prove that the named voter had committed a crime, only that the named voter had violated the absentee ballot procedure mandated in § 23-9-605(2) [Repealed]. Van Buren v. State, 498 So. 2d 1224 (Miss. 1986).

Pretrial detainees and convicted misdemeanants who are incarcerated cannot be denied access to ballot, and court will grant preliminary injunction prohibiting denial of plaintiff class, consisting of present and future pretrial detainees and other prisoners incarcerated in Mississippi who are not disenfranchised for conviction of certain felonies, access to absentee ballot. Murphree v. Winter, 589 F. Supp. 374 (S.D. Miss. 1984).

Cited in: Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

A circuit clerk may send only the application and upon receipt of the completed application mail the ballot. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

If a circuit clerk sends both the application and the ballot simultaneously and the materials return with errors, the clerk does not have authority to send a second absentee ballot. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

The circuit clerk does not have any authority to determine the validity of absentee ballots; the clerk is required to place absentee ballots in the ballot boxes upon receipt, and it is the responsibility of the poll workers to determine the validity of the ballots. Allen, Oct. 24, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0555.

§ 23-15-719. Delivery of ballots to applicant; completion of ballots; affidavit; delivery of ballots to registrar.

(1) Immediately upon completion of an application filed pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) of Section 23-15-715, the registrar shall deliver the necessary ballots to the applicant. The registrar shall identify the applicant by requiring him to present identification as required by Section 23-15-563, and shall then deliver the ballots to the applicant by mail or to the applicant in the registrar's office. The registrar shall not personally hand deliver ballots to voters, unless he delivers the ballots in the office of the registrar. The elector shall fill in his ballot in secret. After the applicant has properly marked the ballot and properly folded it, he shall deposit it in the envelope furnished him by the registrar.

After he has sealed the envelope, he shall subscribe and swear to an affidavit in the following form, which shall be printed on the back of the envelope containing the applicant's ballot:

"STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

COUNTY OF _____

I, _____, do solemnly swear that this envelope contains the ballot marked by me indicating my choice of the candidates or propositions to be submitted at the election to be held on the _____ day of _____, 2_____, and I hereby authorize the registrar to place this envelope in the ballot box on my behalf, and I further authorize the election managers to open this envelope and place my ballot among the other ballots cast before such ballots are counted, and record my name on the poll list as if I were present in person and voted.

I further swear that I marked the enclosed ballot in secret.

After the completion of the requirements of this section, the elector shall deliver the envelope containing the ballot to the registrar.

(2) If the voter has received assistance in marking his ballot, the person providing the assistance shall complete the following form which shall be printed on the back of the envelope containing the applicant's ballot:

"CERTIFICATE OF PERSON PROVIDING VOTER ASSISTANCE

(To be completed only if the voter has received assistance in marking the enclosed ballot.) I hereby certify that the above-named voter declared to me that he or she is blind, temporarily or permanently physically disabled, or cannot read or write, and that the voter requested that I assist the voter in marking the enclosed absentee ballot. I hereby certify that the ballot preferences on the enclosed ballot are those communicated by the voter to me, and that I have marked the enclosed ballot in accordance with the voter's instructions.

Signature of person providing assistance

Printed name of person providing assistance

Address of person providing assistance

Date and time assistance provided

Family relationship to voter (if any)"

(3) The envelope used pursuant to this section shall not contain the form prescribed by Section 23-15-635 and shall have printed on the flap on the back of the envelope in bold print and in a distinguishing color, the following: "YOUR VOTE WILL BE REJECTED AND NOT COUNTED IF THIS ENVELOPE IS NOT SIGNED ACROSS THE FLAP OF THIS ENVELOPE BY YOU AND AN ATTESTING WITNESS."

Editor's note- On June 17, 1999, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1999, ch. 420, § 5.

On August 7, 2008, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2008, ch. 528.

The effective date of the bill that amended this section, Chapter 526, Laws of 2012 (House Bill No. 921), is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bill was submitted to the United States Attorney General under Section 5, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. Chapter 526 was submitted to the United States Attorney General before the Shelby County decision was rendered. In a letter dated August 5, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 526 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 526, so Chapter 526 became effective on the date of the response letter from the United States Attorney General, August 5, 2013.

Amendments- The 1999 amendment rewrote the section.

The 2008 amendment added the language following "Section 23-15-635" at the end of (3).

The 2012 amendment substituted "identify the applicant by requiring him to present identification as required by Section 23-15-563, and shall then" for "only" in the second sentence of (1).

Cross references- Provision that the envelope used by absentee voters who do not use the registrar of their county of residence as an attesting witness shall not contain the form prescribed by this section, see § 23-15-635.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

Under Mississippi's election statutes, absentee ballots may be executed in one of 2 ways-by appearing in person before the county registrar and executing an application and ballot, or by requesting a ballot by mail and mailing it back. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

The statutes requiring a voter to request an absentee ballot, actually vote his or her own ballot, and place and seal the ballot in the provided envelope are intended to ensure the integrity of absentee ballots. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

In performing statutory duties with respect to absentee ballots, the county registrar must perform in strict compliance with the statutes. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

A town clerk's actions were not in compliance with the statutes governing absentee ballots where she hand-delivered 3 absentee ballots to her able-bodied relatives after normal business hours, and the ballots were executed outside the town hall. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

Sections 23-15-627, 23-15-635, 23-15-715, 23-15-717, and 23-15-719, which designate the procedures for application and completion of absentee ballots, are mandatory rather than directory in nature. Rogers v. Holder, 636 So. 2d 645 (Miss. 1994).

Cited in: Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

No authority can be found that would allow a county registrar to open the ballot box and retrieve an absentee ballot cast in one party primary election and then allow the voter to cast another ballot in another party primary. Dill, July 29, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0363.

A voter who cast an absentee ballot in one party's primary may not lawfully cast a regular ballot in another party's primary. Dill, July 29, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0363.

The list of voters who vote by absentee ballot is a public record. Therefore, it is permissible to furnish the election managers in one party's primary with a list of individuals who cast absentee ballots in another party's primary. Dill, July 29, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0363.

Except as otherwise provided by Section 23-15-699 and excluding presidential ballots as provided for in Sections 23-15-731 and 23-15-733, the ballots must be received by the registrar prior to 5:00 p.m. on the day preceding the election to be counted.

SUBARTICLE D.
PROVISION APPLICABLE TO PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

§ 23-15-731. General provisions.

Any presidential absentee ballots received by the registrar subsequent to the delivery of ballot boxes to the election managers and prior to the time for the closing of the polls on election day shall be retained by the registrar and shall be delivered, together with the applications of the qualified absentee elector to an election official designated to receive them. The registrar shall receive a receipt from the designated election official for all such ballots and applications delivered. The designated election officials shall, upon the canvassing of the returns, count such ballots as if delivered to the proper precincts and such ballots shall be considered valid for all purposes as if they had been actually deposited in the proper precinct ballot boxes. The appropriate election officials shall examine the affidavit of each envelope. If the officials are satisfied that the affidavit is sufficient and that the absentee voter is otherwise qualified to vote, an official shall announce the name of the voter and shall give any person present an opportunity to challenge in like manner and for the same cause as the voter could have been challenged had he presented himself personally in such precinct to vote. The ineligibility of the voter to vote by absentee ballot shall be a ground for a challenge. The officials shall consider any absentee voter challenged when a person has previously filed a written challenge of such voter's right to vote. The election officials shall handle any such challenge in the same manner as other challenged ballots are handled, and if the challenge is not affirmed, the officials shall then open the envelope. The officials shall then open the envelope in such manner as not to destroy the affidavit printed thereon and shall deposit the ballot marked "OFFICIAL ABSENTEE BALLOT," in a ballot box reserved for absentee ballots. The commissioners shall endorse on their pollbooks a proper notation to indicate that the absentee voter has voted in such election by absentee ballot.

Editor's note- Laws of 1999, ch. 301, was House Bill 1609, 1998 Regular Session, and originally passed both Houses of the Legislature on April 3, 1998. The Governor vetoed House Bill 1609 on April 17, 1998. The veto was overridden by the State Senate and House of Representatives on January 5, 1999.

On January 15, 1999, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1999, ch. 301, § 9.

Amendments- The 1999 amendment inserted "April 30 " in (b)(ii); inserted present (c) and redesignated and rewrote former (c) as (d); and added (e) and (f).

The 2017 amendment, effective January 1, 2018, rewrote the next-to-last sentence of (a), which read: "All candidates or political committees required to report may terminate its obligation to report only upon submitting a final report that it will no longer receive any contributions or make any disbursement and that such candidate or committee has no outstanding debts or obligations"; in (b), substituted "making expenditures to influence or attempt to influence voters for or against the nomination for election of" for "that make expenditures for the purpose of influencing or attempting to influence the action of voters for or against the nomination for election, or election, of" in the introductory paragraph, and added (iv); in (c),

1.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-6-67.

Chapter 510, Laws of 1971, became effective on the date of its approval, April 9, 1971 and not on September 14, 1971, on which date the attorney general of the State of Mississippi was advised by the Attorney General of the United States that the latter would not at that time interpose an objection to the implementation of this statute under the provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USCS § 1973c). Ladner v. Fisher, 269 So. 2d 633 (Miss. 1972).

In a proceeding for judicial review for executive committee's order rescinding its order declaring the petitioner a nominee, the special tribunal did not have authority to determine that respondent, because of alleged violations of Corrupt Practices Act, was disqualified from holding an office of supervisor and for that reason could not run for the Democratic Primary and perhaps become a nominee for that office. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226 Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The prescribed sanctions of subsections (c) & (d) are applicable once the deadline passes and the candidate has not filed the required report. Artigues, Jr., Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0060.

A city by and through the board of aldermen has an affirmative duty to comply with subsection (d) by withholding the payment of any salary or other remuneration until the offending official files all delinquent reports. Artigues, Jr., Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0060.

A candidate who ultimately files all required reports is entitled to retain any compensation paid while the candidate was delinquent in filing reports; likewise, a candidate who ultimately files all delinquent reports would be entitled to any compensation withheld pursuant to subsection (d). Artigues, Jr., Feb. 18, 2000, A.G. § 23-15-813. Civil penalty for failure to file campaign finance disclosure report; notice to candidate of failure to file; assessment of penalty by Mississippi Ethics Commission; hearing; appeal.

[Effective until January 1, 2018, this section will read:]

(a) In addition to any other penalty permitted by law, the Secretary of State shall require any candidate or political committee, as identified in Section 23-15-805(a), and any other political committee registered with the Secretary of State, who fails to file a campaign finance disclosure report as required under Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53, or who shall file a report which fails to substantially comply with the requirements of Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53, to be assessed a civil penalty as follows:

(i) Within five (5) calendar days after any deadline for filing a report pursuant to Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53, the Secretary of State shall compile a list of those candidates and political committees who have failed to file a report. The Secretary of State shall provide each candidate or political committee, who has failed to file a report, notice of the failure by first-class mail.

(ii) Beginning with the tenth calendar day after which any report shall be due, the Secretary of State shall assess the delinquent candidate and political committee a civil penalty of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for each day or part of any day until a valid report is delivered to the Secretary of State, up to a maximum of ten (10) days. However, in the discretion of the Secretary of State, the assessing of the fine may be waived in whole or in part if the Secretary of State determines that unforeseeable mitigating circumstances, such as the health of the candidate, interfered with timely filing of a report. Failure of a candidate or political committee to receive notice of failure to file a report from the Secretary of State is not an unforeseeable mitigating circumstance, and failure to receive the notice shall not result in removal or reduction of any assessed civil penalty.

(iii) Filing of the required report and payment of the fine within ten (10) calendar days of notice by the Secretary of State that a required statement has not been filed, constitutes compliance with Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53.

(iv) Payment of the fine without filing the required report does not in any way excuse or exempt any person required to file from the filing requirements of Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, and Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53.

(v) If any candidate or political committee is assessed a civil penalty, and the penalty is not subsequently waived by the Secretary of State, the candidate or political committee shall pay the fine to the Secretary of State within ninety (90) days of the date of the assessment of the fine. If, after one hundred twenty (120) days of the assessment of the fine the payment for the entire amount of the assessed fine has not been received by the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State shall notify the Attorney General of the delinquency, and the Attorney General shall file, where necessary, a suit to compel payment of the civil penalty.

(b)(i) Upon the sworn application, made within sixty (60) calendar days of the date upon which the required report is due, of a candidate or political committee against whom a civil penalty has been assessed pursuant to paragraph (a), the Secretary of State shall forward the application to the State Board of Election Commissioners. The State Board of Election Commissioners shall appoint one or more hearing officers who shall be former chancellors, circuit court judges, judges of the Court of Appeals or justices of the Supreme Court, and who shall conduct hearings held pursuant to this article. The hearing officer shall fix a time and place for a hearing and shall cause a written notice specifying the civil penalties that have been assessed against the candidate or political committee and notice of the time and place of the hearing to be served upon the candidate or political committee at least twenty (20) calendar days before the hearing date. The notice may be served by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail, postage prepaid, to the last known business address of the candidate or political committee.

(ii) The hearing officer may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers at the hearing. Process issued by the hearing officer shall extend to all parts of the state and shall be served by any person designated by the hearing officer for the service.

(iii) The candidate or political committee has the right to appear either personally, by counsel or both, to produce witnesses or evidence in his behalf, to cross-examine witnesses and to have subpoenas issued by the hearing officer.

(iv) At the hearing, the hearing officer shall administer oaths as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the hearing. All hearings shall be conducted by the hearing officer, who shall not be bound by strict rules of procedure or by the laws of evidence in the conduct of the proceedings, but the determination shall be based upon sufficient evidence to sustain it. The scope of review at the hearing shall be limited to making a determination of whether failure to file a required report was due to an unforeseeable mitigating circumstance.

(v) Where, in any proceeding before the hearing officer, any witness fails or refuses to attend upon a subpoena issued by the commission, refuses to testify, or refuses to produce any books and papers the production of which is called for by a subpoena, the attendance of the witness, the giving of his testimony or the production of the books and papers shall be enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction of this state in the manner provided for the enforcement of attendance and testimony of witnesses in civil cases in the courts of this state.

(vi) Within fifteen (15) calendar days after conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer shall reduce his or her decision to writing and forward an attested true copy of the decision to the last known business address of the candidate or political committee by way of United States first-class, certified mail, postage prepaid.

(c)(i) The right to appeal from the decision of the hearing officer in an administrative hearing concerning the assessment of civil penalties authorized pursuant to this section is granted. The appeal shall be to the Circuit Court of Hinds County and shall include a verbatim transcript of the testimony at the hearing. The appeal shall be taken within thirty (30) calendar days after notice of the decision of the commission following an administrative hearing. The appeal shall be perfected upon filing notice of the appeal and by the prepayment of all costs, including the cost of the preparation of the record of the proceedings by the hearing officer, and the filing of a bond in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), conditioned that if the decision of the hearing officer be affirmed by the court, the candidate or political committee will pay the costs of the appeal and the action in court. If the decision is reversed by the court, the Secretary of State will pay the costs of the appeal and the action in court.

(ii) If there is an appeal, the appeal shall act as a supersedeas. The court shall dispose of the appeal and enter its decision promptly. The hearing on the appeal may be tried in vacation, in the court's discretion. The scope of review of the court shall be limited to a review of the record made before the hearing officer to determine if the action of the hearing officer is unlawful for the reason that it was 1. not supported by substantial evidence, 2. arbitrary or capricious, 3.

beyond the power of the hearing officer to make, or 4. in violation of some statutory or constitutional right of the appellant. The decision of the court may be appealed to the Supreme Court in the manner provided by law.

(d) If, after forty-five (45) calendar days of the date of the administrative hearing procedure set forth in paragraph (b), the candidate or political committee identified in paragraph (a) of this section fails to pay the monetary civil penalty imposed by the hearing officer, the Secretary of State shall notify the Attorney General of the delinquency. The Attorney General shall investigate the offense in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and where necessary, file suit to compel payment of the unpaid civil penalty.

(e) If, after twenty (20) calendar days of the date upon which a campaign finance disclosure report is due, a candidate or political committee identified in paragraph (a) of this section shall not have filed a valid report with the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State shall notify the Attorney General of those candidates and political committees who have not filed a valid report, and the Attorney General shall thereupon prosecute the delinquent candidates and political committees.

[Effective from and after January 1, 2018, this section will read:]

(a) In addition to any other penalty permitted by law, the Mississippi Ethics Commission shall require any candidate or political committee, as identified in Section 23-15-805(a), and any other political committee registered with the Secretary of State, who fails to file a campaign finance disclosure report as required under Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53, or who shall file a report that fails to substantially comply with the requirements of Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53, to be assessed a civil penalty as follows:

(i) Within five (5) calendar days after any deadline for filing a report pursuant to Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53, the Secretary of State shall compile a list of those candidates and political committees who have failed to file a report. The list shall be provided to the Mississippi Ethics Commission. The Secretary of State shall provide each candidate or political committee, who has failed to file a report, notice of the failure by first-class mail.

(ii) Beginning with the tenth calendar day after which any report is due, the Mississippi Ethics Commission shall assess the delinquent candidate and political committee a civil penalty of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for each day or part of any day until a valid report is delivered to the Secretary of State, up to a maximum of ten (10) days. In the discretion of the Mississippi Ethics Commission, the assessing of the fine may be waived, in whole or in part, if the Commission determines that unforeseeable mitigating circumstances, such as the health of the candidate, interfered with the timely filing of a report. Failure of a candidate or political committee to receive notice of failure to file a report from the Secretary of State is not an unforeseeable mitigating circumstance, and failure to receive the notice shall not result in removal or reduction of any assessed civil penalty.

(iii) Filing of the required report and payment of the fine within ten (10) calendar days of notice by the Secretary of State that a required statement has not been filed constitutes compliance with Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, or Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53.

(iv) Payment of the fine without filing the required report does not excuse or exempt any person from the filing requirements of Sections 23-15-801 through 23-15-813, and Sections 23-17-47 through 23-17-53.

(v) If any candidate or political committee is assessed a civil penalty, and the penalty is not subsequently waived by the Mississippi Ethics Commission, the candidate or political committee shall pay the fine to the Commission within ninety (90) days of the date of the assessment of the fine. If, after one hundred twenty (120) days of the assessment of the fine the payment for the entire amount of the assessed fine has not been received by the Commission, the Commission shall notify the Attorney General of the delinquency, and the Attorney General shall file, where necessary, a suit to compel payment of the civil penalty.

(b)(i) Upon the sworn application, made within sixty (60) calendar days of the date upon which the required report is due, of a candidate or political committee against whom a civil penalty has been assessed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the Secretary of State shall forward the application to the State Board of Election Commissioners. The State Board of Election Commissioners shall appoint one or more hearing officers who shall be former chancellors, circuit court judges, judges of the Court of Appeals or justices of the Supreme Court, to conduct hearings held pursuant to this article. The hearing officer shall fix a time and place for a hearing and shall cause a written notice specifying the civil penalties that have been assessed against the candidate or political committee and notice of the time and place of the hearing to be served upon the candidate or political committee at least twenty (20) calendar days before the hearing date. The notice may be served by mailing a copy of the notice by certified mail, postage prepaid, to the last-known business address of the candidate or political committee.

(ii) The hearing officer may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents at the hearing. Process issued by the hearing officer shall extend to all parts of the state and shall be served by any person designated by the hearing officer for the service.

(iii) The candidate or political committee has the right to appear either personally, by counsel or both, to produce witnesses or evidence in his or her behalf, to cross-examine witnesses and to have subpoenas issued by the hearing officer.

(iv) At the hearing, the hearing officer shall administer oaths as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the hearing. All hearings shall be conducted by the hearing officer, who shall not be bound by strict rules of procedure or by the laws of evidence, but the determination shall be based upon sufficient evidence to sustain it. The scope of review at the hearing shall be limited to making a determination of whether failure to file a required report was due to an unforeseeable mitigating circumstance.

(v) In any proceeding before the hearing officer, if any witness fails or refuses to attend upon a subpoena issued by the commission, refuses to testify, or refuses to produce any documents called for by a subpoena, the attendance of the witness, the giving of his or her testimony or the production of the documents shall be enforced by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state in the manner provided for the enforcement of attendance and testimony of witnesses in civil cases in the courts of this state.

(vi) Within fifteen (15) calendar days after conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer shall reduce his or her decision to writing and forward an attested true copy of the decision to the last-known business address of the candidate or political committee by way of United States first-class, certified mail, postage prepaid.

(c)(i) The right to appeal from the decision of the hearing officer in an administrative hearing concerning the assessment of civil penalties authorized pursuant to this section is granted. The appeal shall be to the Circuit Court of Hinds County and shall include a verbatim transcript of the testimony at the hearing. The appeal shall be taken within thirty (30) calendar days after notice of the decision of the commission following an administrative hearing. The appeal shall be perfected upon filing notice of the appeal and the prepayment of all costs, including the cost of preparing the record of the proceedings by the hearing officer, and filing a bond in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), conditioned that if the decision of the hearing officer is affirmed by the court, the candidate or political committee will pay the costs of the appeal and the action in court. If the decision is reversed by the court, the Mississippi Ethics Commission will pay the costs of the appeal and the action in court.

(ii) If there is an appeal, the appeal shall act as a supersedeas. The court shall dispose of the appeal and enter its decision promptly. The hearing on the appeal may be tried in vacation, in the court's discretion. The scope of review of the court shall be limited to a review of the record made before the hearing officer to determine if the action of the hearing officer is unlawful for the reason that it was 1. not supported by substantial evidence, 2. arbitrary or capricious, 3. beyond the power of the hearing officer to make, or 4. in violation of some statutory or constitutional right of the appellant. The decision of the court may be appealed to the Supreme Court in the manner provided by law.

(d) If, after forty-five (45) calendar days of the date of the administrative hearing procedure set forth in subsection (b), the candidate or political committee identified in subsection (a) of this section fails to pay the monetary civil penalty imposed by the hearing officer, the Secretary of State shall notify the Attorney General of the delinquency. The Attorney General shall investigate the offense in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and where necessary, file suit to compel payment of the unpaid civil penalty.

