Reconstructive breast procedures performed to produce a symmetrical appearance is a non-covered service under the Mississippi Medicaid program. The Women's Health and Cancer Rights Act (WHCRA) signed into law on October 21, 1998 does not apply to Medicaid.