9.10 Evaluation of Experience - Surveying

1. Work experience must be progressive and of an increasing standard of quality and responsibility. It should include field assignments, office assignments, researching records and property line surveying.