(e) If, after twenty (20) calendar days of the date upon which a campaign finance disclosure report is due, a candidate or political committee identified in subsection (a) of this section shall not have filed a valid report with the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State shall notify the Attorney General of those candidates and political committees who have not filed a valid report, and the Attorney General shall prosecute the delinquent candidates and political committees.

§ 23-15-839. Appointments to fill vacancies in county or county district offices; special election procedures; procedure where only one person has qualified for candidacy in special election.

(1) When a vacancy occurs in any county or county district office, the same shall be filled by appointment by the board of supervisors of the county, by order entered upon its minutes, where the vacancy occurs, or by appointment of the president of the board of supervisors, by and with the consent of the majority of the board of supervisors, if such vacancy occurs when the board is not in session, and the clerk of the board shall certify to the Secretary of State the appointment, and the appointed person shall be commissioned by the Governor; and if the unexpired term be longer than six (6) months, such appointee shall serve until a successor is elected as hereinafter provided, unless the regular special election day on which the vacancy should be filled occurs in a year in which an election would normally be held for that office as provided by law, in which case the person so appointed shall serve the unexpired portion of the term. Such vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term by the qualified electors at the next regular special election day occurring more than ninety (90) days after the vacancy occurs. The board of supervisors of the county shall, within ten (10) days after the vacancy occurs, make an order, in writing, directed to the election commissioners, commanding an election to be held on the next regular special election day to fill the vacancy. The election commissioners shall require each candidate to qualify at least sixty (60) days before the date of the election, and shall give a certificate of election to the person elected, and shall return to the Secretary of State a copy of the order of holding the election, showing the election results, certified by the clerk of the board of

(2) In any election ordered pursuant to this section where only one (1) person qualifies with the election commissioners to be a candidate within the time provided by law, the election commissioners shall certify to the board of supervisors that there is only one (1) candidate. Thereupon, the board of supervisors shall dispense with the election and appoint the certified candidate to fill the unexpired term. The clerk of the board shall certify the appointed candidate to the Secretary of State and the candidate shall be commissioned by the Governor. In the event no person qualifies by 5:00 p.m. sixty (60) days before the date of the election, the election commissioners shall certify that fact to the board of supervisors who shall dispense with the election and fill the vacancy by appointment. Vacancy on county board of supervisors must be filled in accordance with Miss. Code Section 23-15-839 which requires remaining members of board of supervisors to appoint eligible person to serve on interim basis until special election is conducted to elect someone to serve remainder of term. Higginbotham, May 12, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0323.

Miss. Code Section 23-15-839 sets forth procedure for conducting special elections to fill vacancies in county and district offices. Mosley, June 3, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0391.

Although a vacancy on a county board of supervisors will be filled pursuant to special election proceedings under Miss. Code Section 23-15-833, this section requires that the remaining board members appoint an eligible person to serve the remaining portion of the unexpired term until the special election is conducted. Smith, Aug. 29, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0536.

When a justice court judge resigns, the vacancy should be filled in accordance with this section; Section 9-11-31 is to be used only when the justice court judge's office is temporarily vacant due to suspension or disability. Sherard, July 22, 1999, A.G. Op. #99-0128.

If in a special election for county election commissioner there is only one qualified candidate, then by following the provisions of Section 23-15-839(2) the election commission may dispense with the special election without regard to a general election for county school board member offices. Sanford, July 15, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0315.

If it is determined that a candidate for the office of justice court judge is a resident of the district he seeks to serve and is a registered voter of the county and is not otherwise disqualified, he would be entitled to have his name placed on the ballot even if the address given on his qualifying papers does not match his actual residence. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. WRITE-IN ELECTION.

Write-in election for a circuit court judge was proper under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-365 because the circuit judge passed away after qualifying for the November 2, 2010 election, and Miss. Code Ann. § 9-1-103 permitted the appointee judge to serve for the unexpired term with no requirement of a special election since the circuit judge died fewer than nine months before the expiration of his term; the use of the word "or" in Miss. Code Ann. § 9-1-103 means that an election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-849(1) need not occur if there is so little time in the unexpired term that the appointee may legally serve for the unexpired term. Rayner v. Barbour, 47 So.3d 128 (Miss. 2010).

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, within thirty (30) days after vacancies occur in either house of the Legislature, the Governor shall issue writs of election to fill the vacancies on a day specified in the writ of election. At least sixty (60) days' notice shall be given of the election in each county or part of a county in which the election shall be held. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. CONSTRUCTION AND APPLICATION.

Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-855 is silent regarding the situation in which a senatorial vacancy occurs after a general state or congressional election, and the statute fails to implement the specific power granted to the legislature by the Seventeenth Amendment for directing the filling of the vacancy by election. As such, the general power granted to the executive branch of the state by the Seventeenth Amendment to issue writs of election is controlling. Barbour v. State ex rel. Hood, 974 So. 2d 232 (Miss. 2008).

As portions of Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-855 were ambiguous, and others silent, a writ of election issued by the Governor on December 20, 2007, designating November 4, 2008, as the general election day for electing a U.S. Senator to complete the term of office of a Senator who had resigned was not constitutionally infirm. The circuit court erred, as a matter of law, in deeming § 23-15-855 plain, clear, and unambiguous, and then finding the writ of election exceeded the Governor's constitutional and statutory authority. Barbour v. State ex rel. Hood, 974 So. 2d 232 (Miss. 2008).

§ 23-15-857. Appointments to fill vacancies in elective offices in cities, towns, or villages; elections to fill such offices; procedure where no person or only one person has qualified as candidate.

(1) When there is a vacancy in an elective office in a city, town or village, the unexpired term of which shall not exceed six (6) months, the same shall be filled by appointment by the governing authority or remainder of the governing authority of the city, town or village. The municipal clerk shall certify the appointment to the Secretary of State and the appointed person or persons shall be commissioned by the Governor.

(2) When there is a vacancy in an elective office in a city, town or village, the unexpired term of which shall exceed six (6) months, the governing authority or remainder of the governing authority of the city, town or village shall make and enter on the minutes an order for an election to be held in the city, town or village to fill the vacancy and fix a date upon which the election shall be held. The order shall be made and entered upon the minutes at the next regular meeting of the governing authority after the vacancy occurs, or at a special meeting to be held not later than ten (10) days after the vacancy occurs, Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays excluded, whichever shall occur first. The election shall be held on a date not less than thirty (30) days nor more than forty-five (45) days after the date upon which the order is adopted.

Notice of the election shall be given by the municipal clerk by notice published in a newspaper published in the municipality. The notice shall be published once each week for three (3) successive weeks preceding the date of the election. The first notice shall be published at least thirty (30) days before the date of the election. Notice shall also be given by posting a copy of the notice at three (3) public places in the municipality not less than twenty-one (21) days before the date of the election. One (1) of the notices shall be posted at the city, town or village hall. In the event that there is no newspaper published in the municipality, such notice shall be published as provided for above in a newspaper that has a general circulation within the municipality and by posting as provided for above. Additionally, the governing authority may publish the notice in that newspaper for as many additional times as may be deemed necessary by the governing authority.

Each candidate shall qualify by petition filed with the municipal clerk by 5:00 p.m. at least twenty (20) days before the date of the election. If the twentieth day to file the petition before the election falls on a Sunday or legal holiday, the petition filed on the business day immediately following the Sunday or legal holiday shall be accepted. The petition shall be signed by not less than the following number of qualified electors:

(a) For an office of a city, town, village or municipal district having a population of one thousand (1,000) or more, not less than fifty (50) qualified electors.

(b) For an office of a city, town, village or municipal district having a population of less than one thousand (1,000), not less than fifteen (15) qualified electors.

No qualifying fee shall be required of any candidate, and the election shall be held as far as practicable in the same manner as municipal general elections.

The candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast in the election shall be elected. If no candidate receives a majority vote at the election, the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall have their names placed on the ballot for the election to be held three (3) weeks thereafter. The candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast in the election shall be elected. However, if no candidate receives a majority and there is a tie in the election of those receiving the next highest vote, those receiving the next highest vote and the candidate receiving the highest vote shall have their names placed on the ballot for the election to be held three (3) weeks thereafter, and whoever receives the most votes cast in the election shall be elected.

Should the election held three (3) weeks thereafter result in a tie vote, the prevailing candidate shall be decided by a toss of a coin or by lot fairly and publicly drawn under the supervision of the election commission.

The clerk of the election commission shall then give a certificate of election to the person elected, and return to the Secretary of State a copy of the order of holding the election and runoff election results, certified by the clerk of the governing authority. The person elected shall be commissioned by the Governor.

However, if nineteen (19) days before the date of the election only one (1) person shall have qualified as a candidate, the governing authority, or remainder of the governing authority, shall dispense with the election and appoint that one (1) candidate in lieu of an election. In the event no person shall have qualified by 5:00 p.m. at least twenty (20) days before the date of the election, the governing authority or remainder of the governing authority shall dispense with the election and fill the vacancy by appointment. The clerk of the governing authority shall certify the appointment to the Secretary of State, and the appointed person shall be commissioned by the Governor.

Where the voters, residing in various wards within a city, alleged that the city violated the U.S. Constitution's one person, one vote principle by refusing to re-evaluate population deviations within the city's ward scheme in light of the 2000 decennial census figures and a 1993 annexation, and in failing for over 10 years to propose a redistricting plan to the United States Department of Justice that would pass constitutional muster and receive preclearance under § 5 of the Voting Rights Act, 42 U.S.C.S. § 1973c, the district court declared vacant the offices of city council and mayor, and the district court ordered a special election. The court found that the special election procedure in Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-857 was remedially appropriate. Garrard v. City of Grenada, - F. Supp. 2d - (N.D. Miss. Sept. 7, 2005).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Miss. Code Section 23-15-857(1) means City Council shall appoint, and Mayor shall confirm or veto, appointment of replacement for vacant City Council seat. Schissel, Apr. 28, 1993, A.G. Op. #93-0289.

The statute applies to special elections to fill vacancies in municipal offices; it does not apply to municipal general elections. Hatcher, Mar. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0163.

There is no authority for an appointment to fill a vacancy where the unexpired term exceeds six months. Hatcher, Mar. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0163.

If a town forgoes holding a general election in the event no person qualifies to run in that election, the incumbent officials would hold over after the expiration of their regular terms of office until such time as new officers are elected; further any action taken by those officers during this hold-over period would be valid and binding as official acts. Craft, Apr. 27, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0254.

As the Special Charter of a city contains provisions which establish the time frame in which a special election to fill a vacancy shall be held, there is no need to refer to general law, and the provisions of the Charter would control. Alexander, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0269.

If only one person qualifies to run for office to fill a vacancy in a special charter municipality as of the day after the date established for qualification, the governing authorities of the city would have the authority to fill the vacancy by appointment of the person who has qualified, without having the election. Alexander, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0269.

Any action taken or votes cast concerning municipal matters prior to receiving preclearance of a special election by an alderman elected in said election would be valid. Ferrell, Oct. 20, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0547.

Where a vacancy exists on a town board of alderman which has persisted for several months without being filled as required by this section, and a quorum of the board has failed to meet to conduct the necessary business of the town, as a way of moving the apparent impasse, the mayor should set at the next and subsequent meetings of the board as the first item on the agenda the matter of filling the vacancy on the board by declaring the vacancy and ordering a special election to be held between 30 and 45 calendar days after the date of the order and fill the vacancy. Tanner, Apr. 16, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0145.

An incumbent alderman who served for the preceding term in an office for which no candidate has filed a valid qualifying petition for the upcoming term could "hold over" in accordance with Sections 21-15-1 and 25-1-7, until a special election to fill a vacancy is held as required by Section 23-15-857, assuming his bond remains in effect. Wiggins, May 6, 2005, A.G. Op. 05-0216.

A candidate could establish his residence within the corporate limits 30 days before the election and then file his qualifying papers at least 20 days prior to the municipal special election and be eligible to have his name placed on the ballot. Turnage, Aug. 23, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0400.

Where a city charter does not contain a specific timetable for setting the date of a special election, Section 23-15-857 should be followed. Turnage, Aug. 23, 2006, A.G. Op. 06-0400.

There is no authority for municipal governing authorities to remove or suspend an elected police chief based on an indictment. A municipal governing authority may make the police chief or other municipal officers appointive, rather than elective, by adopting an ordinance, not within 90 days of an election, that will become effective when the current officer's term expires. If an elected Chief of Police resigns or is disqualified from his position and the remainder of the term is over 6 months, the City must hold a special election to fill the vacancy pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-857. Elliott, March 23, 2007, A.G. Op. #07-00137, 2007 Miss. AG LEXIS 116.

§ 23-15-859. Date of special municipal election; notice.

Whenever under any statute a special election is required or authorized to be held in any municipality, and the statute authorizing or requiring the election does not specify the time within which the election shall be called, or the notice which shall be given, the governing authorities of the municipality shall, by resolution, fix a date upon which the election shall be held. The date shall not be less than twenty-one (21) nor more than thirty (30) days after the date upon which such resolution is adopted, and not less than three (3) weeks' notice of the election shall be given by the clerk by a notice published in a newspaper published in the municipality once each week for three (3) weeks next preceding the date of the election, and by posting a copy of the notice at three (3) public places in the municipality. Nothing herein, however, shall be applicable to elections on the question of the issuance of the bonds of a municipality or to general or primary elections for the election of municipal officers.

The provisions of this section shall be applicable to all municipalities of this state, whether operating under a code charter, special charter or the commission form of government, except in cases of conflicts between the provisions of the section and the provisions of the special charter of a municipality, or the law governing the commission form of government, in which cases of conflict the provisions of the special charter or the statutes relative to the commission form of government shall apply.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

As the Special Charter of a city contain provisions which establish the time frame in which a special election to fill a vacancy shall be held, there is no need to refer to general law, and the provisions of the Charter would control. Alexander, May 30, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0269.

While a city's special charter provides for a time frame in which to hold a special election to fill a vacancy in a municipal office, but is silent as to the proper publication of such election, using Section 23-15-859 as guidance on the question of publication is reasonable and within the authority of the governing authorities of the city. § 23-15-871. General prohibitions with respect to employers, employees, and public officials.

(1) No corporation or any officer or employee thereof, or any member of a firm, or trustee or any member of any association, or any other employer, may direct or coerce, directly or indirectly, any employee to vote or not to vote for any particular person or group of persons in any election, or to discharge or to threaten to discharge any such employee, or to increase or decrease the salary or wages of an employee, or otherwise promote or demote the employee, because of his or her vote or failure to vote for any particular candidate or group of candidates.

(2) No employer, or employee having the authority to employ or discharge other employees, may make any statement public or private, or give out or circulate any report or statement, calculated to intimidate or coerce or otherwise influence any vote of an employee, and when any such statement has been circulated, it shall be the duty of the employer to publicly repudiate it or the employer shall be deemed by way of ratification to have made it himself or herself.

(3) No employee may be requested, directed or permitted to canvass for or against any candidate or render any other services for or against any candidate or group of candidates, during any of the hours within which the salary of the employee as an employee is being paid or agreed to be paid. No employee may be allowed any vacation or leave of absence at the expense of the employer to render any service or services for or against any candidate or group of candidates, or to take any active part in any election campaign whatsoever, except the necessary time to cast his or her vote.

(4) The prohibitions of this section shall apply to all state, state district, county and county district officers, and to any board or commission and the members thereof by whatever name designated and whether elective or appointive, and to each one of those employed by them or any of them.

person, group of persons, or community or group of communities, whether for or against any candidate or group of candidates at any election.

(6) This section and every part of it shall apply also to all federal officers, agents, employees, boards and commissions as to any interference contrary to the provisions of this chapter, in the elections of this state.

(7) Any violation of this section shall be a violation of Section 97-13-37 and shall be referred to a district attorney for prosecution.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment divided the former first sentence into two sentences by substituting "group of candidates. (2) No employer" for "group of candidates; and likewise it shall be unlawful for any employer," and designated the first sentence (1) and the second sentence (2); designated the former second through fifth sentences (3) through (6), respectively; in (1), substituted "No corporation" for "It shall be unlawful for any corporation," "employer may direct" for "employer to direct," and "promote or demote the employee" for "promote or demote him"; in (2), substituted "employees may make any" for "employees to make any," "influence any vote of an employee, and when any such statement has been circulated, it shall be the duty of the employer to publicly repudiate it or the employer" for "influence any employee as to his vote, and when any such statement has obtained circulation, it shall be the duty of such employer to publicly repudiate it, in the absence of which repudiation the employer"; in (3), divided the former single sentence into two sentences by substituting "to be paid. No employee may be" for "to be paid; nor shall any such employee be," and deleted "nor shall any employee at the expense, in whole or in part, of any employer take any part whatever in any election campaign" following "election campaign whatsoever"; in (4), deleted "an every" following "and to each"; in (5), deleted "And" from the beginning and made a related change, substituted "or any employee who directly or indirectly has the control, or who asserts that he or she has such power, over the expenditure of any public funds in this state shall state" for "or any employee of any of them who directly or indirectly has the control, or in any way the power of control, or who asserts or pretends that he has such power, over the expenditure of any public funds in this state, whatever the purpose or object of said expenditure may be, shall state"; rewrote (6), which read: "This section and every part of it shall apply also to all federal officers, agents, employees, boards and commissions by whatever name known and to each and every one of those employed by them or any of them, as to any interference by them or any of them, contrary to the provisions of this chapter, in the elections of this state; added (7); and made gender neutral and minor stylistic changes.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

There was no basis for concluding that Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-871 had been violated in case where there was no evidence that the incumbent candidate for county supervisor coerced two county employees to take time off in order to work on the incumbent's re-election campaign, and there was no evidence the two employees were not entitled to the vacation time they took. Straughter v. Collins, 819 So. 2d 1244 (Miss. 2002).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

State employees may take personal leave to engage in political campaign activities. Ray, March 6, 1998, A.G. Op. #98-0114.

As a general rule, public employees may engage in political activities when on personal leave, but any employee who engages in political activity proscribed by the statute while at work is subject to disciplinary action. Warren, Feb. 11, 2000, A.G. Op. #2000-0042.

Nothing prohibits an incumbent public official from handing out campaign cards to voters who come into the courthouse, provided it does not interfere with the conduct of business. Griffin, July 18, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0336.

Under state law, an employee of the Mississippi Development Authority may continue that employment during candidacy for an elective office. A state employee may take personal leave while running for office until exhausting all accrued personal leave and all lawfully accumulated compensatory leave, and then the appropriate appointing authority may lawfully grant a leave of absence without pay. The Governor vetoed House Bill 1609 on April 17, 1998. The veto was overridden by the State Senate and House of Representatives on January 5, 1999.

On January 15, 1999, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1999, ch. 301, § 5.

No person, including a candidate, shall publicly or privately make, in a campaign then in progress, any charge or charges reflecting upon the honesty, integrity or moral character of any candidate, so far as his or her private life is concerned, unless the charge be in fact true and actually capable of proof; and any person who makes any such charge shall have the burden of proof to show the truth thereof when called to account therefor under any affidavit or indictment against him or her for a violation of this section. Any language deliberately uttered or published which, when fairly and reasonably construed and as commonly understood, would clearly and unmistakably imply any such charge, shall be deemed and held to be the equivalent of a direct charge.

If during any election campaign in Mississippi any newspaper either domiciled in the state, or outside of the state circulating inside the State of Mississippi, shall print any editorial or news story reflecting upon the honesty or integrity or moral character of any candidate in such campaign or on the honesty and integrity or moral character of any candidate who was elected or defeated in such campaign, such newspaper shall, on the written or telegraphic request of such candidate or his agents, print in such newspaper not later than the second issue of such newspaper following the receipt of such request, a statement by the candidate or his duly accredited representative giving the candidate's reply. Such statement shall be printed in the exact language which the candidate or his representative presents and shall be printed as near as is practical on the same page, in the same position, and in the same size type and headlines as the original editorial or news story reflecting on the candidate had been printed.

This section shall be construed to include those news stories wherein the newspaper quotes from a candidate or individual statements attacking the honesty or integrity or moral character of a candidate or ex-candidate.

If such newspaper fails or refuses to publish such answer when requested, the owner of such newspaper shall be liable to a suit for damages by the candidate claiming to be injured by such publication. In event of a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, the measure of damages shall be the injury suffered or a penalty of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), whichever is the larger amount. In all cases, the truth of the charge may be offered as defense to the suit. But nothing herein contained shall be construed to abolish any existing legal rights of action in such cases.

It shall be unlawful for the Mississippi Transportation Commission or any member of the Mississippi Transportation Commission, or the board of supervisors of any county or any member of the board of supervisors of such county, to employ, during the months of May, June, July and August of any year in which a general primary election is held for the nomination and election of members of the Mississippi Transportation Commission and members of the boards of supervisors, a greater number of persons to work and maintain the state highways, in any highway district, or the public roads, in any supervisors district of the county, as the case may be, than the average number of persons employed for similar purposes in such highway district or supervisors district, as the case may be, during the months of May, June, July and August of the three (3) years immediately preceding the year in which such general primary election is held. It shall be unlawful for the Mississippi Transportation Commission, or the board of

The restriction imposed upon the Mississippi Transportation Commission and the boards of supervisors of the several counties in the employment of labor to work and maintain the state highways and the public roads of the several supervisors' districts of the county, as provided in Section 23-15-881, shall not apply to road contractors or bridge contractors engaged in the construction or maintenance of state highways or county roads under contracts awarded by the Mississippi Transportation Commission, or the board of supervisors, as the case may be, where such contracts shall have been awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, after legal advertisement, as provided by law; nor shall the restriction imposed in Section 23-15-881 apply to the labor employed by such road contractors or bridge contractors in carrying out such contracts. Nor shall the provisions of this chapter apply to the employment by the Mississippi Transportation Commission, or the board of supervisors, as the case may be, of extra labor employed to make repairs upon the state highways or highway bridges, or upon the county roads or bridges, in cases where such state highways or highway bridges, or such county roads or bridges, have been damaged or destroyed by severe storms, floods or other unforeseen disasters.

