- (d) No Changes
- (e) No Changes
- (f) No Changes
- (g) ~~Prior to the expiration of the self-exclusion period, any self-excluded person who is an employee of a casino may request permission from the Commission to enter a specific casino to carry out the duties of employment in a non-gaming position only. Such requests must be made in writing by the human resources department of the casino and state with specificity the reason for the request along with employment documentation. Approval/denial of the request will be provided to the specified casino and to the excluded person making the request. The approval of this request is subject to rescission at any time by the Executive Director.~~
- (h) ~~Those persons who are currently self-excluded from one (1) or more casinos upon the effective date of these regulations and whose self-exclusion period has not yet expired shall continue to be self-excluded for the length of time remaining on their self-exclusion period. Said exclusion shall remain effective only for those casinos for which the person requested self-exclusion. At the end of the self-exclusion period, said person's name shall be removed from that casino's self-exclusion list, unless that person submits a request under the procedures set out in these regulations.~~

~~Those self-exclusion lists referenced above and maintained by the casinos under the prior regulation shall be given the same force and effect, where applicable, as the self-exclusion list provided for in these regulations, until all such persons' self-exclusion periods have expired.~~
