

LEGISLATIVE

*This is my stand. I will not retreat from it.
I will not compromise.*

— NOAH S. SWEAT, THE WHISKEY SPEECH —

Legislative

Article 4 of the Mississippi Constitution of 1890 creates a House of Representatives and a Senate jointly vested with lawmaking authority as well as the power of the purse, a provision that no money can be spent from the State’s treasury unless the Legislature passes a law to do so.

THE MISSISSIPPI LEGISLATURE

The 1890 Mississippi Constitution places sole law-making authority in the bi-cameral Legislature, which also has the power of the purse, a constitutional provision stipulating no money can be spent from the State's treasury unless the Legislature passes a law to do so. The Senate exercises advice and consent over appointments made by the Governor. The power of impeachment is vested solely in the House; the power to try impeachment lies in the Senate. The House has the duty to elect the Governor if no candidate receives a majority of both the popular vote and the electoral vote in the general election. There are currently 52 members of the Senate and 122 members of the House of Representatives.

Officers: The President and presiding officer of the Senate is the Lieutenant Governor; the second in command is the President Pro Tempore. The presiding officer of the House of Representatives is the Speaker of the House, a State Representative who is elected to the position by House members. The Speaker Pro Tempore is the second-ranking Representative.

Terms and Sessions: Legislators are administered the oath of office by the Secretary of State on the first day of the regular session of the year following election. The Constitution requires the Legislature to convene yearly on the Tuesday after the first Monday in January.

Volume of Legislation: During each regular session, the Legislature sends to the Governor more than 500 bills to be signed into law. Frequently, more than 100 of those bills involve the finance of state government (appropriations).

The Secretary of State's Office assigns chapter numbers to the bills, distributes copies according to law, publishes all bills in the General Laws volumes, and certifies the bills for legal proceedings as requested.

Rules: The Constitution stipulates that bills may originate in either chamber of the Legislature. It empowers each chamber to determine its own rules of procedure, although each is prohibited from adjourning for more than three days without the consent of the other chamber. Adjourning to places other than the House and Senate chambers is prohibited as well.

Each body adopts its own rules, although joint rules are adopted to govern legislative procedures that affect the orderly flow of bills between the houses.

Length of Session: The Constitution provides for legislative sessions to last no more than 90 days except for the first session of a new term, which may not exceed 125 days. Sessions may be extended by a two-thirds vote in both houses. When needed, the Governor may call a special session with a specific legislative focus. Numerous legislative committees also work between sessions on a wide variety of proposals. In addition, individual legislators often use the interim months to research and prepare bills for the next session. Members also work to help the citizens they represent.

Accountability: All proceedings in Senate and House journals are published by the Secretary of State. Moreover, the Constitution requires the doors of each chamber shall be open "except in cases which may require secrecy."