Cash drawing sponsored by political candidate does not constitute violation of bribery statutes (§§ 23-1-51 [Repealed.], 97-13-1), candidate gift statute (§ 23-3-27 [Repealed.]), or lottery statute (§ 97-33-31) where scheme sponsored by candidate requires only that voters who wish to participate in cash drawing participate in election and where scheme expressly disclaims attempt to influence direction of vote. Naron v. Prestage, 469 So. 2d 83 (Miss. 1985).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Since no one was being asked by a mayoral candidate to vote for her in exchange for a pie, cake or gift, there was nothing to prohibit her from continuing to bake pies and cakes for friends, seniors, the sick and children's birthdays while running for office. Whitehead, Feb. 25, 2005, A.G. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

Analysis

1. In general.
2. Construction with other Sections.
3. Relation to federal law.
4. Illustrative cases.

1. IN GENERAL.

Violations of the 150-foot rule of § 23-15-895, which prohibits any candidate or any candidate's representative from posting or distributing campaign literature within 150 feet of any building where an election is being held, will not necessarily require throwing out a precinct box. Where the violations involve "failures in material particulars ... to such an extent that it is impossible to arrive at the will of the voters at such precinct," the entire box may be thrown out; however, if it appears "with reasonable certainty" that the violations were not condoned by any of the election precinct managers for the purpose of electing or defeating a certain candidate, then a hearing should be held and the commission or executive committee should make such determination as is just. The statute does not rule out an order, either by the election body or the court in review, to hold another election at that precinct with new managers. Rizzo v. Bizzell, 530 So. 2d 121 (Miss. 1988).

2. CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER SECTIONS.

Trial court was correct in overruling the decision of the Jefferson Davis County Democratic Executive Committee, to conduct a new election for the Democratic nominee for Jefferson Davis County Chancery Clerk. The requirements to hold a new election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 were not met, as § 23-15-593 authorized new elections for individual precincts if the requirements were met, not a new election county or district wide. To have held a new election county wide, the Committee would had to have determined that all precincts failed in material particulars to comply with the requirements of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 to such an extent that it was impossible to arrive at the will of the voters; there was no evidence that there were violations of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 and the committee exceeded its authority under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 in ordering a new election. Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

3. RELATION TO FEDERAL LAW.

Black chairman of a county political party executive committee was guilty of racial discrimination under § 2 of the Voting Rights Act because, inter alia, he enforced the poll place anti-campaigning rules in

Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-895 in a way that treated white candidates disparately from black candidates for the purpose of diluting the white vote. United States v. Brown, 494 F. Supp. 2d 440 (S.D. Miss. June 29, 2007), affirmed by 561 F.3d 420, 2009 U.S. App. LEXIS 4030 (5th Cir. Miss. 2009).

4. ILLUSTRATIVE CASES.

Primary election candidate's blanket allegation implying that the incumbent sheriff illegally directed his deputies to transport prisoners to the polls never materialized into an actual claim of injustice since he never presented the claim with particularity or supported it with credible evidence. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

To the extent that campaigning involves the posting or distribution of campaign literature inside the courthouse (or other building wherein the registrar's office is located) and within 150 feet of any entrance thereto during the 45 day absentee balloting period, it is prohibited. Griffin, July 18, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0336.

(1) The following words and phrases shall have the meanings as defined in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(a) "Campaign materials" include any materials designed to influence voters for or against any candidate, party or measure to be voted on at any election, or containing information about any candidate, party or measure paid for by a candidate, political committee, or independent expenditure which requires disclosure under campaign finance laws.

(b) "Publish" means the act or instance of making campaign material available to the public, or to a list of subscribers, by mail, telephone, electronic communications platforms, Internet, software applications, printed materials or any other means of distribution.

(c) "Printed material" shall include, but not be limited to, any notice, placard, bill, poster, dodger, pamphlet, advertisement, sign or any other form of printed publication, except notices, posters and the like, which simply announce a speaking date and invite attendance thereon.

(2) No candidate, political committee or other person shall publish, or knowingly cause to be published, any campaign materials unless it contains the following information:

(a) The name of the candidate along with a statement that the message is approved by the candidate; or

(b) If the message has not been approved by a specific candidate, the name of the person, political committee or organization paying for the publication of the message; or

(c) If the message has not been approved by the candidate and no person, political committee or organization is identified as having paid for the publication, the entity producing the campaign materials must be identified.

(3) Publication of campaign materials through an electronic platform shall be deemed to comply with the requirements of this section if the home page of the candidate or political committee provides the information required by subsection (2), and each electronic publication provides a link to that home page.

As, for instance, it shall be unlawful to write, print, post, distribute or cause to be written, printed, posted or distributed any such matter when the authority therefor is designated simply as 'paid political advertisement,' or 'contributed by a friend,' or 'contributed by the friends and supporters,' and the like. Nor shall any radio or television station allow any time or place on any of its programs for any address for or against any candidate at any election, except in accordance with the provisions of the federal statutes and the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission as applied to the use of radio and television facilities by a candidate or candidates for office. But the aforesaid written or printed matter and the time for radio and television addresses shall be paid for at the usual and ordinary rates, and only by a person authorized to make expenditures in behalf of the candidate, as is provided in this chapter in regard to other expenditures.

"For a violation or violations of this section, the offender may be proceeded against as provided in Section 23-15-875."

Editor's note- The United States Attorney General, by letter dated August 16, 1993, interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to certain changes occasioned by Laws of 1993, ch. 528. However, with respect to procedures for processing complaints alleging election law violations, the Attorney General concluded that the information submitted was insufficient to support a determination that the proposed change did not have the purpose and would not have the effect of denying or abridging the right to vote on account of race or color, as required by Section 5, and requested additional information.

Laws of 1993, ch. 528, § 19, provides as follows:

"SECTION 19. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or any part of this act is declared to be unconstitutional or void, or if for any reason is declared to be invalid or of no effect, the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases or parts thereof shall be in no manner affected thereby but shall remain in full force and effect."

Amendments- The 2017 amendment rewrote the section, which read: "In addition to any other procedure provided by law, any person who has reason to believe that any election law has been violated may file a written complaint with the commissioners of election of the county in which the alleged violation occurred. The commissioners of election shall conduct a hearing on any such complaint. The district attorney shall have notice of such hearing and the district attorney or his legal assistant may attend such hearing. If the election commissioners find that there is probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred, they shall refer the complaint to the district attorney and the district attorney shall present the matter to the grand jury at its next term."

ELECTION CONTESTS

SUBARTICLE A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 23-15-911. Control of ballot boxes and their contents after general or primary elections; examinations by candidates or their representatives.

(1)(a) When the returns for a box and the contents of the ballot box and the conduct of the election have been canvassed and reviewed by the county election commission in the case of general elections or the county executive committee in the case of primary elections, all the contents of the box required to be placed and sealed in the ballot box by the poll managers shall be replaced therein by the election commission or executive committee, as the case may be, and the box shall be forthwith resealed and delivered to the circuit clerk, who shall safely keep and secure the same against any tampering. At any time within twelve (12) days after the canvass and examination of the box and its contents by the election commission or executive committee, as the case may be, any candidate or his or her representative authorized in writing by him or her shall have the right of full examination of the box and its contents upon three (3) days' notice of his or her application therefor served upon the opposing candidates. The service of notice shall be provided to each opposing candidate by delivering a copy personally to each candidate, or by performing two (2) of the following:

(i) By leaving a copy at each candidate's usual place of residence with a family member, who shall be no less than sixteen (16) years of age and, who resides in the candidate's residence;

(ii) By email or other electronic means, with receipt deemed upon transmission; or

(iii) By mailing a copy of the notice by registered or certified mail that is addressed to each opposing candidate at that candidate's residence with receipt deemed mailing.

(b) If service of notice cannot be made to any opposing candidate, then notice may be posted on the door of each candidate's usual place of abode. If any candidate's usual place of residence is a multi-family dwelling, a copy of the notice must be mailed to the candidate or candidates by United States first-class mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested. Proof of service of notice upon any opposing candidate shall be made to the circuit clerk within three (3) days before a full examination of the ballot box may be conducted.

(c) The examination shall be conducted in the presence of the circuit clerk or his or her deputy who shall be charged with the duty to see that none of the contents of the box are removed from the presence of the clerk or in any way tampered with. Upon the completion of the examination the box shall be resealed with all its original contents inside. And if any contest or complaint before the court shall arise over the box, it shall be kept intact and sealed until the court hearing and another ballot box, if necessary, shall be furnished for the precinct involved.

(2) The provisions of this section allowing the examination of ballot boxes shall apply in the case of an election contest regarding the seat of a member of the state Legislature. In such a case, the results of the examination shall be reported by the applicable circuit clerk to the Clerk of the House of Representatives or the Secretary of the Senate, as the case may be.

Editor's note- Laws of 1987, ch. 499, § 20, provides as follows:

"SECTION 20. If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is declared to be unconstitutional or void, or for any reason is declared to be invalid or of no effect, the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases shall be in no manner affected thereby but shall remain in full force and effect."

On August 7, 2000, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2000, ch. 450.

Amendments- The 2000 amendment added (2).

The 2017 amendment rewrote (1), which read: "When the returns for a box and the contents of the ballot box and the conduct of the election thereat have been canvassed and reviewed by the county election commission in the case of general elections or the county executive committee in the case of primary elections, all the contents of the box required to be placed and sealed in the ballot box by the managers shall be replaced therein by the election commission or executive committee, as the case may be, and the box shall be forthwith resealed and delivered to the circuit clerk, who shall safely keep and secure the same against any tampering therewith. At any time within twelve (12) days after the canvass and examination of the box and its contents by the election commission or executive committee, as the case may be, any candidate or his representative authorized in writing by him shall have the right of full examination of said box and its contents upon three (3) days' notice of his application therefor served upon the opposing candidate or candidates, or upon any member of their family over the age of eighteen (18) years, which examination shall be conducted in the presence of the circuit clerk or his deputy who shall be charged with the duty to see that none of the contents of the box are removed from the presence of the clerk or in any way tampered with. Upon the completion of said examination the box shall be resealed with all its contents as theretofore. And if any contest or complaint before the court shall arise over said box, it shall be kept intact and sealed until the court hearing and another ballot box, if necessary, shall be furnished for the precinct involved."

Analysis

1. Compliance with statute.
2. - Enforcement of right to examine ballot boxes.
3. Special election warranted.
- 4.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-3-23, generally.
7. - Evidence.
8. - Appeals.

1. COMPLIANCE WITH STATUTE.

Candidate contesting the election complied with Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911 by provision of the candidate's handwritten petition on May 4, 2005, to the city clerk, who in turn notified each of the candidates of the candidate's right to examine the boxes; the notice was signed by each of the four candidates five days before the candidate inspected the ballot boxes. Moore v. Parker, 962 So. 2d 558 (Miss. 2007).

2. - ENFORCEMENT OF RIGHT TO EXAMINE BALLOT BOXES.

No right was created to copy or scan materials from a ballot box during a statutory examination in an election contest. Smith v. Webster, - So.3d - (Miss. May 25, 2017).

Losing candidate's petition for judicial review of a primary judicial election was dismissed for failure to state a cause of action because the losing candidate failed to request and view the ballots within the 12-day time frame mandated by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911. Cook v. Brown, 909 So. 2d 1075 (Miss. 2005).

Losing candidate's petition for judicial review of a primary judicial election was dismissed for failure to state a cause of action because the losing candidate failed to request and view the ballots within the 12-day time frame mandated by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911. Cook v. Brown, 909 So. 2d 1075 (Miss. 2005).

Candidate is entitled to enforce right of examination of ballot boxes conferred by Corrupt Practices Act by mandamus to be heard and determined in vacation, since such right is one affecting public interest and not merely personal to the candidate seeking to exercise it. Sartin v. Barlow ex rel. Smith, 196 Miss. 159, 16 So. 2d 372 (1944).

3. SPECIAL ELECTION WARRANTED.

Failure to secure ballot boxes under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911 and the lack of control over the boxes were substantial irregularities that warranted a special election because they were radical departures from Mississippi election law. Waters v. Gnemi, 907 So. 2d 307 (Miss. 2005).

4.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-3-23, GENERALLY.

Under § 23-3-23 [Repealed.], the 12 day period within which a candidate wishing to contest an election must examine the ballots begins to run when the party's executive committee has certified the returns and declared an official winner. Noxubee County Democratic Executive Comm. v. Russell, 443 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1983).

This section [Code 1942, § 3169] does not make it mandatory that one who contests an election must examine the ballot boxes. Francis v. Sisk, 205 So. 2d 254 (Miss. 1967).

There is no provision in this section [Code 1942, § 3169], or any other section, which prohibits a candidate who is contesting a canvass of a primary election from disclosing to other candidates the results of his examination of the ballot boxes. Francis v. Sisk, 205 So. 2d 254 (Miss. 1967).

The time limit fixed by this provision may not be altered by the courts. Weeks v. Bates, 237 Miss. 778, 115 So. 2d 298 (1959).

Objections based upon an examination of the ballot boxes after twelve days may not be considered, although made upon notice served within the twelve days. Weeks v. Bates, 237 Miss. 778, 115 So. 2d 298 (1959).

This section [Code 1942, § 3169] is in pari materia with statute giving candidate a right to contest the election, and it is indicative of general policy of the state on a cognate subject matter to allow contesting candidates the right to obtain the facts concerning election precedent to filing a contest. Lopez v. Holleman, 219 Miss. 822, 69 So. 2d 903 (1954), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

Offer of a recount of ballots by chairman of county democratic executive committee, on morning after election, did not bar candidate's right of examination conferred by this section. Sartin v. Barlow ex rel. Smith, 196 Miss. 159, 16 So. 2d 372 (1944).

Chairman of county executive committee has nothing to do with the manner of examination of ballot boxes under this section [Code 1942, § 3169]. Sartin v. Barlow ex rel. Smith, 196 Miss. 159, 16 So. 2d 372 (1944).

7. - EVIDENCE.

Evidence that after counting of ballots, and before recount thereof, circuit clerk failed to seal the ballot boxes in question and to keep a record of the seals as required by statute, and that such boxes and their contents were tampered with, warranted affirmance of order of special tribunal, unanimously entered, adjudging election valid as against contestant who received a majority on recount. Allen v. Funchess, 195 Miss. 486, 15 So. 2d 343 (1943).

8. - APPEALS.

Allowance of appeal with supersedeas from writ of mandamus ordering circuit clerk to permit candidate to examine ballot boxes after primary election as provided by the Corrupt Practices Act was an abuse of discretion, where such allowance had the practice or effect of denying the writ so far as affording any relief before the day of the general election, and it appeared on review that the appeal was without merit and instituted for the purpose of delay. Sartin v. Barlow ex rel. Smith, 196 Miss. 159, 16 So. 2d 372 (1944).

Notwithstanding that general election had passed when record on appeal from writ of mandamus directing circuit clerk to permit primary candidate to inspect ballot boxes was filed in the Supreme Court, appeal would not be dismissed as involving a moot case in view of public interest involved, and compelling propriety to declare the rule of law to be followed under the Corrupt Practices Act. Sartin v. Barlow ex rel. Smith, 196 Miss. 159, 16 So. 2d 372 (1944).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

No statute specifically makes it a crime to fail to comply with the statute in general, although willful violations of law are provided for in Section 97-13-19. Hayes, Jan. 7, 2000, A.G. Op. #99-0703.

This section contemplates that once the examination by a candidate begins it is to be a continuous one from day to day until completion. It is our opinion that once the examination is completed and the boxes resealed a second examination by that candidate is not contemplated or authorized. Neal, Sept. 26, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0517.

Where a letter of complaint apparently seeking an examination of ballot boxes was received by the circuit clerk more than 12 days after certification of the election results by the county election commission, and there was no indication that the other candidates were given the required notice, no examination could be conducted. Dowdy, Dec. 19, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0661.

The judges listed and selected to hear election disputes, as provided in Section 23-15-951, shall be available on election day to immediately hear and resolve any election day disputes. The rules for filing pleadings shall be relaxed to carry out the purposes of this section. The judges selected shall perform no other judicial duties on election day. The Supreme Court shall make judges available to hear disputes in the county in which the disputes occur but no judge shall hear disputes in the district or county in which he or she was elected nor shall any judge hear any dispute in which any potential conflict may arise. Each judge shall be fair and impartial and shall be assigned on that basis.

Editor's note- Laws of 1999, ch. 301, was House Bill 1609, 1998 Regular Session, and originally passed both Houses of the Legislature on April 3, 1998. The Governor vetoed House Bill 1609 on April 17, 1998. The veto was overridden by the State Senate and House of Representatives on January 5, 1999.

On January 15, 1999, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1999, ch. 301, § 15.

By letter dated September 6, 2012, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Chapter 473, Laws of 2012.

Amendments- The 2012 amendment substituted "selected to hear election disputes" for "listed and selected to hear election disputes as provided in Section 23-15-951, Mississippi Code of 1972" in the first sentence and substituted "send judges to the sites of disputes" for "make judges available to hear disputes in the county in which the disputes occur" and made a related change in the fourth sentence.

The 2017 amendment, in the first sentence, inserted "listed and" and "as provided in Section 23-15-951"; and in the next-to-last sentence, deleted "subdistrict" following "district" and made a gender neutral change.

SUBARTICLE B. CONTESTS OF PRIMARY ELECTIONS

§ 23-15-921. Nominations to county or county district offices, etc.; petition, notice of contest, investigation, and determination.

Except as otherwise provided by Section 23-15-961, a person desiring to contest the election of another person returned as the nominee of the party to any county or county district office, or as the nominee of a legislative district composed of one (1) county or less, may, within twenty (20) days after the primary election, file a petition with the secretary, or any member of the county executive committee in the county in which the election was held, setting forth the grounds upon which the primary election is contested; and it shall be the duty of the executive committee to assemble by call of the chairman or three (3) members of said committee, notice of which contest shall be served five (5) days before said meeting, and after notifying all parties concerned proceed to investigate the grounds upon which the election is contested and, by majority vote of members present, declare the true results of such primary.

Analysis

1. In general.
2. Service of notice of contest.
3. Hearing procedures.
4. Petition to contest, timing.

1. IN GENERAL.

While the candidate did not file the candidate's earlier petition contesting the election with a member of the Houston Democratic Executive Committee pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-921, the candidate did later file a petition with the committee; the statute does not prohibit submission of an additional petition, and thus the winner's argument concerning the specificity of the earlier petition was irrelevant since the candidate submitted a more specific petition seven days later, the specificity of which the winner did not challenge. Moore v. Parker, 962 So. 2d 558 (Miss. 2007).

Nothing in the statute limits the committee's inquiry regarding the contesting of a primary election to allegations of fraud. Upton v. McKenzie, 761 So. 2d 167 (Miss. 2000).

When a political party Executive Committee meets to hear charges of irregularity concerning primary election contests, it sits as a quasi judicial body whose specific responsibility is to ensure the public of honest elections. The Chairman of the Committee is analogous to a judge and, in regards to recusal, an objective test is followed whereby "a judge is required to disqualify himself if a reasonable person, knowing all the circumstances, would harbor doubts about his impartiality." Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

2. SERVICE OF NOTICE OF CONTEST.

Where a political party's executive committee set a hearing for September 22, and served the contestant with notice of the hearing on Monday, September 15, since the time for service under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-921 - five days - was less than seven days, pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 1-3-67, the intermediate Saturdays and Sundays were excluded, and the candidate was timely served. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

3. HEARING PROCEDURES.

Dismissal of an election contest by a political candidate for a statewide office was appropriate because the candidate failed to file the election contest within the twenty-day deadline under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-921. McDaniel v. Cochran, 158 So.3d 992 (Miss. 2014).

Circuit court properly set aside the results of a primary election because the nominee was disqualified where she did not maintain a residence in the ward. Glenn v. Powell, 149 So.3d 480 (Miss. 2014).

That a political party's executive committee designated only seven of its committee members to serve on a panel to investigate a candidate's charge of election irregularities did not violate Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-921, as the designation of a smaller panel satisfied both the "fast-track" requirement existing in election contests, and the committee gave full, complete, and serious consideration to the candidate's allegations. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

4. PETITION TO CONTEST, TIMING.

Statute requiring a contest of a primary election to be filed within 20 days is not a statute of limitations, but is a condition precedent to the right to file a contest, and therefore, a failure to file a contest within 20 days does not have to be pleaded in any particular way by the contestee, and the matter may not be waived; hence action of contestee in moving to dismiss on ground the contest was not filed within 20 days after the primary election rather than in setting up such matter by special plea was not improper. Kellum v. Johnson, 115 So. 2d 147 (Miss. 1959).

Where a candidate for office of District Attorney, in a primary election, did not file his contest of the election results within 20 days from the date of the primary, his right to file such a contest was barred. Kellum v. Johnson, 115 So. 2d 147 (Miss. 1959).

A party executive committee is under an obligation to dispose of an election contest sufficiently in advance of the general election as will allow the orderly preparation of the ballot and conduct of said election by the county election commission. Townsen, Nov. 14, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0886.

If the executive committee delays disposing of the contest and the election commission proceeds to have the ballots for the general election printed with the certified nominee's name included thereon and, in this case, conducts the general election and certifies the nominee in question as the winner, the committee, loses its jurisdiction over the matter and any findings by the committee thereafter would be of no effect. Townsen, Nov. 14, 1991, A.G. Op. #91-0886.

Absent an election contest, this section provides no authority to conduct an investigation with regard to an election result. Tate, Aug. 20, 2003, A.G. Op. 03-0471.

§ 23-15-923. Nominations with respect to state, congressional, and judicial districts, etc.; investigation, findings, and declaration of nominee.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 23-15-961, a person desiring to contest the election of another returned as the nominee in state, congressional and judicial districts, and in legislative districts composed of more than one (1) county or parts of more than one (1) county, upon complaint filed with the Chairman of the State Executive Committee, by petition, reciting the grounds upon which the election is contested. If necessary and with the advice of four (4) members of said committee, the chairman shall issue his fiat to the chairman of the appropriate county executive committee, and in like manner as in the county office, the county committee shall investigate the complaint and return their findings to the chairman of the state committee. The State Executive Committee by majority vote of members present shall declare the true results of such primary.

