Notice is hereby provided that any Commission member may participate in any Commission meeting by teleconference or video means, in which event public access will be provided at the physical location of the meeting.
2. The commission may pretermite any meeting.
3. At all meetings the chairman, or in his or her absence the vice-chairman, shall preside and maintain decorum, ensuring the deliberate but expedient discharge of all business before the commission.
4. In all meetings the commission will comply with and follow the requirements of the Open Meetings Act, codified in Title 25, Chapter 41, Miss. Code of 1972.
5. The commission shall hold confidential sessions on all matters designated as confidential by the Ethics in Government Law, codified in Title 25, Chapter 4, Miss. Code of 1972.
6. Only commission members, commission staff members, attorneys for the commission, witnesses or other persons whose presence the commission deems necessary may attend confidential sessions. All other persons shall be excluded from the meeting area during confidential sessions.

Any document filed with the commission which contains trade secrets or confidential commercial or financial information subject to the protection of any applicable law or court decision shall be clearly designated as such on its face and accompanying cover letter at the time of filing and shall be placed in an envelope other than white. Each page of each document shall be marked confidential. Upon request to inspect or copy any document so designated, the commission shall notify the person who filed the document. Thirty (30) days after such notice, the document will be made available for public inspection or copying pursuant to the terms of this rule unless the filer shall have obtained a court order protecting such records as confidential pursuant to Section 25-61-9, Miss. Code of 1972.
 11. Any person filing documents with the commission shall, prior to filing, redact from the documents any social security numbers, account numbers or dates of birth. The commission shall determine on a case-by-case basis whether similar information may be redacted by the filer to prevent identity theft. In no event will the commission bear any responsibility for a filer's failure to redact such information which leads to or may lead to identity theft or other crime or loss.
 12. This chapter shall not apply to documents which relate to a confidential complaint as set forth in Section 25-4-19, Miss. Code of 1972, or a request for advisory opinion submitted pursuant to Section 25-4-17, Miss. Code of 1972.

Subject to the limitations otherwise provided in these rules, determinations such as whether the matters requested in discovery are relevant to the case, exculpatory, possible instruments of impeachment, and the like, may be made only by the party requesting or to receive the discovery.
- 23.6.6. Upon request of any person, the hearing officer may permit any showing of cause for denial or regulation of disclosures, or portion of such showing, to be made in camera. A record shall be made of such proceedings. If the hearing officer enters an order granting relief following a hearing in camera, the entire record of such hearing shall be sealed and preserved in the records of the hearing officer, to be made available to the circuit court in the event of an appeal.
- 23.6.7. If at any time prior to a hearing on the merits it is brought to the attention of the hearing officer that a party has failed to comply with an applicable discovery rule or an order issued pursuant thereto, the hearing officer may order such party to permit the discovery of material and information not previously disclosed, grant a continuance, or enter such other order as he or she deems just under the circumstances.
- 23.6.7.1. If during the course of a hearing on the merits, either party attempts to introduce evidence which has not been timely disclosed to the opposing party as required by these rules, and the opposing party objects to the introduction for that reason, the hearing officer shall act as follows:
- 23.6.7.1.1. Grant the opposing party a reasonable opportunity to interview the newly discovered witness, to examine the newly produced documents, photographs or other evidence; and
- 23.6.7.1.2. If, after such opportunity, the opposing party claims unfair surprise or undue prejudice and seeks a continuance or mistrial, the hearing officer shall, in the interest of justice and absent unusual circumstances, exclude the evidence or grant a continuance for a period of time reasonably necessary for the opposing party to meet the non-disclosed evidence.

23.6.7.1.3. The hearing officer shall not be required to grant a continuance for such a discovery violation if the party attempting to introduce such evidence withdraws its efforts to introduce the evidence.

23.6.8. Willful violation by an attorney or party of an applicable discovery rule or an order issued pursuant thereto may subject the attorney or party to appropriate sanctions by the hearing officer.

23.7. Subpoenas.

A subpoena will be issued during the hearing or on less than ten (10) days notice only upon order of the hearing officer for reasonable cause shown by the requesting party. Proof of service shall be filed with the commission.

23.8. Protective Orders.

23.8.1. Pursuant to the commission's authority granted in Section 25-4-19, upon motion by a party or by a person to whom a subpoena is directed, or from whom documents or testimony is sought, the hearing officer may enter a protective order quashing or modifying the subpoena for good cause shown.

23.9. Motions.

23.9.5. The moving party shall have five (5) calendar days after service of the opposing memorandum to serve and file a reply memorandum of authorities if he so desires.

