

MISSISSIPPI FAIR COMMISSION

SUBPART II - ADMINISTRATIVE RULES
CHAPTER 04 - General Rules

Solicitors and Peddlers.

100.01. When the State Fair is in progress, no person or organization may solicit money, votes or signatures, sell or distribute merchandise, including written materials, or engage in a protest, demonstration or political speech on the Fairgrounds, except from a booth or display area on the Fairgrounds assigned to him by the Commission. Such booths shall be assigned by the Commission on a "first come-first served" basis, with a rental charge based on the size and location of the booth. Such activities must be conducted within the confines of the assigned booth. This provision and §100.02 below do not apply to food or beverage sales.

100.02. When the State Fair is not in progress, no person or organization may solicit money, votes or signatures, sell or distribute merchandise, including written materials, or engage in a protest, demonstration or political speech until after he has registered with the Commission. Such person or organization may not conduct these activities in a building leased to a tenant or in the livestock barns. Such activities must be conducted at least 100 ft. from the building, or perimeter of the outdoor area, where the event is being held. No more than three persons may engage in such activities on behalf of the subject organization, political candidate or ideology being advocated.

Signs.

101. A sign, display or poster may be erected by a person or organization authorized by the Commission to be an exhibitor, vendor or building tenant on the Fairgrounds at his designated space or building during the subject event. Any person participating in a protest, demonstration or political speech on the Fairgrounds may carry a sign, display or poster no larger than nine sq. ft. in area in his hands or on his body during such activity. The Commission may operate its electronic sign at the High Street entrance to the Fairgrounds. Otherwise, no signs, displays or posters shall be allowed on the Fairgrounds.