1. NO REQUIREMENT TO ISSUE BLANK SUBPOENAS.

Where a contestant alleged irregularities in a primary election, there was no requirement in Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-925 that the political party's executive committee issue him blank subpoenas, and its refusal to do so did not infringe on his right to have witnesses subpoenaed on his behalf to testify before the committee. *Harpole v. § 23-15-927. Filing of protest and petition in circuit court in event of unreasonable delay by committee; requirement of certificate and cost bond; suspension of committee's order.

When and after any contest has been filed with the county executive committee, or complaint with the State Executive Committee, and the executive committee having jurisdiction fails to promptly meet or, having met, fails or unreasonably delays to fully act upon the contest or complaint or fails to give with reasonable promptness the full relief required by the facts and the law, the contestant shall have the right forthwith to file in the circuit court of the county in which the irregularities are charged to have occurred, or, if more than one (1) county is involved, then in one (1) of the counties, a sworn copy of his protest or complaint, together with a sworn petition, setting forth with particularity how the executive committee has wrongfully failed to act or to fully and promptly investigate or has wrongfully denied the relief prayed by the contest, with a prayer for a judicial review thereof. A petition for judicial review must be filed within ten (10) days after any contest or complaint has been filed with an executive committee. The petition for a judicial review shall not be filed unless it bears the certificate of two (2) practicing attorneys stating that they have each fully made an independent investigation into the matters of fact and of law upon which the protest and petition are based, and that after the investigation they believe that the protest and petition should be sustained and that the relief prayed in the protest and petitions should be granted; the two (2) attorneys may not be practicing in the same law firm. The petitioner shall give a cost bond in the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), with two (2) or more sufficient sureties conditioned to pay all costs in case his petition be dismissed, and an additional bond may be required, by the judge, if necessary, at any subsequent stage of the proceedings. The filing of the petition for judicial review in the manner set forth in this section shall automatically supersede and suspend the operation and effect of the order, ruling or judgment of the executive committee appealed from. In no event shall a prayer for relief be filed in any court other than the appropriate circuit court as authorized in this section.

13. - Scope of inquiry.

1. IN GENERAL.

Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927 did not impermissibly violate separation of powers or Miss. Const. art. 6, § 146; rather, the judicial relief sought under the election code was unique unto itself and established by statute, until the process reached the Mississippi Supreme Court, where procedure was controlled by the Mississippi Rules of Appellate Procedure. Jackson v. Bell, 123 So.3d 436 (Miss. 2013).

Appeal from a decision in an election contest concerning a primary mayoral race was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction under Miss. Code Ann. § 9-3-9 because documents required under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927 were not included in the appellate record. Moore v. Parker, - So. 2d - (Miss. Mar. 8, 2007), opinion withdrawn by, substituted opinion at 962 So. 2d 558, 2007 Miss. LEXIS 476 (Miss. Aug. 16, 2007).

In a contest concerning a county election, a special tribunal had subject matter because the losing candidate's petition for judicial review complied with Miss. Code Ann. § 23-1-927; no sworn document was required in front of a county committee, the verification was sufficient, the petition for judicial review did not exceed the scope of the initial complaint, and the cost bond requirement was satisfied. Waters v. Gnemi, 907 So. 2d 307 (Miss. 2005).

The statute does not define any specific irregularities which may be reviewed by a specific county executive committee, but rather provides for the filing of a petition in the circuit court where a county executive committee delays or denies relief to the petitioner. The irregularities which may be reviewed are not limited to such things as discrepancies in vote counting, the number of voters signing the registration book as compared to the number of ballots in the ballot box, illegal votes, and the security of the ballot box. Upton v. McKenzie, 761 So. 2d 167 (Miss. 2000).

Amendment of a petition for judicial review of an election contest is permitted under § 23-15-927 since Rule 15, Miss. R. Civ. P. permits such an amendment and there is nothing in the statutes conflicting with the rules regarding amendments. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

A petition for judicial review of an election contest was filed in the circuit court "forthwith," as required by § 23-15-927, where the petition was filed 9 working days (a total of 13 days including 2 weekends) after the decision of the executive committee was rendered. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

Attorneys who are in fact representing contestant with respect to election contest are disqualified from providing certificate required by statute. McDaniel v. Beane, 515 So. 2d 949 (Miss. 1987).

2. CERTIFICATION OF PETITION.

As indicated numerous times by the Mississippi supreme court, whether each of the two certifying attorneys may perform an "independent" investigation was not determined by the nature of their relationship with each other, but their association with the election contest; attorneys employed by the same firm were not incapable of performing independent investigations. Moore v. Parker, 962 So. 2d 558 (Miss. 2007).

What is required under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927 to be attached to the petition for judicial review is "a sworn copy" of the petition filed with the county executive committee, not a "copy of the sworn petition" filed with the county executive committee. Court expressly overruled Robinson v. Briscoe (1976), and to the extent that Miller v. Oktibbeha County Democratic Executive Committee (1979) can be interpreted to have been decided based on Robinson, the court likewise overrules Miller. Waters v. Gnemi, 907 So. 2d 307 (Miss. 2005).

In a contest of the primary election for the office of county supervisor, an attorney who certified the petition was not disqualified by the fact that he served as attorney for the county board of supervisors at a time that the petitioner was a member of the board of supervisors. Upton v. McKenzie, 761 So. 2d 167 (Miss. 2000).

3. SUFFICIENCY OF PETITION.

Trial court erred in ruling that a contestant's petition for judicial review was fatally defective; the contestant had not been obliged to attach to the petition a copy of his initial letter to the committee requesting a recount. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

4. REQUISITES AND SUFFICIENCY OF PETITION.

Circuit court properly set aside the results of a primary election because the nominee was disqualified where she did not maintain a residence in the ward. Glenn v. Powell, 149 So.3d 480 (Miss. 2014).

Special judge erred by dismissing a candidate's petition for review of a tax commissioner election with prejudice for the nonmerits issue of lack of jurisdiction because she failed to attach two attorney certificates to her petition, as required by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927; dismissal should have been without prejudice. Jackson v. Bell, 123 So.3d 436 (Miss. 2013).

Candidate filed his petition for judicial review of the election 15 days, including 11 working days, after the last committee meeting in which the contest was scheduled to be addressed; filing within 11 working days was not a significant departure from the nine working days the Mississippi supreme court found to be "forthwith" in a prior case, and as such the "forthwith" requirement was satisfied. Moore v. Parker, 962 So. 2d 558 (Miss. 2007).

Primary election candidate's blanket allegation implying that the incumbent sheriff illegally directed his deputies to transport prisoners to the polls never materialized into an actual claim of injustice since he never presented the claim with particularity or supported it with credible evidence. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

4.1. TIME FOR FILING PETITION - IN GENERAL.

Statute contains no language requiring the petitioner to wait until the executive committee has ruled before filing a petition for judicial review; on the contrary, the statute clearly requires the petition to be filed within ten days of the filing of the complaint with the executive committee, without regard for whether the committee has ruled on the complaint, and in the event the committee rules on the election contest, the timely filing of a petition supersedes and suspends that ruling. Chandler v. McKee, 202 So.3d 1269 (Miss. 2016).

4.2. - UNTIMELY.

Circuit court erred in failing to grant a candidate's motion to dismiss a contestant's petition for judicial review because the petition was untimely since the contestant did not comply with the ten-day filing requirement; because the Legislature materially changed the statute by adding a ten-day filing requirement, the circuit court erred in relying on cases that interpreted previous versions of the statute. Chandler v. McKee, 202 So.3d 1269 (Miss. 2016).

5. ILLUSTRATIVE CASES.

Because the election at issue specifically concerned a party primary election, the case was brought squarely within the purview of the more specific Miss. Const. art. 12, § 247, wherein the people directed the Legislature to enact laws to secure fairness in party primary elections; the adoption of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-955 and 23-15-927 is clear support for the distinction. Dillon v. Myers, - So.3d - (Miss. Apr. 6, 2017).

Circuit court erred in allowing election officials to intervene as parties in a candidate's action contesting the results of a primary election when the statute mandated contrary duties because intervention was inconsistent with the election officials' statutory duties during judicial review of an election contest; the circuit clerk is a mandatory participant, as are the election commissioners, who serve as advisors and assistants to the trial judge. Dillon v. Myers, - So.3d - (Miss. Apr. 6, 2017).

Circuit court erred in finding that it lacked subject-matter jurisdiction over a candidate's action contesting the results of the Democratic primary for Mississippi House of Representatives because the primary election determined only the Democratic nominee for the general election; only the subsequent general election could result in one acquiring the right to become a member of the Legislature. Dillon v. Myers, - So.3d - (Miss. Apr. 6, 2017).

Judgment of a special tribunal affirming primary results was affirmed where the election contestant failed to prove that a sufficient number of illegal votes were cast to change the results of the election; although he discovered some questionable ballots during trial, it was too late to raise those issues. Boyd v. Tishomingo County Democratic Exec. Comm. & Members, 912 So. 2d 124 (Miss. 2005).

Candidate's challenge to a primary election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927 failed, as the disqualification of the absentee votes (seven percent of the total votes) was not substantial enough to cause the will of the voters to be impossible to discern and to warrant a special election, and there were not enough illegal votes cast for the incumbent to change the outcome. Harpole v. Kemper County Democratic Exec. Comm., 908 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 2005).

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-3-45, GENERALLY.

The chancellor appointed to determine an election contest did not err in failing to order a new election, where the illegal votes cast were only 1.9 percent or at most 3.9 percent of the total votes cast, and where the results were not changed nor was any doubt or uncertainty cast on the result being in conformity with the will of a majority of the voters. Furthermore, the chancellor did not err in allowing petitioner's opponent to amend his crosspetition by deleting certain allegations of irregularities in certain voting precincts, since pursuant to § 23-3-49 [Repealed.], he had all the power of a chancellor in term time and since the usual rules of procedure prevailed. Pyron v. Joiner, 381 So. 2d 627 (Miss. 1980).

In a proceeding to protest an election pursuant to this section, the concurrence of the three commissioners who participated in the decision-making process fulfilled the requirements of § 23-3-51 [Repealed.], and the findings of fact by the presiding judge were not subject to review. The finding of the special tribunal convened pursuant to § 23-3-47 [Repealed.], that there was no evidence of fraud, casting of illegal votes, or that confusion caused by redistricting had any effect on the election, was supported by the evidence before the tribunal. Berryhill v. Smith, 380 So. 2d 1278 (Miss. 1980).

Where the special tribunal held that votes of more than one-third of the voters in primary election for office of supervisor, were held void for failure to comply with mandatory provisions of the statute, it was impossible for one to reasonably say that result arrived at by the special tribunal represented the will of the voters. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

Where there is a total departure from the mandatory provisions of the statute and it is not possible to ascertain the will of the electors because a substantial portion of the votes were void, a new election should be ordered for the purpose of ascertaining a voter's choice. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951).

In a proceeding to review a primary election contest, where the court decided that each of the candidates received an equal number of votes there was a tie and neither candidate is the nominee. Hopkins v. Wilson, 212 Miss. 404, 54 So. 2d 661 (1951), suggestion of error overruled, opinion modified, 212 Miss. 404, 54 So. 2d 924 (1951).

The statute is not solely for the benefit of contestants before the executive committee, but a contestee may appear before the committee and there present in writing by answer or by answers and cross complaint all of the facts which support his side of the case, and if the action of the committee is adverse to him he may appeal to the special judicial tribunal for a review. Darnell v. Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

As in the case of a contestant, when the contestee would complain to the special judicial tribunal, he must show by exhibit with his complaint what he had placed before the executive committee, either by specific denial or by specific cross complaint, and wherein the executive committee had wrongfully acted or failed to act on what he had thus placed before the committee for its determination and action. Darnell v. Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

The purpose of the act is that the proceedings preliminary to and during the course of a judicial review of a primary election contest shall be conducted with such diligence, expedition, and dispatch as will enable the trial court to have a full and orderly hearing and to conclude it in such time that, if practically possible, a new primary, if ordered, may be held before the day of the general election in November of the same year. Turner v. Henry, 187 Miss. 689, 193 So. 631 (1940).

7. - TIME FOR FILING PETITION.

Where the losing candidate in a municipal primary runoff election filed his original petition for judicial review 4 days after the decision of the political party's executive committee, and 15 days after that petition was dismissed by the special tribunal without prejudice he refiled for judicial review, his petition for review was filed "forthwith" within the meaning of that term as appearing in § 23-3-45 [Repealed.]. Shannon v. Henson, 499 So. 2d 758 (Miss. 1986).

Dismissal of a petition for judicial review of a primary election on a procedural point did not justify delay in filing a new and correct petition until after propriety of the dismissal had been determined by the Supreme Court. Darnell v. Myres, 203 Miss. 276, 34 So. 2d 675 (1948).

The word "forthwith" in this section [Code 1942, § 3182] is not susceptible of a fixed time definition, but depends upon consideration of the surrounding facts and circumstances, and varies with every particular case. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

Where primary was held on August 24th, the first meeting of the county executive committee on August 25th, application to examine the ballot boxes before the committee was made on August 30, which was denied by the committee, notice by the contestant of the time for hearing was September 3, petition for mandamus to compel committee to permit examination of ballot boxes was filed September 4th; the petition for a judicial review before the special tribunal was presented on October 14th; the hearing by that tribunal was on October 21st, and judgment was rendered on October 22nd, 11 days before the general election, petition to special tribunal was filed "forthwith" in compliance with this section. [Code 1942, § 3182]. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

Where the executive committee took action on October 4, the petition for review was filed on November 1st, and the special tribunal for the trial of the contest rendered judgment on November 13, after the general election, the filing of the petition for review was not "forthwith" within the purview of the statute, 26 days' delay being too long, under the circumstances. Turner v. Henry, 187 Miss. 689, 193 So. 631 (1940).

A delay of 26 days in filing a petition for review, brought within the "forthwith" requirement of this section [Code 1942, § 3182] was not excused by a misconception of the petitioner as to the proper procedure. Turner v. Henry, 187 Miss. 689, 193 So. 631 (1940).

The term "forthwith" in this section [Code 1942, § 3182] is a relative one and means within such time as to permit that which is to be done lawfully and orderly and effectually according to the practical and ordinary force of the thing or things to be performed or accomplished; and it is, therefore, not to be used by way of a penalty when accidental interventions or difficulties of which the party is not to be charged with foresight, have upset what otherwise would have been reasonable calculations as to the available time. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

Having regard to the fact that the Act fixes a specific time within which most of the steps mentioned therein are required to be taken, without specifying any time with respect to the filing of a petition for judicial review "forthwith," the Act recognizes that in this particular the fixing of a precise time limitation would be unwise and that the circumstances of each particular case should govern. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The filing of a petition for a judicial review of a primary election of October 25 after a primary on August 29, having regard to the particular circumstances involved, satisfied the statutory requirement of a filing "forthwith." Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

8. - REQUISITES AND SUFFICIENCY OF PETITION.

Losing candidate's petition for judicial review of a primary judicial election was dismissed for failure to state a cause of action because the losing candidate failed to request and view the ballots within the 12-day time frame mandated by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911; additionally, his petition before the county political party's executive committee and the petition for judicial review did not demonstrate any substantially different basis for the petition or new investigation. Cook v. Brown, 909 So. 2d 1075 (Miss. 2005).

Losing candidate's petition for judicial review of a primary judicial election was dismissed for failure to state a cause of action because the losing candidate failed to request and view the ballots within the 12-day time frame mandated by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-911; additionally, his petition before the county political party's executive committee and the petition for judicial review did not demonstrate any substantially different basis for the petition or new investigation. Cook v. Brown, 909 So. 2d 1075 (Miss. 2005).

Failure of a candidate to comply with the requirement of § 23-3-45 [Repealed.] by pledging the independence of the investigation conducted into facts underlying his petition and protest regarding the results of a primary election did not require dismissal of his petition, since no allegations of bias or prejudice were made, and the challenge, which went to the fullness of the investigation that had been conducted, was the sort of inquiry proscribed by decisional law. Noxubee County Democratic Executive Comm. v. Russell, 443 So. 2d 1191 (Miss. 1983).

A special tribunal, designated to hear petitions to contest an election, properly dismissed petitioner's letter contesting election results for a supervisorial post where it was not sworn as originally filed with the Executive Committee. Miller v. Oktibbeha County Democratic Executive Comm., 377 So. 2d 917 (Miss. 1979).

The validity of a petition on appeal in a primary election contest, made merely on information and belief, is not to be measured by Code 1942, § 1294, modifying the rule requiring two witnesses or one witness and corroborating circumstances to overthrow and answer under oath, since the statute in question is after all but a rule of evidence. Fillingane v. Breland, 212 Miss. 423, 54 So. 2d 747 (1951).

Since the Corrupt Practices Act does not provide a form for verification of the petition on appeal, a petition made merely on information and belief is proper where the affiant states that the allegations thereof are true and correct. Fillingane v. Breland, 212 Miss. 423, 54 So. 2d 747 (1951).

The validity of a petition on appeal in a primary election contest, made merely on information and belief, is not to be tested by the fact that it would not support a decree if there were no answer. Fillingane v. Breland, 212 Miss. 423, 54 So. 2d 747 (1951).

No cause of action for judicial review of a primary election contest exists unless a sworn copy of the contestant's protest or contest before the executive committee is made a part of his petition. Darnell v. Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

Allegations and proof by a contestant or a petition for judicial review of a primary election that a number of illegal votes were cast and counted to change the result of the election was sufficient, and he was not required to prove that enough of the illegal votes were actually cast for the contestee to give him the apparent, although not real, majority. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

In order for it to appear that the executive committee has wrongfully denied the relief sought, it must appear either from the petition or exhibits thereto that if the matters complained of should be decided in the complainant's favor, the result would be that he and not the contestee would be the nominee for the office in question; without an allegation to that effect, the petition presents no cause of action. Hickman v. Switzer, 186 Miss. 720, 191 So. 486 (1939).

A petition for judicial review complaining of the dismissal by the executive committee of the petitioner's protest, a copy of which showed that it merely challenged the vote of one voting precinct without setting forth what the effect of sustaining the challenge and discarding the vote of the precinct would be as to whether it would change the result arrived at by the executive committee, was insufficient to constitute a cause of action under this section. Hickman v. Switzer, 186 Miss. 720, 191 So. 486 (1939).

It is contemplated by this section [Code 1942, § 3182] that, when a person desires to contest the nomination of another person and has the purpose to follow up his contest by a petition for a judicial review, his contest or petition or complaint before the executive committee shall be reasonably specific in his charges and not in mere general language. Shaw v. Burnham, 186 Miss. 647, 191 So. 484 (1939).

9. - CROSS-PETITION.

The petition of a contestee for judicial review must be accompanied by a sworn exhibit of what issues he placed before the executive committee; this requirement cannot be met after the petition has been filed by annexing by way of amendment a sworn copy of the contestee's answer. Darnell v. Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

When a contestant has made charges of wrong or illegality before the executive committee, the contestee, as a matter of right, may file a cross complaint with the committee, the cross complaint to be in reasonably specific and particular terms and not in assertions of mere generalities. Shaw v. Burnham, 186 Miss. 647, 191 So. 484 (1939).

10. - CERTIFICATE OF PRACTICING ATTORNEYS.

An attorney who is "of counsel" to the firm in which the petitioner's attorney is a partner is not eligible to make the certification of a practicing attorney that an independent assessment of the claim has been made. Esco v. Scott, 735 So. 2d 1002 (Miss. 1999).

The evident and material purpose of the requirement of the certificate of two independent practicing attorneys was to prevent, or at least to minimize, the bringing before the courts of captious or unsubstantial political contests of primary elections-that such a certificate would independently show that there was real merit from a substantial legal standpoint in the proposed contents, and would tend to forestall, in a large measure, spiteful partisan litigation which would needlessly cast doubt upon the future title of the successful candidates in the nomination for the public office involved. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The only facts which will disqualify a certifying attorney are: Employment of the attorney, past, present, contingent or prospective, by or for the contestant as his attorney in respect to the manner involved in the contest, or such facts as will disqualify a judge under § 165, Constitution 1890. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The investigation of a certifying attorney, as a quasi judicial officer, is not subject to a collateral inquiry as to how he made his investigation or how fully he made it. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The fact that a certifying attorney had an office on the same floor with one of the attorneys for the petitioner, and that he and petitioner's attorney were intimate friends and often associated together in cases, did not disqualify him under this section. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The certificate of two disinterested attorneys, required by this section [Code 1942, § 3182] to accompany a petition for judicial review, is just as important as the petition itself, and is jurisdictional. Pearson v. Jordan, 186 Miss. 789, 192 So. 39 (1939).

Where one of the two attorneys signing the certificate required by this section [Code 1942, § 3182] was an attorney in the case throughout the proceedings and was of counsel in the appeal, such certificate was equivalent to no certificate at all, so that the special tribunal was without jurisdiction to hear and determine the cause. Pearson v. Jordan, 186 Miss. 789, 192 So. 39 (1939).

The certificate required to accompany the petition for judicial review signed by attorneys who represent a contestant at the time their investigation of the matter is made, or at the time his petition for a judicial review is filed, is not a compliance with this section. Pittman v. Forbes, 186 Miss. 783, 191 So. 490 (1939).

The purpose of the provision of this section [Code 1942, § 3182] requiring a petition for a judicial review to be accompanied by a certificate of two practicing attorneys is to prevent persons declared party nominees from being harassed with trivial applications for a judicial review thereof, and contemplate, as the word "independent" connotes, a certificate by lawyers who are without bias or prejudice. Pittman v. Forbes, 186 Miss. 783, 191 So. 490 (1939).

11. - PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE.

Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927 is silent regarding the amendment of pleadings. Therefore, Miss. R. Civ. P. 15(a) controls and amendments are allowed at any time before a responsive pleading is served; in the case at bar, no responsive pleading from the County Democratic Executive Committee was on record, and even if there was a response by the Committee served upon the candidate (who opposed the holding of a new primary election), in the record, Miss. R. Civ. P. 15(a) allowed the amendment of pleadings after a responsive pleading was served "by leave of the court." Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

Where the original protest charged that only one ballot was illegally marked in ordinary pencil, the finding of the tribunal on appeal must be restricted to such allegation notwithstanding that an examination of the ballots showed that there were three such ballots cast for the contestee, since the petition on appeal may not overrun the allegations of the original protest. Fillingane v. Breland, 212 Miss. 423, 54 So. 2d 747 (1951).

In matters of practice and procedure under this act, in respect to which the act itself is silent, there will be applied the usual rules of procedure which prevail as regards other cases, and, therefore, §§ 594 and 595, Code of 1930 [Code 1942, §§ 1538, 1539], and the established practice thereunder, will apply to a petition for judicial review, as well as to any other action in a court, in the manner of voluntary dismissal without prejudice. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

When a contestant has complied with the requirement of first filing his contest with and before the county executive committee, and although his petition for a judicial review must not assign any new or additional cause of action, it may be both amendatory of the causes of action or grounds for relief, as preferred before the executive committee, and supplementary as to all those material facts which happen during and since the hearing before the executive committee. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

With respect to a mayoral candidate who, in filing a petition for judicial review of an election contest, provided a cost bond of $300 cash without naming sureties, a circuit court erred in dismissing the petition for lack of jurisdiction because the payment itself satisfied the cost-bond requirement in its entirety. Sumner v. City of Como Democratic Exec. Comm., 972 So. 2d 616 (Miss. 2008).

Candidate who challenged the decision of the County Democratic Executive Committee, which decided to hold a new primary election based on alleged improperly executed absentee ballots, correctly asserted in his petition, contrary to the allegations of the Committee, that the circuit court had jurisdiction pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927. The circuit court properly allowed the amendment of the candidate's unsworn petition by sworn testimony as to its content at the hearing, pursuant to Miss. R. Civ. P. 15(a), which controlled. Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

In a state party primary election, protesting candidate filed a contest with the state party's executive committee alleging that errors in some precincts prevented citizens of a certain district from voting in the election; the officials of the state party's executive committee were concerned that they would not have time before the general election to decide the issue; therefore, pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-927, the protesting candidate seized the reins of his complaint and steered it directly to trial court, which was a completely permissible procedure and, thus, the trial court had jurisdiction to hear the election contest. Barbour v. Gunn, 890 So. 2d 843 (Miss. 2004).

There is no jurisdiction to review the action of the executive committee if the contestants made no protest or contest in writing before that committee. Darnell v. Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

Where one of the two attorneys signing the certificate required by this section was an attorney in the case throughout the proceedings and was of counsel in the appeal, such certificate was equivalent to no certificate at all, so that the special tribunal was without jurisdiction to hear and determine the cause. Pearson v. Jordan, 186 Miss. 789, 192 So. 39 (1939).

13. - SCOPE OF INQUIRY.

In a proceeding for judicial review of executive committee's order rescinding its order declaring the petitioner a nominee, the special tribunal did not have authority to determine that respondent, because of alleged violations of Corrupt Practices Act, was disqualified from holding the office of supervisor and for that reason could not run for the Democratic Primary and perhaps become a nominee for that office. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226 Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

Only matters presented by the original contest or protest before the executive committee can be reviewed or examined by the special judicial tribunal, except as to germane matters which happened during or since the executive committee hearing and matters which are merely explanatory or incidental. Darnell v. Myres, 202 Miss. 767, 32 So. 2d 684 (1947).

Whether the particular issues are presented by the contestant or by the contestee, it is the duty of the executive committee to act upon them, and its action, or refusal to act then comes within the scope of the inquiry which either the contestant or the contestee may present by proper petition and answer thereto before the special judicial tribunal called out the act. Shaw v. Burnham, 186 Miss. 647, 191 So. 484 (1939).

Upon the filing of the petition and bond as provided for in Section 23-15-927, the circuit clerk shall immediately, by registered letter or by telegraph or telephone, or personally, notify the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, or, in his absence, or disability, some other judge of the Supreme Court, who shall forthwith designate and notify a circuit judge or a retired judge on senior status of a district other than that which embraces the county or any of the counties, involved in the contest or complaint, to proceed to the county in which the contest or complaint has been filed to hear and determine the contest or complaint, and it shall be the official duty of the trial judge to proceed to the discharge of the designated duty at the earliest possible date to be fixed by the judge and of which the contestant and contestee shall have reasonable notice, to be served in such reasonable manner as the judge may direct, in response to which notice the contestee shall promptly file his answer, and also his cross-complaint if he has one to prefer.

Amendments- The 2012 amendment substituted "petition and bond" for "petition certified as aforesaid, and bond," "circuit judge or retired judge on senior status" for "circuit judge or chancellor," "trial judge" for "said circuit judge or chancellor" and "if he has one" for "if any he have"; twice deleted "or chancellor" following "judge"; and made minor stylistic changes.

1. IN GENERAL.

Trial court was correct in overruling the decision of the Jefferson Davis County Democratic Executive Committee, to conduct a new election for the Democratic nominee for Jefferson Davis County Chancery Clerk. The requirements to hold a new election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 were not met, as § 23-15-593 authorized new elections for individual precincts if the requirements were met, not a new election county or district wide. To have held a new election county wide, the Committee would had to have determined that all precincts failed in material particulars to comply with the requirements of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 to such an extent that it was impossible to arrive at the will of the voters; there was no evidence that there were violations of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-591 and 23-15-895 and the committee exceeded its authority under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-593 in ordering a new election. Jefferson Davis County v. Davies, 912 So. 2d 837 (Miss. 2005).

Although § 23-15-935 grants the special judge the power to compel the attendance of the election commissioners, this statute contemplates a situation where the special judge, in the interest of time and judicial efficiency, can proceed to hear the election contest without any one of the commissioners or all of them; the statutory framework relating to election contests requires that they be completed as quickly as possible in order that the scheduled primary elections can proceed as planned, as indicated by § 23-15-929 which directs the special judge to determine the election contest "at the earliest possible date." Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

Section 23-15-929, which directs that the judge appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court hear the election contest at the earliest possible date, should not be used as a penalty when accidental interventions or difficulties have upset what otherwise would have been reasonable calculations as to the available time. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

Among the members of a special tribunal formed to hear election contests, the special judge is the "controlling judge" of both the facts and the law, though the election commissioners sit as advisors in the determination of facts. Rizzo v. Bizzell, 530 So. 2d 121 (Miss. 1988).

2.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-3-47.

Since the proceedings in a judicial review of a municipal primary election contest are in the nature of an appeal, no matter may be presented to the special tribunal which has not been previously heard and decided by the executive committee of the party. Shannon v. Henson, 499 So. 2d 758 (Miss. 1986).

In a proceeding to protest an election pursuant to § 23-3-45 [Repealed.], the concurrence of the three commissioners who participated in the decision-making process fulfilled the requirements of § 23-3-51 [Repealed.], and the findings of fact by the presiding judge were not subject to review. The finding of the special tribunal convened pursuant to this section, that there was no evidence of fraud, casting of illegal votes, or that confusion caused by redistricting had any effect on the election, was supported by the evidence before the tribunal. Berryhill v. Smith, 380 So. 2d 1278 (Miss. 1980).

Where a petition for judicial review has been filed, and the petitioner takes a voluntary nonsuit, the chief justice is not without power to make a second designation of a judge to hear the same matter upon the filing of a second petition. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

Upon the overruling of a demurrer to a petition for judicial review of a primary election and the contestee's declination to plead further, all the averments of the petition properly pleaded are to be taken as true in view of the concluding lines of this section. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

§ 23-15-931. Issuance of subpoenas and summonses by circuit clerk prior to hearing; assistance by, and findings of, election commissioners; entry of judgment by trial judge.

When the day for the hearing has been set, the circuit clerk shall issue subpoenas for witnesses as in other litigated cases, and he shall also issue a summons to each of the five (5) election commissioners of the county, unless they waive summons, requiring them to attend the hearing, throughout which the commissioners shall sit with the judge as advisors or assistants in the trial and determination of the facts, and as assistants in counts, calculations and inspections, and in seeing to it that ballots, papers, documents, books and the like are diligently secured against misplacement, alteration, concealment or loss both in the sessions and during recesses or adjournments. The judge is, however, the controlling judge both of the facts and the law, and has all the power in every respect of a circuit judge in termtime. The tribunal shall be attended by the sheriff, and clerk, each with sufficient deputies, and by a court reporter. The special tribunal so constituted shall fully hear the contest or complaint de novo, and the original contestant before the party executive committee shall have the burden of proof and the burden of going forward with the evidence in the hearing before the special tribunal. The special tribunal, after the contest or complaint has been fully heard anew, shall make a finding dictated to the reporter covering all controverted material issues of fact, together with any dissents of any commissioner, and thereupon, the trial judge shall enter the judgment which the county executive committee should have entered, of which the election commissioners shall take judicial notice, or if the matter be one within the jurisdiction of the State Executive Committee, the judgment shall be certified and promptly forwarded to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee, and, in the absence of an appeal, it shall be the duty of the State Executive Committee forthwith to reassemble and revise any decision theretofore made by it so as to conform to the judicial judgment; that when the contest is upon a complaint filed with the State Executive Committee and the petition to the court avers that the wrong or irregularity is one which occurred wholly within the proceedings of the state committee, the petition to the court shall be filed in the Circuit Court of Hinds County and, after notice served, shall be promptly heard by the circuit judge of that county, without the attendance of commissioners.

Analysis

1. In general.
- 2.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-3-49.

1. IN GENERAL.

Circuit court erred in allowing election officials to intervene as parties in a candidate's action contesting the results of a primary election when the statute mandated contrary duties because intervention was inconsistent with the election officials' statutory duties during judicial review of an election contest; the circuit clerk is a mandatory participant, as are the election commissioners, who serve as advisors and assistants to the trial judge. Dillon v. Myers, - So.3d - (Miss. Apr. 6, 2017).

By virtue of § 23-15-931, the special judge is the "controlling judge" of both the facts and the law in an election contest hearing, though the election commissioners sit as advisors to the determination of the facts; the statute strongly suggests that the special judge is the "true trier of facts." Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

The trial court in a judicial review of a primary election contest had the authority to require the withdrawal of both parties' attorneys where the judge was told that both attorneys were to be witnesses on the contested issues of the election. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

Administrative law and procedures apply to a trial de novo of an election committee. It is a trial de novo when new and additional evidence is received by the Special Tribunal in addition to the proceedings below and when the executive committee's findings are not considered as conclusive. Pearson v. Parsons, 541 So. 2d 447 (Miss. 1989).

2.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-3-49.

State judicial elections come within coverage of "results test" provisions of § 2 of Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USCS § 1973), as amended in 1982; if term "representatives" limited coverage with respect to judicial elections, limitation would exclude all claims involving judicial elections; better reading of term describes winners of representative, popular elections. Chisom v. Roemer, 501 U.S. 380, 111 S. Ct. 2354, 115 L. Ed. 2d 348 (1991).

The chancellor appointed to determine an election contest did not err in failing to order a new election, where the illegal votes cast were only 1.9 percent or at most 3.9 percent of the total votes cast, and where the results were not changed nor was any doubt or uncertainty cast on the result being in conformity with the will of a majority of the voters. Furthermore, the chancellor did not err in allowing the petitioner's opponent to amend his cross-petition by deleting certain allegations of irregularities in certain voting precincts, since pursuant to this section he had all the power of a chancellor in term time and since the usual rules of procedure prevailed. Pyron v. Joiner, 381 So. 2d 627 (Miss. 1980).

A petition for judicial review of a primary election contest 22 days thereafter satisfies the requirement that such a petition be filed "forthwith," where filed immediately upon the dismissal, for failure to meet statutory requirements, of a petition filed six days thereafter. Wallace v. Leggett, 248 Miss. 121, 158 So. 2d 746 (1963).

In a proceeding for judicial review for executive committee's order rescinding its order declaring the petitioner a nominee, the special tribunal did not have authority to determine that respondent, because of alleged violations of Corrupt Practices Act, was disqualified from holding an office of supervisor and for that reason could not run for the Democratic Primary and perhaps become a nominee for that office. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226 Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

Evidence that after counting of ballots and before recount thereof circuit clerk failed to seal the ballot boxes in question and to keep a record of the seals as required by statute, and that such boxes and their contents were tampered with, warranted affirmance of order of special tribunal adjudging validity of election ballots as against contestant who received a majority on account. Allen v. Funchess, 195 Miss. 486, 15 So. 2d 343 (1943).

Where special tribunal's findings of fact were unanimously concurred in, the only recourse of contestant on appeal was to show either that there was no evidence whatever to sustain the findings, or that there was no substantial evidence in support of the finding. Allen v. Funchess, 195 Miss. 486, 15 So. 2d 343 (1943).

Since the clerk of the circuit court is the clerk of the special tribunal, filing of bill of exceptions and cost bond by contestant, within time allotted for appeal by special tribunal, in the office of the circuit clerk and such clerk's approval of bonds, were sufficient to place appeal in supreme court. Evans v. Hood, 195 Miss. 743, 15 So. 2d 37 (1943).

Where a contestant proved that sufficient illegal votes were cast at the primary election to change the result thereof, the lower court properly ordered another primary election. Harris v. Stewart, 187 Miss. 489, 193 So. 339 (1940).

The special tribunal set up by the corrupt practices act has no authority to go beyond ascertaining the will of the qualified electors participating in the party primary, and in this regard, it has authority and duty to determine whether those voting or offering to vote are qualified electors and entitled to vote, and whether in all substantial respects the election was fairly and honestly held in compliance with the various provisions of the law. McKenzie v. Thompson, 186 Miss. 524, 191 So. 487 (1939).

The special tribunal, under this section, is limited in its jurisdiction to determining the fairness of the primary election and the correctness of the result and has no jurisdiction to pass upon the qualifications of the successful candidate and determine his right to hold the office, if elected, since the latter raises a public and not a private question, the only remedy being in the nature of a quo warranto as to the general election under Section 3053, Code 1930 [Code 1942, § 1120]. McKenzie v. Thompson, 186 Miss. 524, 191 So. 487 (1939).

The contestant or contestee, or both, may file an appeal in the Supreme Court within the time and under such conditions and procedures as are established by the Supreme Court for other appeals. If the findings of fact have been concurred in by all the commissioners in attendance, provided as many as three (3) commissioners are and have been in attendance, the facts shall not be subject to appellate review. But if not so many as three (3) of the commissioners are or have been in attendance, or if one or more commissioners dissent, upon review, the Supreme Court may make such findings as the evidence requires.

1. IN GENERAL.

While Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-933 deems final the tribunal's findings of fact, its legal conclusions are reviewable by the Mississippi supreme court on appeal, and the statute presents no bar to any issues in the case since all issues presented were questions of law; moreover, the issues raised for the supreme court's consideration did not require review of the findings of fact the tribunal made with regard to the nine fraudulently voted ballots. Moore v. Parker, 962 So. 2d 558 (Miss. 2007).

Where only two of the three commissioners who participated in the result concurred fully in the judge's findings, the third commissioner dissented in part, and the part to which that commissioner dissented was not in the record, the court was free to make such findings as the evidence required. Campbell v. Whittington, 733 So. 2d 820 (Miss. 1999).

Determination of intent of voters of certain contested ballots is by its very nature fact inquiry to be made by Special Tribunal and Supreme Court's duty is to respect Special Tribunal's findings where it was not manifestly wrong. Wade v. Williams, 517 So. 2d 573 (Miss. 1987).

2.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-3-51, GENERALLY.

In a proceeding to protest an election pursuant to § 23-3-45 [Repealed.], the concurrence of the three commissioners who participated in the decision-making process fulfilled the requirements of this section, and the findings of fact by the presiding judge were not subject to review. The finding of the special tribunal convened pursuant to § 23-3-47 [Repealed.], that there was no evidence of fraud, casting of illegal votes, or that confusion caused by redistricting had any effect on the election, was supported by the evidence before the tribunal. Berryhill v. Smith, 380 So. 2d 1278 (Miss. 1980).

By this section [Code 1942, § 3185] the Legislature intended to facilitate speedy appeals in primary election contests. Anders v. Longmire, 226 Miss. 215, 83 So. 2d 828 (1955).

Where special tribunal's findings of fact were unanimously concurred in, the only recourse of contestant on appeal was to show either that there was no evidence whatever to sustain the findings, or that there was no substantial evidence in support of the finding. Allen v. Funchess, 195 Miss. 486, 15 So. 2d 343 (1943).

Evidence that after counting of ballots and before recount thereof circuit clerk failed to seal the ballot boxes in question and to keep a record of the seals as required by statute, and that such boxes and their contents were tampered with, warranted affirmance of order of special tribunal adjudging election ballots as against contestant who received a majority on recount. Allen v. Funchess, 195 Miss. 486, 15 So. 2d 343 (1943).

The special tribunal provided for hereunder is a proper inferior court from which an appeal might be taken direct to the Supreme Court. Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

A special tribunal, consisting of a circuit judge and the municipal election commissioners, was such an inferior court as might be established under § 172, Const of 1890. Hayes v. Abney, 186 Miss. 208, 188 So. 533 (1939).

Requirement of statute that appeals from decisions in election contests to Supreme Court shall be "referred to the court in banc" held not binding on Supreme Court, since constitutional amendment providing for separation of court into two divisions delegates to court itself and not to legislature duty of determining which cases shall be heard by division and which by court sitting in banc. Tillman v. Massa, 177 Miss. 170, 170 So. 641 (1936).

7. - CONTENTS OF BILL OF EXCEPTIONS.

In a primary election contest where the appointed judge and the election commissioners unanimously found as to number of ballots cast, the attaching of transcripts of testimony before special tribunal to the appellant's bill of exceptions to the Supreme Court was in the face of the express prohibition of this section. [Code 1942, § 3185]. Anders v. Longmire, 226 Miss. 215, 83 So. 2d 828 (1955).

Purported bill of exceptions on appeal from decision of judge and election commissioners in election contest setting up some of contentions but failing to set up points of law with rulings thereon with synopsis of pertinent evidence and rulings sought to be reversed, nor containing statement signed by trial judge that bill was a correct statement of proceedings, but stating that bill did not set up facts established by cross-examination of witnesses by contestees or examination by trial judge, and was never presented to and signed by two attorneys as provided by statute on failure or refusal of trial judge to sign, held insufficient to confer jurisdiction on Supreme Court. McDonald v. Spence, 179 Miss. 342, 174 So. 54 (1937).

Contents of bill of exceptions contemplated by Corrupt Practices Act on appeal in election contest must include petition, answers, and exhibits thereto, points raised before special tribunal, setting forth rulings thereon, and pertinent facts necessary to an understanding thereof, in absence of which jurisdiction is not conferred on Supreme Court, and does not authorize sending up of stenographer's notes except in case of disagreement as to facts between judge and one or more of election commissioners. McDonald v. Spence, 179 Miss. 342, 174 So. 54 (1937).

8. - APPEAL BONDS.

The filing of an appeal bond with the clerk of supreme court within the time allowed by this section [Code 1942, § 3185] constitutes a sufficient filing of the bond. May v. Layton, 213 Miss. 129, 55 So. 2d 460 (1951); Evans v. Hood, 195 Miss. 743, 15 So. 2d 37 (1943).

In view of the fact that statute governing appeal from judgment of special tribunal in election contests is silent as to where required bond shall be filed or who shall approve it, and the fact that the clerk of the circuit court is by the statute the clerk of the special tribunal, a circuit clerk, under the usual rules of procedure, is the person with whom the appeal bond is to be filed and by whom it is to be approved, in order to place appeal in supreme court. Evans v. Hood, 195 Miss. 743, 15 So. 2d 37 (1943).

§ 23-15-937. Transfer of hearing; requirement of prompt adjudication; circumstances requiring special election.

If more than one (1) county is involved in a contest or complaint, the judge shall have the authority to transfer the hearing to a more convenient county within the district, if the contest or complaint involves a district office, or within the state if the contest or complaint involves a state office; or the judge may proceed to any county or counties in which the facts complained of are charged to have transpired, and there hear the evidence and make a finding of facts relating to that county and any convenient neighboring county or counties, but, in any event, if possible with due diligence to do so, the hearing must be completed and final judgment rendered in time to permit the printing and distribution of the official ballots at the election for which the contested nomination is made. When any judge lawfully designated to hear a contest or complaint shall not promptly and diligently proceed with the hearing and final determination of the contest or complaint, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor in office unless excused by actual illness, or by an equivalent excuse. When no final decision has been made by the time the official ballots are required to be printed, the name of the nominee declared by the party executive committee shall be printed on the official ballots as the party nominee, but the contest or complaint shall not thereby be dismissed but the cause shall nevertheless proceed to final judgment and if the judgment is in favor of the contestant, the election of the contestee shall thereby be vacated and the Governor, or the Lieutenant Governor, in case the Governor is a party to the contest, shall call a special election for the office or offices involved. If the contestee has already entered upon the term he shall vacate the office upon the qualification of the person elected at the special election, and may be removed by quo warranto if he fail so to do.

Editor's note- By letter dated September 17, 2012, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Chapter 476, Laws of 2012.

Amendments- The 2012 amendment substituted "judge" for "judge or chancellor" throughout; substituted "if the contest or complaint involves a district office, or within the state if the contest or complaint involves a state office" for "if in relation to a district office, or within the state if a state office" in the first sentence; substituted " made by the time the official ballots are required to be printed" for "made in time as hereinabove specified" in the third sentence; and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

Analysis

1. In general.
2. Authority of governor.
- 3.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-3-55.

1. IN GENERAL.

In a case in which there were irregularities in the absentee ballots in the primary election for county sheriff so that neither candidate, which included the incumbent, had a majority, but the incumbent won the general election, the governor's writ of election ordering a special primary runoff election to determine the winner and after the primary was decided a new general election violated Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-937. Under that statute, only one special election was to be held after the general election has already occurred. Thompson v. Jones, 17 So.3d 524 (Miss. 2008).

