

Temporary Rule Delaying the Effective Date of Regulations Governing Utilization
Review Activities by Physicians

The effective date of Section XXXI, Regulations Governing Utilization Review Activities by Physicians shall be delayed from July 1, 2006, until January 31, 2007, to give the Board the opportunity to receive comments and suggestions from interested parties for possible amendments to the Regulation. Pursuant to Section 25-43-3.108 of the Mississippi Code, this temporary rule shall be in effect no longer than one hundred and twenty (120) days, but the Board retains the authority to extend the temporary rule for an additional period of ninety (90) days. This temporary rule shall become effective immediately, pursuant to Section 25-43-3.113(d) of the Mississippi Code.