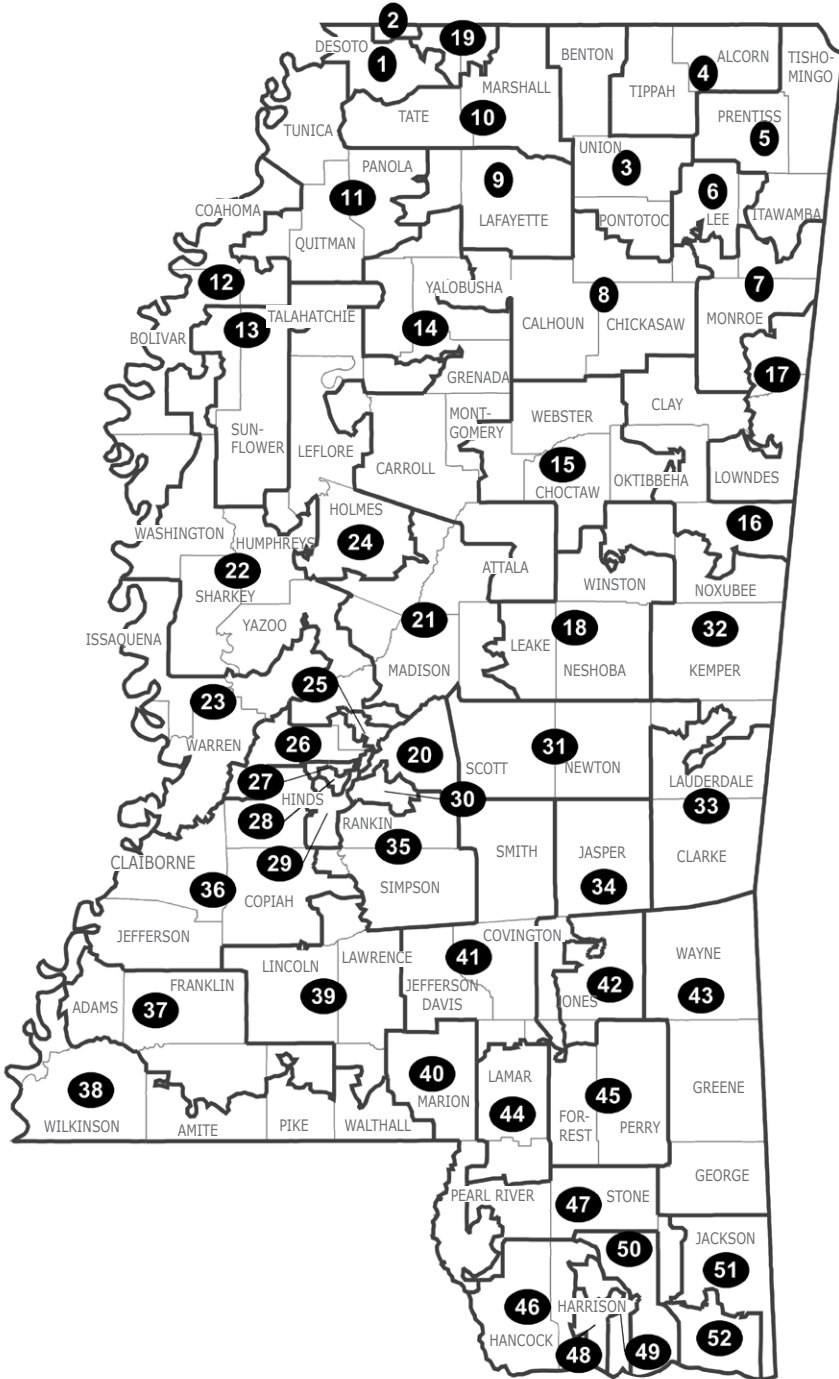

Redistricting: The Constitution requires the Legislature to draw new, contiguous state legislative districts every 10 years to reflect changes in population. No more than 52 Senatorial Districts and 122 House of Representative Districts are allowed. The Mississippi Legislature is also charged with the responsibility of drawing districts for the U.S. House of Representatives following each census. If the Legislature does not adopt the new legislative districts in the time allowed by the Constitution, a five-member commission consisting of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court as chairman, the Attorney General, the Secretary of State, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate must do so. Miss. Const. of 1890, Art. XIII, § 254. Miss. Code Ann. § 5-3-81 et seq. (1972).

MISSISSIPPI SENATE DISTRICTS

OFFICERS OF THE SENATE

President of the Senate
Delbert Hosemann
Lieutenant Governor
P.O. Box 1018
Jackson 39215
ltgov@senate.ms.gov
601-359-3200

Duties: Elected in a statewide campaign for a four-year term, the Lieutenant Governor serves as President of the Senate. In this role, the President of the Senate’s official duties include presiding over the Senate, ruling on points of order, nominating standing committees of the Senate, and appointing all select and conference committees as ordered by the Senate. The Lieutenant Governor is a member of the Senate Rules Committee, directs officers and employees of the Senate, votes only in cases of ties, speaks from the floor only while the Senate is in Committee of the Whole, and signs all finally approved bills and resolutions. The Lieutenant Governor only votes in case of a tie on the floor.

President Pro Tempore of the Senate
Dean Kirby
District 30
P. O. Box 1018
Jackson 39215
601-359-4089

Duties: Elected by the majority party caucus followed by confirmation of the entire Senate through a Senate Resolution, the President Pro Tempore presides over the Senate in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor in his role as President of the Senate.

The President Pro Tempore’s power is limited in that the Lieutenant Governor has the sole authority to appoint the chairmanships or vice chairmanships of various Senate committees. Unlike the President of the Senate, when the President Pro Tempore or any Senator is presiding in place of the President, he or she may cast a vote as they would typically do from his or her desk. However, in the instance of a tie, the vote fails.

 White

New Capitol, Rm. 308,
 Jackson 39201
 601-359-3208

Amanda Frusha
 White was elected as the Secretary of the Senate

in January 2024 following a four-year term as the appointed Assistant Secretary of the Senate. A native of Lumberton, Texas, she earned her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree in Marketing from Mississippi College.

Prior to working for the Senate, she served as Assistant Secretary of State for Education and Publications at the Secretary of State's Office. Amanda has worked in public service alongside Lieutenant Governor Delbert Hosemann in various capacities for 15 years of her career.