Special tribunal erred in ordering a special primary run-off election to be held when it was statutorily mandated that the Governor call such election. Moore v. Parker, 962 So. 2d 558 (Miss. 2007).

Where candidate one prevailed in an action contesting the results of a primary election and candidate two, who had run unopposed in the general election, had already taken office, Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-937 required that a special election be conducted; the court had no discretion to hold that a special election was not required. The court overruled the case of Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993), to the limited extent that the court erroneously held there that a special election was not required. Smith v. Hollins, 905 So. 2d 1267 (Miss. 2005).

Special election was required under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-937 where the trial court erred in its calculation of votes for two candidates for supervisor in a State election, and the unofficial winner was to have remained in office until the results of the special election were certified. Smith v. Hollins, - So. 2d - (Miss. Dec. 9, 2004), opinion withdrawn by, substituted opinion at 905 So. 2d 1267, 2005 Miss. LEXIS 388 (Miss. June 23, 2005).

A special election was not warranted after the disqualification of 2 ballots by a special judge in an election contest hearing, even though the disqualification changed the result of the election, the election contest hearing was not held in the county where the dispute originated, the election commissioners were not issued subpoenas, and the originally successful candidate claimed he was not given reasonable notice of the hearing, where the 2 disqualified "affidavit" ballots were not in compliance with § 23-15-573 and were therefore illegal. Hatcher v. Fleeman, 617 So. 2d 634 (Miss. 1993).

2. AUTHORITY OF GOVERNOR.

Trial court erred in ordering a special primary run-off election to be held because the governor was statutorily mandated to call such election. Glenn v. Powell, 149 So.3d 480 (Miss. 2014).

3.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-3-55.

Where a successful challenge to a primary election did not reach the Supreme Court in time to have a primary election to determine the party's nominee prior to the general election, a special election for the office involved must be held. Clark v. Rankin County Democratic Executive Comm., 322 So. 2d 753 (Miss. 1975).

The person dissatisfied with the executive committee's decision as to the result of a primary election and seeking by means of a special tribunal to set aside the committee's findings has the burden of proof. Francis v. Sisk, 205 So. 2d 254 (Miss. 1967).

It cannot be validly asserted, even inferentially, that this section [Code 1942, § 3187], or any other section, contemplates that the original canvass of election results of the executive committee shall be reinstated merely by filing a petition for judicial review. Francis v. Sisk, 205 So. 2d 254 (Miss. 1967).

The decision of a county democratic executive committee rendered as the result of an election contest shall stand as the true results of the primary election unless and until superseded by a special tribunal, and it is to this decision that the presumption of correctness attaches. Francis v. Sisk, 205 So. 2d 254 (Miss. 1967).

The phrase "special election" is clearly intended to mean a special election in the usual sense of that term, and not a party primary. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226 Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

Under this section [Code 1942, § 3187] a party primary after the general election is not contemplated, before the calling of a special election, at least as to state, district and county offices. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226 Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

Where a special court improvidently granted a stay of the special primary election which it had ordered, no party nominee was selected for the office of supervisor and the general election was already held before Supreme Court's decision on appeal from judgments of the special court, a special election must be called and held. Blakeney v. Mayfield, 226 Miss. 53, 83 So. 2d 748 (1955), error overruled 226

Miss. 53, 84 So. 2d 427.

This section [Code 1942, § 3187] is applicable where contestee's nomination at second primary was adjudged invalid so that subsequent election of contestee in November election was void. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

Although the statute provides for expedition in contest proceedings with the view of pleading the contest in time for the general election, if that can be done, this section provides that the contest shall not thereby be dismissed but proceed to final judgment, and if the judgment is in favor of the contestant, the election of the contestee shall thereby be vacated and the governor shall call a special election to the office involved, and if the contestee has already entered upon the term, he shall vacate the office upon the qualification of the person elected at such special election and may be removed by quo warranto if he fails to do so. Smith v. Deere, 195 Miss. 502, 16 So. 2d 33 (1943).

If upon the hearing of a primary election contest or complaint, under Section 23-15-931, it shall distinctly appear to the trial judge that any person, including a candidate or election officer, has willfully and corruptly violated any primary election statute and such violation is by said statute made a criminal offense, whether a misdemeanor or a felony, it shall be the duty of the trial judge to issue immediately his warrant for the arrest of the guilty party, reciting in his order therefor, in brief, the grounds or causes for the arrest. Such warrant and a certified copy of the order shall be forthwith placed in the hands of the sheriff of the county wherein the offense occurred, and the sheriff shall at once, upon receipt of the warrant, arrest the party and commit him to prison, unless and until the party give bond in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) with two (2) or more good and sufficient sureties conditioned for his appearance at the next term of the circuit court and from term to term until discharged by law. When the arrest has been made and the bond, if any, given, the sheriff shall deliver all the papers therein with his return thereon to the circuit clerk who shall file, and thereafter personally deliver, the same to the foreman of the next grand jury.

SUBARTICLE C. CONTESTS OF OTHER ELECTIONS

§ 23-15-951. Filing of petition; designation of judges to hear election contests; trial by, and verdict of, jury; assumption of office.

Except as otherwise provided by Section 23-15-955 or 23-15-961, a person desiring to contest the election of another person returned as elected to any office within any county, may, within twenty (20) days after the election, file a petition in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county, setting forth the grounds upon which the election is contested. When such a petition is filed, the circuit clerk shall immediately notify, by registered letter, telegraph, telephone, or personally the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or in his absence, or disability, some other Justice of the Supreme Court, who shall forthwith designate and notify a circuit judge or chancellor of a district other than that which embraces the district, subdistrict, county or any of the counties, involved in the contest or complaint, to proceed to the county in which the contest or complaint has been filed to hear and determine the contest or complaint. The circuit clerk shall also cause a copy of such petition to be served upon the contestee, which shall serve as notice to such contestee.

The Supreme Court shall compile a list of judges throughout the state to hear such disputes before an election. It shall be the official duty of the designated circuit judge or chancellor to proceed to discharge the duty of hearing the contest at the earliest possible date. The date of the contest shall be fixed by the judge or chancellor, and the judge or chancellor shall provide reasonable notice to the contestant and the contestee of the date and time fixed for the contest. The judge or chancellor shall cause the contestant and contestee to be served in a reasonable manner. When the contestee is served, such contestee shall promptly file his answer, and cross-complaint, if the contestee has a cross-complaint.

The court shall, at the first term, cause an issue to be made up and tried by a jury, and the verdict of the jury shall find the person having the greatest number of legal votes at the election. If the jury shall find against the person returned elected, the clerk shall issue a certificate thereof; and the person in whose favor the jury shall find shall be commissioned by the Governor, and shall qualify and enter upon the duties of his office. Each party shall be allowed ten (10) peremptory challenges, and new trials shall be granted and costs awarded as in other cases. In case the election of district attorney or other state district election be contested, the petition may be filed in any county of the district or in any county of an adjoining district within twenty (20) days after the election, and like proceedings shall be had thereon as in the case of county officers, and the person found to be entitled to the office shall qualify as required by law and enter upon the duties of his office.

A person desiring to contest the election of another person returned as elected to any seat in the Mississippi Legislature shall comply with the provisions of Section 23-15-955. A person desiring to contest the qualifications of a candidate for nomination in a political party primary election shall comply with the provisions of Section 23-15-961.

Editor's note- Laws of 1999, ch. 301, was House Bill 1609, 1998 Regular Session, and originally passed both Houses of the Legislature on April 3, 1998. The Governor vetoed House Bill 1609 on April 17, 1998. The veto was overridden by the State Senate and House of Representatives on January 5, 1999.

On January 15, 1999, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1999, ch. 301, § 13.

On August 7, 2000, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2000, ch. 450.

The effective date of Chapter 432, Laws of 2013, which amended this section, is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bill was approved, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. For that reason, the Mississippi Attorney General's Office submitted Chapter 432, Laws of 2013, to the United States Attorney General, in order to technically meet the requirements of Section 5 and fulfill the condition in the effective date of the bill, which will allow the bill to take effect.

By letter dated October 22, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 432 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 432, so Chapter 432 became effective from and after October 22, 2013, the date of the United States Attorney General's response letter.

Cross references- Judges listed and selected to hear election disputes, as provided in this section, to be available on election day to immediately hear and resolve election day disputes, see § 23-15-913.

Amendments- The 1999 amendment rewrote the section.

The 2000 amendment inserted "23-15-955 or " near the beginning of the first paragraph and added the second paragraph.

The 2013 amendment in the first paragraph deleted "and the clerk shall thereupon issue a summons to the party whose election is contested, returnable to the next term of the court, which summons shall be served as in other cases; and" at the end of the first sentence and added the last two sentences; and added the second paragraph.

Analysis

1. In general.
- 2-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-5-187.

1. IN GENERAL.

Circuit court properly found that mail-in absentee ballots that did not comply with Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-635(1) were illegal since strict compliance was necessary; however, once it found that a losing candidate received the greatest number of legal votes, it was error to order a special election instead of utilizing Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-951. Ruhl v. Walton, 955 So. 2d 279 (Miss. 2007).

Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-951 (2001) was the proper statute for the trial court to apply in an appeal by the losing candidate for county election commissioner, who successfully alleged that the winning candidate was disqualified on the grounds of his residency in the wrong county. McIntosh v. Sanders, 831 So. 2d 1111 (Miss. 2002).

House of Representatives had jurisdiction to conduct proceedings in which it interviewed election commission and heard from candidates in disputed election for House seat; while statute allowed challenger to file petitions in circuit court, statute also gives legislature, or committee appointed to investigate facts concerning election of member, power to compel witness testimony and production of documents relating to investigation. Esco v. Blackmon, 692 So. 2d 74 (Miss. 1997).

While statute permits jury to be empaneled to decide issues in election contest, it does not mandate full trial of all issues before jury. Esco v. Blackmon, 692 So. 2d 74 (Miss. 1997).

A trial court properly ruled as a matter of law on an issue pertaining to the propriety of a town clerk's hand-delivery of 3 absentee ballots to her able-bodied relatives; while § 23-15-951 permits a jury to be impaneled to decide issues in an election contest, it does not mandate a full trial of all issues before a jury. Lewis v. Griffith, 664 So. 2d 177 (Miss. 1995).

Section 23-15-951 is the exclusive remedy for deciding election contest issues, of which the legality of votes cast is one, and, therefore, it would have been inappropriate to decide by declaratory judgment how to legally count affidavit ballots because that issue would not become ripe for judicial resolution until a statutory election contest was commenced following the election commission's certification. The initial determination of whether to accept or reject ballots in an election is statutorily lodged with the election commission; with the exception of remedial writs in aid of future jurisdiction, the judiciary is compelled to stay its hand until an election contest is filed in accordance with the statute. In re Wilbourn, 590 So. 2d 1381 (Miss. 1991).

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-5-187.

Although ballots are controlling as primary evidence where their proponent affirmatively demonstrates that the integrity of the ballot box has been maintained inviolate, where the parties stipulate into evidence what would otherwise be both primary and secondary proof, the presumption of correctness of the results certified by the election commissioners prevails unless the jury finds the presumption overcome by some plausible explanation of the discrepancy. Thus, in a contest challenging the election of one candidate to a county board of education, the trial court properly upheld the election on the basis of tally sheets as enclosed in the ballot box, despite a discrepancy between the sheets and the actual ballot count, where the ballots and tally sheets were introduced into evidence by stipulation of the parties and where no explanation was offered by either of the parties for the discrepancy. Blakeney v. Hawkins, 384 So. 2d 1035 (Miss. 1980).

The only proper defendant in an election contest under this section [Code 1972, § 23-5-187, Repealed.] is the successful party in the election, and election commissioners who were improperly joined as defendants in the election contest had no such beneficial interest in the outcome of the election as would give them a right to appeal from a judgment voiding the election. Fisher v. Crowe, 303 So. 2d 474 (Miss. 1974).

In an action contesting an election, voters legally entitled to vote cannot be required to tell for whom they voted. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

In an action contesting an election, a voter cannot be compelled to disclose how he voted if the legality of the vote is in doubt. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

In an action contesting an election, the presumption of the legality of a vote must be overcome by affirmative proof before the voter can be required to tell for whom he voted. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

One contesting an election has the burden of proof to show that voters were disqualified, and how they voted. Hubbard v. McKey, 193 So. 2d 129 (Miss. 1966), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

The power of the circuit court to issue a writ of mandamus to the circuit clerk to permit inspection of the ballot boxes is necessary, supplemental to and in support of the statutory right of candidate to contest a general or special election. Lopez v. Holleman, 219 Miss. 822, 69 So. 2d 903 (1954), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

Section which gives any candidate in a primary election contest a right to have full examination of ballot boxes at any time within twelve days after the canvass by the executive committee is in pari materia with this section [Code 1942, § 3287], in that it is indicative of a general policy of the state on a cognate subject matter to allow contesting candidates the right to obtain the facts concerning an election precedent to filing a contest. Lopez v. Holleman, 219 Miss. 822, 69 So. 2d 903 (1954), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

This section [Code 1942, § 3287] provides an exclusive remedy for one who contests the manner or results of an election. State ex rel. Livingston v. Bounds, 212 Miss. 184, 54 So. 2d 276 (1951).

When an election contestee pleads an affirmative defense he must set forth the grounds upon which his defense rests. Simmons v. Crisler, 197 Miss. 547, 20 So. 2d 85 (1944).

Election contestee's plea that votes of named individuals were invalid because they had not paid their poll taxes as required by § 241 of the Constitution was insufficient, even assuming that failure to have paid their poll taxes disqualified such voters, where the plea failed to set forth for whom alleged illegal votes were cast, so that trial court committed no error in striking therefrom all allegations relative thereto, and contestee would not be permitted to amend his plea where he stated therein that he did not know and could not ascertain for whom alleged illegal votes were cast until proof thereof was made at the trial. Simmons v. Crisler, 197 Miss. 547, 20 So. 2d 85 (1944).

This section [Code 1942, § 3287] limits the right to contest in the person or persons who were candidates in the election, and does not give a taxpayer or qualified elector the right to contest the election of a county officer. Jones v. Election Comm'rs, 187 Miss. 636, 193 So. 3 (1940).

This section [Code 1942, § 3287] does not authorize a taxpayer or qualified elector to contest an election abolishing the office of county attorney. Jones v. Election Comm'rs, 187 Miss. 636, 193 So. 3 (1940).

One who contested the election of another to a municipal office because of his illegal nomination in the primary, who made no claim to have been elected himself, was not entitled to contest the election, the proper remedy in such case being quo warranto, since the question is a public and not a private one. Omar v. West, 186 Miss. 136, 188 So. 917 (1939).

That contestee was disqualified from holding office did not affect legality of votes cast for him. May v. Young, 164 Miss. 35, 143 So. 703 (1932), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1977).

As respects remedy by quo warranto, declaration of election commissioners that certain person received majority of legal votes cast at election and was duly elected could be contested only in accordance with statute providing for election contest. Warren v. State, 163 Miss. 817, 141 So. 901 (1932).

Judgment in election contest over office of county superintendent, in view of issues determined, held not res judicata, in subsequent quo warranto proceeding, of issue involving contestant's removal from State. Weisinger v. McGehee, 160 Miss. 424, 134 So. 148 (1931).

Writ of certiorari could not issue against county election commissioners, where it was sought to conduct in circuit court a contest of election. Board of Supvrs. v. Stephenson, 130 So. 684 (Miss. 1930).

Refusal of continuance in election contest held not to require reversal without showing that such refusal denied substantial rights. Tonnar v. Wade, 153 Miss. 722, 121 So. 156 (1929).

One claiming commissioner erred in counting votes, and that he should have been inducted into office, cannot bring quo warranto under this section [Code 1942, § 3287]. Loposser v. State, 110 Miss. 240, 70 So. 345 (1915).

In a contest for a county office it may be shown by the contestant that he was deprived of his rightful majority by the fraudulent practice of the managers at certain precincts in returning a greater number of votes than were actually cast, and receiving votes of persons not qualified electors, and votes which had been marked and furnished to voters by others in disregard of the constitution. Sproule v. Fredericks, 69 Miss. 898, 11 So. 472 (1892), overruled on other grounds, O'Neal v. Simpson, 350 So. 2d 998 (Miss. 1997).

Elections to municipal offices are not embraced herein. Easley v. Badenhausen, 59 Miss. 580 (1882).

The filing of the petition gives the court jurisdiction of the contest, and the failure to issue the summons at once does not authorize the quashing of the proceedings. Hall v. Lyon, 59 Miss. 218 (1881).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Although municipal governing authorities should not pay for legal costs incurred by a winning candidate or that candidate's party when an election is challenged, they may employ attorneys to represent the municipality's interest in upholding the validity of a general municipal election. Tennyson, Aug. 8, 1997, A.G. Op. #97-0469.

Certain amendments to this section (enacted by H.B. 1537 [2000]), addressing contesting elections to legislative seats, have been precleared and are enforceable. However, the return to the practice of allowing a local judge hear election contests without the benefit of the appointment of a judge from outside the district has not been precleared, and thus, that portion of of this section is unenforceable. Bearman, Aug. 27, 2004, A.G. Op. 04-0443.

§ 23-15-955. Proceedings with respect to election of member of Senate or House of Representatives.

Except as otherwise provided by Section 23-15-961, the person contesting the seat of any member of the Senate or House of Representatives shall comply with the provisions of this section. Section 38, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, provides that each house of the Mississippi State Legislature shall judge the qualifications, return and election of its membership. Pursuant to that authority, the House of Representatives shall have exclusive jurisdiction over an election contest regarding the seat of any member of the House of Representatives, and the Senate shall have exclusive jurisdiction over an election contest regarding the seat of any member of the Senate. An election contest regarding the seat of a member of the House of Representatives or the Senate shall be filed with the Clerk of the House or the Secretary of the Senate, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days after a regular general election or ten (10) days after a special election to fill a vacancy. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

Because the election at issue specifically concerned a party primary election, the case was brought squarely within the purview of the more specific Miss. Const. art. 12, § 247, wherein the people directed the Legislature to enact laws to secure fairness in party primary elections; the adoption of Miss. Code Ann. §§ 23-15-955 and 23-15-927 is clear support for the distinction. Dillon v. Myers, - So.3d - (Miss. Apr. 6, 2017).

Statute governing proceedings with respect to election of member of legislature does not provide for legislature to elect its own members, but rather merely allows legislature to examine elective process after winner is certified to determine if illegal or corrupt practices have taken place, and does not violate provision of State Constitution under which legislature may not elect any other than its own officers and state librarian. Esco v. Blackmon, 692 So. 2d 74 (Miss. 1997).

SUBARTICLE D.
CONTESTS OF QUALIFICATIONS OF CANDIDATES

§ 23-15-961. Exclusive procedures for contesting qualifications of candidate for primary election; exceptions.

(1) Any person desiring to contest the qualifications of another person as a candidate for nomination in a political party primary election shall file a petition specifically setting forth the grounds of the challenge within ten (10) days after the qualifying deadline for the office in question. The petition shall be filed with the executive committee with whom the candidate in question qualified.

(2) Within ten (10) days of receipt of the petition described in subsection (1) of this section, the appropriate executive committee shall meet and rule upon the petition. At least two (2) days before the hearing to consider the petition, the appropriate executive committee shall give notice to both the petitioner and the contested candidate of the time and place of the hearing on the petition. Each party shall be given an opportunity to be heard at that meeting and present evidence in support of his position.

(3) If the appropriate executive committee fails to rule upon the petition within the time required in subsection (2) of this section, that inaction shall be interpreted as a denial of the request for relief contained in the petition.

(4) Any party aggrieved by the action or inaction of the appropriate executive committee may file a petition for judicial review to the circuit court of the county in which the executive committee whose decision is being reviewed sits. The petition must be filed no later than fifteen (15) days after the date the petition was originally filed with the appropriate executive committee. The person filing for judicial review shall give a cost bond in the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) with two (2) or more sufficient sureties conditioned to pay all costs in case his petition be dismissed, and an additional bond may be required, by the court, if necessary, at any subsequent stage of the proceedings.

(5) Upon the filing of the petition and bond, the circuit clerk shall immediately, by registered letter or by telegraph or by telephone, or personally, notify the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, or in his absence, or disability, some other judge of the Supreme Court, who shall forthwith designate and notify a circuit judge or retired judge on senior status of a district other than that which embraces the district, subdistrict, county or any of the counties, involved in the contest or complaint, to proceed to the county in which the contest or complaint has been filed to hear and determine the contest or complaint. It shall be the official duty of the trial judge to proceed to the discharge of the designated duty at the earliest possible date to be fixed by the judge and of which the contestant and contestee shall have reasonable notice. The contestant and contestee are to be served in a reasonable manner as the judge may direct, in response to which notice the contestee shall promptly file his answer, and also his cross-complaint if he has a cross-complaint. The hearing before the trial court shall be de novo. The matter shall be tried to the trial judge, without a jury. After hearing the evidence, the trial judge shall determine whether the candidate whose qualifications have been challenged is legally qualified to have his name placed upon the ballot in question. The trial judge may, upon disqualification of any such candidate, order that such candidate shall bear the court costs of the proceedings.

(6) Within three (3) days after judgment is rendered by the circuit court, the contestant or contestee, or both, may file an appeal in the Supreme Court upon giving a cost bond in the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), together with a bill of exceptions which shall state the point or points of law at issue with a sufficient synopsis of the facts to fully disclose the bearing and relevancy of such points of law. The bill of exceptions shall be signed by the trial judge, or in case of his absence, refusal or disability, by two (2) disinterested attorneys, as is provided by law in other cases of bills of exception. The filing of such appeals shall automatically suspend the decision of the circuit court and the appropriate executive committee is entitled to proceed based upon their decision unless and until the Supreme Court, in its discretion, stays further proceedings in the matter. The appeal shall be immediately docketed in the Supreme Court and referred to the court en banc upon briefs without oral argument unless the court shall call for oral argument, and shall be decided at the earliest possible date, as a preference case over all others. The Supreme Court shall have the authority to grant such relief as is appropriate under the circumstances.

