Re: Certification of Alderman Tie Breaker

Dear Sir/Madam

This letter is to certify that due to a tie between Martha Biggs and James (Kissum) Grisham for the office of alderman, we the Election Commissioners set a meeting for 5:45 p.m. on Wednesday June 7, 2017 for the two candidates to meet and agree on the method of resolving the tie based upon Mississippi Code 23-15-611. The two candidates received 304 votes each.

Those who were present were the City of Iuka Election Commissioners, Nancy Brown, Joyce Lambert, Sue Scott, City Clerk Benny Gray, Randy Stringer, Cheri Bullard, John Castleberry, Joel Robertson, City Attorney Nathaniel Clark, John Kent, and Sherry Gwatney, the two candidates, Martha Biggs and James (Kissum) Grisham.

Both candidates agreed to the process of having drawn, one of their names from a container (box) and agreed that the name drawn would be the winner of the 5th (fifth) position for the City of Iuka Board of Alderman.

The name of James (Kissum) Grisham was drawn out of the container (box) by Cheri Bullard and witnessed by John Kent and others present who are registered voters of the City of Iuka.

Therefore we the City of Iuka Election Commissioners certify that James (Kissum) Grisham is the winner of the tie breaker and winner of the election for the office of alderman, as his name was fairly and publicly drawn.

Sincerely,

Nancy Brown, Election Commissioner -

Joyce Lambert, Election Commissioner

Sue Scott, Election Commissioner

AFFIDAVIT

COMES NOW we, James Grisham and Martha Biggs, qualified candidates for Alderperson for the City of Iuka, Mississippi, do both freely, willingly and voluntarily agree that we agree that our vote totals are equal at 304, and that, further, we agree to settle this tie by having a disinterested person draw a name from a container one time and whosoever's name is selected, shall be announced the fifth Alderperson and victor of this election.

James Grisham

Martha Biggs