Senate Sergeant at Arms
Lieutenant Colonel Larry Waggoner

New Capitol, 3rd Floor,
 Jackson 39201
 601-359-3127

Lieutenant Colonel Waggoner has served as the Senate

Sergeant at Arms since 2022. He began his law enforcement career with the Mississippi Highway Patrol after graduating as president of his trooper school class in 1987. During his tenure as a state trooper, Waggoner was assigned to the Executive Protection Detail for the Governor and his family. Waggoner spent most of his career as an Agent with the Mississippi Bureau of Investigation. He served on the State Polygraph Board and as Director of the Criminal Information Center as he worked his way up through the ranks of MBI. In 1996, Waggoner completed extensive training at the FBI National Academy. In 2011, he was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel, Director of Mississippi Bureau of Investigation, and served in that position until retiring in 2016. Waggoner has since held leadership roles in multiple state agencies.

JOINT RULES FOR LEGISLATION

*Appropriation, revenue, and local and private bills, and bills to restore suffrage are excluded from these deadlines. For purposes of the deadlines herein set forth, the term “revenue bills” shall include only those bills whose primary purpose is to increase or decrease taxes or to authorize the issuance of bonds or the borrowing of money. Bills which are primarily for regulatory purposes which have revenue provisions included shall not be considered as revenue bills for deadline purposes. The deletion from a bill of the features which made it a revenue bill shall render the bill a general bill for deadline purposes.

Conference reports on all bills must be filed with the Secretary/Clerk no later than the time of adjournment on the day prior to being called up and considered. Appropriation bills which are actually appropriate money and are recommitted for further conference are excluded from the requirement that the subsequent conference report be filed and lay on table one (1) day before being considered; however, original action must be taken on all appropriation conference reports by 2:00 p.m. on the 84th/119th day and subsequent reports must be filed no later than 6:00 p.m.

Requests for general bills and constitutional amendments to be drafted must be made no later than 8:00 p.m. on the 9th/45th day. The Rules Committee of the House or Senate, as the case may be, may authorize any member of its respective house to make requests, for one or more general bills or constitutional to be drafted, after the expiration of the deadline for making such drafting requests but before the deadline for introduction of bills and constitutional amendments, upon a determination by the Rules Committee that such drafting requests are in response to conditions of an emergency nature arising subsequent to the deadline for making requests for general bills and constitutional amendments to be drafted.

+Committee reports and conference reports that are subject to being filed on these deadlines must be filed with the Secretary/Clerk no later than 8:00 p.m.

Whenever the word “day” appears in these rules, it shall mean calendar day.

The above schedule shall not be deviated from except by the passage of a concurrent resolution adopted by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the membership of the House and Senate present and voting.

HOW A BILL BECOMES A LAW

Drafting and Introduction. A bill must first be drafted in paper form. Legislative research and drafting offices are operated on a year-round basis in both the House and the Senate to assist the members with the necessary research and legal work involved in drafting bills in correct form.

Since the advent of annual sessions, a system of pre-filing has been instituted in both Houses. This means that bills may be written and introduced on an unofficial basis in the interim between sessions. For all practical purposes, the pre-filed bills are treated in the same manner as bills introduced when the Legislature is actually in session. At the time a member signifies that a bill is to be filed, it is placed on the Speaker's/President's desk for referral to Committee and, after referral, is given a number which it will retain throughout the legislative process. When the session convenes, the pre-filed bills are introduced officially into the records. Bills introduced after the session convenes are dropped into the "hopper" at the Clerk's/Secretary's desk. Bills must be typewritten on legal-sized paper, double-spaced, with the title and name of author or authors on the outside and must be introduced in original form.

Referred to Committee. Each bill is referred to one or more of the standing committees in the House or Senate for study and recommendation. In the regular order of business, the bills are read by title and number, and the committee to which it has been referred is announced. All bills are listed on a daily introduction list, entered in the bill docket and committee books, and copies are reproduced. The bill itself is placed in a jacket and put into the committee box.

Reported by Committee. The committee to which a bill has been referred reports its recommendations to the House or Senate. It may report the bill "Do Pass," "Do Pass As Amended," "Committee Substitute Do Pass," or it may report the bill "Do Not Pass," which has the effect of killing the bill unless a Minority Report is filed within three days by one or more of the members of the committee who were present at the meeting at which the bill was reported.

If a bill has not been reported by a committee after reference, a motion to withdraw the bill may be filed. When a bill has been reported favorably by a committee, it is placed on the calendar for House or Senate action. Separate divisions of the calendar are kept for bills reported by the appropriations, revenue, and local and private committees. Appropriations and Revenue bills have precedence over bills on the General Calendar.

The Legislature operates under a system of deadlines which sets the limits of time in which bills may be introduced, reported from Committee, acted upon originally in each House, amendments considered from the other House, and Conference Reports adopted. The deadlines are for the purpose of assuring an orderly flow of legislative action within the 90-day constitutional limitation of sessions. The first session of each administration has a limitation of 125 days, and the deadlines are adjusted for the additional time.