(7) The procedure set forth in this section shall be the sole and only manner in which the qualifications of a candidate seeking public office as a party nominee may be challenged prior to the time of his nomination or election. After a party nominee has been elected to public office, the election may be challenged as otherwise provided by law. After a party nominee assumes an elective office, his qualifications to hold that office may be contested as otherwise provided by law.

Editor's note- Laws of 1999, ch. 301, was House Bill 1609, 1998 Regular Session, and originally passed both Houses of the Legislature on April 3, 1998. The Governor vetoed House Bill 1609 on April 17, 1998. The veto was overridden by the State Senate and House of Representatives on January 5, 1999.

On January 15, 1999, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1999, ch. 301, § 14.

By letter dated September 17, 2012, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the amendment of this section by Chapter 476, Laws of 2012.

Amendments- The 1999 amendment added the first, second, and third sentences in (5).

The 2012 amendment substituted "in subsection (1) of this section" for "above" in the first sentence of (2); substituted "in subsection (2) of this section" for "above" in (3); in (5), substituted "a circuit judge or retired judge on senior status" for "from the list provided in Section 23-15-951 a circuit judge or chancellor" in the first sentence, substituted "trial judge" for "circuit judge" "trial court" for "circuit court" and deleted "or chancellor" following "judge" throughout; substituted "in this section" for "above" in the first sentence in (7); and made minor stylistic changes throughout.

Analysis

1. Timeliness.
2. Relation to other laws.
3. Judicial authority.

1. TIMELINESS.

Where an incumbent candidate filed his petition challenging the qualifications of the successful Democratic primary candidate, but filed the petition pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-963 and not Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-961, the petition was denied as untimely, as it was not filed within 10 days of the successful candidate winning the Democratic primary. Gourlay v. Williams, 874 So. 2d 987 (Miss. 2004).

2. RELATION TO OTHER LAWS.

Black chairman of a county political party executive committee was guilty of racial discrimination under § 2 of the Voting Rights Act because, inter alia, he sabotaged a white party incumbent's participation in the executive committee's nomination process in order to replace him on the primary ballot with a black candidate rather than properly challenging his qualifications as provided in Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-961. United States v. Brown, 494 F. Supp. 2d 440 (S.D. Miss. June 29, 2007), affirmed by 561 F.3d 420, 2009 U.S. App. LEXIS 4030 (5th Cir. Miss. 2009).

Supreme Court did not have the authority to order a special election, given that no election contest had been filed, and the original appeal under this section was not prosecuted. Tunica Cty. Democratic Exec. v. Jones, - So.3d - (Miss. June 15, 2017).

3. JUDICIAL AUTHORITY.

In a case in which a political party's executive committee decided that a candidate for a position on the county board of supervisors was not qualified to run in the primary election and kept the candidate's name off the primary ballot, the circuit court had no authority to order a special election under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-961. It appeared that the circuit court's second and third orders went beyond the circuit court's authority under the statute and the judge's authority under his appointment by the Supreme Court. Tunica Cty. Democratic Exec. v. Jones, - So.3d - (Miss. June 15, 2017).

§ 23-15-963. Exclusive procedures for contesting qualifications of candidate for general election; exceptions.

(1) Any person desiring to contest the qualifications of another person who has qualified pursuant to the provisions of Section 23-15-359, Mississippi Code of 1972, as a candidate for any office elected at a general election, shall file a petition specifically setting forth the grounds of the challenge not later than thirty-one (31) days after the date of the first primary election set forth in Section 23-15-191, Mississippi Code of 1972. Such petition shall be filed with the same body with whom the candidate in question qualified pursuant to Section 23-15-359, Mississippi Code of 1972.

(2) Any person desiring to contest the qualifications of another person who has qualified pursuant to the provisions of Section 23-15-213, Mississippi Code of 1972, as a candidate for county election commissioner elected at a general election, shall file a petition specifically setting forth the grounds of the challenge no later than sixty (60) days prior to the general election. Such petition shall be filed with the county board of supervisors, being the same body with whom the candidate in question qualified pursuant to Section 23-15-213, Mississippi Code of 1972.

(3) Any person desiring to contest the qualifications of another person who has qualified pursuant to the provisions of Section 23-15-361, Mississippi Code of 1972, as a candidate for municipal office elected on the date designated by law for regular municipal elections, shall file a petition specifically setting forth the grounds of the challenge no later than thirty-one (31) days after the date of the first primary election set forth in Section 23-15-309, Mississippi Code of 1972. Such petition shall be filed with the municipal commissioners of election, being the same body with whom the candidate in question qualified pursuant to Section 23-15-361, Mississippi Code of 1972.

(4) Within ten (10) days of receipt of the petition described in subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section, the appropriate election officials shall meet and rule upon the petition. At least two (2) days before the hearing to consider the petition, the appropriate election officials shall give notice to both the petitioner and the contested candidate of the time and place of the hearing on the petition. Each party shall be given an opportunity to be heard at such meeting and present evidence in support of his position.

(5) If the appropriate election officials fail to rule upon the petition within the time required above, such inaction shall be interpreted as a denial of the request for relief contained in the petition.

(6) Any party aggrieved by the action or inaction of the appropriate election officials may file a petition for judicial review to the circuit court of the county in which the election officials whose decision is being reviewed sits. Such petition must be filed no later than fifteen (15) days after the date the petition was originally filed with the appropriate election officials. Such person filing for judicial review shall give a cost bond in the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) with two (2) or more sufficient sureties conditioned to pay all costs in case his petition be dismissed, and an additional bond may be required, by the court, if necessary, at any subsequent stage of the proceedings.

(7) The circuit court with whom such a petition for judicial review has been filed shall at the earliest possible date set the matter for hearing. Notice shall be given the interested parties of the time set for hearing by the circuit clerk. The hearing before the circuit court shall be de novo. The matter shall be tried to the circuit judge, without a jury. After hearing the evidence, the circuit judge shall determine whether the candidate whose qualifications have been challenged is legally qualified to have his name placed upon the ballot in question. The circuit judge may, upon disqualification of any such candidate, order that such candidate shall bear the court costs of the proceedings.

(8) Within three (3) days after judgment is rendered by the circuit court, the contestant or contestee, or both, may file an appeal in the Supreme Court upon giving a cost bond in the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00), together with a bill of exceptions which shall state the point or points of law at issue with a sufficient synopsis of the facts to fully disclose the bearing and relevancy of such points of law. The bill of exceptions shall be signed by the trial judge, or in case of his absence, refusal or disability, by two (2) disinterested attorneys, as is provided by law in other cases of bills of exception. The filing of such appeals shall automatically suspend the decision of the circuit court and the appropriate election officials are entitled to proceed based upon their decision unless and until the Supreme Court, in its discretion, stays further proceedings in the matter. The appeal shall be immediately docketed in the Supreme Court and referred to the court en banc upon briefs without oral argument unless the court shall call for oral argument, and shall be decided at the earliest possible date, as a preference case over all others. The Supreme Court shall have the authority to grant such relief as is appropriate under the circumstances.

(9) The procedure set forth above shall be the sole and only manner in which the qualifications of a candidate seeking public office who qualified pursuant to the provisions of Sections 23-15-359, 23-15-213 and 23-15-361, Mississippi Code of 1972, may be challenged prior to the time of his election. After any such person has been elected to public office, the election may be challenged as otherwise provided by law. After any person assumes an elective office, his qualifications to hold that office may be contested as otherwise provided by law.

Sources: Derived from 1972 Code § 23-3-63 [Codes, 1942, § 3191; Laws, 1935, ch. 19; repealed by Laws, 1986, ch. 495, § 333]; en, Laws, 1988, ch. 577, § 2; Laws, 1990, ch. 307, § 2; Laws, 2013, ch. 406, § 1, eff August 1, 2013 (the date of the United States Attorney General's response to the submission of this section under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965).

Editor's note- The effective date of Chapter 406, Laws of 2013, which amended this section, is "from and after the date it is effectuated under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended." However, after the bill was approved, the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Shelby County v. Holder (June 25, 2013), struck down the coverage formula that determined what jurisdictions are subject to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act, so the coverage formula can no longer be used as a basis for subjecting jurisdictions to preclearance under Section 5.

Because of the Shelby County decision, the United States Attorney General is not making any determinations under Section 5 on voting or election changes made by states. The Supreme Court did not strike down Section 5, so it is still in effect. For that reason, the Mississippi Attorney General's Office submitted Chapter 406, Laws of 2013, to the United States Attorney General, in order to technically meet the requirements of Section 5 and fulfill the condition in the effective date of the bill, which will allow the bill to take effect.

By letter dated August 1, 2013, the United States Attorney General responded that he is not making determinations on the merits of any bill that is submitted under Section 5. The submission of Chapter 406 and the response from the United States Attorney General technically met the requirements of Section 5 and fulfilled the condition in the effective date of Chapter 406, so Chapter 406 became effective from and after August 1, 2013, the date of the United States Attorney General's response letter.

Amendments- The 2013 amendment added (2) and (3) and renumbered the remaining subsections accordingly; substituted "in subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section" for "above" in the first sentence in (4); and substituted "Sections 23-15-359, 23-15-213 and 23-15-361" for "Sections 23-15-359" in the first sentence in (9).

Analysis

1. In general.
2. Construction with other laws.
3. Parties.
4. Specificity of pleadings.

1. IN GENERAL.

Statute did not apply because a candidate was not qualified for public office at a general election, as the Election Commission had disqualified him; the candidate was not contesting the qualifications of another person but was challenging his own disqualification. Basil v. Browning, 175 So.3d 1289 (Miss. 2015).

Where an incumbent candidate filed his petition challenging the qualifications of the successful Democratic primary candidate, but filed the petition pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-963 and not Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-961, the petition was denied as untimely, as it was not filed within 10 days of the successful candidate winning the Democratic primary. Gourlay v. Williams, 874 So. 2d 987 (Miss. 2004).

The statute does not require that a petition filed before the election commission be sworn or that a copy of the petition before the election commission be filed with the circuit court. Ladner v. Necaie, 771 So. 2d 353 (Miss. 2000).

2. CONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER LAWS.

The requirement of § 1-3-75 that petitions be personally signed was properly applied to petitions filed pursuant to this section to contest the qualifications of a candidate for public office. Ladner v. Necaie, 771 So. 2d 353 (Miss. 2000).

3. PARTIES.

A plain reading of the statute is that "any person" is not restricted to mean that the person must be a candidate for the election in which he/she is contesting the qualifications of a candidate. Ladner v. Necaie, 771 So. 2d 353 (Miss. 2000).

4. SPECIFICITY OF PLEADINGS.

A petition met the requirement of specifically setting forth the grounds of the challenge when it stated that the candidate's petition failed for want of the requisite number of valid signatures, listed the signatures in question, and obtained as many affidavits as time and circumstance allowed showing that the allegations had merit. Ladner v. Necaie, 771 So. 2d 353 (Miss. 2000).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

Because the employment a hearing officer by the county election commission to preside over an election contest convened under subsection (1) of this section did not have the statutorily required approval of the County Board of Supervisors, no compensation would be authorized. State judicial elections come within coverage of "results test" provisions of § 2 of Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 USCS § 1973), as amended in 1982; if term "representatives" limited coverage with respect to judicial elections, limitation would exclude all claims involving judicial elections; better reading of term describes winners of representative, popular elections. *Chisom v. JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. IN GENERAL.

State judicial elections come within coverage of "results test" provisions of § 2 of Voting Rights Act of 1965 (52 USCS § 10301), as amended in 1982; if term "representatives" limited coverage with respect to judicial elections, limitation would exclude all claims involving judicial elections; better reading of term describes winners of representative, popular elections. Chisom v. Roemer, 501 U.S. 380, 111 S. Ct. 2354, 115 L. Ed. 2d 348 (1991).

The United States Attorney General, by letter dated July 22, 2002, interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 to the amendment of this section by Laws of 2002, ch. 356. The amendment was contingent on ratification, by the electorate, of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 543 (Laws of 2002, ch. 713). Ratification having failed, the amendment did not become law.

"BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, That the following amendment to the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 is proposed to the qualified electors of the state:

"Amend Section 153, Mississippi Constitution of 1890, to read as follows:

"Section 153. The judges of the circuit and chancery courts shall be elected by the people in a manner and at a time to be provided by the Legislature. The judges elected for a term of office beginning from and after January 1, 2003, shall hold their office for a term of six (6) years.

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this proposed amendment shall be submitted by the Secretary of State to the qualified electors at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November 2002, as provided by Section 273 of the Constitution and by general law.

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the explanation of this proposed amendment for the ballot shall read as follows: 'This proposed constitutional amendment increases the terms of office of circuit and chancery court judges from four to six years beginning January 1, 2003.'

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Attorney General of the State of Mississippi shall submit this resolution, immediately upon adoption by the Legislature, to the Attorney General of the United States or to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, in accordance with the provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended."

Amendments- The 2002 amendment added "provided, however, that the terms of judges of the several circuit and chancery court districts shall be six (6) years beginning with the term commencing January 2003 " at the end of the first sentence.

Cross references- Provision that times for holding primary and general elections for the office of circuit court judge or chancery court judge shall be as prescribed in this section and former § 23-15-1013, see § 23-15-197.

Editor's note- The United States Attorney General interposed no objection under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, to the amendment of this section by Laws of 1991 Extra Session, ch. 2, § 1, on February 21, 1992.

As a result of the 2000 federal decennial census, the number of representatives in Congress to which the State of Mississippi is entitled was reduced from five to four. The State of Mississippi was unable to redraw its congressional districts to reduce the number of districts. The United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi, in the case of Smith v. Clark (Civil Action No. 3:01-CV-855WS), by order dated February 26, 2002, enjoined the state from implementing the five-district congressional redistricting plan codified in Section 25-15-1037 and ordered the state to implement the four-district congressional redistricting plan adopted by the court in that order for congressional primary and general elections for the State of Mississippi in 2002 and all succeeding congressional primary and general elections thereafter, until the State of Mississippi produced a constitutional congressional redistricting plan. The State of Mississippi was again unable to redistrict its congressional districts following the 2010 federal decennial census. The United State District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi in the case of Smith v. Hosemann (Civil Action No. 3:01-cv-855-HTW-DCB), by order dated December 30, 2011, ordered the state to implement the four-district congressional redistricting plan adopted by the court in that order for conducting congressional primary and general elections for the State of Mississippi in 2012, and all succeeding congressional primary and general elections thereafter until such time as the State of Mississippi produces a constitutional congressional redistrict plan.

§ 23-15-1039. Election of representatives in Congress in event of change in number of representatives to which state is entitled.

Should an election of representatives in Congress occur after the number of representatives to which the state is entitled changes, and before the districts have changed to conform to the new apportionment, representatives shall be chosen as follows: If the number of representatives is increased, then one (1) member shall be chosen in each district as organized, and the additional member or members shall be chosen by the electors of the state at large; and if the number of representatives is decreased, then the whole number shall be chosen by the electors of the state at large.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment, in the first sentence, substituted "entitled changes" for "entitled shall be changed, in consequence of a new apportionment being made by Congress" and "districts have changed" for "districts shall have been changed"; and in the second sentence, substituted "If the number of representative is increased" for "In case the number of representatives to which the state is entitled be increased" and "representatives is decreased" for "representatives shall be diminished" near the end.

1. AT-LARGE ELECTIONS.

Since the State Legislature failed in its duty to provide for new congressional districts after its delegation to the United States House of Representatives was reduced from five representatives to four representatives following the decennial census, the default procedure under Miss. Code Ann. § 23-15-1039 provided for at-large elections; however, such a procedure could not be presently used since the State was under a federal court injunction directing that it use the congressional districts drawn by the three-judge federal trial court and, thus, that the court either had to vacate the injunction or the State Legislature had to draw a redistricting plan meeting federal voting law requirements before an at-large election could be held. Mauldin v. Branch, 866 So. 2d 429 (Miss. 2003).

Analysis

- 1.-5. [Reserved for future use.]
6. Under former Section 23-1-3.

1.-5. [RESERVED FOR FUTURE USE.]

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-1-3.

Although the philosophy of the National Democratic Party may be altruistic in the apportionment of its delegates, there is in reality no possible method or manner by which a state convention through its "grass roots" and precinct levels can select by secret ballot, in a democratic fashion, a proportionate representation of individuals to comply with such a theory. Riddell v. National Democratic Party, 344 F. Supp. 908 (S.D. Miss. 1972), rev'd on other grounds, 508 F.2d 770 (5th Cir. 1975).

The essential aim of Code 1942, §§ 3107, 3107-02, 3107-04 and 3107-06 controlling political party electoral processes is that voters and those who wish to participate have notice of the caucuses and conventions at a fixed time and place, with an unfettered opportunity to participate, free from confusion and intimidation. Riddell v. National Democratic Party, 344 F. Supp. 908 (S.D. Miss. 1972), rev'd on other grounds, 508 F.2d 770 (5th Cir. 1975).

The provisions of this section [Code 1942, § 3107] of a method whereby the state political party conventions may select two slates of presidential electors, one slate pledged to support the nominee of the national political party, and one slate unpledged, offends no provision of the United States Constitution, for this section expressly provides that nothing therein shall prohibit a slate of electors pledged to support the national party candidate from running on the same general election ballot, and Code 1942, § 3260 enables such a slate to get on the ballot upon the petition of 1,000 voters. Gray v. State of Mississippi, 233 F. Supp. 139 (N.D. Miss. 1964).

This section [Code 1942, § 3107] applies uniformly to all members of the electorate and the one man-one vote principle is in no way violated, and the section does not on its face discriminate among voters or between political parties. Gray v. State of Mississippi, 233 F. Supp. 139 (N.D. Miss. 1964).

Mississippi voters are not denied the opportunity to vote for electors pledged to support a national party nominee under the provisions of this section [Code 1942, § 3107], but they are denied the opportunity to vote for a pledged slate running under the national party label. Gray v. State of Mississippi, 233 F. Supp. 139 (N.D. Miss. 1964).

§ 23-15-1054. Methods and procedures for selection of temporary county executive committee.

(1) If there be any political party or parties in any county without a party executive committee, such political party or parties shall select qualified electors of that county and of that party's political faith to serve on a temporary county executive committee until members of a county executive committee are elected at the next regular election for executive committees. The selection of qualified electors to serve on the temporary county executive committee shall occur thirty (30) days before the date for which a candidate for a county office is required to qualify. The temporary county executive committee shall be selected in the following manner: Upon petition of five (5) or more members of that political faith, the chair of the State Executive Committee desiring to select a temporary county executive committee shall call a mass meeting of the qualified electors of their political faith who reside in the county to meet at some convenient place within the county, at a time to be designated in the call. At the mass convention, the members of that political faith shall select a temporary county executive committee. The temporary county executive committee shall serve until members of a county executive committee are elected at the next regular election for executive committees. The public shall be given notice of the mass meeting as provided in subsection (4) of this section. The chair of the State Executive Committee shall authorize the call within five (5) calendar days of receipt of the petition. If the chair of the State Executive Committee is either incapacitated, unavailable or nonresponsive and does not authorize the mass call within five (5) calendar days of receipt of the petition, any elected officer of the State Executive Committee may authorize the call within five (5) calendar days. If no elected officer of the State Executive Committee acts to approve such petition after an additional five (5) calendar days the petitioners shall be authorized to produce the call.

(2) If no county executive committee is selected or otherwise formed before an election, the State Executive Committee may serve as the temporary county executive committee and exercise all of the duties of the county executive committee for the county election. After a State Executive Committee has fulfilled its duties as the temporary county executive committee, it shall select a county executive committee before the next county election.

(3) A person convicted of a felony in a court of this state, any other state, or of the United States shall be barred from serving as a member of a county executive committee.

(4) The State Executive Committee shall publish a copy of its call for a meeting in some newspaper published in the affected county for three (3) weeks before the date set for the mass convention. If no newspaper is published in the county, then a copy of the call shall be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the county and by posting notices in three (3) public places in the county, one (1) of which shall be the county courthouse or the location where the county board of supervisors meets to conduct business. The publication shall occur not less than three (3) weeks before the date for the mass convention.

Editor's note- By letter dated July 26, 2011, the United States Attorney General interposed no objection, under Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended and extended, to the addition of this section by Laws of 2011, ch. 509.

Amendments- The 2017 amendment, in (1), rewrote the first sentence, which read: "If there be any political party, or parties, in any county which shall not have a party executive committee for such county, such political party, or parties, shall within thirty (30) days of the date for which a candidate for a county office is required to qualify in such county, select qualified electors of that county and of that party's political faith to serve on a temporary county executive committee until members of a county executive committee are elected at the next regular election for executive committees," added the second sentence, rewrote the former second (now third) sentence, which read: "The temporary county executive committee shall be selected in the following manner: The chairman of the state executive committee of the party desiring to select a temporary county executive committee, upon petition of five (5) or more members of that political faith, shall call a mass meeting of the qualified electors of their political faith who reside in such county to meet at some convenient place within such county, at a time to be designated in the call, and at such mass convention the members of that political faith shall select a temporary county executive committee which shall serve until members of a county executive committee are elected at the next regular election for executive committees," and divided it into the present third through sixth sentences, and in the last sentence, deleted "from the date, the chair of the state executive committee not taking action as provided by this section" following "(5) calendar days," and deleted "themselves" from the end; in (2), rewrote the last sentence, which read: "After a state executive committee has fulfilled its duties as the temporary county executive committee, as soon as practicable thereafter, the state executive committee shall select a county executive committee no later than before the next county election"; rewrote (3) and (4), which read: "(3) A person who has been convicted of a felony in a court of this state or any other state or a court of the United States, shall be barred from serving as a member of a county executive committee. (4) The state executive committee shall publish a copy of its call for a meeting in some newspaper published in the county affected for three (3) weeks preceding the date set for the mass convention, or if there be no newspaper published in the county, then in some newspaper having general circulation in the county and by posting notices in three (3) public places in the county, one (1) of which shall be the county courthouse or the location where the county board of supervisors meets to conduct business not less than three (3) weeks before the date for the mass convention"; and made gender neutral and minor stylistic changes.