23.9.6. If a motion or opposition is served by mail, three (3) calendar days shall be added to the time periods specified herein for response.

23.9.7. The failure of a moving party to file a memorandum of authorities in support of a motion shall constitute consent to the denial of the motion. The failure of an opposing party to file a memorandum of points and authorities in opposition to any motion shall constitute consent to the granting of the motion.

24. Hearing Phase

24.1. Conduct of Hearings.

24.1.1. Pursuant to Section 25-4-107, Miss. Code of 1972, hearings shall be conducted according to the Mississippi Rules of Civil Procedure and the Mississippi Rules of Evidence. The Mississippi Rules of Civil Procedure applicable to these hearings are Rules 42, 43, 50, 52 and 53. Other Mississippi Rules of Civil Procedure do not apply to these hearings.

24.1.2. The following procedures will apply when appropriate:

24.1.2.1. The respondent will be allowed to present and argue any legal objections to the complaint set forth in the answer; the commission staff may thereupon present its answering argument; and thereafter the respondent may present rebuttal argument. The matter will then be submitted to the hearing officer for decision. The hearing officer may rule upon such objections immediately or take the matter under advisement and proceed with the hearing.

24.1.2.2. The commission staff will present its opening statement on the merits. The respondent will then be permitted to make an opening statement of the defense, or he may reserve the same until commencement of the presentation of the defense.

- 24.1.2.3. The commission staff will then present its case in chief in support of the complaint.
- 24.1.2.4. Upon conclusion of the commission staff's case in chief, the respondent may move for dismissal of the complaint. The hearing officer may hear arguments on the motion, or may grant, deny, or reserve decision thereon, with or without argument.
- 24.1.2.5. If no motion to dismiss is made, or if such motion is denied or decision reserved thereon, the respondent shall thereupon present the case for the defense.
- 24.1.2.6. Upon conclusion of the respondent's case, the commission staff may present its case in rebuttal.
- 24.1.2.7. Upon conclusion of the commission staff's case in rebuttal, the commission staff shall present its closing argument, the respondent may present answering argument, and thereafter the commission staff may present rebuttal argument. Thereupon the matter will stand submitted for decision.
- 24.1.2.8. The hearing officer may ask questions of witnesses, and may request or allow additional evidence at any time, including additional rebuttal evidence.

24.2. Failure or Refusal to Testify.

- 24.2.1. If a respondent fails to testify in his own behalf or asserts a claim of privilege with respect to any question propounded to him, the hearing officer may infer therefrom that such testimony or answer would have been adverse to his case.
- 24.2.2. If any person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, or employed by, or an agent of, a respondent fails to respond to a subpoena, or asserts a claim of privilege with respect to any question propounded to him, the hearing officer may, taking into account all of the circumstances, infer that such testimony would have been adverse to the respondent.

24.3. Continuances.

- 24.3.1. Continuances shall not be granted by the hearing officer except for good cause shown.

24.4. Defaults.

24.4.1. Failure of a respondent to appear personally at a hearing on the merits without having obtained a waiver of appearance, shall constitute an admission of all matters and facts alleged against such respondent, and shall be deemed a waiver of the right to an evidentiary hearing. In such cases the hearing officer may take action based upon such admission or upon any other evidence, including affidavits, and without any further notices whatever to the respondent.

24.5. Recommendation of the Hearing Officer and Decision of the Commission.

24.5.1. All findings of fact made by the hearing officer shall be based upon clear and convincing evidence. The hearing officer shall reduce his recommendations to writing and submit those recommendations to the Commission. The hearing officer shall include written recommendations regarding penalties, if any. The hearing officer shall appear before the Commission upon request to participate in deliberation required to render a decision on the merits. The Commission can enter a final order dismissing the case, modifying the report and recommendation, or adopting the report and recommendation, or the Commission can enter an order remanding the case for further hearing.

25. Post-hearing phase

25.1. After conclusion of the hearing, the commission or any hearing officer appointed hereunder shall reduce its decision to writing and forward a certified copy thereof to the last known address of the respondent, the complainant and the executive director by way of United States first-class, certified mail, postage paid.

25.2. The cost of the preparation of the record of the proceedings for purpose of an appeal from a decision of the Ethics Commission shall be assessed to and prepaid by the party filing the notice of appeal in accordance with the Uniform Rules of Circuit and County Court. Such cost shall be paid upon filing the notice of appeal pursuant to Rules 5.04 and 5.09 of the Uniform Rules of Circuit and County Court.