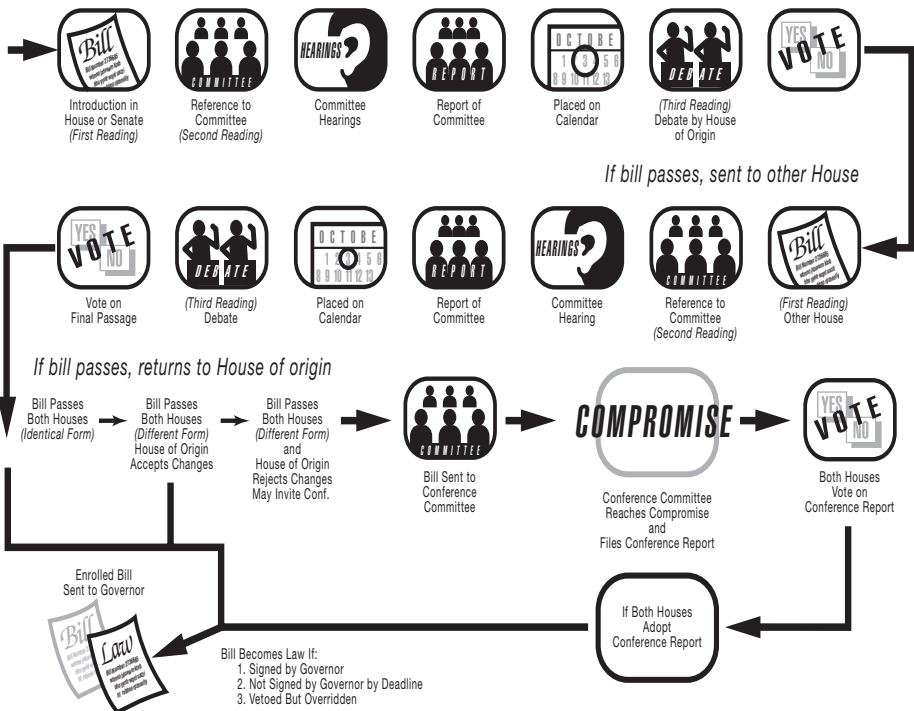

Consideration by House/Senate. When a bill comes up in its regular order on the calendar, it is usually called up and handled on the chamber floor by the Chairman of the Committee to which it has been referred. The bill is read and debated by the House or Senate, and, at this time, amendments may be proposed and either adopted or rejected. Other possible actions may be taken at this time — the bill may be recommitted to the committee for further study; it may be laid on the table, subject to call; it may be set for special order; or postponed to another date for action. An amendment to strike all after the enacting clause, if adopted, would kill the bill, or if a motion carried to indefinitely postpone the bill, it would be dead.

The Vote. A quorum must be present for the vote on the final passage of any measure. Bills of a general nature require a majority of those present and voting for passage; appropriation bills require a majority of the elected membership; revenue bills require a three-fifths majority of those present and voting; bills restoring suffrage or bills granting a donation or gratuity to any person require two-thirds of the elected membership. Adoption of Conference Reports or concurrence in Senate or House amendments require the same vote as was required for the original passage of the bill. After passage of a bill, it is subject to reconsideration for one whole legislative day. After the time has passed for reconsideration, any amendments that were adopted are engrossed into the bill, which is then sent to the other House.

House/Senate Action. When a bill reaches the other House, it goes through the same process of referral to Committee, report by Committee, and floor action. If a bill passes the other House without amendment, it is returned to the House of origin, enrolled, signed by the Speaker and the Lieutenant Governor, and presented to the Governor. If the other House adopts amendments to the bill, the bill and the accompanying amendments are returned to the House of origin, and the bill is placed on the calendar for concurrence or non-concurrence in the amendments of the other House. Should one House concur, the other is notified, the bill is engrossed, enrolled, and presented to the Governor. If one House declines to concur in the amendments of the other, it may request a conference to work out the differences between the two Houses. A conference committee is composed of three members from each House, and if the report of the conference committee is adopted by both Houses, the bill is engrossed, enrolled, and presented to the Governor.

Governor's Action. The Governor must either approve a bill or return it with objections to the House of its origin within five days (except Sundays) or it becomes law without his signature. (If the Legislature adjourns before the five days have expired, the Governor then has 15 days for consideration of the bill.) When a bill has been vetoed, the objections of the Governor are spread at large upon the Journal, it is reconsidered, and, if two-thirds of those present and voting vote in favor of the bill, it is forwarded to the other House. If two-thirds of that House vote in favor of its passage over the Governor's veto, the bill then becomes a law.

The above steps in the passage of a bill are a simplified example of the parliamentary procedure involved in legislation. The process seems very complex, but a knowledge of the rules and procedures and actual experience in observing a legislature in action help in understanding that the rules and procedures are to provide thorough study and debate of measures before they become law.