§ 23-15-1055. Methods and procedures for selection of delegates and delegate alternates to national nominating conventions.

The state executive committee of each political party shall determine the method and procedures by which delegates and delegate alternates to the national nominating conventions are to be selected as well as adopt any other rule not inconsistent with this chapter. That portion of this statute which grants the political party first to register a particular name the exclusive rights to every part of the name registered is unconstitutional. Riddell v. National Democratic Party, 508 F.2d 770 (5th Cir. 1975).

Under this section [Code 1942, § 3107-01] the secretary of state has the power to hear evidence and decide facts and is an inferior tribunal having quasi judicial powers. Hoskins v. Howard, 214 Miss. 481, 59 So. 2d 263 (1952), cert. denied, 344 U.S. 915, 73 S. Ct. 334, 97 L. Ed. 705 (1953). But see Howard v Ladner, 116 F Supp 783 (rev'd apparently on jurisdictional grounds in mem op in White v Howard, 347 US 910, 98 L Ed 1067, 74 5 Ct 476, reh'g den'd 347 US 931, 98 L Ed 1083, 74 5 Ct 529), wherein it was held that where a statute which required name of political party to be registered and which also provided that no other political party shall use any name already registered, was construed to deny a political party existing before the passage of the statute the right to continue to use its name because another party has already appropriated that name, this was a denial of due process.

Statute, which provided that when a political party registers no other political party may use that name which has already been registered, as applied, prevents a political party which had used the word Republican in its name for many years, from using this name because another organization had registered the word Republican was not unconstitutional as denying the right to reassemble and petition the government or as depriving members of their liberty and property without due process of law, or as denying right of freedom of speech and of press or as destroying liberty of members of the political party to organize and associate themselves with others for political purposes and as denying for them the right to freely exercise their franchise. Hoskins v. Howard, 214 Miss. 481, 59 So. 2d 263 (1952), cert. denied, 344 U.S. 915, 73 S. Ct. 334, 97 L. Ed. 705 (1953). (1) The application for registration of the political party and any officially sanctioned organizations named to be presented to the Secretary of State shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the chair or secretary of the political party seeking the registration. 6. Under former Section 23-1-7.

6. UNDER FORMER SECTION 23-1-7.

Although the philosophy of the National Democratic Party may be altruistic in the apportionment of its delegates, there is in reality no possible method or manner by which a state convention through its "grass roots" and precinct levels can select by secret ballot, in a democratic fashion, a proportionate representation of individuals to comply with such a theory. Riddell v. National Democratic Party, 344 F. Supp. 908 (S.D. Miss. 1972), rev'd on other grounds, 508 F.2d 770 (5th Cir. 1975).

The essential aim of Code 1942, §§ 3107, 3107-02, 3107-04 and 3107-06 controlling political party electoral processes is that voters and those who wish to participate have notice of the caucuses and conventions at a fixed time and place, with an unfettered opportunity to participate, free from confusion and intimidation. Riddell v. National Democratic Party, 344 F. Supp. 908 (S.D. Miss. 1972), rev'd on other grounds, 508 F.2d 770 (5th Cir. 1975).

Under this section [Code 1942, § 3107-02] the secretary of state has the power to hear evidence and decide facts and is an inferior tribunal having quasi judicial powers. *Hoskins v. But see Howard v Ladner, 116 F Supp 783 (rev'd apparently on jurisdictional grounds in mem op in White v Howard, 347 US 910, 98 L Ed 1067, 74 5 Ct 476, reh'g den'd 347 US 931, 98 L Ed 1083, 74 5 Ct 529), wherein it was held that where a statute which required name of political party to be registered and which also provided that no other political party shall use any name already registered, was construed to deny a political party existing before the passage of the statute the right to continue to use its name because another party has already appropriated that name, this was a denial of due process.

Where a political organization which for many years had used the word Republican in its name and then changed the name but continued the use of the word Republican and changing of name did not alter organization or membership or officers or representatives of this organization, this name change did not justify a rejection of application for registration under the statutes. Hoskins v. Howard, 214 Miss. 481, 59 So. 2d 263 (1952), cert. denied, 344 U.S. 915, 73 S. Ct. 334, 97 L. Ed. 705 (1953). JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. DUE PROCESS.

Political party violated a candidate's due process because, by not timely telling the candidate the party found the candidate's petition to be put on a primary ballot insufficient or timely answering the candidate's request to reconsider, the party gave the candidate no meaningful chance to be heard when the deprivation could be prevented, as the deadline for overseas and military ballots had passed. Wilson v. Hosemann, 185 So.3d 370 (Miss. 2016).

(4) The person proposing the measure shall also include all the information required under Section 273, Mississippi Constitution of 1890.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

1. JURISDICTION.

Sections 23-17-1 et seq. do not divest the Circuit Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County of its jurisdiction as set forth in section 156 of the Constitution, therefore, this circuit court is the proper venue and has jurisdiction to review the facial constitutionality of proposed initiatives. Stoner v. Mahoney (In re Proposed Initiative Measure No. 20), (Miss. Sept. 7, 2000), opinion withdrawn by, substituted opinion at 774 So. 2d 397, 2000 Miss. LEXIS 268 (Miss. 2000).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The sponsor of an initiative must identify in the text of an initiative the amount and source of revenue required to implement the initiative; if the initiative would reduce government revenues or would require a reduction of funds to programs or a reallocation of funds between programs, then the sponsor must set forth in the text of the initiative exactly which program or programs will be cut back or eliminated, and the sponsor must provide sufficient facts so that the voters are informed as to the effect of the initiative on sources of government revenues and current programs; if the sponsor asserts that no adverse impact will occur in sources of government revenues, the sponsor must establish a rational basis to support such assertion. Nunnelee, Mar. 23, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0738.

§ 23-17-5. Submission of proposed initiative to Attorney General; review; recommendations; certificate of review; filing of proposed initiative and certificate.

Upon receipt of any proposed initiative measure, the Secretary of State shall submit a copy of the proposed measure to the Attorney General and give notice to the person filing the proposed measure of such transmittal. Upon receipt of the measure, the Attorney General may confer with the person filing the proposed measure and shall within ten (10) working days from receipt thereof review the proposal for matters of form and style, and such matters of substantive import as may be agreeable to the person filing the proposed measure, and shall recommend such revision or alteration of the measure as may be deemed necessary and appropriate. ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The intent of this section is that the final text of the proposed initiative and the certificate of review must be filed within the required 15 working days; if such is not done, the initiative is no longer valid and the Secretary of State should not assign the measure a serial number and should not forward same to the Attorney General. § 23-17-8. Correction of certain nonsubstantive clerical or technical errors in the section number reference or designation of a proposed constitutional amendment.

When an amendment to the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 is proposed to the qualified electors of the state under the voter initiative procedure set forth in Section 23-17-1, et seq., the Secretary of State, with the approval of the Attorney General, may make a nonsubstantive clerical or technical correction in the section number reference or designation of the proposed amendment contained in an initiative measure, as may be appropriate or necessary in order to prevent the use of an existing section number or the possibility of the initiative being declared invalid only because of an error in the section number designation. Such a correction may be made at any time after the Attorney General's certificate of review with regard to the initiative measure has been issued, and before the ballot for the initiative measure is printed. The provisions of this section do not authorize the Secretary of State to make any change other than a nonsubstantive correction in the section number reference or designation of the proposed amendment contained in the initiative measure.

§ 23-17-9. Formulation of ballot title and summary of initiative measure.

Within seven (7) calendar days after the receipt of an initiative measure, the Attorney General shall formulate and transmit to the Secretary of State a concise statement posed as a question and not to exceed twenty (20) words, bearing the serial number of the measure and a summary of the measure, not to exceed seventy-five (75) words, to follow the statement. The statement shall give a true and impartial statement of the purpose of the measure. Neither the statement nor the summary may intentionally be an argument, nor likely to create prejudice, either for or against the measure. Such concise statement shall constitute the ballot title. The ballot title formulated by the Attorney General shall be the ballot title of the measure unless changed on appeal. When practicable, the question posed by the ballot title shall be written in such a way that an affirmative answer to such question and an affirmative vote on the measure would result in a change in then current law, and a negative answer to the question and a negative vote on the measure would result in no change to then current law.

Analysis

1. Jurisdiction.
2. Relationship to other law.
3. Right to appeal.

1. JURISDICTION.

Supreme Court of Mississippi holds Miss. Code Ann. § 23-17-13 (Rev. 2007) only provides a mechanism to appeal ballot titles formulated by the Attorney General for Miss. Code Ann. § 23-17-1(1) ballot measures (those proposed via petition of qualified electors); it provides no mechanism for and does not authorize any court to entertain appeals of ballot titles written for amendments to measures proposed by the Legislature pursuant to Miss. Code Ann. § 23-17-31 (Rev. 2007). Legis. of the State of Miss. v. Shipman, 170 So.3d 1211 (Miss. 2015).

Section 23-17-13 deals merely with the Legislature's authority to direct venue, not jurisdiction; thus, the statute does not divest the Circuit Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County of its jurisdiction as set forth in section 156 of the Constitution. In re Proposed Initiative Measure No. 20 v. Mahoney, 774 So. 2d 397 (Miss. 2000).

2. RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER LAW.

Notice provisions of Miss. Code Ann. § 23-17-13 (Rev. 2007) have no effect upon the appeal of a ballot title drafted by the Attorney General for an amendment to a measure. Legis. of the State of Miss. v. Shipman, 170 So.3d 1211 (Miss. 2015).

3. RIGHT TO APPEAL.

No right to appeal is created by Miss. Code Ann. § 23-17-33 (Rev. 2007)'s citation to Miss. Code Ann. § 23-17-9 (Rev. 2007). Legis. of the State of Miss. v. Shipman, 170 So.3d 1211 (Miss. 2015).

§ 23-17-15. Filing of instrument establishing title and summary of measure; notice to initiator; title and summary to be used in all proceedings.

When the ballot title and summary are finally established, the Secretary of State shall file the instrument establishing it with the proposed measure and transmit a copy thereof by certified mail return receipt requested, to the person proposing the measure and to any other individuals who have made written request for such notification. Thereafter such ballot title shall be the title of the measure in all petitions, ballots and other proceedings in relation thereto. The summary shall appear on all petitions directly following the ballot title.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

The 12-month period for the collection of petitions for an initiative began to run on the date the proponent of the initiative received from the Secretary of State a court order amending the ballot title and summary for the proposed initiative and "finally establishing" same, rather than the earlier date on which the proponent received the original ballot title and ballot summary or the later date on which the appeal of the court order was dismissed. Scott, Sept. 20, 2001, A.G. Op. #01-0586.

§ 23-17-17. Initiator of measure to print blank petitions; form of petitions.

(1) The person proposing an initiative measure shall print blank petitions upon single sheets of paper of good writing quality not less than eight and one-half (8 1/2) inches in width and not less than fourteen (14) inches in length. Each sheet shall have a full, true and correct copy of the proposed measure referred to therein printed on the reverse side of the petition or attached thereto.

(2) Only a person who is a qualified elector of this state may circulate a petition or obtain signatures on a petition.

1. VALIDITY.

Statutes requiring that initiative petition circulators be qualified electors of State and prohibiting per-signature payment of circulators violated First Amendment; there was evidence that payment of primarily out-of-state circulators, who would only work on payment-per-signature basis, was most effective and economical avenue of political communication, and State failed to prove fraud or actual threat to citizens' confidence in government from per-signature payment, or to demonstrate any reasonable justification for permitting signature gathering only by voters registered in State. Term Limits Leadership Council, Inc. v. Clark, 984 F. Supp. 470 (S.D. Miss. 1997).

§ 23-17-19. Secretary of State to design petitions; form of petitions.

The Secretary of State shall design the form each sheet of which shall contain the following:

"WARNING

EVERY PERSON WHO SIGNS THIS PETITION WITH ANY OTHER THAN HIS OR HER TRUE NAME, KNOWINGLY SIGNS MORE THAN ONE OF THESE PETITIONS RELATING TO THE SAME INITIATIVE MEASURE, SIGNS THIS PETITION WHEN HE OR SHE IS NOT A QUALIFIED ELECTOR OR MAKES ANY FALSE STATEMENT ON THIS PETITION MAY BE PUNISHED BY FINE, IMPRISONMENT, OR BOTH.

PETITION FOR INITIATIVE MEASURE

To the Honorable _____, Secretary of State of the State of Mississippi:

We, the undersigned citizens and qualified electors of the State of Mississippi, respectfully direct that this petition and the proposed measure known as Initiative Measure No. _____, entitled (here insert the established ballot title of the measure), a full, true and correct copy of which is printed or attached on the reverse side of this petition, be transmitted to the Legislature of the State of Mississippi at its next ensuing regular session, and we respectfully petition the Legislature to adopt the proposed measure; and each of us for himself or herself says: I have personally signed this petition, I am a qualified elector of the State of Mississippi in the city (or town), county and congressional district written after my name, my residence address is correctly stated and I have knowingly signed this petition only once."

Each sheet shall also provide adequate space for the following information: Petitioner's signature; print name for positive identification; residence address, street and number, if any; city or town; county; precinct; and congressional district.

§ 23-17-21. Certification of petition by the circuit clerk; fee for filing petition.

Before a person may file a petition with the Secretary of State, the petition must be certified by the circuit clerk of each county in which the petition was circulated. The circuit clerk shall certify the signatures of qualified electors of that county and shall state the total number of qualified electors signing the petition in that county. The circuit clerk shall verify the name of each qualified elector signing on each petition. A circuit clerk may not receive any fee, salary or compensation from any private person or private legal entity for the clerk's duties in certifying an initiative petition. When the person proposing any initiative measure has secured upon the petition a number of signatures of qualified electors equal to or exceeding the minimum number required by Section 273(3) of the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 for the proposed measure, and such signatures have been certified by the circuit clerks of the various counties, he may submit the petition to the Secretary of State for filing. The Secretary of State shall collect a fee of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) from the person filing the petition to pay part of the administrative and publication costs.

§ 23-17-23. Grounds for refusing to file initiative petition.

The Secretary of State shall refuse to file any initiative petition being submitted upon any of the following grounds:

- (a) That the petition is not in the form required by Section 23-17-19;

(b) That the petition clearly bears insufficient signatures;

(c) That one or more signatures appearing on the petition were obtained in violation of Section 23-17-17(2), Section 23-17-57(2) or Section 23-17-57(3);

(d) That the time within which the petition may be filed has expired; or

(e) That the petition is not accompanied by the filing fee provided for in Section 23-17-21.

In case of such refusal, the Secretary of State shall endorse on the petition the word "submitted" and the date, and retain the petition pending appeal.

If none of the grounds for refusal exists, the Secretary of State shall accept and file the petition.

Analysis

1. Validity.
2. Review of initiatives.

1. VALIDITY.

Statutes requiring that initiative petition circulators be qualified electors of State and prohibiting per-signature payment of circulators violated First Amendment; there was evidence that payment of primarily out-of-state circulators, who would only work on payment-per-signature basis, was most effective and economical avenue of political communication, and State failed to prove fraud or actual

2. REVIEW OF INITIATIVES.

Proposed initiatives are subject to review of form and, therefore, content inasmuch as content affects form and form affects content. Initiatives must meet minimum constitutional and statutory requirements prior to being placed on the ballot to ensure full disclosure and notice to the electorate. Stoner v. Mahoney (In re Proposed Initiative Measure No. 20), (Miss. Sept. 7, 2000), opinion withdrawn by, substituted opinion at 774 So. 2d 397, 2000 Miss. LEXIS 268 (Miss. 2000).

§ 23-17-25. Procedure to compel Secretary of State to file petition.

If the Secretary of State refuses to file an initiative petition when submitted to him for filing, the person submitting it for filing, within ten (10) days after his refusal, may apply to the Supreme Court for an order requiring the Secretary of State to bring the petition before the court and for a writ of mandamus to compel him to file it. The application shall be considered an emergency matter of public concern and shall be heard and determined with all convenient speed. If the Supreme Court decides that the petition is legal in form, apparently contains the requisite number of signatures of qualified electors, was filed within the time prescribed in the Constitution and was accompanied with the proper filing fee, it shall issue its mandate directing the Secretary of State to file the petition in his office as of the date of submission.

§ 23-17-27. Failure to appeal, or loss of appeal of, Secretary's refusal to file petition.

If no appeal is taken from the refusal of the Secretary of State to file a petition within the time prescribed, or if an appeal is taken and the Secretary of State is not required to file the petition by the mandate of the Supreme Court, the Secretary of State shall destroy it.

§ 23-17-29. Filing petition with Legislature; adoption, amendment, or rejection of initiative; placement of initiative on ballot; approval of conflicting initiatives.

The Secretary of State shall file with the Clerk of the House and the Secretary of the Senate on the first day of the regular legislative session the complete text of each initiative for which a petition has been certified and filed with him. A constitutional initiative may be adopted or amended by a majority vote of each house of the Legislature. If the initiative is adopted, amended or rejected by the Legislature; or if no action is taken within four (4) months of the date that the initiative is filed with the Legislature, the Secretary of State shall place the initiative on the ballot for the next statewide general election. If the Legislature amends an initiative, the amended version and the original initiative shall be submitted to the electors. An initiative or legislative alternative must receive a majority of the votes thereon and not less than forty percent (40%) of the total votes cast at the election at which the measure was submitted to be approved. If conflicting initiatives or legislative alternatives are approved at the same election, the initiative or legislative alternative receiving the highest number of affirmative votes shall prevail.

§ 23-17-31. Procedure for rejection of measure and adoption of new measure by Legislature; designation of "Alternative Measure No. ____ A"; fiscal analysis.

(1) Whenever the Legislature rejects a measure submitted to it by initiative petition and adopts an amendment to the measure proposed by initiative petition, then the Secretary of State shall give the measure adopted by the Legislature the same number as that borne by the initiative measure followed by the letter "A." Such measure so designated as "Alternative Measure No. _____ A," together with the ballot title thereof, when ascertained, shall be certified by the Secretary of State to the county election commissioners for printing on the ballots for submission to the voters for their approval or rejection at the next statewide general election.

(2) The chief legislative budget officer shall prepare a fiscal analysis of each initiative and each legislative alternative. A summary of each fiscal analysis shall appear on the ballot.

§ 23-17-33. Ballot title and summary for alternative measures.

For a measure designated by him as "Alternative Measure No. _____ A," the Secretary of State shall obtain from the Attorney General a ballot title in the manner provided by Section 23-17-9. The ballot title therefor shall be different from the ballot title of the measure in lieu of which it is proposed, and shall indicate, as clearly as possible, the essential differences in the measure.

§ 23-17-35. Form of initiative measure as appearing on ballot.

Except in the case of alternative voting on a measure initiated by petition, each measure submitted to the people for approval or rejection shall be so printed on the ballot, under the proper heading, that a voter can, by making one (1) choice, express his approval or rejection of such measure. Substantially the following form shall be a compliance with this section:

INITIATIVE MEASURE NO. _____

§ 23-17-37. Voting for initiative when legislative alternative proposed; form of initiative measure and Legislative alternative as appearing on ballot.

If an initiative measure proposed to the Legislature has been rejected by the Legislature and an alternative measure is passed by the Legislature in lieu thereof, the serial numbers and ballot titles of both such measures shall be printed on the official ballots so that a voter can express separately two (2) preferences: First, by voting for the approval of either measure or against both measures, and, secondly, by voting for one measure or the other measure. If the majority of those voting on the first issue is against both measures, then both measures fail, but in that case the votes on the second issue nevertheless shall be carefully counted and made public. If a majority voting on the first issue is for the approval of either measure, then the measure receiving a majority of the votes on the second issue and also receiving not less than forty percent (40%) of the total votes cast at the election at which the measure was submitted for approval shall be law. Any person who votes against both measures on the first issue may vote but shall not be required to vote for any of the measures on the second issue in order for the ballot to be valid. Substantially the following form shall be a compliance with this section:

1. CONSTITUTIONALITY.

Applying exacting scrutiny, Mississippi's disclosure laws related to constitutional amendments survived a facial First Amendment challenge where the registration burdens were minimal and those registration burdens were central to the disclosure scheme and proportional to its relatively small population. Justice v. Hosemann, 771 F.3d 285 (5th Cir. 2014), writ of certiorari denied by 136 S. Ct. 1514, 194 L. Ed. 2d 603, 2016 U.S. LEXIS 2404, 84 U.S.L.W. 3555 (U.S. Apr. 4, 2016).

1. VALIDITY.

Statutes requiring that initiative petition circulators be qualified electors of State and prohibiting per-signature payment of circulators violated First Amendment; there was evidence that payment of primarily out-of-state circulators, who would only work on payment-per-signature basis, was most effective and economical avenue of political communication, and State failed to prove fraud or actual threat to citizens' confidence in government from per-signature payment, or to demonstrate any reasonable justification for permitting signature gathering only by voters registered in State. Term Limits Leadership Council, Inc. v. Clark, 984 F. Supp. 470 (S.D. Miss. 1997).

ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

People gathering signatures on petitions that are not covered by § 23-17-57(4) may be within 150 feet of the entrance of a polling place but not within 30 feet of any room in which an election is being held; however, it is the duty of the election bailiff to insure that anyone collecting signatures does not, in any manner, impede the progress of voters coming into a polling place to vote. Sanford, Feb. 1, 2002, A.G. Op. #02-0028.

§ 23-17-59. Unlawful to interfere with or influence vote of elector.

It is unlawful for a person to interfere with or influence the vote of an elector on a measure by means of violence, threats, intimidation, enforcing the payment of a debt, bringing a suit or criminal prosecution, any threat or action affecting a person's conditions of employment or other corrupt means.
